Chapter 142

Bella's POV:

In the evening, I took a shower and went to bed in my pajamas, but I couldn't fall asleep.

I missed Herbert so much.

There seemed to be his scent on the pillow, and my yearning for him was like vines that grew wildly.

I really wanted to put on my clothes and go to his house immediately to hug and kiss him.

But I had to endure it.

Half a month would soon pass. I must persevere!

Just then, my phone suddenly rang. I immediately picked it up. It was a call from Herbert.

I hesitated for a moment, but still couldn't help answering the phone. "Are you asleep?" There came a deep and pleasant voice from the other end of the phone.

I was silent for a moment. "Didn't we agree that we wouldn't meet for half a month?"

He hesitated for a moment before saying, "You just said that we can't meet each other. You didn't say we can't talk on the phone."

He found the loophole in my words. I missed him very much and wanted to hear his voice very much, so I decided not to think about it. "I can't fall asleep." I looked out of the window at the starry sky, and my longing for Herbert deepened. "I can't sleep either. I miss you. But I haven't dealt with my matter, so I can only call you and listen to your voice." Herbert's voice sounded a little lonely.

My heart ached for a moment, and soon I said with a smile, "Has Mr. Herbert learned to show weakness and pretend to be pitiful?"

"I'm really pitiful! I'm not lying." Herbert's tone was soft.

Herbert had never showed his weakness. I was not used to it.

"You're not pitiful because you're having an affair with two women at the same time." I said sarcastically with a smile.

"Don't make fun of me. I've never been so anxious. It's all because of you," Herbert said self deprecatingly.

"I'm afraid it's not because of me." I said. I had given him time to deal with his relationship with other women. During this time, I wouldn't interfere with him. Therefore, the person who could make Herbert so anxious was Caroline! "If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have so many concerns. Time will wear down Caroline and my relationship. But I don't have much time now. For you, I have to solve these problems." Herbert suddenly became serious.

I am afraid that you are unhappy afraid that you misunderstand me and afraid that will 14:09D So I will deal with my relationship with Caroline as soon as possible." said Herbert. I was silent. I knew that Herbert was very anxious now, but if we continued to love each other, this problem must be solved.

Herbert had already found a way to solve it, so I didn't intend to urge him at the moment. After a minute of silence, I asked, "How's Caroline doing now?" "The situation has stabilized. The doctor said that she could be discharged from the hospital after two more days of observation. When she leaves the hospital, I will tell her clearly and send her back to America to continue her treatment." Herbert replied. "What if... she doesn't want to go back to America?" I asked tentatively. Although I had never gotten along with Caroline.

But I knew that Caroline wouldn't give up on Herbert so easily.

After remaining silent for a few seconds, he said seriously, "If she isn't willing to return to the U.S. for treatment, I won't see her again. In the future, apart from paying her rent, I won't offer her any assistance. Even if she goes sick again, I won't go to the hospital to see her. However, I've known her for many years, so I can't bear to see her completely down. I'll have Connor arrange everything for her!"

Herbert's firm attitude comforted me, and I even had some pity for Caroline. But this kind of pity did not affect my attitude. If it weren't for her, perhaps I wouldn't have lost my child, or maybe my child would have survived. Thinking of this, I was very depressed! "Are you still... not satisfied with what I'm doing? If you..." His words immediately brought my consciousness back to reality. I quickly interrupted him. "No!! just suddenly miss Lucas." Speaking about Lucas, the atmosphere on the phone suddenly became warm. "In the past few months, Lucas has been growing very fast. He can walk on his own, and he can say a word or two." Herbert's tone became softer and softer. "Really? I'll visit him in a few days. Do you think Lucas will still know me?" I was very excited because I hadn't seen him for a long time. "He must know you." Herbert laughed. I looked at my watch. It was already midnight, so I reminded him, "It's getting late. Go to rest. You have to go to work and take care of the patient tomorrow. It's very hard!" Herbert laughed and said, "You're jealous." "I'm hanging up." After that, I hung up the phone. I was definitely jealous to have him take care of his ex-girlfriend. After all, he was the one I love.

I promised Herbert that I would give him some time.

At least for half a month, I would try my best to control my emotions.

Ring... Ring...

The next moment, the phone rang again, and it was still Herbert.

jal

1400D "I want to have a good night kiss, or I can't sleep." Herbert was actually shameless. "Mr. Wharton, are you a kid?" | teased him. In the past, he was overbearing and stubborn. He would never listen to me. Now he was soft. He cared about my thoughts and expressed his love to me. I was very surprised. It turned out that he had the same feeling. My feelings for him deepened a little.

"If you don't give me a kiss, I won't hang up tonight." Herbert threatened with a smile.

"I can hang up directly." I teased him with a smile. "I'll continue to call you!" He said with a smile on the other end. "I choose to turn off my phone." I deliberately bickered with him. This feeling was very interesting. Herbert didn't continue to speak. I thought he would admit defeat. "Why aren't you speaking?" I asked. "I'm putting on my clothes." Herbert replied.

"Why are you putting on your clothes?" It was midnight, so he should take off his clothes and sleep. "I have no choice. If you turn off your phone, I can only put on my clothes and go to you." Herbert's tone was serious. Was he really going to look for me? My heart suddenly tensed up...

Chapter 143

Bella's POV:

"Don't come! It's not time yet." I shouted into the phone.

"I just want to have a goodnight kiss. If you don't give it to me, I'll go to your house to ask for it." Herbert was like a willful child.

I immediately said, "Okay, I compromise. I've decided to send you a goodnight kiss through the phone."

Herbert's laughter suddenly sounded from the other end of the line.

Hearing this laughter, I felt that I had been fooled. "Are you just joking?" After a moment of silence, he suddenly said seriously, "No, I really will do that." I quickly kissed hard on my phone. After the kiss through the phone, we didn't say anything. I could hear his heartbeat and breathing through the phone. At this moment, I missed Herbert even more. I really wanted to hug him and kiss him.

"Bella!" Herbert called out to me. "Hmm?" I replied.

"I love you!" Herbert's pleasant voice came again.

I was stunned. This was definitely the first time he had said that he loved me.

This sentence was a sacred ritual in my heart.

Because it meant that the feelings Herbert had for me were real.

Although he used his actions and other words to show me that he loved me very much.

But I was still eager for him to say 'Bella, I love you directly. After a brief moment of surprise, I was suddenly moved and wanted to cry. I waited for this sentence for too long. I thought that he would say this on a very formal occasion, but I didn't expect that it was just a normal time and a normal phone call. It was completely unexpected. Happiness suddenly enveloped me! I was so happy that I forgot to respond. "Are you still there?" Herbert asked.

"I'm here." I nodded.

"Did you hear what I just said?" asked Herbert.

"Yes." I nodded again.

D**n it, I was so excited that I didn't know how to respond to him. Perhaps I should reply 'I love you'? I took a deep breath and was about to say this when he said, "Rest early, good night!" "Good night." I replied.

14:090 Then he hung up the phone. I leaned on the pillow and looked at my phone screen. "The call ended so quickly. I didn't have time to respond to you!"

After that, I covered my head with the blanket in annoyance...

The next morning, I was focusing on my resume when Amy called me. "Amy, is there something wrong?" I was a little worried about her.

Amy should be at work at this time. If there was nothing else, she would not call me.

Could it be that Selina was making trouble for her again? I was worried about Amy. "Bella, I have good news for you. Selina has been fired." Amy's voice was very low, but I could tell that she was very excited. "Do you know why?" I asked Amy. Amy replied, "It's said that she made a mistake in her work. I don't know the specific mistakes. I guess she must have offended boss. Boss doesn't like her at all."

"Ever since she became the financial manager, she had been delaying many the payment for the claims. Many of the employees are complaining. I'm sure Boss already knows about it!" I smiled and said, "I don't care about her. This is definitely good news for you. You can work at ease in the future." "That's true. I don't have to be bullied by her anymore. Bella, I've been depressed recently." Amy complained.

I comforted her with a smile.

I didn't expect that Klein would dismiss her so quickly. It seemed that the little notebook I wrote at that time was of important use. Amy continued, "When she packed up her things and left, she was very angry. She also kicked the door, but she didn't expect that the quality of the door was so good that her branded high heels were broken! Many colleagues in the company who had been made trouble by her came to watch the fun. By the way, her relative, Vivian, didn't help her this time." I was not interested in other people's private affairs. I was just happy for Amy. After all, she could work at ease in the future. After that, Amy told me a piece of breaking news, which made me very surprised. "I heard that QW Law Firm is going to change its name." Amy was very excited today. "Why change?" I asked in confusion. Although QW Law Firm had only been established for a few years, it had accumulated some fame. Why did Klein suddenly change the name of the law firm? At this time, Amy's voice became a little softer. "I heard that Boss and Vivian are breaking up. Vivian gave the company's name back then. If they really broke up, this name would not be appropriate. I heard that Boss wants to change the name of QW Law Firm to Klein Law Firm!"

I couldn't help but frown. Klein and Vivian had been dating for many years and had never broken up.

Did this break-up have something to do with me?

I really didn't have any romantic relationship with Klein. Could it be that Vivian misunderstood me?

Although I didn't have a good impression of Vivian, I would still feel a little guilty if they broke up because of me.

"Bella, someone is coming. I'll call you next time." Then Amy hung up the phone. After putting down the phone, I thought for a long time, but in the end, I gave up the idea of calling Klein.

Right now, I should stay far away from Klein, so that no one else would misunderstand me.

Chapter 144

Bella's POV:

That afternoon, I went to visit Lucas. He knew how to walk. When he saw me, he was very happy. He gave me a big apple. I didn't know if he still remembered me. I heard that the baby's memory would not last long. But Lucas was still very friendly to me. I spent the whole afternoon playing with Lucas. It was not until evening that I was ready to leave. But Lucas was holding on to my clothes with his chubby little hands. He didn't want me to leave.

"Don't... don't... go!"

Although I was reluctant to leave Lucas, I had no reason to stay and take care of him. I could only try my best to comfort him.

I hugged him, kissed his cheeks, and promised to visit him often in the future.

Lucas seemed to understand what I said and didn't continue to make noise.

He returned to Gary's arms. Then, I walked to the door.

Walking out of the villa, I looked through the black hollow iron door and saw that Gary was holding Lucas.

I was a little sad.

In order to restrain my emotions, I immediately turned around and prepared to take a taxi to leave. At this time, a black car drove toward me, and the setting sun covered it with a layer of golden light. That car belonged to Herbert.

My heart beat faster.

Then, the car stopped in front of me. When the door opened, a man in a black windbreaker walked quickly to me. "I know that you'll come to see Lucas today." Herbert looked at me and said excitedly. "Why do you know I'm coming today?" I asked him. I didn't expect to run into him. To be honest, I was very surprised. Herbert reached out to hold my shoulder, gently pinched my nose, and said gently, "Today is Friday. You know that every Friday afternoon, the Wharton Group will hold a management meeting, so you definitely won't meet me during this time, right?" I didn't answer. I just lowered my head with a smile. He had already seen through my thoughts. Indeed, it was because the Wharton Group was going to hold a formal meeting this afternoon, and Herbert definitely wouldn't show up. That was why I chose to come and see Lucas today.

Heinonahawanand nationen aval alallicamente abandalawan. atida bu inaboe...

14:09D already dealt with the relationship between you and Caroline?" I looked at Herbert. "We've been complying with our agreement, but we met by chance today, right?" Herbert asked with a smile.

"No. You did it on purpose." I said seriously.

The next moment, he hugged me and stroked my hair with his warm hands. "I miss you so much. I can only go against the rules and come here to try my luck to meet you. I'm lucky!" "Is today's meeting over?" Although he violated our agreement, I did not blame him. Because I missed him very much and wanted to see him.

Herbert said with a smile, "The previous meeting began at three o'clock in the afternoon. I scheduled the meeting to two o'clock today, so it ended at five o'clock. If I had come another minute later, I wouldn't have been able to see you. Fortunately, I arrived one minute earlier."

I grabbed his collar and teased him with a smile. "Should I be leaving now?"

"Can you stay with me for another two minutes?" Herbert pleaded.

I didn't intend to leave immediately, so I agreed directly. "Okay, I'll leave in two minutes."

After a while, Herbert suddenly said, "Caroline has been discharged from the hospital. I have booked a plane ticket for her to England in three days. I will quickly deal with everything and then return to your side!"

I was moved by his words.

In fact, Herbert was a responsible man. There were too many misunderstandings between us in the past.

The fact that he had taken good care of Caroline also showed that he was a responsible, kind man.

I hugged him tightly. His chest was like a heavy mountain worthy of my support.

A sense of happiness and a sense of security that I have never had before enveloped me, making me feel very satisfied.

As we hugged, time seemed to have come to a standstill. I closed my eyes, silently feeling his strong arms, listening to his strong heartbeat, until the sun completely fell at the foot of the mountain, and the night completely came. This place was remote, and almost no one had passed by, so no one disturbed us. Because I couldn't find a taxi, I could only be sent home by Herbert. Connor sat in the driver's seat, focused on driving, while I sat in the back seat with Herbert. I leaned in his arms, my heart filled with happiness,

"It's all your plan, isn't it? I wouldn't be able to find a taxi if you delay until night, so I can only ask you to take me home." I complained with a smile.

Herbert laughed smugly. "This is Lucas's ability to keep you here until it's almost dark." My heart softened even more when he mentioned Lucas. "Lucas has changed a lot. He can not only walk, but also hold me in his arms. He won't let me go. He will also say some words. He said don't...

go."

"I'm very happy that you're so fond of Lucas. Next time, I'll teach him how to call you mother." Herbert held my waist and smiled.

I was stunned for a moment. Then I asked, "Who is Lucas's mother?"

In fact, in my heart, I really had an impulse to be Lucas's mother.

I was still imagining the scene of how Lucas called me mother in my mind. If the child really recognized me as his mother, I would definitely raise him up in the future.

Bride of Mr. Billion

Chapter 145

Bella's POV:

"Of course it's you! I'm the father of Lucas. Of course, you're his mother." Herbert said very naturally. I smiled and rolled my eyes. "I won't be easily fooled by you." He wanted me to be his wife without a proposal? Impossible. "Although you can refuse me, I know you can't refuse Lucas." Herbert looked at me affectionately.

He was right. Lucas was so cute. I couldn't refuse him.

At this time, the car slowly stopped at the side of the road.

I turned to look out of the window and said with a smile, "I'm here!"

I was about to open the door.

However, Herbert grabbed my wrist and pulled me back.

"You can't break your promise!" I whispered. "We have to keep our promise. You haven't finished settling Caroline's matter yet. The agreement is still there."

"Who said I would break my promise?" After that, Herbert suddenly grabbed my face with both hands.

His lips left a gentle kiss on my forehead.

I looked up at him. His hand was loosening my head, allowing me to regain my freedom. "Is that... okay?" I asked.

After all, with his character, it was impossible for him to only be satisfied with the kiss on my forehead today

"If you want more, I can give it to you." Herbert teased me.

I gently pounded his chest and quickly got out of the car.

I was very satisfied and reached out to touch my forehead. It seemed that there was still his lingering warmth.

After all, this kiss would accompany me for the rest of time. Just now, did Herbert say that he had booked a plane ticket for Caroline to England in three days? If so, could we be together every day after four days?

Thinking of this, I was very happy. But I was also a little worried. What if Caroline was unwilling to leave in three days? Just as I was thinking about these things, someone suddenly ran over and scared me. "Where did you go? Why did you come back so late?" Joey asked me. "Are you trying to scare me to death? Why don't you turn on the light and make a sound? By the way, why are you here?" I covered my chest and said. "I called you several times, but you didn't answer. You suddenly disappeared. I almost called the police!" Joey complained. I immediately took out my phone from my bag. Sure enough, my phone was on silent mode. "Lucas took a nap in the afternoon. I was afraid that he would be woken up by a phone call, so I 14:10 turned it into silent mode.” I said as I turned off the silent mode on my phone.

“I’m very hungry. I was waiting for you to go out for dinner when you come back. Let’s go!” Joey picked up her bag and pushed me out I frowned. “Why are we going out to eat? I’m currently jobless. I have to save some money.” “It’s my treat today. I have good news for you.” Joey pulled me out of the door. “What good news?” I asked in surprise. “Guess?” Joey pretended to be mysterious.

I looked at her and said, “You look very happy. I guess you have a boyfriend?” Joey shook her head. “No, I don’t have a boyfriend.” “I can’t guess why you’re so happy.” I shook my head. After we got in the car, Joey finally said, “That b***h quit her job!!” “Caroline?” I asked. “Of course it’s her. Not only did she resign, but she was also said to have been hospitalized some time ago. There’s something wrong with her health. She’s going to go to Europe soon.” “By the way, this is also good news for you. She won’t make things difficult for you and Herbert again!” Joey was extremely excited. “Who told you that?” I asked. “The company paid for Caroline’s wages today!” Joey replied. It seemed that what Herbert said was true. This time, Caroline would definitely leave.” My mood suddenly improved a lot. “She should be going to England in three days.” I nodded. “You know about it?” Joey’s eyes widened.

“Yes, Herbert booked a plane ticket for her to go to England in three days.” I nodded. Joey hit me and complained, “Why didn’t you tell me earlier? If I had known that the b***h was leaving, I would have been happy earlier. I was almost driven crazy by her these days!” “Herbert just told me.” I said.

“Anyway, I’m still very happy now. The b***h won’t make trouble for me in the future. No one will ruined the relationship between you and Herbert. How about we drink and celebrate today?” I refused. “You can drink because tomorrow is the weekend. I can’t. I have to continue to prepare my resume tomorrow!”

Joey tugged at my arm and begged, “No, you’ll drink with me!” “No!” I continued to refuse. “I’ve been accompanying you for so long at the risk of being expelled by boss. I just want you to accompany me once, if not, I’ll ignore you in the future!” I knew Joey was pretending to be angry, but I was still willing to coax her. “Okay, I’ll accompany you this time.”

Bride of Mr.Billion

Chapter 146

Bella’s POV:

That night, Joey and I did drink a lot.

We slept until noon the next day.

I sat up in my pajamas, touched my messy long hair, glanced at Joey, and complained, "Half a day has passed, and my resume is not ready yet."

"You don't need to find a job! You're about to become the wife of the president of the Wharton Group. In the future, your job will be to take care of boss." Joey said with her eyes closed. "You've woken up a long time ago. Stop pretending to be asleep!" I threw a pillow at her. Joey reached out to block the pillow, then sat up with a smile and teased, "I'm telling the truth. If I were you, I would only want to be a rich wife without working. I would only think of which beauty salon to go to today, what bag to buy tomorrow, and go to the gym the day after tomorrow. Unfortunately, I'm not you, I'm not the president's wife!" I smiled and said, "You might marry a rich man!" "I hope your prophecy is true. From now on, I will pray to God at home every day." Joey made a prayer gesture.

I got off the bed and said, "Stop talking nonsense. I have to continue to edit the resume, and then I have to go out today."

"It's the weekend. You can rest." Joey frowned.

I opened the wardrobe and looked for clothes. "I can't wait for an opportunity. I must find a job on my own initiative and then work hard to earn money." Although Herbert was my husband, he was a rich man with a lot of money. His money was enough for me not to worry about life. But I didn't want to be completely attached to him, I needed my life and work. "You go ahead. I'm going to continue sleeping." After that, Joey laid down again. I changed my clothes and began to edit my resume after breakfast. There was a reply from a few companies I submitted my resume to. Some of the companies said that someone was on duty on weekends, so I could go for an interview.

Recently, the national financial situation was not good, and it was difficult to find jobs, especially for large companies with very high recruitment requirements. Although I had some experience, there was still two companies that turned me down, and I was not satisfied with the conditions and working hours of the other two companies. So I didn't gain anything for the time being. I was tired of wearing high heels. On the bustling streets in the city center, I sat on a row chair for passers-by to rest.

I wasn't satisfied with the big companies. Should I go to a small company to have a try?

The two companies I worked for was considered a big company, and the salary and benefits were very good. There was also room for appreciation.

14:11D If I went to a small company, the company would definitely not be as good as a big company, and its appreciation would be limited.

But I couldn't stop now. Although I had a tens of thousands of dollars from the compensation now, I still felt nervous if I didn't have a job. So I had to find a job first. Just then, a pair of exquisite high heels suddenly appeared in front of me. I thought they were passers-by, but the owner of the pair of high heels almost stepped on my feet.

Obviously, the owner of the high heels was deliberately provoking me. I looked up at the owner of the pair of golden high heels!

It was a very beautiful face, delicate makeup, beautiful curly hair, golden earrings on her ears, a red hide coat on her body. She was holding a Chanel handbag in her hand.

“You don’t recognize me?” Her tone was mean, and there was obvious disdain in her eyes.

I thought I was too unlucky to meet her.

I sneered and said, “I’m not familiar with you, and I have nothing to do with you, so we don’t have to chat at all.”

Since the last time she slapped me and Herbert took back the compensation and signed the agreement, I had nothing to do with Vivian.

But it seemed that she was still very hostile to me, but I didn’t care about her attitude toward me. “Nothing to do with you? If it weren’t for you, how could I break up with Klein? I don’t know what method you used to make both Klein and Herbert so fascinated with you. Even their original cooperation agreement was invalid because of you. You b***h!” Vivian angrily accused me of my crime, and her tone was agitated. I couldn’t help frowning. Did Klein and Vivian really break up? It was true that the two of them were fighting in the hospital because I had lost my hearing. But I thought they had already reconciled. I didn’t expect them to end their cooperation. Contract? Right. Just a while ago, the Wharton Group had signed a contract with the QW Law Firm and asked QW Law Firm to be the legal representative of the Wharton Group. But the contract had already taken effect. When did the contract become invalid? I really didn’t know anything about these things. I frowned and stood up, trying to explain to Vivian, “There is no ambiguous behavior between Klein and I. It’s very unworthy for you to break up with him for me. The person I love is Herbert, and it has always been him!”

“But Klein has already fallen in love with you!” Vivian shouted at me.

Vivian’s voice was very loud and emotional, which attracted many people’s attention.

Vivian continued, “I really hope that everything is in my imagination. However, he admitted it. Maybe you didn’t have s*x with him, but you must have had intimate contact with him. Whether you did it on purpose or not, you seduced him and made him fall in love with you!”

“If you think so, then I have no choice. Sorry, I have to go first!” I didn’t want to communicate with Vivian.

Chanut all the hlanta on me as a tool to vant her emotions

14:11 I bent down, took the resume from my chair, and turned to leave. “Bella, you are a third party who has ruined other people’s relationship. You will definitely go to hell!” Vivian shouted behind me.

I frowned and didn’t stop walking. I knew that Vivian was very upset, but Klein dared to admit that he fell in love with me. It was entirely because of me that they broke up. I didn’t believe it.

There were many reasons why a couple broke up. The relationship between them was their own business. Even if Klein truly fell in love with me, it wasn’t the result I wanted. When I first found out that he had a crush on me, I had already drawn a line.

Chapter 147

Bella’s POV

That night, I stared at my phone for a long time.

I wanted to call Herbert and ask him about the relationship between Klein and Vivian. But I was worried that he might misunderstand and the situation would get worse,

Now, not only did Vivian think that there was something going on between Klein and I, but Herbert also minded if I continued to interact with him. No matter how I explained it, it didn’t change, so I chose to remain silent.

Right at this moment...

The phone rang.

I took the phone and found it was a message from Herbert.

“I missed you so much that I couldn’t fall asleep, so I sent you a message. It isn’t against the rules, is Seeing this message, I couldn’t help laughing.

Since when did the overbearing Herbert become obedient? In my impression, he had always been a savage and strong man.

Now, he even apologized and asked me. “It’s not against the rules.” I replied.

“How are you doing today?” asked Herbert. Theld my phone and felt very happy. The scene of holding the phone and sending messages seemed to have brought me back to my first love many years ago. “Last night, Joey and I drank too much and we slept for the whole morning. Then I went out to find a job in the afternoon.” Herbert replied, "You went drinking at night? And you're drunk? What if something happens?" I immediately replied, "Nothing would happen. The city's security is very good." After sending the message, there was no reply for a long time. I thought he was angry. The phone beeped again, and the message came again. This time, I was a little angry when I saw his reply. "The security of the city is indeed very good, but I'm worried that you would simply take someone to a hotel as you did last time." "It was an accident last time." I immediately replied.

"I'm just afraid that something unexpected will happen in the future."

Seeing this, I thought for a moment and typed back. "Of course I won't be that stupid in the future." "You're lucky!" "If it weren't for that accident, we wouldn't have had such a story."

14:11D "So there can not be other accidents. I am an exception."

"You are really overbearing."

"Any man will be overbearing to his woman. What, you don't like it?"

"So what if I like it? So what if I don't like it?"

"If you like it, I will continue to be overbearing. If you don't like me, I will continue to be overbearing until you like me."

"You're so annoying!" The atmosphere of the chat had completely changed. It was warm and lingering. I felt very happy. "How was your work today?" Herbert suddenly changed the subject. I typed a few lines and complained. "Right now, big companies don't recruit any accountants. The ones that recruit are all small ones. Their salary and future are not very promising, so I want to continue to look for a job. If there is no other way, I will find a small company to work in first."

"Considering the economy is declining, and large companies are retrenching their employees. Of course they won't recruit new accountants. The small companies are very active, so they will recruit new accountants." "I suggest you find another job after you get the CPA certificate. It will be after the new year, and the economy will probably get better. And after the company turnover at the end and the beginning of the year, the major companies will probably recruit a group of people to work. You would have a CPA certificate by then and it would increase your chances." Herbert suggested. Although I thought that he was right, I still frowned. "It will take two months for the major companies to open after the new year? I can't stand it even if I don't have a job for two months. It'll be boring. I'll find a job to do first." "How would it be boring? We can get married. You can be a full-time wife for two months." When I saw this message, I couldn't help but widen my eyes. What did he mean? Was he proposing? It just felt very casual. Although we had been married once, the meaning of this marriage was completely different from last time. The last time we got married was because of our child. This time, it was because of love. "Why aren't you talking?" Maybe he hadn't received my reply for a long time, so he sent another message. I hurriedly replied. "No, I went to the toilet." "I thought you were scared!"

"What am I afraid of?" "Afraid of marrying me." "What a joke. I've already married you once." "In that case, let's get married as soon as possible." Seeing this, my heart beat faster. I was not ready to get married to Herbert immediately. I still needed some time to get used to it. Moreover, how could I let him succeed so quickly? I didn't want to agree so soon.

14:11

I immediately changed the subject. "I'm talking about work with you. Why did you change the subject?"

"It's indeed a job, the position of the president's wife." "I'm not interested in this position."

"Then be my wife."

"Is there any difference?"

"Anyway, this position must be yours."

"I must work in the future."

"I didn't say that I wouldn't allow you to work part-time. In the future, your job will be the wife of Herbert, and you can choose your own side job."

"I can consider that." I replied with a smile. "But if you insist on looking for a side job, I have a suggestion." "What suggestion?" I was interested in this. "Go back to work at the Wharton Group!" Seeing this, I immediately rejected it. "I don't want to be your colleague!"

"Then be my subordinate."

"What's the difference?"

We kept sending each other messages like this, one sentence after another. We didn't fall asleep until late at night.

The next day, at ten o'clock in the morning, I woke up. It was all his fault. He had been chatting with me last night until three o'clock in the morning. I took the phone and found that there were dozens of messages on it, all of which were sent by Herbert

I read the text messages one by one, and the feeling of happiness suddenly enveloped me completely “Why aren’t you speaking?” “Say something?” “Are you asleep?” “You fell asleep?” “Then I’ll go to bed.” “Good night!”

Chapter 148

Bella’s POV:

These were the texts sent to me by Herbert this morning.

“Are you awake?” “Still sleeping?” “Baby, are you up?” “I’m going to work.” “I’ve already arrived at the company.” “I’ve already finished the morning meeting.” “I’ve already read several documents.”

I knew that Herbert was a cold and silent person. I didn’t expect that he would send me dozens of text messages. I smiled and felt very surprised.

Was he the Herbert I knew?

Although I was suddenly surrounded by happiness, I still sent such a text message. “I’m already up. I’m going out to find a job.” I had finished sending the message. I had to work as soon as possible for the next few days.

Ring! Then a text message came in. I read it and couldn’t help frowning.

“Okay.”

I thought he would pester me to say a few more words, but I didn’t expect his reply is so simple.

I changed my clothes and left home. A few days later, I finally found a new job in a small clothing company, which asked me to work next Monday

After the interview, I went to the supermarket to buy some food and then went home. I made an appointment to celebrate with Joey in the evening. Although I was not very satisfied with this job, it was a new beginning. I took out my key and tried to open the door. When I looked up, I saw a figure in a black fur coat standing at the door.

I was stunned, and then I asked excitedly, “Why... are you here?”

]: “I just sent Caroline to the airport, and then immediately came to see you.” Herbert stared at me, his eyes full of affection,

Caroline finally left! Was there no longer any obstacle between us? "You... have been waiting for a long time?" I looked down at several cigarette butts lying on the ground.

"Why didn't you call me?" I asked.

"I want to see what kind of expression you have when you suddenly see me." Herbert reached out and pulled me into his arms.

I chuckled and raised my head to look into his beautiful eyes. "Are you satisfied?" I asked.

"I'm not satisfied." Herbert shook his head slightly.

"What should I do to make you satisfied?" I laughed even more happily.

He reached out and held my face. He lowered his head and whispered in my ear, "I want you." His warm breath sprayed on my ear, and I instantly felt the hot breath surrounding me. "You're so annoying." I was a little shy.

"Bella, I really miss you." His big warm hands stroked my back, and his voice became lower and lower.

I pushed him away and opened the door with the key.

After entering the door, he hugged me. His cheek was against mine. I could almost feel his breath... His chest was really warm, and his arms were very strong. Blissfulness and a sense of security made me very happy. If I could be held by him for the rest of my life, how blissful would that be! At this time, I felt his touch under my clothes, and his fingers were touching my chest. "Don't... it's itchy..." I couldn't help but shrink my neck and laugh. It was really itchy, and I couldn't stand it. Herbert's voice was hoarse. "At such a sacred moment, don't laugh, okay?" I pushed him away, turned around and asked, "What sacred moment?" "This is our most sacred moment." He said seriously. I turned to look at him. His eyes were full of desire, I knew what he wanted to do.

I, too, yearned for him.

But the two of us were still standing at the door, and I was carrying some food. The door was not closed. I didn't intend to let my neighbors watch the sacred moment between Herbert and I. I took the opportunity to close the door and was about to put away the food in my hand. Who knew that Herbert would throw away the food in my hand and then pick me up Everything happened so suddenly that I couldn't help screaming. Then I put my arms around his neck.

He threw me on the soft big bed, and then he turned around to draw the curtains.

The light in the room suddenly dimmed, and the ambiguous atmosphere suddenly became stronger.

Herbert pushed me down, and his wet lips began to kiss my lips, my neck, and my coitarbcije.

Then he undid my clothes. One of his hands was grabbing one of my breast, and the other one was in his mouth.

Instantly an electric current seemed to pass through my head and down my body. —Lot completely aroused. I enjoyed his kiss and touch.

The clothes on my body disappeared little by little, and my body became naked.

“Bella! You’re so beautiful.” He called out her name, his eyes shining with desire,

I kissed him and unbuttoned him.

Soon, we became naked. His hands seemed to have magic power, which could always touch my sensitive parts and make me crazy.

“Uh... ah...” I couldn’t help groaning

Herbert separated my legs and sat in the middle, and then his head began to move. I didn’t know what he wanted to do, I was just trying my best to cooperate with him. His tongue began to lick my ribs, abdomen, and then all the way down to the most sensitive part of my lower body. I immediately sobered up for a moment. “Oh, no, Herbert, no.” Herbert and I have had many experiences in making love, but he had never used his mouth. It was impossible for someone as proud as him to use his mouth.

This was what I thought of Herbert. But at this moment, Herbert did not stop, but continued to tease my “secret forest” with his hot and humid tongue.

A sense of joy that had never been felt before hit my brain. I groaned and arched my body.

“Herbert...” I called his name.

“I like you to call me by my name at this time.” He continued to lick my “secret forest.” His speed was getting faster and faster, and I couldn’t bear it. The extreme excitement almost made me

Chapter 149

Bella's POV:

Herbert held me from behind and kissed me.

His hot and hard body part pressed against my hips. "You were beautiful just now." He was talking about the time when I screamed. I had already stimulated once, but Herbert was still calm, which made me feel a little unfair. I wanted him to c*m, and I wanted him to lose control!" I suddenly had such a bad idea, so I groped for his lower body. He stopped my hand, so I moved my body down.

I held his desire with my mouth.

At this time, I heard the low roar of Herbert.

I was so proud that I continued to move. "Bella, ah... Bella." His breathing became more and more rapid.

I continued to hold the little guy deeper.

I felt that he was becoming harder and hotter, and I began to speed up While I was working hard, Herbert had completely lost control. He began to hold my head, and the sound of his voice became more and more frequent. The little fellow directly pressed against my throat. I felt a little sick, but theld it back.

I let him sprint in my mouth...** I was very satisfied that he lost control just now. I was a little proud. I thought that he was done, but in the next second, he pressed me down on the bed. Then his lower body part entered my body, filling all my emptiness. I panted and said, "Herbert, I thought you were done."

"Baby, you underestimate your man..." As he spoke, he sped up.

Thad completely sunk.

However, at this moment, the door of the room was pushed open. "Didn't you tell me to come celebrate? Why didn't you c**k..." This was Joey's voice. Oh, my god. I was completely seduced by Herbert just now. I didn't remember at all. I made an appointment with Joey Herbert and I looked at the door of the room at the same time. Time seemed to have stopped at this moment.

We didn't even cover ourselves with a blanket. The two of us were naked...

Ji

Thid under Herbert's body and began to pull the quilt to cover our naked bodies. Joey, who had probably never seen such a scene before, was stunned.

"Leave!" Herbert said in a low voice.

Joey immediately turned around and walked toward the door. "You... continue. I'll go first!" "I'm sorry, I didn't do it on purpose!"

When I heard the sound of the door being slammed shut, I covered my hot cheeks and pushed the man lying on top of me. "It's so embarrassing!"

"Why are you so embarrassed? We're not having an affair, we are in a proper relationship." Herbert said seriously. "I made an appointment with Joey to come to my house for dinner tonight. You seduced me and I forgot everything." I continued. Herbert said, "This means that you like to have s*x with me. And you are very proactive." He smiled and stroked my lips. "You are very relaxed today. I like it very much." "You took the initiative first." "Do you like it?" Herbert asked with a smile in my ear. My face became hot, but I was not pretentious. I admitted generously, "It's a very special experience. I like it." After I said this, he continued to pound into me a few times. Only then did I realize that he had not come out of my body. He fixed my hands on both sides of the pillow, and his eyes were filled with the light of conquest. He gasped and said, "Let's continue!" Oh, my god, I loved his overbearing look on the bed. "... I opened my mouth and wanted to say something. Herbert didn't give me such a chance. Instead, he sealed my lips and began to pound my body hard... It was already an hour later when we were done. There was only one wall lamp turned on in the room. I laid in his arms tiredly, ready to sleep. But at this moment, his finger slid along my shoulder to my finger, and the ring finger of his left hand was suddenly covered with something cold.

"What are you doing?" I asked, frowning. "Look." He kissed my cheek and said. Topened my eyes and raised my left hand. A shining object was on my finger.

It was a ring.

To be exact, it was a luxurious ring.

The diamond ring was huge and surrounded by countless shiny diamonds. I had seen this kind of diamond ring, but they were all in magazines. Only celebrities and rich people's wives would wear it.

I stared at the big diamond ring in my hand for a long time and onlind "Albat da..-....—.. 1.

Herbert reached out his hand and grabbed my left hand. In an indifferent voice, he said, "We need a ring to get married, so I asked Connor to book one for us." "This ring is too exaggerated. How much is it?" I continued to look at the ring in my hand. At this time, Herbert suddenly said in a guilty tone, "The last time we got married, I was too careless. I just casually bought you a diamond ring. This time, I'll give you the best one for you." Hearing this, I felt very sweet. I lowered my head and fiddled with the diamond ring in my hand, saying, "Then you have to buy me a safe." "What do you mean?" Herbert asked with a frown. I looked up and smiled. "I'm afraid that a thief would steal such a big diamond ring!" Hearing this, Herbert raised his eyebrows and said, "That's a problem, but it's really troublesome to buy another safe. Why don't you move into my house tomorrow? There is a big safe in my house. You can put as many things as you want!" "Okay." I nodded immediately. I regretted after I nodded. How could I be abducted to his home so soon? I was so focused on the ring that I didn't notice what he was saying. I casually agreed. "I feel like you've set me up." I said. "You can't go back on your word! From now on, you'll be mine for the rest of your life. I'll take care of you by myself." Herbert declared arrogantly above me.

Chapter 150

Bella's POV

Herbert was really an overbearing and affectionate man.

I hesitated for a moment, then obediently crawled into his arms.

We touched each other's hands, and happiness lingered between us.

In the past, I never thought that I would fall in love with a man like Herbert, or even get married.

Not once, but twice.

I caressed his handsome face with my fingers and felt very satisfied.

He put his arm around my shoulder and said, "I have an important meeting tomorrow. Let's go apply for the marriage certificate the day after tomorrow."

I nodded in agreement.

Herbert held me more tightly...

The next day, I woke up at noon.

At this time, he had gone to work, but he had prepared breakfast for me.

There was also a note left by him. "Baby, remember to have breakfast."

Baby...

It was too sweet. My mood instantly became very happy. After washing up, I began to eat.

I kept recalling what happened between Herbert and I last night.

From yesterday evening to this morning, we did it five times in total, and I reached the climax five times.

Herbert's physical strength was beyond my imagination.

I stood in front of the mirror. My eyes were swollen, my hair was messy, and my pajamas were wrinkled, but the smile on my face had never disappeared. It was always very sweet. Was this love? I had never felt this before.

I was full of thoughts about Herbert. We had only been apart for a few hours, but I had begun to miss him.

I shook my head. After I was full, I began to look for clothes in the wardrobe. I was going to apply for the marriage certificate with Herbert tomorrow. I had to dress up beautifully

However, there were only a few winter coats in the wardrobe, and there were only a few sweaters. I needed to go to the mall to buy beautiful clothes.

I couldn't be stingy this time. After all, tomorrow was an important day.

I hoped that this marriage would be the last one, so I immediately made up my mind to buy a new set of clothes for myself.

Ring... Ring... At this time, the phone rang.

I answered the phone excitedly. I thought it was from Herbert, but I saw Joey's phone number flashing on the screen.

I immediately frowned.

Yesterday evening, Joey saw Herbert and I making love.

It was too embarrassing.

Joey would definitely tease me. Sure enough, when the phone was connected, Joey's evil laughter came from the other end of the phone "I guess you must have just woken up." I admitted frankly, "Yes, your guess is right. We did it all night last night." Faced with such a teasing, the more I tried to cover it up, the more she would tease me. So I chose to admit it frankly this time. "No way! The whole night? I thought I frightened boss!" Joey sneered. "Don't worry. He's braver than before!" I said deliberately.

Joey was still making fun of me. "You're the best at this kind of thing." "If you don't believe me, I can lend you boss for a night and let you have a good experience?" } teased Joey. "Forget it. You'll definitely burst into tears!" Joey continued teasing me. I didn't want her to continue bickering, so I softened my tone. "Be serious, when can you get off work? Come out and go shopping with me. I want to buy clothes!" Hearing this, Joey paused for a moment and then asked in surprise, "Did I hear it wrongly? You are willing to buy clothes? Oh right, you are now the wife of the president." "I'm going to apply for the marriage certificate with Herbert tomorrow!" I announced my good news. "No way? So fast?" Joey was surprised. "I don't have beautiful clothes. I'm distressed." I complained. The next moment, Joey said, "I'm on leave this afternoon. I'll go shopping with you!" "You're so nice." I flattered her with a smile and hung up the phone. After hanging up the phone, I thought about it. Last time, I got married to Herbert privately without telling mother, which made her angry for a long time. This time, I must learn from my lesson, so I dressed up and was ready to go back to mother's house to tell her this good news.

After I went back, I told my mother about the marriage with Herbert. She was very happy. She took my hand and said, "Herbert is a very good man. It would be a pity if you missed him. Fortunately, both of you made up!"

Bride of Mr.Billion

Chapter 151

Bella's POV:

"Mom, I know. You've said the same thing many times." Although I was complaining, my tone was gentle.

Mom rolled her eyes at me and said, "I hope you can have a good life, but you always think I'm nagging." "Oh, no, dear mom, I don't think of it that way." I said immediately. Mother smiled kindly and then asked, "By the way, when are you going to hold a wedding? You didn't prepare for the wedding last time, so you have to prepare for it this time?" I said, "Herbert said that the wedding will take two months to prepare, so we will apply for our marriage certificate first. He said it would be more grand, but I think those complicated procedures are annoying."

"It's good that you've come up with a plan. We still need a wedding. In addition, if you don't hold a wedding, this means that the relatives of the Wharton Family don't approve of your existence. You'll only suffer even more." Mother reminded. I didn't say anything. I just nodded to show that I understood. Herbert and I were not in the same level. Although we loved each other very much, I also knew that we still have a lot of problems to solve. We would face a lot of things in the future. For the sake of the person I loved, I would face it bravely. Herbert's POV: "Boss, please sign this document." I took the document and took a look at it. Suddenly, my phone rang. When I saw the flashing phone number on the screen, I couldn't help frowning. I signed on the document and handed it to my subordinate. Then I took the phone and answered it. I pressed the answer button, and a woman's aggrieved voice came from the other end of the phone. "Herbert."

"Have you arrived in England?" I asked. I selected the best doctor in England for Caroline. "I've arrived," Caroline replied. "What's the matter? I'm busy with work." I didn't have time to listen to some unimportant things. Caroline seemed to be about to cry. "Herbert, I'm very lonely and afraid. Can you let me come back? I promise I won't disturb you and Bella. As long as occasionally look at you, I will be very satisfied!" I frowned and said, "You have to keep your promise, Caroline." "Herbert, are you really so heartless? You want to abandon me completely for Bella, don't you?" Her tone became tough, which made me angry instantly. "Caroline, if it weren't for the past feelings, I wouldn't care about you now. Don't continue to kidnap me with the past feelings. I love Bella now, and I can't have any more contact with you!"

"Herbert, you're too cruel!" Caroline's voice was cold. "Caroline, we're done. I hope you can understand this. I still have work to do. Goodbye!" After that, I hung up the phone. But I was still very angry. In order to calm down, I lit a cigarette.. After my mood gradually eased, I suddenly thought of something, and my mood suddenly became very happy. I took my phone and saw that Bella had not replied. Wasn't she awake yet? That day, I completed my work very quickly and went home very early. Bella was busy in the narrow kitchen, wearing an apron. "Have a rest first. Dinner will be ready soon!" Bella said. I walked behind her and hugged her from behind.

Bella's smile was beautiful and charming.

"What did you do today? Why didn't you reply my text message?" I kissed her delicate neck. Bella drew back her neck and said with a smile, I went shopping with Joey to buy clothes. By the way, I went to my mother's place. I frowned. "You went shopping? I thought you were going to continue looking for work!" Bella immediately turned around with the kitchen knife in her hand and complained, "I already found a job yesterday. You don't care about me at all. You don't know anything about my situation." "A job? You can't blame me? You didn't tell me, did you?" I shrugged, looking very innocent. "Did I have a chance to tell you yesterday?" Bella complained in a low voice. Yesterday..

I recalled what happened yesterday and couldn't help laughing. Bella really didn't have time to tell me about her work yesterday. We spent most of our time making love. "What are you laughing at?" Bella asked. I held Bella's shoulder and said, "Can we have a talk in bed tonight?" "You can only go to bed when you sleep tonight, don't you know?" Bella showed a little resistance. It seemed that I played her too hard last night. I also wanted to be gentle, but when I touched Bella's skin, I couldn't restrain myself. Bella had a kind of magic that made me lose my mind. "Okay, let's not go to bed first. Although your sofa is a little small, it's enough." I kissed her forehead. Bella gave me a little push. "Be serious, okay?" "I'm very serious now." My eyes fell on the sofa. It was indeed a little small, but it shouldn't affect the movements of Bella and I. At this time, Bella seemed to be angry. She said, "I quit today. I'm not cooking!" After that, she really took off her apron and threw it aside.

Looking at her pouting with anger, I felt inexplicably happy. My Bella was so cute even when she was angry.
