I'm Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2788

Mi Lu smiled: "Actually, I'm really lucky, I'm so lucky, because the hospital that helped me find out this kind of disease, the reason why they can help me find out is because their hospital has encountered such a case. Cases, in the world, their hospital encountered two cases, it is really a miracle."

Pan Mingsai immediately asked, "Is that case alive?"

Mi Lu nodded: "She's alive."

Pan Mingsai was extremely curious: "How did she live?"

Mi Lu said: "The case at that time was the same as mine. It was discovered when the child was born. After the child was born, she became very cold and the hospital couldn't find a better way, so she could only die. The live horse doctor, they gave this mother who had just given birth to high nutrition every day to maintain this, and then let her get pregnant again, and when she gave birth, they used the child's umbilical cord blood to save the mother's life."

"Umbilical cord blood." Pan Mingsai suddenly realized: "Actually, when there is no better way, using umbilical cord blood should be the safest treatment."

Mi Lu said in a tone of life after the disaster: "Not all umbilical cord blood can be used, it's just her coincidence. And this has something to do with their ethnic group, they are a high mountain group, and the physical quality of the entire ethnic group is They are relatively cold-resistant, and their blood is also cold."

So it was a coincidence. "

"You...you mean, you also used the child's umbilical cord blood?" Suzi asked incredulously.

Mi Lu also said with emotion: "At that time, all the doctors had the mentality of giving it a try. Let the dead horse be the living horse doctor. If you can save the life, you can save the life. I have never seen such a case in China, and I am helpless, so I might as well give it a try. But I never thought that after I changed the bone marrow, my body miraculously improved..."

After a pause, Mi Lu smiled and looked at Suzi and Pan Mingsai: "So Suzi, in fact, if I follow the normal trajectory of my life, I will be Mrs. Shu who enjoys infinite sweetness.

My parents love me, my in-laws love me, and my husband loves me even more.

I'll live the life of a high-society rich wife, and I'll be pregnant with twins.

However, my life could only be two days at most after I gave birth, and I would die.

Even for two years, I need all kinds of drugs to maintain it. Without drugs, I may not be able to live even a week after giving birth to a child.

But the heart is, I am still alive.

I have at least another twenty or thirty years to live.

That way, my kids will grow up.

I think, if God let me choose, is it a short life and a happy death?

It's still a painful life, but I can watch my children grow up and be filial to their parents for 30 years.

Then I would choose the latter.

I'm not an idealist, and I'm not as arrogant as living, I just want to die rather than live, I just want, even if I beg for food in my life, as long as I can watch my children grow up and see more. When my parents saw me, I didn't want to die.

I think, in fact, in this matter, God loves me.

I was born with this disease.

It used to be incurable, but now it is cured.

I just suffered a little bit.

I actually... earned. "

Both Suzi and Pan Mingsai were stunned.

They were speechless for a long time.

Especially Suzi, after she was stunned for a long time, she suddenly hugged Mi Lu and cried: "Wuwuwu, it turns out, it turns out that it is like this, it turns out that there is a will of God..."

Chapter 2789

There is God's will in the dark, and Suzi's words are particularly appropriate.

Mi Lu smiled gratified: "Yes."

Suzi hugged Galia and sighed with emotion: "I finally understand why you are in such pain, Galia, everything is because of your illness, thank God!"

It will be better in the future, it will be better in the future.

I will recognize you, your parents will recognize you, A Zhen will recognize you, and in the future, you will still be that sweet little princess. "

Mi Lu hugged Suzi and cried like a child: "Suzi, you finally recognize me, woo woo... woo woo, I think, I've been very lucky, you are willing to recognize me. Me, I'm very lucky."

Suzi raised his hand and poked Mi Lu's head: "You are not only lucky, you are the luckiest silly girl in the world! Think about it, one in a million or even one in ten million diseases, you suffer from It was cured, you say how lucky you are!

Don't say we dote on you, you are the darling of all God.

Galia, listen to my sister, these setbacks are nothing. How can people not suffer setbacks in their entire life?

People always have to be ups and downs to be considered this time in vain, don't you think? "

Mi Lu nodded heavily: "Yeah!"

The two hugged each other, cried and laughed, laughed and cried.

After a while, Suzi remembered and asked, "Galia, with that pair of middle-aged professors helping you, your life should be pretty good, why are you back?"

Mi Lu smiled bitterly: "Suzi, you said just now, how can one be free from setbacks in this life? Actually, what I want to say is that life is inherently impermanent.

You think I have suffered a lot of grievances, but no matter what, I am still alive.

But that pair of middle-aged professors, God is really blind, what a good couple they are? They are so kind to me, they are literate and knowledgeable, and although they are much younger than my parents, they are about ten years older than me, but they are really like my parents.

I live with my children and I'm actually quite content.

However, that day came so suddenly, there was no sign at all.

A couple walking on the road, just like the kind of desperado shot, for no reason."

Hearing this, Suzi was stunned.

She covered her mouth with her hand: "Ah..."

Mi Lu sighed: "Yes, life is impermanent, but I want to cry without tears. They... They are my relatives abroad. I have lost everything in my country, and I have lost it abroad. I really had the heart to die if I hadn't had two children waiting to be fed, but when I thought of my two children, I could only force me to live."

"Then you have lost your source of life, what should you do?" Suzi asked again.

Mi Lu raised her eyes and looked into the distance, with a calm and firm smile in her smile: "Suzi, I just admired you before, I thought you worked so hard, but you have survived, every time I think of you have suffered so much. , I just thought, how did you come here? Later, it was my turn to endure hardship, and every time I couldn't hold on, I would think of you, and when I thought of you, I had the strength to keep going."

Looking at Suzi, Mi Lu said lightly: "You may not have imagined that after that middle-aged couple died, I started to embark on the long road back to China. I have no money, and I always do odd jobs along the way.

Fortunately, my English is good, and I can communicate with people abroad. I am half begging, half walking, and half working for others. It took me three months to reach the northwest of my country. "

"Northwest? How do you survive in such a desolate place?" Suzi asked with concern.
