

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 41

Chapter 41

Bella's POV.

I'm not feeling well because I'm pregnant, so I'll try my best to wear casual clothes

I didn't wear high heels.

Besides, I heard that it's not good for children to do makeup during pregnancy, so I didn't do it today

So at this time, I didn't look as delicate as before But it did not reach the extent of losing face, was it?

And what did it have to do with Ryan?

Timmediately retorted, "I didn't steal,rob, or hook up with men. How could I lose face? At this moment, my eyes swept across Connie Briden and Emma Briden. I said that on purpose.

Ryan was even angrier. "What do you mean? I'm teaching you, but you're attacking others!" "I've been an adult for a long time, so I don't need your guidance. Moreover, the daughter who really makes you lose face is over there! That one! Not me!" I said.

"It seems that you still want to be beaten?' Ryan put his hands on his waist and said fiercely. "If you dare to hit me again, I will call the police immediately!' I was also afraid of him. *Speak less, all of you. Why are you quarreling when you're together? My mother quickly pulled the two of us away Ryan pointed at my mother and scolded, "Susan, look what a good daughter you raised? Rude." Ryan scolded me a few more times. I was very angry and wanted to catch up with him and scold him But I was stopped by my mother "Bella, today is your cousin's wedding. Don't ruin other people's wedding." Susan's voice was full of sobs. I knew that she had been dressing up in the room for a long time before she came out. The clothes she wore had always been kept in the wardrobe. She came to see Ryan today

But Ryan scolded us the moment we met

I knew that my mother was in a bad mood now, so I chose to endure for the time being and did not continue to quarrel with Ryan.

We didn't want any conflict to happen again, so we sat far away from Ryan and Connie Briden In the eyes of these relatives, my mother and I have no money or power. So no one took the initiative to say hello to us.

On the contrary, Ryan and Connie Briden not only opened the insurance company but also bought a big house, so their relatives treated them very well.

In contrast, we are very deserted here.

I don't care about this, but I know that my mother is upset.

My mother is good in every aspect She is a kind woman, but she is too cowardly and doesn't know

In the eyes of these relatives, my mother and I have no money or power.

So no one took the initiative to say hello to us.

On the contrary, Ryan and Connie Briden not only opened the insurance company but also bought a big house, so their relatives treated them very well.

In contrast, we are very deserted here.

I don't care about this, but I know that my mother is upset.

My mother is good in every aspect. She is a kind woman, but she is too cowardly and doesn't know how to fight back, nor does she know how to fight for herself

This was also the reason Ryan Stepanek had taken almost all of our assets back then, and even left my younger sister and me to my mother

But my mom has such a character, so I can't do anything about it

There were many things that I couldn't make a decision for her

All of a sudden, I felt like my stomach was rolling, and I wanted to vomit again | said something to my mother, and then quickly got up and went to the bathroom

After retching in the bathroom for a while, as soon as I walked to the door of the banquet hall, I suddenly saw a big gift box with the words "Herbert wishes you a happy wedding" written on it

I was stunned "Did he come today? But I didn't see him in the banquet hall?"

While I was thinking, someone suddenly stopped me

"Madam, you're here too?"

I turned around and saw Connor standing behind me. I was a little surprised. You came to send a present?" Connor shook his head and replied, "I came with Mr. Wharton.

"He is here too?" I looked around, but I didn't see him.

Connor hurriedly explained, "Mr. Wharton is currently in the private room with all of you distinguished guests I finally understood why I didn't see him.

"I'll go in first. I said a few words to Connor, then I turned and walked into the banquet hall. I accompanied Susan to the end of the banquet before the two of us left the banquet hall. Walking to the lobby of the hotel, Susan suddenly saw Ryan coming over and hurried to greet him with a smile

I didn't stop her, nor did I move forward. I just waited there

"Ryan, are you full? Susan was very humble

Just say it I'm in a hurry to go back Ryan was very impatient

Susan continued, "Belly will be taking the exam soon Please help her think about what major she should apply for

That girl has been stupid since she was a child. I don't know if she can pass the exam or not." Ryan looked disgusted

However, my mother still insisted, "If she gets into the university, you can help her to think about it

"Okay, okay. I got it Ryan reluctantly agreed

I was already very angry at how humble my mother was.

immediately walked over and stopped her "Mom, we've finished talking. It's time for us to go!"

Well . Susan still wanted to say something

At this time, a sharp voice suddenly came from behind us "Susan, Ryan had divorced you for so many years Why are you still so shameless to pester him? || seems that no one wants you right? He has a wife now Please don't look for him all the time if you do this again, you will be a mistress!" Connie who walked over and said arrogantly

Susan was so angry that her eyes turned red. She stammered, "How... how can you say that? Ryan and I have two daughters Can't I talk to him about our daughters now?" "Your daughter is an adult! Don't always talk about your daughter. I think you're trying to make up with Ryan. It's so shameful!" Connie accused my mother. This has completely angered me!

I couldn't stand it anymore. I rushed forward and protected my mother behind me.

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 42

Chapter 42

Bella's POV:

"You were the home wrecker who ruined our family. Now you still have the nerve to talk about my mother. I think you are the most shameless person!"

Bella, how can you talk to your aunt like this?" Ryan scolded me. sneered. "You're no longer my father. What kind of aunt is she? Don't make me sick. I have nothing to do with you two shameless people!" "You... you want to piss me off, don't you?" Ryan covered his chest with his left hand and pretended to be in pain. My mother stopped me. "Bella, don't talk anymore. Don't make your father sick!" At this time, my mother is still protecting my father! My mother is confused. I'm not. I must vent my anger today. "As I said, he is not my father. My father died 15 years ago. He died!" I was also excited. At this time, Connie supported Ryan's body and said in a hypocritical manner, "Ryan, don't be angry. It's not worth it to be angry with this daughter. Let me teach her a lesson!"

Then, Connie turned her head and mocked me. "Bella, don't call me the home wrecker every day. I don't think you're innocent. I heard that you're pregnant. Where's your husband? Why didn't you get married? Does the man you're looking for also have a wife?"

"Don't talk nonsense here. I'm already married, but I haven't had a banquet yet. I won't be as shameless as some people as a mistress to destroy other people's family." I immediately retorted.

At this time, Emma stepped forward and sneered, "You're married? Who are you going to marry? Where is he? Today is my cousin's wedding. Your husband should come to show up, right? Now there is no one around. Are you being kept by a sugar daddy? Or have you become the old man's lover?"

"Who do you think is the sugar daddy? Tell me clearly!" I angrily stepped forward to argue with her. At this moment, with the help of Ryan and Connie, Emma was very arrogant. "I'm just talking about you. What do you think? You are a mistress! Maybe you are a prostitute, a prostitute! Or, you don't know who the father of the child is at all? Because there are too many guests?"

The more Emma said, the more she went too far. The angry flames made me very impulsive. I raised my palm and slapped Emma.

Emma covered her face and looked at me fiercely. "Bella, how dare you hit me? You're courting death!"

"How dare you hit my daughter? I think you're courting death!" Connie also roared at me. I immediately used my hands to protect my belly when I saw that Connie and Emma had pounced on me together. I thought to myself, 'I'm doomed. I'll definitely be beaten up today.'

My mother can't do anything except panic.

It doesn't matter if I get beaten up, but don't hurt my baby!

I took two steps back, and then Connie and her daughter rushed over. One wanted to grab my hair and the other wanted to slap me. I closed my eyes in despair and covered my belly with my hands

But the pain I imagined did not come. I heard the screams of the Connie and Emma.

When I opened my eyes, I saw that both of them had fallen to the ground.

And the person standing beside me was Herbert.

I was stunned. I grabbed his arm for a long time before I could react. My whole body was still in a state of pain.

Until I heard Herbert's question. "Are you okay?"

"Yes... I'm fine." I felt a little better.

Why did he do it himself? Wasn't he afraid of exposing his relationship with me? The agreement clearly stated that he and I were secretly engaged.

But before I completely figured out the current situation.

My mother suddenly came over and said to Herbert with a smile, "Herbert, you're back on a business trip?"

Herbert seemed to be stunned, I pulled his sleeve and whispered, "My mom saw our marriage certificate."

After that, my heart became very uneasy.

What should he do?

I was trying to make my mom happy.

“What if Herbert directly denies our relationship in public?”

My mom will know I lied to her before.

I won't feel too sad. But her mother would definitely be very sad. While I was in a very complicated mood, I heard Herbert say, “Mom, I'm back How could he...

I can't believe my ears.

I looked at him in surprise. At this moment, the expression on his face was very gentle. At this moment, Ryan walked up to them and asked, “Mr. Wharton, why do you call her... Mom? Did I hear you wrongly?”

Herbert looked at Ryan's and answered clearly. “Uncle, you didn't mishear. She is Bella's mother, and she is also my mom, or I should call her mother-in-law.”

“What what did you say? Ryan's voice was sharp, and his mouth was wide open. He couldn't say a word

My inner surprise is no less than Ryan's.

At this time, I didn't expect that Herbert would admit our relationship in public.

After the shock, there was also a touch of warmth in my heart. I knew he was trying to help me out today If it weren't for him, I might have been hit by these two crazy women today and had a miscarriage

At this time, the most anxious one was Emma. She immediately rushed in front of Herbert and said 16010 in a trembling voice, “Herbert, you said she was your mother-in-law. Then you and Bella are...” Without any expression on his face, Herbert said to Emma, “Miss Briden, I told you last time that we were not familiar enough to call each other by names. We're just business partners. We don't have any personal feelings for each other at all. Please call me 'Wharton' or 'Mr. Wharton' in the future!” “L... Emma suddenly looked very embarrassed.

The current look on Emma's face was completely different from the previous arrogant look. This made me very happy. I stood there, watching how Herbert would teach the mother and daughter a lesson. After all, they almost hurt his child! As expected, Herbert said, “I hope you and your mother won't trouble my wife and mother-in-law in the future, or I will make you unable to stay in the city. As for whether I have such an ability, I don't need to explain it by myself, do I?” Obviously, Emma still didn't believe in the fact that Herbert and I were already married. “Are you really married to her? How is that possible? Are you sure it's not a joke?" At this time, Herbert suddenly took out a ring from his pocket and handed it to me. He said seriously, "Bella, this morning when you washed your face, you forgot about our wedding ring on the sink." I looked at the so-called wedding ring in Herbert's hand. It was silver and full of diamonds, as dazzling as the stars in the sky. Although there was no enormous diamond on it, I knew that such a ring was very expensive. "I'll help you put it on." Herbert took my hand and put the ring on my ring finger. At this moment, my heart was beating wildly for no reason. I looked up at the person who was holding my hand and saw a very gentle smile on his face. He had never smiled so gently in front of me...

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 43

Chapter 43

Bella's POV

Why did a man who was very indifferent to me two days ago become so gentle at this moment?

My heart beat wildly Does he really think of me as his wife?

No!

I immediately denied this idea. Herbert is just helping my unborn child fight back. Why am I so stupid? How could I believe that he really wants to treat me as his wife?

Since he wanted to help, of course I had to cooperate with him in this play

I held his hand and said with a smile, "So you took it. I thought I lost the ring and worried for a long time." "It's all my fault. I should've told you in advance." Herbert's face was full of tenderness, and he was not like the usual indifferent person. Ryan walked up to us and said with a flattering smile, "Bella, why didn't you tell your father that you were married to Mr. Wharton? You made me totally unprepared."

Looking at Ryan's attitude towards me. I felt he was a different person. My heart was full of contempt.

Why do I have such a hypocritical father?

At this time, Emma glared at me and turned to leave Connie chased after her daughter and left

Looking at the backs of the mother and daughter. I suddenly felt very ridiculous. For so many years. there had been constant conflicts between me and the Bridens, but I had never won. In the end, it turned out that it was a few words from Herbert that completely frustrated them.

People were so insignificant in front of status and money

I glanced at Ryan and said coldly. "Your wife and daughter have left. Why don't you go after them?"

you silly child. How can you say that? I'm your father, Ryan said

"Dad?" I looked up and laughed. Then I stared at him and asked, "Where were you when my sister and I couldn't afford the tuition fees? Where were you when my sister and I didn't have enough food and clothing? Where were you when my sister and I were bullied? Do you think the word Dad is so easy? How many responsibilities does it contain? Betty and I had no father 15 years ago, so please don't say that you're my father in front of me in the future I will only feel very ridiculous and extremely funny!"

For the first time in so many years, Ryan did not refute me. He kept wiping the sweat on his forehead with his hand

At this moment, my mother actually pushed me away "Bella, what are you talking about?"

Then she smiled at Ryan and said, "Ryan, this child is immature Don't be angry. It's getting late Why don't you go back first?"

Looking at her like this, I felt very uncomfortable

I didn't want to say another word, turned around and was about to leave 16030 After I walked for a while, Herbert caught up with me.

I got in his Bentley with mom.

Connor was driving in the front, and Herbert was sitting in the passenger seat today. Mother and I were sitting in the back seat.

After driving for a while, my mother suddenly smiled and asked Herbert in front of her, "Herbert, this car is so luxurious. It must be your boss's. Will we make a mistake if you drive the car of your boss? What about we call a taxi back? It will affect your work." I looked up and saw the confused look in Herbert's eyes. I didn't say a word for a while, and I didn't know how to explain it to my mother. At this moment, the driver of the car, Connor, turned to smile at my mother. "Madame, this is the Boss, and this car belongs to him. Thus, you and Mrs. Wharton can sit as you please."

These two sentences stunned Susan. She frowned and looked at me.

quickly said, "Mom, what Connor said is true. This car is his." Susan didn't seem to understand what I meant, so she said, "Bella, didn't you tell me that Herbert is just an ordinary employee? His family is also in the countryside, and his conditions are very bad. He can't afford a house. Why did he suddenly become a boss and have such a high-end car? What on earth is going on? Why did you lie to me?" "... I didn't know what to say for the moment, and I blamed myself for lying at that time. So, it was wrong to say anything now.

Just as I was in a dilemma, Herbert laughed and said, "Mom, don't blame Bella. It's all my fault. I'm afraid that you can't accept my identity for a while. You may think that I'm not serious about Bella and that you will disagree with our marriage, so if you want to blame somebody, blame me!" When my mother heard this, her tone became gentle. "I know you're helping her. I know my daughter. She must be lying to me. Whether you have money or not, now that you're so nice to Bella, of course I will agree.

As long as you treat her well in the future. I will be relieved. This child has suffered too much with me since she was a child..."

As she spoke, she suddenly burst out tears. I quickly handed a tissue to my mother. "Mom, what's wrong? Why are you crying all of a sudden?" "I'm happy. I'm happy said my mother as she wiped her tears with a tissue. "Mom, don't cry, or Bella won't spare me when I get back.' At this moment, Herbert even made a joke

After this joke, my mother stopped crying immediately. She was in a good mood with a smile on her face

I threw a grateful smile at Herbert. And thought to myself, This Herbert is not only attractive to young ladies but also good at dealing with Moms. He's simply a female killer"

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 44

Chapter 44

Bella's POV:

When we got home, Herbert suddenly took out a red velvet box from his pocket and handed it to my mother, "Mom, I'm very sorry. I planned to pay a formal visit to you in a few days, but I came in such a hurry. The gift is not ready. Only this necklace I chose before is a decent gift. I hope you don't mind."

Herbert's tone was very respectful.

This surprised me again.

What's going on? Must he act so perfect?

Susan refused Herbert's gift. "This... this won't do. Herbert, I know you're a good kid. But this gift..."

For a moment, the two of them refused each other. Seeing this, I simply took the gift box and put it into my mother's hand. Then, I said, "Mom, this is a gift from your son-in-law. If you don't want it, it means that you don't recognize this son-in-law."

Hearing this, Susan reluctantly accepted the red box. "I see."

After she finished speaking, she opened the red silk box.

The next second, I heard my mother's surprised voice. This is a diamond necklace. It's very expensive."

Susan refused to accept the necklace and kept refusing. I simply took the necklace and said, "Mom, you can take it. Big boss is not short of money." "Bella, it's not right for you to say that!" Susan criticized me. At this time, Herbert actually said, "Mom, it doesn't matter. I just like Bella." Hearing this, I couldn't stand it anymore.

It's just an act. Must he be so serious? After a while, the waiter said, "Herbert, it's your first time here. Stay for dinner tonight. The food I cooked tastes good." Before Herbert could say anything, I immediately said, "Mom, he said that he had an appointment tonight. He had already agreed, didn't he?"

In fact, I don't know if he has a date tonight. I just want him to go now. Don't stay here and make my heart beat wildly. Herbert said very cooperatively. "Mom, I'll try your cooking next time. The appointment is a little important. I can't refuse it."

"I see. Well, next time, promise me. You will come." Susan felt very sorry. At first, I was going to send Herbert away, but he said at this time, "Mom, Bella and I are married, and the house over there has been cleaned up. Can I take her back today?"

I looked at Herbert in shock. "What is he talking about? Go back with him? Where?"

Did he ask about my opinion?

I glared at him, but the man completely ignored my gaze. He continued to tell my mother, "Mom!

know that you will not be willing to leave Bella. She will come back often to see you in the future of course, my house is also big, so you can stay there for a period of time."

Mother's eyes were full of reluctance to part with me.

Her two hands held the hands of Herbert and me and put them together. "Daughters will grow up one day. I only hope that you two can be happy."

These words touched me a little. I leaned in the arms of the woman and said coquettishly. "Mom, I'm not leaving. I'll stay with you and Betty for the rest of my life." "Silly child, hurry up and pack up your things. I'm very happy to see you find such a good husband." Susan couldn't help but shed tears. She quickly got up and turned into the bedroom.

Half an hour later, I carried a simple luggage bag and went out with Herbert.

As soon as we stepped out of the corridor, I grumbled, "Ah, why didn't you ask me if I'm willing to come out of my house?"

Herbert was extremely calm. He said, "You are my wife now, so you naturally have to live with me!"

Herbert's tone was very overbearing, and there was no room for negotiation at all.

I followed behind him and said, "I can tell you in advance that I have a lot of bad habits. Don't regret."

"When I was in school, my roommates ground teeth and burped in my dormitory. I can get used to it I don't think you are more intolerable than those men, are you?" After that, he suddenly turned around.

His movements were very sudden, and I was not prepared at all. Because of the inertia, my whole person hit his chest, and I couldn't help but let out a low cry. "Ouch!"

"Honey, we haven't reached home yet! Can't you wait to be intimate with me?" Herbert said with a smile

His words made my cheeks burn. I was about to pat him with my hand. We're out of our house now There was no need to continue acting

Unexpectedly, he reached out and grabbed the handbag in my hand, then reached out to hold my waist and walked out of the community

His big hand was warm and powerful When it touched my waist, I couldn't say a word.

At this moment. I saw that the neighbors in the old community were secretly looking at us. especially at Herbert. This time, I let him hold me and move forward

Because those neighbors should have known that I was pregnant. They were all privately discussing why I was pregnant before I got married Those terrible words made Mom uncomfortable for a long time

This time, my husband and I openly left this community where we have lived for many years It can also be regarded as a proof of my family and myself. I can also live a good life and marry a very handsome man who treats me very well!

I quietly raised my head and looked at the man who was hugging my waist with one hand and Carrying my luggage with the other Suddenly. I had countless emotions in my heart He admitted that I was his wife in front of everyone today, warned Bridens and helped me regain face, respected my mother, and personally took me home Could it be that he really wanted to live with me in the future? Just like a normal couple?

Thinking of this, my heart beat last quickly lowered my head to hide the excitement in my heart in the past, I was afraid that I had never thought of falling in love with this man. Did he really have feelings for me? Just when we walked out of the community and my emotions had not yet completely calmed down, Herbert withdrew his hand.

I frowned and looked at him.

The calmness on Herbert's face returned, and the smile on his face disappeared. He suddenly explained to me, "Just now I saw your mother secretly looking at us through the window."

"What?" I immediately turned to look at the community behind me, but it was too far away from the window of my house, so I couldn't see anything at all.

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 45

Chapter 45

Bella's POV "Since you're going to act, then we'll put on a show. Besides, you're an adult. You shouldn't let your mother worry about you anymore," Herbert suddenly said. When I heard what he said, I couldn't help laughing. Although I laughed at myself very much in my heart. I still said calmly to him, "Thank you for being so considerate to me." In fact, the intimacy and concern he showed just now were just acting. "Bella, oh Bella, you were actually very touched just now!" thought I.

You still wanted to live with him like an ordinary couple?

It was just a show. Did you take it seriously?

"You're welcome. No matter what, we're a legal couple now. We should help each other." What Herbert said sounded like a business deal, and his tone sounded really cold.

In order to make me look less lonely. I raised my chin slightly. "You're right."

At this time, we had already walked to the front of the car. Connor took over the luggage in Herbert's hand, and then we got into the car separately. The next moment, the car disappeared without a trace

The car sped through the traffic. Looking at the constantly retreating scene, I suddenly felt very sad. I was about to live in this man's house, but there was no love between me and this man, and I was still pregnant with his child. I never thought that my marriage would be like this. Herbert lives in one of the best residential areas in the city. The housing prices here were very high. Those who lived here were basically rich people or government officials.

I followed Herbert into a single villa. The overall decoration style was very modern. The furniture and decoration were simple and pure black and white, but it gave people a cold and rigid feeling. without the warmth of home. It seemed to be an office.

I looked around the big house. To be honest, I didn't like this place. The black and white curtains made me feel like I couldn't breathe.

Herbert put my luggage on the black and white floor, then took out a bunch of keys and a bank card. I looked at him in confusion and thought, "Is he going to tell me something?"

Sure enough, in the next moment, Herbert pointed at the key on the coffee table and said, "There is the key to this house in it, and there is a designated car in the parking lot. You can drive it if you need. Now your identity has been made public, so you are not suitable to work in the company. I will hand in the resignation letter for you. You can use this bank card at will. The upper limit of a month is 100,000, which is enough for you. your child, and your family's daily needs." He arranged everything well. My eyes fell on the keys and bank cards on the tea table, and suddenly a touch of sadness flashed through my heart. His tone was a little like the boss's order to the employees, without any warmth between husband and wife.

see "Thank you," I said, lowering my eyes

At this time, Herbert looked down at the watch on his wrist and said, "You can familiarize yourself with the situation here. I have something to do, so I have to go first."

"Okay." I nodded.

Only when I heard the sound of the door closing did I realize that he had really left.

Looking around the big house, I suddenly felt lonely because I was alone in such a big house.

Carrying her luggage upstairs, I found that there were two bedrooms upstairs. One was very big, with a bathroom and a cloakroom. Needless to say, it must be the master bedroom. The other room was small, but it was clean and tidy.

I was in a dilemma. Before he left, he didn't tell me which room I was going to sleep in.

After thinking for a while. I carried my luggage into the second bedroom. After all, I was pregnant now, so I woke often at nights. It would definitely affect his rest. Also, I could not meet his normal physiological needs now, so we did not need to sleep in the same bed.

After wandering in this house for several hours, I found that although I didn't like the decoration style and furniture decoration here, the facilities here were really complete. All kinds of daily necessities in the bathroom and the refrigerator were filled with all kinds of ingredients, and they were all very expensive. It could be seen that the capital was really rich.

Look at the bank card he gave me. There was a limit of 100.000 per month. I really didn't have to worry about eating and drinking in the future. But after only a few hours, I had a feeling of being raised as a canary, which made me very uncomfortable.

At about five o'clock in the afternoon, I suddenly received a message from Herbert.

"I'll go home for dinner at about seven o'clock." It's just a dozen simple words. I stared at them for a long time. Does he want me to cook?

I couldn't help feeling a little disgusted, just told me to cook and wait for him!

"However, I live and eat here for free, and I have money to take. In fact, my life is very good. What's more, he just taught my enemy a lesson on behalf of me. That Emma Briden." I can make some dinner.

I got up and went to the kitchen to see what dishes I could make tonight. I don't have a good job here. I have a lot of things to do. So cooking was a very simple thing for me.

In an hour, I brought out dinner from the kitchen.

I looked up at the clock on the wall. It was exactly seven o'clock. The next moment, the door was opened from the outside, and a man in a black suit walked in I didn't expect that he would come back on time. I chuckled and said, "You're back? We can have dinner."

“Okay Herbert nodded. Then he took off his coat, changed into slippers, and walked over.

Sitting on the chair, he saw steak, fried onion, toad steamed eggs, corn soup, and vegetable salad on the table

Probably hungry, Herbert picked up the knife and fork and was about to cut the steak | slapped the back of his hand and said seriously. “Go wash your hands.”

Who would have thought that the normally serious Herbert would act like a child at this moment?

He said, “I don’t eat with my hands!”

Does this mean that he won’t wash his hands?

“No, that’s not a good habit. You have to wash your hands before eating I stared at Herbert

He just came in from the outside. I couldn’t stand the thought that he had a lot of bacteria in his hands

“Why do I have to listen to you?” Herbert seemed to be dissatisfied with my orders

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 46

Bella’s POV

I didn’t give up my request because of his dissatisfaction

“Because these dishes were all made by me Otherwise, you can’t eat them!” I moved the plate in front of Herbert away

The expression of Herbert, who had been robbed of his food, was a little ugly

He stared at me

To be honest, I was actually a little nervous

But I didnt show weakness, and I was waiting for him After all, the plates had been moved away if I put them back now, it would be a shame I told myself, “Don’t be afraid of him. It’s you who made dinner! Wash your hands before you eat! You le right!

The next moment, he suddenly stood up I took a step back in fear No matter in height or physical strength, I was no match for him.

When I was very nervous, I heard Herbert say. "I'm going to wash my hands"

After that, he turned around and went to the bathroom

I looked at his back and breathed a sigh of relief. I thought he was going to punish me!

Herbert came back, sat back in his seat, and took the plate from my hand again.

Herbert quickly finished all the food on the table I couldn't help frowning

Hadn't he eaten for several days?

Herbert asked, "Why don't you eat?"

I took a look at the steak on my plate, then cut a small piece and put it into my mouth

"It seems that I have to cook more in the future." I said as I chewed the steak

But after taking just two bites, I couldn't help but want to vomit.

Then I covered my mouth and ran into the bathroom

My physiological reaction has always been very strong. When I was in the bathroom, I felt like I had vomited out everything in my stomach

When I was feeling the worst, he patted me on the back and dripped me with water. When I was done vomiting, he handed me a towel.

"Thank you" I took the towel and wiped my mouth, I was very satisfied with his performance at the moment

In fact, at this time, I couldn't eat anything at all, but I had to force myself to eat more food

So I forced myself to finish the whole steak

Just as he was about to clean up the tableware, Herbert came over and said, "Go to rest I'll clean it

I cast him a worried look "Can you?"

Could such a rich man's boss do housework?

* Just put the bowls and chopsticks in the dish-washing machine I can do it. Go and have a rest," said Herbert as he pushed me out of the kitchen

After I walked out of the restaurant, I was still a little worried I sat on the sofa in the living room, watching TV and paying attention to the movements in the kitchen

Clang Clang!

A few sounds of porcelain shattering came into my ears, and I immediately jumped up

I ran to the kitchen and saw that the porcelain bowls and plates were broken to pieces. I couldn't help shouting. "What are you doing?"

"My my hands slipped, and they fell to the ground. At this moment, Herbert looked helpless

When I saw him like this. I was stunned. I didn't expect that the boss, who was overbearing at work, would have such a time

I put my hands on my hips and said, "Hurry up and clean them up Do you understand?"

"I know, I know. You should go and rest." Herbert pushed me out of the kitchen again

"Watch your hands. You can't even do such a small thing," I muttered and went upstairs with my hand on my waist

Lying on the bed, I was in a good mood

Haha, there's also a time when I criticize Herbert.

But on second thought, although he was proud, arrogant, and domineering, he was actually a good person. I didn't expect him to take the initiative to do housework.

He won't get angry after being reprimanded by me.

This is probably a normal married life. I feel like I've entered the role.

After a while, the door of the second bedroom was suddenly opened!

I looked up and saw the cold face of Herbert appear again.

What do you mean?" He questioned me.

"What do you mean?" I don't understand what he wants to say

"Are you and I a couple?" Herbert continued to ask

“Yes.” I nodded. Although I said in my heart that we were legal husband and wife, there was no love between us.

Then why do you have to live in this room?” Herbert roared.

I don’t understand what he means

“What does he mean? Does he blame me for not staying in the master bedroom? He wants to be with me? What a joke. It can’t be like this. Does he want me to satisfy his desire when I am pregnant?

This was going too far! He was simply inhuman!

“After thinking for a long time, I found a random excuse and said, “Well, although we are husband and wife, we have our own space. In this way, we can live a casual life, don’t you think so?

When I finished my words, Herbert’s face was already very ugly

I realized that I might have said something wrong

1705 “It’s up to you!” With that, he slammed the door and left. I frowned and loosened my grip. I don’t understand what’s wrong with Herbert. Is this his character? It’s so strange!

I couldn’t help but sigh at his strange temper. This is not the way. I have to find a way to ease our relationship. After all, I ate and lived in his house. For my own life, I can’t always make him angry. I thought for a long time and decided to be gentle with him

Herbert’s POV

Bella didn’t sleep in the same room as me!

She even said that she needed her own space?

I went back to the master bedroom and didn’t like anything, so I picked up my phone and dialed a number

“Mr Wharton, what can I do for you?” From the other end came the voice of my secretary, Allie

*There's no need to arrange for anyone to attend the official meeting tomorrow morning. I'll do it myself!" I said

"But the flight tickets for the people who were arranged have been booked..."

"Retreat! Don't you understand what I'm saying?" I yelled.

"Yes, I got it. I'll book a ticket for you right away' Allie hung up the phone.

Putting my phone on the bed, I stood in front of the window with my hands on my hips. I suddenly felt a little ridiculous. How could such a small thing successfully ignite the fire in my chest? Or was it the person living next door who could ignite my anger?

I lowered my head and shook my head. I feel like I've been too immersed in acting recently. It's time to cool down

The next morning, when I got up. I saw Bella had already prepared breakfast.

"Breakfast is ready" Bella, who was wearing an apron, smiled at me. I almost couldn't look away But soon I regained my composure. I had to restrain myself and couldn't be affected by this face anymore.

"There's no need. I'm in a hurry." I said indifferently

Unexpectedly, Bella came up and blocked my way the next second.

She said, "Even if you're in a hurry, you have to eat. I've made it."

1. 1. I hadn't finished my words

Bella reached out to grab my hand and pulled me to the dining table. She said, "Eat quickly. It won't take more than a few minutes."

I took a look at the dishes on the table, such as sandwich, roasted bread, milk, and fried eggs.

sit at the table and ate all the breakfast. Bella POV

I sat opposite Herbert, holding my chin and watching him eat. He looked too elegant when eating He sat straight, looked straight, and did not say a word. He was like a noble prince Watching him eat was also a kind of enjoyment.

The house was so quiet that I couldn't help but start to talk "Breakfast is very important, especially for people like you who have to work all morning. If you don't have breakfast, it's easy for you to get Sick and

"Can you let me be quiet for a while? You're like an annoying fly, wandering around me!"
Herbert

suddenly raised his head and said angrily Hearing this, I pursed my lips and whispered, "If I were a fly. you would be a stinky egg!" What did you say?" Herbert asked with a serious expression I tugged at my long hair and replied hesitantly, "Oh, it's nothing I'm just saying that I have to change my habit of being a fly

"I'm going on a business trip to England. It's 9 o'clock this morning." Herbert suddenly said I stared blankly for seconds before I asked, "Why is it so sudden?"

"It was just decided last night." Herbert's eyes were calm

"How long will it take? When will you come back?" Hearing about his sudden business trip. I was a little disappointed

About three or four days. If there's anything you can call Allie She'll help you." Herbert's voice slowed down a little

"Okay' I nodded

While I was in a complicated mood, he had finished his breakfast and got up to take my briefcase in his arms

"Hey..." I held his briefcase tightly and didn't let go.

"Is there anything else?*" Herbert frowned and stared at me

I looked around at the house in front of me. "I don't like the decoration of this house Shall I change them? Herbert looked up at the ceiling and said, "You are now the hostess of this house. As long as you don't tear down this house, you can do whatever you want!"

After getting permission. I was very happy. I stood up and handed him the document box. "Here you are!"

After Herbert left home, I began to transform this house,

I don't know which designer designed the decoration, furniture, and decoration of this house. The whole house was black and white, which made people feel cold and stiff, and it was also very depressing However, the decoration and furniture of the house couldn't be changed. I could only make up for the dull color by the decoration effect.

First of all, the curtains were replaced with green, full of vitality. With white hollow window gauze, it was a very hazy poem. The cushion and pillow on the sofa were also replaced with beige The decorative vases, porcelain, and the carpet in the living room were all changed into fresh colors The bedding upstairs were also changed

The whole house was full of vitality and was no longer as stiff as it used to be

Ring Ring

On this day, when I was busy setting up the curtains, my cell phone suddenly rang

“Hello?”

“Bella, you’ve changed. You’ve become the wife of the Boss and you don’t even give me a call Are you afraid that I’ll borrow money from you?” Joey’s loud voice came from the other end of the phone

Hearing this, I couldn’t help laughing I turned around and walked to the terrace “Don’t you know the weight of my boss’ wife? He just gave me a credit card. There’s no cash.’ “The credit card? How much is it?” Joey asked in an excited tone. “One hundred thousand per month,” I replied. At the end of the phone, I screamed and raised my phone far away. “Is there a need to be so excited?” I asked with a smile. “A hundred thousand. You can spend it every month.” Joey chuckled.

“How can I spend so much?” I said.

I’ve always been frugal. These days, I spent a lot of money on the bedding curtains and decorations in the house. This is the most money I’ve spent in my life. Because I know that Herbert is a man of principle, I have to buy better decorations in the house. “You can buy your clothes, shoes, cosmetics and bags at will. Don’t you know how to spend money? If you can’t, you can buy jewelry. You can exchange jewelry for money in the future. If you can’t finish it, you can bring it up! You can give me at least 50,000 credit cards with an investment of more than 100,000.” Joey kept coming up with ideas.

smiled and said, “Well, I am now working as a supervisor. I don’t have time to listen to you. I’m hanging up.” “No, I have something important to tell you,” Joey said. “Is there anything else?” I asked. “The news of your marriage with the big boss has spread in the company today. Fortunately, you have resigned and don’t have to work. Otherwise, the eyes of the female animals here can kill you!” Joey said. No wonder there were several middle-aged colleagues who added me on WeChat today. There were both men and women, as well as two strange calls. Because I didn’t know them, I didn’t answer them. I thought they were harassing me. It turned out that my marriage with Herbert was exposed. Several years of work experience made me very clear that the young employees in the company were now envious of me, and the older employees must have the intention of wanting to get close to me. Thinking of this, I felt very upset. “It seems that it’s right for the Boss not to let me go to work.” Just now, I was still a little reluctant to give up my job. It seemed that even if I went back, it was impossible for me to work hard. "You should spend more money on him when he is happy, or you will definitely regret it in the future! Listening to Joey's teasing words, I smiled.

Chapter 48

Bella's POV

For three days in a row, there was no news of Herbert I couldn't help missing him.

On the third day. I couldn't help but send him a message because I was worried that calling would affect his work and rest

But there was no reply at all I thought maybe he was too busy, or he just had no time to read

Fortunately, I was very busy these days I kept going shopping or delivering things to my home. I was so busy that I forgot about Herbert

But at night, I'll still miss him

Perhaps it was because my pregnancy reaction was too strong and I couldn't sleep well, so his figure kept flashing in my mind

That morning, the doorbell rang I hurried to open it When he opened the door, he saw two workers carrying boxes standing outside

One of the workers said with a smile. "Are you Miss Bella? Did you buy two carpets? We are here to deliver the goods."

"Yes, yes, come in Bella quickly moved away

After the two workers came in with boxes, I smiled and said, "You've worked hard I'll help you get some water

"Don't bother. We won't drink. The two workers waved their hands repeatedly

"It's such a hot day. It's okay to drink some water. Wait a minute." I said as I turned and walked to the kitchen As soon as I reached the door of the kitchen, I stopped and felt dizzy. Then I closed my eyes and fell to the ground

I seemed to hear someone calling me, but in just a few seconds, I knew nothing

In my sleep, I heard someone talking in my ear, but my eyelids were really heavy I wanted to open them but couldn't open them But the conversation between two people came into my ears

Doctor, how is my wife? There was anxiety in Herbert's voice

"Mr Wharton, we have done all kinds of examinations on the patient The patient's physical condition is normal now He fainted because of excessive work After all, the patient is pregnant In the future, we must avoid excessive fatigue" This was the voice of a male doctor

"How's the child? Herbert asked again

"Everything is normal for the fetus now, but the patient needs to be bedridden for a week and take some pills to keep the fetus," the doctor replied

"Are you sure there's nothing wrong with them? Herbert's voice was full of doubt

The doctor chuckled and said, "Mr Wharton, doctors are not gods No doctor in this world can make such a promise to you!"

"Sorry, I was too anxious just now."

"I can understand your feelings."

After the doctor finished speaking, there was a sound of footsteps. At this moment, I finally opened my heavy eyelids.

I happened to see the anxious look in Herbert's eyes. His hair was a little messy. Not only was he not wearing a tie, but even his shirt had several buttons opened, which was different from his rigid image in the past.

When I saw his anxious look, I felt very happy. After all, this meant that he cared about my body

"Madam, are you awake? This was Allie's voice.

Herbert also looked at me. He smiled at me

I could tell from his conversation with the doctor that he was concerned about me.

However, in the next moment, Herbert's expression became more serious. He scolded, "Do you know that you are pregnant now? You can pack up the things in that shabby house anytime you want. Why do you have to exhaust yourself to faint these few days?"

Fortunately, the two delivery workers were kind enough to send you to the hospital immediately, and they even checked my phone number from your mobile phone. Otherwise, it would be very serious, don't you understand?" "Understood." My voice was very soft.

I lowered my head in the face of Herbert's accusation. After all, it was indeed my responsibility. I asked him if I could tidy up the house before he came back. Who knew that I was so weak that I just worked for three days and fainted?

At this time, Herbert looked down at the watch on his wrist, then looked up and said, "I have an important meeting later. I'll ask Allie to take care of you here. I'll go first."

Just as he was about to leave, I immediately sat up and reached out to grab his arm. "Did you inform my mother?"

My mom is timid. She'll easily panic when she's in trouble.

If she knew that I was hospitalized, she would be very anxious.

Herbert replied, "Since you have no big problem, don't let your mother worry about you, so I didn't inform her." Hearing this, I breathed a sigh of relief and said, "That's good. If my mother knows, she will definitely scold me

"I think she should be the one to scold you." Herbert said expressionlessly.

"Don't do this to me, please?" I looked at Herbert pleadingly. After all, I really didn't want others to know my situation now

At this moment, I saw Herbert looking at me. Although there was no expression on his face, from his eyes, I seemed to find some faint concern, which made me very happy. "Can you let me go?" The next moment, he suddenly said coldly. Hearing this, I realized that my hand was still holding his arm. I quickly withdrew my hand and lowered my eyes. I didn't look at him, but in my heart, I was blaming myself: What are you doing? I haven't seen you for a few days, so you don't have to do this

"I'm leaving." said Herbert. After Herbert left, the whole room was quiet. I looked up at the smiling Allie. Thank you for taking care of me Allie said, "It doesn't matter. This is what I should do." Allie paused for a moment, then said, "Your relationship with him is really good. Do I have a good relationship with Herbert?"

I don't think so!

I smiled and said, "He just likes to play tricks on me. I really couldn't find another word to say. Could it be that he and I were just a couple without any feelings?"

Bride of Mr. Billion Chapter 49

Chapter 49

Bella's POV

"Mr Wharton really cares about you. At that time, when the workers called him, he immediately called me to the hospital. He also took the earliest flight back to J City. Last night, he sat in front of your hospital bed for almost a night and didn't even have a sip of water!"

Allie's words shocked me.

"What?" I stared at Allie in surprise.

Now that I thought about it, there was blood in Herbert's eyes just now. Looking at the sky outside, it was already early in the morning, so I had slept for a whole night.

"You don't know that just now, when you were being examined, Mr. Wharton was extremely nervous. This is the first time I've seen him so nervous." Allie's eyes were filled with envy.

"Since he is so nervous about me, why he still so fierce to me when I wake up?" I suddenly turned into a little woman. I pouted and complained with a face full of complaints, which was not the same as what I used to be in the workplace.

"Of course he loves you very much. He cares too much about you, so he can't help being angry at how you're so careless about yourself." Allie laughed.

Hearing this, I immediately pulled myself back to reality. This Allie was one of Herbert's men. Of course, she spoke for him. However, I was in a good mood today. I pulled the quilt and lay down with a smile on my face.

I had been lying in the hospital for three days, and then Herbert asked Allie to handle the discharge formalities for me. I almost got sick. In my memory, this was the longest time I had been lying in bed.

On the day of my discharge from the hospital, Herbert personally picked me up. He walked out of the ward side by side with me, followed by Connor, who was carrying my daily necessities.

I glanced at Herbert and complained, "You came to pick me up from the hospital. Can't you change into bright clothes? You dress like a black crow every day."

Herbert looked down at his black suit and said in a stiff tone, "I've never worn anything other than black and white.” “Can’t you give it a try if you haven’t?” I could not help but ask. “I’m used to it,” Herbert replied. “Why are you so stubborn? How do you know the effect if you don’t try?” I tried to persuade him. However, Herbert pulled a long face “Don’t try to change me. It doesn’t make any sense to you.” After that, he went to the car, opened the door, and sat down. I was a little angry. Wasn’t it just a suggestion to let him try other colors of clothes? Why was it so serious?

I bought him a lot of clothes in black and white when he was not at home. It seemed that the money was really a waste. But it was not a pity. Anyway, I just swiped his card. I didn’t lose money

Finally. Connor opened the car door for me. After I got in, I saw that Herbert’s face was still cold. I deliberately ignored him. No one spoke in the carriage until they reached home.

As soon as they entered the house, a middle-aged woman in her fifties came over and said with a smile. “Sir, Madam, you’re back. The meal is ready. It’s all your favorite dishes. Oh, there are also your favorite dishes

I carefully looked at the person in front of me and confirmed that I had never seen her before Then. I looked at Herbert with confusion.

However, Herbert did not give me an answer. Instead, he changed his slippers and said, “Get ready to eat I have arrangements in the afternoon.”

“Yes. The woman nodded and went to prepare dinner. I wondered, “Is this madame’s dress and way of speaking a nanny? Does she know that I’m going to rest for a few days, so she went to find a nanny to do housework? In an instant, I was no longer angry because of his cold tone. Because during the period of time! spent with Herbert, I found that although he was sometimes gentle and sometimes irritable, had a bad temper, and his words were unpleasant, he was still very kind. He would think of others, but he would not show it.

I don’t have to be angry with him all the time. Maybe he didn’t respond at all. Instead, he made me angry

There was a toad steamed egg in the dishes on the table that I liked.

Thinking back, the nanny said that she prepared my favorite dishes

It’s my first time meeting this nanny. How could she know I like this dish?

I looked up at Herbert opposite me. He must be the one who told the nanny, right?

Although he always looked serious, he was quite attentive. I couldn't help laughing.

"Miranda, sit down and eat." Herbert looked up at Brian, who was standing in front of the table.

"Sir, there's no such rule." Miranda smiled.

I looked up at this person called Miranda, Herbert acted as if they knew each other.

Herbert frowned. "This isn't the case in the Wharton villa."

At this time, Brian nodded. He took the tableware and sat down in a corner to eat slowly, but he was very cautious. Herbert directly gave a lot of dishes to Miranda. After drawing a lot of dishes and putting them into the bowl, Miranda looked very nervous. I grew more and more puzzled. Herbert raised his head and said, "Miranda is an old servant of my family. I've been taking care of her since I was a child. This time, you were in poor health, and so I took her from the clan of the Wharton family to take care of you." Only now did I understand. No wonder he was very respectful to Miranda, but Miranda was very cautious.

"Thank you so much for taking care of me in the future," I said with a smile.

But I still felt a little nerves in my heart.

I've never had a special servant to take care of me before, and I think I can take care of myself.

But after all, it was the concern of Herbert. I didn't refuse and chose to accept it.

This time, the speed at which he ate was completely different from before. He ate very slowly today.

and he didn't eat much. Although the last few times he ate rice cooked by me was so elegant, he ate a lot. Why did he eat so little this time? Miranda had always taken care of him, so he should know his taste.

At this time, Miranda frowned and said, "Young master, why did you eat so little? 'I haven't eaten too much.'" After that, he pushed the tableware in front of him, got up, and went out. I frowned. "I haven't eaten too much?"

Why did he finish all the dinner he cooked for the first time? Was he really too hungry that day?

"Madam, please eat more." Miranda laughed. Looking at Miranda, I had a new question in my mind. It was about the original family of Herbert. Herbert had never told me that Miranda was the one who had been taking care of him. She should know.

I thought for a moment, and then asked tentatively. "Miranda, who are the Herbert family members?"

Bride of Mr. Billion Chapter 50

Bella's POV

"Didn't Sir tell you?" Miranda asked in surprise

I was stunned for a moment and said, "You should know that he doesn't want to talk about his family"

"Yes, his character is indeed like that." Miranda nodded.

I breathed a sigh of relief "It seems that my observation is correct"

After a while, Miranda said, "Mr. Herbert's grandfather and grandmother are gone. His parents are still there, and he has a sister. But then she went abroad to study, and Mr. Herbert doesn't go back to the family villa often."

"Oh" I nodded

It seems that his family is not complicated, but it doesn't seem to have much to do with me

Although he and I have gotten our marriage certificate, we are not a normal couple. Maybe I don't have to deal with his family at all.

I've just finished my meal. Miranda started to clean up. I want to help. She asked me to rest.

I had no choice but to come to the living room. As soon as I sat down on the sofa, I saw Herbert coming downstairs

As soon as he went downstairs, my eyes were completely attracted by him.

Because he had changed his clothes. Instead of wearing the same black suit, he had changed into a silver suit with a sky-blue shirt and a wine-red tie around his neck

I bought this set of clothes for him

He had thought that every one of them could match his black suit.

But now, he didn't expect to wear all his clothes at once

At this moment, he looked very fancy

I couldn't help laughing

"What are you laughing at?" Herbert asked me.

I didn't say that it was because of the clothes, so I casually found an excuse. "I just thought about a funny joke

It was not easy to fool him. He continued to look at me with suspicion "I'm not used to it Why don't you change my clothes back?"

I quickly got up and grabbed his arm, saying. "You will get used to it. It's more beautiful than a black suit You used to be dressed in black, like a black crow"

"Really?" It was the first time that Herbert was a little uncertain

It's true it's true!" I nodded.

Looking down at himself again, he decided, "Well, I'll listen to you this time

I nodded desperately, indicating that he should listen to me. But his current clothes were really a little eye-catching and needed to be matched

Before he left, he whispered in my ear, "Move back to the master bedroom tonight."

"Oh?" I looked at Herbert in astonishment. Herbert didn't say anything. He just picked up his briefcase and walked out of the house, After Herbert left, I sat on the sofa and couldn't help laughing when I thought of his clothes, The usually serious Herbert actually had such a lovely side. That afternoon, I moved into the master bedroom from the second bedroom to rest. Miranda asked, "Madam, are you sleeping in the same bed as Sir?" I immediately explained, "Oh, I'm having a strong pregnancy reaction now. I don't have much sleep Sometimes, he snores, which affects my sleep. So when he's in his sleep, I'll go to the second bedroom to sleep."

When she heard this, Miranda said, "So that's how it is. You're in a special period now. You can do this, but you can't do it in the future. Let me tell you, this couple's feelings for each other will fade away once they sleep together."

After getting along with him for half a day. I learned Miranda was a talkative person, and she was a real diligent woman. She was efficient and paid great attention to cleaning, so I didn't mind with her around

As for Miranda's words, I didn't say anything else. I just smiled politely

But Miranda didn't intend to stop. "Madam, you have to believe what I said, Old Master and Madam also began to sleep separately more than ten years ago. The colder the days are, the worse the relationship is!"

Hearing this, I looked at Miranda in surprise and thought, "is the relationship between Herbert's parents not good?"

Miranda seemed to realize that she had said too much, so she didn't continue. Instead, she immediately changed the subject. "Oh, Young Master told me to let you rest more. Look, I'm talking to you again. I'm going to clean up. Have a rest!" After that, she took the rag and left

After Miranda left, I couldn't help but think, "No wonder Herbert is so cold. Does it have something to do with his growing environment? A couple with an indifferent relationship can easily affect a child's sexiness. I can't help but sympathize with him in my heart."

Although he was born into a rich family, he might not be happy in his childhood, just like how it felt to grow up in a broken family. Thinking of this, I felt a little more distressed for Herbert Because I'm pregnant, I like to sleep. I'm sleepy in the afternoon.

I fell asleep in bed very soon.

At six o'clock in the afternoon, the sound of the door opening woke me up.

I opened my eyes and saw the solemn expression on Herbert's face He took off his silver suit, pulled off his wine-red tie, and threw it on the sofa. After sitting on the sofa, he untied a few buttons on his shirt with emotion Seeing that he was in a bad mood, I asked carefully. "Why did you come back so early today?" "Or should I stay there and enjoy others making fun of me?" Herbert said coldly

I got out of bed. poured a glass of water, put it in front of him, and said with a smile. "Who dares to laugh at you!"

1711 "Did you do it on purpose?" Herbert stared at me. "What on purpose?" I don't understand what he meant.

"The clothes." Herbert glanced at the clothes on his body. I finally understood what he meant. He must have been laughed at by others in his clothes. It was really funny. However, I couldn't laugh in front of Herbert, so I had to continue to pretend to be innocent. "Who said that this attire is not good?"
