

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

I'm Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2582

is the debt of this ten thousand yuan, for me, a person without a job, it is also a burden on my head up the mountain.

And, more and more. "

"Then how come you haven't found a job for half a year?" Christopher asked in confusion: "It stands to reason that you have three years of work experience, and you work so seriously, you should be able to find a job easily?"

Galia laughed at herself: "It stands to reason that it is really not difficult to find a job . Since two thousand years later, especially girls, all kinds of jobs are easy to find.

As long as you are not picky.

Girls in our village who go out to work can bring home tens of thousands of yuan in savings every year.

Whether it is an electronics factory, a clothing factory, or a variety of factories, they all want girls.

But I am too vain.

I always feel that I have worked in the office for three years, and with enough experience, I am already a real urban white-collar worker, and I will definitely find a decent job.

Besides, if I don't have a decent job, I will be trampled under my feet again when I come home, and they will laugh at me.

I can only succeed, not fail.

In this way, I spent half a year trying to find a decent job.

For half a year, I had no income, and I had to send money to my mother every month.

Brother Christopher.

You know how much I regret it now? "

Christopher: "..."

At this moment, he didn't know what to say.

He hasn't even figured out, is the girl in front of him telling him stories and trying to cheat him of money, or is what the girl said is true?

At this moment, he could only look at Galia silently without saying anything.

Galia didn't notice Christopher's suspicion of her.

She took a long sigh and continued to say to Christopher: "Did you know, Brother Christopher? If life is really like what is written in a novel, if there is such a thing as time-travel or rebirth, I must be reborn ten years ago. .

Definitely!

I didn't imagine that I could graduate from junior high school and go on to high school or college.

Although I really did well in my studies, I didn't fantasize about such a thing. I just wanted to go back to when I graduated from junior high school ten years ago. , I will definitely not be as vain as I used to be. I care so much about how others look down on me.

I will endure the humiliation, carry the simplest luggage and go to work in the big city, doing the most basic work. With my intelligence, I will I will still be promoted by the workshop director, but I will definitely not resign after a few months as I did last time.

I will definitely do my job well step by step.

Even if I am looked down upon by the people around me, I will Down-to-earth.

In fact, in this world, the way you want to gain respect from others is not what you wear and your fake education.

It is your identity as an ordinary working girl, and you make some achievements down to earth, and those people will definitely appreciate it. You are very impressed.

My first job was promoted by a leader. I don't need to fake a fake degree. If I can stay in that position for three years, I will learn all the things and techniques I need to learn. It will be much easier if I resign and look for a job again.

Moreover, when I look for a job, I don't have to be a white-collar worker in the office.

I am a foreman in the workshop, and with my solid skills, I still have the opportunity to be promoted. What if you don't get promoted?

Three hundred and sixty lines, every line out of the champion.

At least, I don't have so much vanity and psychological burden.

I don't need to pay for my vanity.

A person is truly respected only if he is down-to-earth and makes achievements step by step.

The most important thing is to actually save money.

Instead of having an unstable job, not only did not save money, but also owed a lot of money, as I did later. Having said that, Galia looked at Christopher with tears streaming down her face: "Brother Christopher, do you think there is a rebirth technique in this world? "

Chapter 2583

Christopher said gently: "No, there is no rebirth in this world."

"Woooooo.... .." Galia cried even more: "How great would it be if I could be reborn? How great would it be if I could be born again, I will definitely study hard and go to university. I can go to university! I do n't have fun anymore.

No, it's fine if I don't get reborn until junior high school, I'll just be reborn and work in my factory.

I'll definitely work hard, and I won't do things that love vanity anymore, and I'll never follow My cousin and cousin are compared, and I can't do it anymore.

I just want to work hard and save money steadily.

Woohoo, but everything is too late.

It's too late!"

"Is it too late?" Christopher interrupted Galia asked calmly.

Galia: "Brother Christopher, what do you mean?"

Christopher shrugged: "Silly girl, you are not yet thirty years old this year, so young, why is it too late, what you said is just a Young people love to make mistakes.

As I said, many people who make mistakes in this world do not realize their mistakes in their entire lives. Therefore, they will never correct their mistakes in their entire lives. For example..."

said At these times, Christopher thought of Elma, Lanita, and Walton.

These girls are more vain than Galia.

Even more vicious than Galia.

Among them, two girls wanted Li Dai Taojang, and both wanted to occupy the magpie's nest.

To put it bluntly, is it not for that selfishness?

Still don't want to satisfy their vanity.

In order to satisfy their own vanity, those girls have no bottom line, and they even don't hesitate to frame other people's lives.

Compared with them, Galia's vanity is hardly worth mentioning.

In a few minutes, Christopher had already thought about it.

Intuition told him that the girl in front of him didn't seem to be lying to him.

If it is really a lie, she should not make up such a story. Most of her stories are blaming herself instead of saying how pitiful she is.

She has always faced her own shortcomings.

What's more, even if this girl lied to him and wanted to make up a story to defraud him of money, so what?

He Christopherdao hasn't revealed his identity yet. In this small northern county, no one knows that he is a rich owner, so he made up his mind. No matter what, he will not lend money to this small town. Girl, can't you do it?

If everything this little girl said is true, at this time, if he doesn't help her, she may really fall into the abyss.

The little girl was right.

The story of Cinderella exists only in the story.

Cinderella in fairy tales, even if something happens to her, a prince will come to rescue her.

In reality, most of the girls, especially the girls who came to work in big cities from the countryside, are mostly like Galia, and most of them want to raise their eyebrows and overtake the game, but they often have the opposite effect.

Who in this world has no vanity?

Everyone has.

Just like Suzi, she was so strong in her heart that even if she was wearing begging clothes and dragging a tattered snakeskin bag in her hand, she still showed up in front of Arron without any timidity. Such a girl would be the same in Quannan City. There is only one Suzi.

And ninety-nine percent were Galia.

“Like what, Brother Christopher?” Galia tilted her head and asked seriously.

“You have to remember that you are a rare, pure, kind and brave girl. You are very brave.” Christopher comforted.

He was not telling Galia about the dirty things around Suzi in Nancheng.

Galia is not able to touch the dirty things in the rich and powerful courtyard. Galia is already very fragile, why should she tell her this?
