Chapter 2708

The

whole company, how many people do not hate you?

Can you take a picture of someone who doesn't hate you?

It's just me..."

Before Lin Dazhou could finish speaking, Galia sneered and interrupted: "So what about President Lin? On the one hand, you hate me immensely, not only do you hate me, but all the employees in your company hate me, even in this case, you don't care about the feelings of other people in the company, don't consider me a liar, don't consider my education is not high, Even when he hates me so much, pinching his nose gives me a job opportunity.

In fact, you have a great kindness to me?

Galia's rhetorical tone made Lin Dazhou extremely annoyed and angry: "Of course ! Otherwise, what do you think! I was pity for you back then, just in the mentality of giving you a chance, purely to tolerate you, pinching my nose to tolerate you!

How capable do you think you are! "

Then why was I in your company, dangling in front of you every day, disgusting so many of your employees every day, doing a mess of work every day, not bringing you profits, and letting everyone in your company Under uncomfortable circumstances, you can give me the opportunity to keep my job and let me earn a salary, and now, I don't work in your company, you can't tolerate me like this?

Do you have to kill me?

Mr. Lin, are you slapping yourself in the face? "Remember the website

Lindazhou: "You..."

"You must know that I am now much more capable of working than I was ten years ago. At that time, you were able to tolerate me, but now you can't." ,Why is this? "

Lin Dazhou: "..."

He was forced by Galia and couldn't say a word.

"Mr. Lin, I am in charge of orders now. Every time I get an order and want to distribute it, I have to calculate the cost and calculate everything. If I don't make money for the company, according to the company's guidelines, I would rather not do it. , and you can't make a list that doesn't make money.

Because if you don't do it, people can still have some free time and take a vacation.

Therefore, a company as big as Fu's Group, with such a humanistic atmosphere, they all have rules, that is, at least When budgeting, there must be a surplus.

This shows that all people who do business and the place where they do business must at least have a cost budget, including labor.

A businessman, no matter how sympathetic he is, will not You may let your company support idlers.

Your sympathy can be used anywhere, but the company involves the work of so many people and the jobs of so many people. If you support idlers, you will harm everyone

! How can someone who has been a businessman for so many years not understand this?

You know better than anyone, right?"

Galia's question was very calm.

On the surface, she was emotionless.

This made Lin Dazhou feel a sense of empathy, and he immediately replied: "It's best if you know this, and if you know this, I hope you can understand why I came to the Fu Group to target you... .."

"President Lin, that's not what I said." Galia looked at Lin Dazhou with a sneer.

Lin Dazhou: "Huh?"

He was a little confused.

He couldn't see what Galia was thinking, and he didn't know what Galia was going to do next. At this moment, Lin Dazhou suddenly realized that the girl in front of him was not easy to deal with.

She is calm and good at fighting.

He suddenly felt that it seemed that he was wrong when he called to fight Galia today.

Sure enough, Galia asked word by word: "I said that when I was working in your company, you knew that I was useful and that I worked hard, but you still humiliated my personality endlessly. Just ask Mr. Lin, what was your intention back then?"

Chapter 2709

Lin Dazhou's face turned red and white.

Yes, what was his intentions back then.

In the past, Galia just had no education, but Galia's work ability was very strong. Galia is very talented in planning, data and cost accounting.

If such an employee can successfully brainwash her and make her feel inferior to the point where she feels that she can't find a job if she goes out, she will be spurned by others, she can hold a basic salary in the company and work hard for a lifetime.

Lynda State thought so and did so.

And, it was very successful.

He has never regarded Galia as a human being, never gave Galia self-esteem, and brainwashed Galia every once in a while, making Galia realize in her heart how inferior and shameless she is. How many injustices have been done.

After a long time, Galia has become a little nervous.

Such Galia is afraid of losing her job.

She lived in trepidation every day, and even many times, Lin Dazhou found out through the monitor that Galia was secretly working overtime in the company until dawn because of a cost calculation.

Plus all night, she didn't dare to tell anyone.

I was afraid that others would say that she didn't work hard and was not serious.

In fact, in the company, there is no one girl who is about the same age as Galia, and the few laughing business assistants, even college graduates, but none of them can do better than Galia's business.

However, Lin Dazhou never gave Galia a compliment.

That's fine.

If she didn't praise Galia, she would not be complacent, and would always feel that she was a poor person.

For three years, Galia's performance has been among the best, but Galia has never raised her salary.

Not only that, Galia can also become a punching bag for the whole company.

In this way, people in the entire company can use Galia to decompress once they are upset, which can help the employees of the entire company.

But after a long time, Galia became the most hated person in the whole company.

Including Lin Dazhou also hates Galia.

Really disgusting.

I hate Galia's servility, I hate Galia's bottomless flattery, and I think Galia is really like a dog.

Until she hated Galia more and more, and found that Galia's spirit was getting more and more broken down, and she couldn't bear it any longer, the company simply fired Galia.

Anyway, in three years, Galia really earned it.

Moreover, firing Galia would also let Galia know that with Galia's situation at the time, she could not find any job.

Maybe one day, Galia will come back.

Then the company will continue to want Galia.

Since the price is low, the whole company will still abuse him.

Low-cost company employees can also take the whole company as a punching bag, so why not do it?

However, Lin Dazhou ignored that Galia was a human being.

Galia is not only human.

Galia is also very smart.

At least in terms of work ability, she is very smart, but she is extremely fragile and has poor psychological quality.

Smart people have their own methods. After Galia was fired from Lindazhou's company, she continued to make fake resumes, continued to muddle through, and her work was getting better and better.

Moreover, Galia has the experience of the last time, and she does not conflict with others in the new job. She is conscientious in her work and very smooth.

If it wasn't for the fact that she didn't know English and pretended to know it, if it wasn't for the fact that she missed the company's core documents, Galia would have worked very well in that company. Not only that, but she could also gain a love.

Unfortunately, Galia failed to do so.

To cheat is to cheat.

Galia was overcome with pain. On the road of life in the future, she will make persistent efforts to improve and become better and better.

until now.

Ten years later, she is sitting in the comfortable office environment of the fashion department of the Fu Group, communicating with foreign leaders in fluent English.
