

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

I'm Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2572

Christopher looked at Galia with an incomprehensible expression: "It's clear, do they still blame you?"

Galia nodded: "It's not just me? Not a single one of the people present apologized to me, on the contrary, they were blaming me."

Christopher: "Damn!"

Galia's mood has stabilized after crying for a while , she narrated faintly and lightly: "The little thing in the company is a small art Eiffel Tower given to the company by a foreign customer. Originally, this art was always placed on the table of the boss, but that day. The tower suddenly disappeared in the morning.

Just the second day after I confronted all the people in the company because of this matter, the company just came to another customer who wanted to visit our new product. The boss and the company's auntie who was in charge of logistics took the key and went to Open the door of the exhibition hall.

The moment the door opened, the boss and the aunt in charge of logistics saw that the small exhibit was on the table of the exhibition hall upstairs.

It was ironic at that time. The boss took the exhibit directly down.

Then He said, "The iron tower is found, and the exhibition hall is upstairs."

When I saw the boss found the iron tower and took it down from the upstairs, I burst into tears. To be honest, that voice Even I find it unpleasant to listen to. Remembering the website is like a ghost crying and wolf howling, very ignorant.

I shouted in the office like a shrew and asked everyone in the office to apologize to me.

The boss said to me at the time, 'You are crazy! It's work time, can you pay attention to public places? If you really don't want to do it here, you can resign immediately, and the company will approve you immediately! '

The boss's words made me lose my temper immediately like a deflated ball.

I sat sullenly at my desk.

He didn't even dare to lift his head.

At that moment, I felt that I was extremely aggrieved.

However, I dare not attack.

Because at that moment I needed work and money.

Colleagues saw me sitting down in a dreary manner, and some people started muttering again.

"You don't even think about it, why don't we suspect others, but do we suspect you?"

"There are so many people in a field, they don't doubt Zhang San or Li Si, but they doubt you. Why?"

"I'm sure you are . You did the trick yourself."

"First of all, you have a problem with your own character, and that's why we suspect you!"

"You better reflect on yourself, the problem lies with you, and you should correct it!"

"Go Go, stay away from me!"

"Oh, I'm going to find the personnel department to move my seat, I don't want to sit with someone like you, your character is so low."

Brother Christopher, you Could it be unimaginable that such a thing would happen?

You might ask me, how did you stay in this environment?

In fact, it's been so long, I don't even understand myself, why was I so spineless at the time?

How can you listen to those words? "

At this moment, when Christopher heard these narrations of Galia, he really did not understand, he asked: "Yeah Galia, since you are so passive, why don't you resign, I know your mother needs money to see a doctor, But it's not hard to find a job now, you can find a job casually, it's better than being so cowardly in that situation, right?"

You, you didn't quit your job and continued to work?"

Chapter 2573

Galia shrugged and smiled: "Brother Christopher, have you ever heard a phrase called boiled frog in warm water?" Galia shrugged and smiled

. Kuan immediately understood the meaning of Galia's words, and he nodded with a sad expression: "Of course I know that."

Galia continued to say quietly: "Frogs are very sensitive animals in terms of bouncing. The water is boiled, and if you throw a frog in it, it may jump out and escape at once, and it will not be scalded. But if you put the frog in the cold water at the beginning, heat it little by little, and heat it little by little, it will take a long time It got used to it slowly, and when the water really boiled, it no longer felt that it was a torment, and it was boiled to death in the end.

I was the frog.

From the humble beginning, I had to endure a little bit, and then

I became accustomed to it. I was used to it.

Apart from my vanity, a false education, and repeated conflicts with the people around me, I had no virtues at all. In that company, I was like a poor person. A worm-like existence.

Brother Christopher, you may not have thought of it, right?

The heroines in many romance novels, whether they are Cinderella in the countryside, or a proud little princess in a big city who has fallen into the world, Their characters are actually designed to arouse the sympathy, love and protection of everyone around them.

However, the reality is not. The reality is that I came out of the countryside, ignorant and ignorant. In the end, he didn't hide it and was exposed in public and his reputation was swept away, and then he had a bad temper, was not gregarious, was inferior and conceited, and all kinds of things.

I hate myself for being spineless.

Why can't I maintain my dignity by dying instead of working for that company again when I've been cleared that I didn't steal?

It wasn't entirely because my mother was sick.

In fact, the most fundamental reason is my vanity. I am used to being a white-collar worker in the office. I am used to being looked at me with envy by those outsiders who are not familiar with my situation at the time. I am even more used to it. My mother's family adores me.

So, I cowardly chose to suffer in that humiliation.

Or, at the time, I didn't even know it was a humiliation because I really didn't feel it.

In the two years since then, I have lived in that cynicism every day, and in the office, almost everything big and small that has anything to do with me is my fault.

Of course, in fact, I have always done a good job in my work.

This confidence is always there.

I have always done a good job in my own work, but this kind of good completion has never entered the eyes of my boss.

Boss, never praised me.

Even if I am willing to work overtime and do a lot more in order to please everyone in the company, I still have not won the praise from my boss and the people around me.

The whole company believed that I was reluctant to stay in the company because my boss took pity on me and the company was willing to train people.

In two years, at the end of the two years, when the company graded the staff in the office, the boss always gave me a failing grade.

Minimum score in the whole office.

At that time, I was already humble enough to feel no shame.

At that time, I was completely brainwashed.

Until one day, another incident happened in the company, which made me suddenly and completely explode. "

Christopher couldn't help but ask: "What made you explode, is it serious?"
Galia shook her head: "

Actually, the matter itself is not serious, maybe I made a mistake. That incident made me choose to resign from the company."

Christopher was relieved: "You... finally resigned? " "
