Chapter 466

Chapter 466

Bella's POV:

Not only did Herbert have good physical strength, but he also had strong desire.

Recently, I felt that my body was a little weak.

When would my period come? Having been a woman for nearly 30 years, it was the first time that I was so eager to have a period soon.

The next morning, I was almost late again.

As soon as I sat down at the desk, Joey followed me in.

"Hey, do you think that Emma's life is in danger?" Joey asked curiously.

Hearing this, I frowned. "I'm also curious."

At this time, Joey curled her lips. "But I think it was very serious at that time. Even if she could be saved, she would probably become disabled. It's better than..."

Suddenly, Joey shut up.

Two days later, on the night of the same day, I was watching TV with Lucky in my arms. Herbert came back from the social engagement.

"Dad, Dad." When Lucky saw Herbert, she began to struggle to get close to him.

Seeing this, Herbert took off his suit and went forward to hug her. When he lifted her over his head, she laughed, and the whole room was filled with her happy laughter.

Seeing that Herbert was drunk, I stepped forward with a smile and hugged him. "Well, I think you've drunk a lot. Don't drop Lucky." "Even if I fall, I won't drop my daughter." Herbert smiled and touched Lucky's face. I didn't say anything, but I knew that he really doted on her. Herbert sat on the sofa, stunned for a moment, then looked up at me and said, "Emma is dead." Hearing this, I was stunned. I opened my mouth and asked after a long while, "When did it happen?" Although I knew that Emma's situation was critical that time, I was still very shocked when I heard that she was dead. Herbert looked a little serious and said, "It is said that she was sent to the hospital on the day of the car accident. She was rescued for two or three hours, but it didn't succeed. She died that day. Her funeral was over yesterday."

Hearing this, I was stunned for a few seconds. I still couldn't come to my senses. Although Emma was my enemy, it was still a pity that a living person was gone. Seeing that I didn't speak, Herbert said again, "Guess who came forward to hold the funeral for Emma this time?"

Hearing this, I looked up and asked in confusion, "Connie didn't do it herself?"

"It was William who did it. Now that Connie doesn't have money, she can't do it at all," Herbert replied.

Chapter 466

09.58 I said in surprise, "It seems that William is also a kind person." Herbert nodded. "Yes. The funeral was done very well. Everything was very particular. Although they didn't have many friends and relatives, it was decent. William had been on the scene all the time" I also understood that although William and Emma had been at odds with each other, they had fallen in love with each other in the past. Now that she was gone and left so suddenly, even her family was unable to hold a funeral. William had done his best. All the grudges were gone, and everything was over.

Thinking about it, with the death of Emma, the grudge between Emma and I was also written off. Thinking about it, I felt much more relaxed. Then, I suddenly looked up and said with a smile, "It seems that you and William are on the same side."

Hearing this, Herbert did not react. Raising his eyebrows, he looked at me and asked, "What do you mean?"

I smirked and said, "You're all good to your ex-girlfriends."

Hearing this, Herbert opened his mouth. This time, he was a little embarrassed, so he said in an embarrassed tone, "I knew you were waiting to set a trap for me here." "It can be seen that it's necessary to have a reliable ex-boyfriend. When they are in a desperate situation, you can at least collect their body." I looked at Herbert and said with a cheeky smile. At this time, Herbert reached out and hugged Lucky. While playing with her, he said, "You can satirize me as you like. Anyway, I'm used to your sarcasm. I'm used to it." "Who mocked you? Don't you think I'm praising you for being kind?" I laughed.

In fact, I was also touched by what Herbert had done for Caroline. After all, not every ex-boyfriend could do it, and she had caused so much trouble for him. "I didn't hear that you were praising me. I only know that you're mocking me." Herbert glanced at me and said with a smile.

"Then I won't make fun of you anymore. I'm going upstairs." I stood up and was about to leave.

But in the next second, my wrist was grabbed by a big hand. I lowered my head to look, only to see Herbert revealing two rows of white teeth with a smile. "I'm used to your sarcasm. If I can't hear you insulting me, I'll feel uncomfortable!"

Hearing this, I pursed and smiled. Then I sat back on the sofa. "Then I'll continue to satirize you, but what should I say?" "Sit here and think about it. I'll play with my daughter for a while." Herbert lowered his head and kissed Lucky on the face. I looked at the father and daughter, holding half of my head with my arms.

Happiness rose from the bottom of my heart and spread all the way to the corner of my mouth,

I was really satisfied that I could live such a happy life now.

TROSSINGENTINA

Bella's POV

At dinner time. Herbert suddenly said to me, "Bella, I need to trouble you with one thing."

"My father is now hospitalized in the city. My mother quarreled with my father and refused to come and take care of him. So I want to ask you to visit my father when you have time. I will be on a business trip for a few days tomorrow."

"Ah? What's wrong with your father? Why didn't I hear you mention it before?" I asked in a hurry,

"It's not a big deal. He just fell down. He just needs to stay in the hospital for a while."

I nodded and said, "Where are you going on a business trip? How long will you be back?"

Herbert grabbed my hand with a smile and explained, "We're going to hold a wedding ceremony in more than a week. After the wedding, we're going on a honeymoon. I guess we'll have to take a vacation for a period of time, so I'll take the opportunity to inspect the surrounding projects quickly in the next few days so that I can accompany you with peace of mind."

I nodded, "Don't worry about the hospital. I'll go and visit your dad every day."

I leaned against Herbert's chest and asked softly, "How many days will it take for you to inspect all the projects?"

"Three to four days." Herbert thought for a moment and answered.

"That long?" I pouted and asked.

Herbert lowered his head and glanced at me. Then he stroked my long hair with his big hand and said with a smile, "You can't bear to part with me for a few days?"

"I want you to accompany me every day." My face rubbed back and forth in front of his chest.

"I'll accompany you every day when I come back." Herbert lowered his head and kissed me on the cheek.

I didn't know why, but when I felt that he said he was going on a business trip, my heart was very uneasy and I couldn't bear to leave him.

Maybe it was because I had been too comfortable recently. His company had become accustomed to it. As soon as he said that he would leave, I began to get unaccustomed to it, even for a few days.

"I won't be here for a few days. Of course, I'll compensate you tonight."

Compensate me? A compensation with his body? I couldn't help laughing.

He turned off the wall lamp and the room fell into darkness.

The next morning, after Herbert went on a business trip, I lay in bed and continued to sleep for an hour before getting up.

After washing up, I was ready to go downstairs and go to work.

At this time, Miranda had already gone out to buy some food, and Lucky was still sleeping. When Gary saw that I had gone downstairs, she hurriedly said, "Madam, before going out, Sir asked me to put the breakfast in the thermos. I will go and get it for you."

"No need. I can go and get it myself." I turned around and went into the kitchen with a smile.

I opened the thermos and found a sumptuous breakfast in it.

I sat at the dining table and ate while recalling his gentle touch and kiss last night.

At this time, Gary said as she cleaned up the dining room, "Madam, your relationship with Mr. Wharton is really good"

Hearing this, I looked up at Gary, only to see that she was looking at me with a pair of envious eyes

I couldn't help but think of the loud noise last night. She must have heard it

Timmediately changed the subject "Gary, you have a good relationship with your husband loften hear you guys making phone calls."

Hearing this, Gary smiled and said, "My husband is very good in other aspects, except that he can't earn money"

I was a little confused. "What are these other aspects?"

"My husband treats my child and me very well. We don't meet each other often. Once in a while, he will stick to me and won't let me go."

Hearing this, I suddenly understood and quickly lowered my head to eat. However, Gary became talkative. "Sigh, you are all good to me and pay me a high salary for this job, but I can't be with my husband every day. He is alone in the countryside farm with our child"

Hearing this, I almost choked. I knew that she had heard the loud noise last night. But this was good It really irritated a lonely woman who was separated from her husband,

The next moment, I quickly raised my head and drank a glass of milk.

Then, I wiped my mouth with a tissue, stood up, and said, "Gary, it's the weekend tomorrow. Anyway, I'm not going to work. I'll give you two days off. Go back and see your husband and child."

After that, I turned and walked out of the dining room.

After walking out of the villa, I covered my chest and lowered my head with a smile. Then I took out my mobile phone and made a phone call,

"Are you awake?" As soon as the phone was connected, the deep voice of Herbert came from the other end of the line

I could hear the sound of the car moving and knew that he was still on the way.

"I've already had breakfast and gone out," I said with a smile.

"How about the breakfast I prepared for you?" said Herbert.

"It's delicious, but I just put it into my mouth. I didn't have a chance to taste it at all" I said,

"What do you mean? What's wrong with you? Are you feeling uncomfortable?" Herbert's tone suddenly became nervous,

Hearing that he was very nervous about me, I smiled and said, "I'm not uncomfortable. I just chatted with Gary for a while I gave her two days off and asked her to go home to have a look."

Hearing this, Herbert breathed a sigh of relief, "Tomorrow is the weekend, you have to work harder. You are a good hostess, caring about her family."

"It was us yesterday.." I looked around and saw no pedestrians passing by. Then I said in a low voice, "We irritated her yesterday and made her miss her husband."

Herbert's laughter came from the other end of the line.

"It's all my fault. Next time, I'll give her a new headset," said Herbert with a smile,

Hearing this, I couldn't help rolling my eyes, I thought that he would say that he would be more careful next time and he would be gentler. Unexpectedly, he said that he would give her a headset.

"I've never seen such an overbearing person like you. Well, I won't talk to you anymore. I'm going to work soon, and I'm going to be late again. When I have a break at noon, I'll find time to go to the hospital to see your father and my mother. I'm hanging up," I said to Herbert on the phone.

MUNTRYMI

"Are you angry that I said I was giving another woman a headset? I'll give you one too." Herbert was sull

Chapter 468

Chapter 468

Bella's POV:

That morning, I was working. Joey walked over. "It was delivered by express delivery just now." Joey put a parcel in front of me.

I looked down at the parcel in front of me and couldn't help frowning. "Who sent it?"

"You'll know when you open it." Joey sat opposite me.

With curiosity in my heart, I reached out and opened the parcel.

Inside the package was a thin layer of plastic. When the film was opened, it was sealed with a thick plastic bag. When the bag was opened, there was a paper box inside, and when the paper bag was opened, there was a yellow cotton bag inside.

Seeing this, Joey couldn't help but laugh. "Did someone deliberately make fun of you?"

One layer after another, I couldn't help but tilt my head.

Then, I opened the cloth bag, and finally, a half-foot-wide black velvet box was revealed. The box was exquisitely made.

The next moment, under Joey's gaze, I reached out and opened the black velvet box.

As soon as the box was opened, I was blinded by the dazzling light inside.

There was a set of ruby jewelry lying inside the black velvet box. It was a ruby necklace with complicated craftsmanship. The main stone was bigger than the thumbnail, and there were four auxiliary stones. The auxiliary stones were also as big as the small fingernail, and it should be the best heliotrope stone with countless small diamonds on it. There was also a pair of ruby earrings of the same style.

"Wow, this set of jewelry is gorgeous. Joey reached out to take the velvet box, and her eyes almost fell on the ruby jewelry, "Wow, this set of ruby jewelry will probably cost millions of dollars. Does Herbert want to give you a surprise? So he asked the courier to send it to you when he's not at home?"

I also thought that it must be a surprise from Herbert. A happy smile appeared on my face, but I was complaining in my heart, "This Herbert gave me such a valuable gift, and he didn't even tell me."

At this time, a beige card suddenly appeared in the gap in the velvet box.

“What’s that?” Joey also noticed the card on the table. And then, Joey reached out to grab the card. Lowering her head, she glanced at it, then opened her mouth wide. “Klein?”

Hearing this, I was also shocked and reached out to grab the card from Joey’s hand. Two lines of words were written on the card. “I happened to have a business trip on the day of the wedding, so I won’t be able to attend your wedding. This set of jewelry was bought for you last time when we were about to get married. It’s useless for me to keep it now. It’s a wedding gift for you.” “In the past few days, I’ve thought a lot. Maybe I really should give up loving you. I’m going to find my happiness. It may take some time, but I believe that I can find it.”

“Bella, it’s really good to know you. Although we can’t be lovers, I hope that when we meet again, we can still be friends. I wish you a happy wedding and eternal happiness.” The signature was from Klein.

I knew Klein’s handwriting. This must have been written by himself. Upon seeing these lines of words, I felt much more at ease.

In the letter, Klein said that he would let go of his love for me, and he would go find happiness that belonged to him.

I also sincerely congratulated him, hoping that he could find the happiness that belonged to him

Of course, it was just as he said.

Even if we couldn’t be lovers or husband and wife, we could still be good friends,

Joey stretched out her neck and glanced at the words on the card. She couldn’t help but sigh. “Klein really is a good man.”

I put the card in my hand on the jewelry, looked at the set of jewelry, and said, “In fact, he is very happy.”

At this moment, my heart was still filled with guilt. Although in the end, Klein had used a bad method.

But he was really good to me.

Without him, I wouldn’t have been able to overcome those difficulties.

Joey couldn’t help but say, “Klein has to personally digest this. It’s useless for you to feel guilty.”

I nodded in agreement, walked to the safe, and bent down to open it. I put the velvet box in my hand into the safe and locked it

Suddenly, Joey lowered her voice and said, "Aren't you afraid of it being stolen if you put such a valuable thing in the office?"

Although there was a safe in the office, there was no one in the office during the holidays or at night. It was indeed not very safe.

I said, "I can't go back to this kind of thing for a while. If I take it home and show it to Herbert, he will definitely mind. I don't want to quarrel with him."

Herbert was a very possessive person. Although Klein had already made it very clear in the letter, if it was seen by Herbert, he would definitely mind.

Hearing these words, Joey nodded. "Indeed. Herbert will definitely mind. But you aren't going to accept this gift? I feel that if someone like Klein were to give it away, he probably won't take it back."

Hearing these words, I frowned. I knew Klein too well. He was the kind of person who would not take back what he gave. But other gifts were not that important. In terms of price value or sentimental value, this gift was too valuable. How could I accept it?

Therefore, I was also very distressed and didn't know what to do.

At this moment, Joey said, "Why don't you wait for Klein to get married and send it back to him? I just don't know when he'll get married."

I crossed my arms in front of my chest and said, "I have to think about it carefully."

"But since Klein has already said so, he will definitely find his happiness."

"Think about it yourself I'm going out to work." Joey stood up.

Just as Joey was about to step out of the door, I suddenly looked at her back and said, "By the way, I forgot to tell you that the best man Herbert invited is temporarily busy and will not attend the wedding, so the best man is temporarily changed to Connor."

Joey turned around and stared at me with her eyes wide open. I found it a little funny. "Connor isn't a tiger. He won't hurt you. Why are you so nervous?"

Only then did Joey put away her panicked expression. She stammered, "I... I'm not nervous at all. I just feel... speechless."

Chapter 469

Chapter 469

Bella's POV:

I knew that Joey had a good impression of Connor. Seeing how upset she was, I couldn't help but feel uncomfortable. Originally, I wanted to match her up with Connor, but it was a pity that Connor had no interest in Joey.

So, I said tentatively, "If you mind, why don't I ask Amy to replace you?"

Suddenly, Joey straightened her chest and said, "What's there to care about? It doesn't matter who's the best man. What's important is that when you're married, the bridesmaid must be me. Besides, I'm still waiting for the big gift from Herbert. How can I give this opportunity to someone else?"

After that, she turned around and went out.

I couldn't help but smile. A few days later, Herbert finally came back. After dinner, I had already coaxed Lucky. I told Lucas a story and coaxed him. After going upstairs, I made a phone call. It was very noisy on Herbert's side. He said that he was having dinner with his colleagues and would come home after dinner.

as a

I quickly took a shower and did my skincare routine. At ten o'clock, I was lying on the big bed in a lace-rimmed nightdress.

The wait was really boring. Herbert did not come back after a long time. Finally, I closed my eyes when I was watching a drama.

When I woke up, I suddenly opened my eyes and found that the lights in my bedroom had been turned off, and the TV had been turned off.

I didn't know when I had an arm on my waist. I turned my head and looked back. In the moonlight, I saw Herbert lying next to me.

The dim moonlight shone on his handsome face, and I was very surprised. "Oh my god, when did he come back? Why didn't I hear anything?"

Just as I was feeling vexed, I heard his low voice. "You're awake?"

Hearing this, I sat up in surprise, reached out to turn on the wall lamp, and the room immediately lit up with dim light.

“When... when did you come back?” I looked at the person in front of me and asked.

At this time, Herbert reached out and took the wristwatch on the bedside table. He glanced at it and replied, “I entered at 11 o’clock and it has been three hours.”

Hearing this, I touched my hair and complained, “You’ve been back for so long, why didn’t you tell me? I’ve been waiting for you all night!”

Hearing this, a playful smile appeared on Herbert’s lips. “When I came back, you slept very soundly. I carried you to the bed, but you didn’t wake up at all. Bella, did you wait for me all night?”

“I... I really waited for you all night, but... I was bored. I was tired and I fell asleep.” I pouted and lowered my head. I didn’t dare to look at him, but I was very annoyed in my heart. How could I fall asleep?

Chapter 469

I couldn’t help but sigh in my heart. In order to welcome him, I took a shower in the bathroom for more than half an hour, and then deliberately wore a sexy lace nightdress, but I didn’t expect that it was all in vain.

At this time, Herbert reached out to pinch my chin and lifted my face. “I haven’t seen this nightdress before.”

“Last time, you asked someone from the mall to send it to me. I picked this one and put it on. Do I look good?” I looked at him with a smile.

There was a flash of heat in Herbert’s eyes at this moment. “The nightdress is beautiful.”

“You...”

“You look better!” Herbert hugged me.

Hearing this, I pursed my lips and smiled. I stretched out my arms, hooked them around his neck, raised my chin, and said, “That’s more like it!”

Herbert lowered his head and sniffed my soft neck, and then the hot air at the tip of his nose sprayed on my ear. “This shower gel smells so good.” “That’s my body fragrance, okay?” I corrected him with a smile. “What are you doing?” He raised his hand and answered seriously, “I’m smelling your body scent.” “You’re so annoying!” I reached out and tried to push him away. I lay quietly in Herbert's arm, looking at the moonlight outside the window and chatting with him.

"Herbert, I have something to tell you..."

I thought about it for a long time, but I still decided to tell him that Klein had given me a necklace.

Although I knew that he might dislike it.

But if I didn't tell him and he found out about it in the future, it would sow discord again.

"... That's what happened. Klein and I are no longer in love. The necklace he gave me is just for blessing. I don't want you to misunderstand. Or if you have any other thoughts, you can communicate with me."

I went on, "We're already getting married. I don't want there to be any conflicts between us."

Based on my understanding of Herbert, I thought he would ask me to return the necklace.

Or express his emotions,

But none of that happened.

Herbert held me tightly in his arms. "Bella, thank you for your trust in me. You're willing to communicate with me and you took the initiative to tell me these things."

"To be honest, I do mind. After all, that necklace was the witness of your marriage with him in the past. I love you, so I do mind. But because I love you, I can let it go. I am willing to trust you. In the past, we always had conflicts because of some things."

"In the future, let's be honest with each other like today, okay?"

When I heard what he said, I was stunned.

He seemed to be a different person from what I thought

This was really a very good change.

Chapter 469

"Okay, we'll be like this in the future." I held his hand.

"Bella..." Herbert seemed to want to say something to me.

I looked at him. "What are you trying to say?"

At this moment, the expression on Herbert's face was very strange and complicated.

But soon, he returned to normal. "It's okay. I get to know something recently. But I haven't thought about how to tell you. I'll tell you when I figure it out, okay?"

"Okay." Although I was really curious about what he wanted to say, I still held back my curiosity and did not ask.

In order to ease the tension between us, I said, "Dear, you suddenly stopped being overbearing. I'm not used to it."

Herbert laughed as well. "You've misunderstood me. Of course, I am still that overbearing Herbert. My personality is hard to change. But when it comes to major things, I will change a little."

"Okay!" I hugged him tightly again.

I suddenly thought of something. "Oh, right. Isn't there a lot of employees in the Wharton Group? Why do you have to make Connor your best man?"

Herbert's finger swept across my skin. "Connor is the person I trust the most. Over the years, the affection between us has long surpassed that of the boss and the employee. That is why, at the most important moment of my life, I naturally want him to participate as well. Is there a problem?"

Hearing this, I quickly shook my head and said, "No, I'm just afraid that Joey will feel a little uncomfortable."

"We are all modern people. People can be friends even after they divorce, not to mention a blind date that didn't work out. I don't think Joey is as petty as you."

"Hey, who do you think is petty?" Hearing this, I immediately turned over and asked.

Herbert said with a smile, "Did I say anything about you?"

"You're talking about me. I heard it just now." I leaned over and asked.

Herbert laughed. "You are indeed petty. After breaking up with me, you treated me as your enemy and we couldn't even be friends!"

"It was you who were petty, okay? You didn't let me go after breaking up with me. If I became your friend again, I wouldn't know how you would treat me!" I immediately complained.

"That's because I didn't bear to part with you." As Herbert said this, his hands tightened around my waist in an instant

Hearing this, my anger disappeared in an instant, replaced by softness, and then I was about to melt.

"Really?" Although I thought so in my heart, I still had to ask.

Bride of Mr.Billion Chapter 470

Chapter 470

Chapter 470

Bella's POV:

"Of course it's true." Herbert put my hand on his chest.

"I swear in the name of God that what I said is absolutely serious."

Hearing his serious words, I couldn't help laughing

"What are you laughing at? I'm telling the truth. I don't know why, but recently, I feel that I've become different. I will miss you if I don't see you for a few hours. I will also say something disgusting to make you happy. You are mine now. If you leave me again, I will be extremely sad." After that, Herbert held my hand more tightly.

I didn't expect him to say such emotional words. While I was moved, I raised my head and playfully stroked his chin with a little beard. "I won't leave you. We will always be together." Herbert was a little excited. He touched me with his big hand. "Really? You have to prove it to me." He made me feel itchy all over. I smiled and gave him a push. "Stop it. It's itchy!" "Then I'll help you relieve the itch." As he spoke, Herbert was about to lean over.

I quickly hugged his arm and begged for mercy. "Well, we're going to hold a wedding in five days. You'd better rest more."

Hearing this, Herbert raised his eyebrows. "Why do I have to rest?"

I put my arms around his neck and said with a smile, "On the night of our wedding, don't you want to perform well?"

Hearing this, a smile appeared on Herbert's lips. "You seem to look down on me a little bit. Even if I don't rest for a few days, I can still give you an unforgettable wedding night."

"You're so annoying!" I pushed him and lay down with my back to him.

Herbert put his arm around my waist and asked, "You don't believe my ability?"

"I believe it, I believe it. It's just that I don't have such ability. I need to rest and recuperate," I said quickly

Of course, I knew about Herbert's ability, but it was true that I couldn't take it.

These days, sometimes my feet were like stepping on cotton during the day. It must be because he was too needy at night. It seemed that I really needed to train my body in the future, otherwise, I really couldn't keep up with his pace.

Herbert smiled and lay behind me. "Then I'll let you go today." I heaved a sigh of relief.

After that, we hugged and fell asleep. We slept soundly that night.

In the afternoon of the next day, I went to visit my mother.

Mom suggested that we meet outside,

Mom lived in Betty's house now. She knew that the conflict between Betty and me had not been solved, so she helped me avoid Betty.

I strolled around with my mom and ate some food,

I also picked a few gifts for mom.

When we were on the way back in the taxi, we were silent until the taxi stopped at the entrance of Betty's community

After we made the payment, the taxi left. I looked up at the tall building in the community and was about to talk

My mother spoke first. "Bella, you can just drop me off here. I know you don't want to go to your sister's house."

Hearing this, I was very sad. "It is really because of this reason that my mother chose to meet me outside."

Treached out and handed the shopping bags in my hand to my mother.

At this time, my mother frowned and said, "I know Betty did a lot of wrong things in the past, but she's your sister after all, and now you are living better than her. I hope you don't mind her."

"Mom, I've never been jealous of Betty. I also hope she can live a good life in the future," I said.

Mom nodded and said, "I know you are a kind child. Your upcoming wedding is an opportunity for you. Betty has promised to attend the wedding. Can you call her and invite her?"

Hearing this, I lowered my head and thought for a moment, then said, "I bought a new bag and a scarf. I'll send them to her tomorrow. You can give them to her."

I was not looking forward to having a better relationship with Betty. I just had to take care of my mother's feelings.

In order to avoid embarrassment, it would be better for my mom to hand over the branded bag and scarf I bought.

So many unpleasant things had happened in the past, and this was the only thing I could do now.

"Okay." My mother nodded with satisfaction.

After that, I bade my mother farewell and left.

On the night two days later, the preparations for the wedding were in the final stages.

in the master bedroom, I arranged all the things needed for the wedding, such as wedding gowns, dresses, shoes, bags, jewelry, and so on. I was afraid that I would be too busy to forget the things at that time.

At this time, Herbert leaned against the bed and looked through the documents. Lucas was very curious when he saw what I was arranging. He touched this and that.

Lucas walked to Herbert and said innocently, "Dad, it's so good to get married. I want to get married too!"

Hearing this, Herbert frowned. He turned to look at Lucas and asked, "How old are you that you're thinking to get married already?"

"Mommy's clothes and shoes are so beautiful. I'm going to buy them for my bride in the future!" Lucas raised his head and said without blinking.

"Then you have to study hard first, and then earn money. If you can earn money, you can buy whatever you want for your woman." Herbert had no choice but to teach him patiently.

At this time, Lucas nodded and put his finger into his mouth. "Well, dad, you're right. I'll go downstairs to study!"

Chapter 470

08 25 After that, Lucas turned around and ran out.

I was packing when I heard the father and son's words. I couldn't help but shake my head and remind Lucas who ran out. "Slow down, don't fall!"

"Got it." A loud voice came from the door. Then, the sound of someone stepping down the stairs was heard.

I turned around and sat on the bed. With a bitter smile, I said, "At such a young age, he has already thought of studying hard in order to buy good things for his wife in the future. I'm sure he will forget about his mother in the future!"

Herbert took my hand and lowered his head to kiss me on the back of my hand. "Don't you still have me?"

As he spoke, he held me in his arms.

It was supposed to be a very warm and romantic moment, but unexpectedly, someone said in the next second, "Who is more important between me and your son?"

I looked up and saw a pair of eyes full of possessiveness. I deliberately provoked him. "Of course, my son and daughter are more important."

Herbert narrowed his eyes, revealing a dangerous light. He threatened, "I'll give you another chance. Who's more important?"

"You're... equally important." At this time, I could only change my words.

"Ah..." The next moment, I let out a low cry.

With a flip of his body, he had already pinned me down!

Herbert stared at me and said, "It seems that you still don't know the answer if I don't punish you."

After that, he lowered his head and bit my neck.

"Don't... don't make trouble. I haven't packed up everything yet!" I pushed his chest and looked up at the clothes and shoes piled up everywhere in the room.

However, it was already too late. Even if I changed my words at the last moment, it would still be too late...

About an hour later, the room fell into silence.

I lay on the messy bed sheet, with my hair scattered on the pillow. My hands and feet were weak, and I had no strength at all when I was lying on the bed.

As for Herbert, who stood by the bed and put on his bathrobe, he was in a good state of mind.

A satisfied expression appeared on his face.

He smiled and reached out to touch my face, asking, "Do you know who is most important this time?"

I rolled my eyes at him and said stubbornly, "My son and daughter are the most important!"

We just did it once, and it was impossible for him to do it again. Anyway, I had suffered a lot, so I couldn't show weakness. I thought willfully.

Hearing this, Herbert held my chin with a dangerous look in his eyes.

However, I was not afraid anymore. I sat up directly from the bed, raised my chin, and said arrogantly, "I have been punished. You won't punish me again, will you?"

08.26 ) "What do you mean? Do you think I won't punish you again, or do you think I don't have the ability to punish you?" Herbert sneered.

I immediately stood up from the bed and prepared to escape.

The next second, my body suddenly left the ground.

I was picked up by Herbert. I instinctively stretched out my arms and immediately hugged the only thing in front of me that I could hold—Herbert's neck!

Just as I was glad that I didn't fall to the ground, a terrifying light and a cold voice immediately came from above my head. "Since you suspect my ability, it seems that I need you to show me my real ability."

“What... about your real ability?” I asked in horror.

Herbert turned around, walked to the bed, and threw me on the soft big bed.

I looked up and saw him take off the bathrobe that he had just put on. My lips couldn't help trembling, and I could only say something nice. “Herbert, don't pretend to be strong. I... I know your ability, okay? Don't...”

The next moment, he pounced on his prey like a lion, and no matter what I said, it was useless...

After this, I lay directly on the bed. I didn't even have the strength to moan, let alone to be stubborn.

The initiator who was leaning against the bed glanced at me, who was like a piece of wood on the bed, and a pleasant smile appeared on his lips.

This man was like a child who liked to fuss.

His physical strength was as fierce as a beast's.

However, I knew that he did all this because he loved me and cared about me.
