Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 321

Chapter 321 Mr. Collins Can See

It turned out that they still thought that Gloria was capable of something, after all, she was a top-notch lawyer.

But it seemed that she was only a little better at lawyering.

Angela looked at the crowd's contempt towards Gloria, and her lips curled up slightly. She smiled at the people again and said, "So today, I will treat everyone to a meal as a host. Are you free this evening? If you have something else, I won't force you to do that."

Manager White, also the daughter of the chairman! Who had the right to say no?

Even if someone didn't want to go, he had to.

Of course, many people wanted to watch the fun. Who knew what other things they might be able to meet next!

"Since Manager White is showing us so much respect, of course, we have to go! I have nothing to do this evening."

"Neither do I."

Everyone answered one after another. Angela said with a chuckle, "In that case, it's a deal. Don't go home after work. We'll go straight there."

Gloria's eyes were full of cold smiles. Angela had not discussed a single word with her from the very beginning

If she refused on the spot, it would not only bring shame to Angela but also make everyone think she was unappreciative. At that time, she would be spread all over the country.

Firstly, she has no ability; Secondly, her personality is not good; Third, she has no family affection. What qualifications did she have to enter the senior management of the company?

Today, Angela had made such a big fuss just to do something to Hunter.

Then she could have dealt with it as it came. She wanted to find a chance to clarify it, but now

Angela had taken the initiative to give her this opportunity and let her explain it as soon as possible.

Why not?

While everyone was waiting, Gloria suddenly received a call from Harold.

“Assistant Ross.”

Miss White, Mr. Collins has already completed the assessment plan. We have signed the contract, and the next one will be approved. Mr. Collins wants to know when you have time to come over.”

Gloria raised her eyebrows. She knew that Jordy’s order meant that she should go today. She had to do it whenever he wanted.

However, Harold’s words were very agreeable.

He might have also predicted that she would go soon, so Gloria would not feel uncomfortable listening to her.

Gloria held her phone and calmly replied, “I can go there anytime, which depends on him.”

Harold smiled. “Okay, Miss White, please come to the Collins Group now. This plan is the same as the previous one, so Mr. Collins instructed you should come alone. Don’t involve any other people.”

Gloria frowned slightly, “But I have changed it based on others’ foundation, and...”

“You don’t have to worry about that. We’ll communicate with White Group, and you’re the one who came up with all the plans. Mr. Collins can see them through.”

“What’s more, the previous planner was not paying attention to this project, and this is not the project he wants to take responsibility for. Just relax, Miss White.”

At this point, Gloria could not say anything else. He could only make a sound of agreement, "Okay, I'll head over now."

After putting down the phone, Gloria bid farewell to Sheila and left.

After all, In addition to the manager and the deputy manager, Sheila, the team leader, is in charge of all the small things in the office.

Very quickly, Gloria brought the things that he should have prepared to Jordy's side.

As soon as she arrived, she saw Harold, who was sitting in the waiting area on the first floor.

When the receptionist was wondering why Gloria would come, Harold suddenly opened his mouth and said, "Miss White"

Gloria nodded her head and walked over.

"Let's go."

After saying that, Harold brought Gloria to the elevator. It was the president's elevator.

Although the receptionist cannot care too much, she immediately took out her mobile phone and began to discuss it in the group.

-The front desk: Gloria has just arrived! Also, Assistant Harold personally greeted her! They have taken the president's elevator!

Her words made the whole company restless!

Internal Affairs: My god! Is this true? The two of them are actually in contact?

A series of shock and disbelief, as well as endless envy and jealousy are roaring.

Seller: I have a relative who worked at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of White's company. It seems that Gloria recently has gone to work. Then a cooperation project is held with Collins Group. I heard that Mr. Collins agreed to Gloria's proposal on account of Angela.

-The front desk: So that's how it is. However, Gloria can be considered lucky to divorce Mr. Collins. She can still be in contact with Mr. Collins in this way. Isn't she a lucky woman?)

While everyone was discussing, Gloria and Harold arrived at Jordy's office.

Harold knocked on the door as usual.

"Mr. Collins, Miss White is here."

"Come in."

It was still that cold voice without any impurities.

After Gloria strode in, Harold closed the door and went about his own business.

There were still only the two of them in the office.

This time, Jordy didn't ignore her like last time. Instead, he looked up at her coldly and sharply.

He sneered. "How does it feel to almost sell your body for cooperation?"

Gloria seemed to be accustomed to his sarcasm. She only curled her lips slightly and said, "It's my own business, so Mr. Collins doesn't have to worry about it."

Jordy's handsome face darkened.

Gloria didn't know that if it weren't for Jordy, Hunter wouldn't have signed the contract so readily.

Gloria thought that the incident was done by George on that day.

Perhaps, outsiders could tell at a glance.

However, Gloria did not know that Jordy had hated her so much that he couldn't help her do these things.

Therefore... she naturally wouldn't think it had something to do with Jordy.

Jordy sneered, "As the person in charge of this project, you should follow me to San Diego to check on the project tomorrow."

Gloria's facial expression changed slightly. Follow him on a business trip?

She looked at Jordy and asked, "How long will it take?"

At that time, she did promise this person that she would follow up on the later matters.

However, she didn't expect Jordy to take her with him.

Jordy was so smart that it won't be necessary for her to do anything.

Moreover, at first, she thought that Jordy would find someone from their company to do such a thing, but she didn't expect that she would go with him.

However, this was her job, and it was also what she had promised. She would not shirk her responsibilities.

However, if it had exceeded the time limit of the contract project...

According to Angela's words, even if she had official business to do, she would not care about her.

"A week." An icy cold voice that brooked no room for argument.

Gloria heaved a sigh of relief in her heart and nodded, "Okay."

Jordy looked at her coldly and rubbed his glabella irritably. He did not want to look at Gloria again. He threw a document in front of Gloria. "Go back and prepare. Go out."

Chapter 323 This Woman Did It on Purpose!

Gloria kept the document that he had thrown over. Without saying anything, he walked out of the room.

As for the details, she could wait for Harold to be notified.

However, as she arrived at the company, she was blocked by Brenda while she was about to return to the office.

Gloria recognized her as she was Angela's assistant.

Brenda looked at Gloria with a complicated expression and paused for a moment before saying softly, "Miss White, the manager is looking for you. Please follow me."

Gloria nodded her head, without saying a word.

Gloria walked to Angela's office. Looking at the woman who was still sitting in a wheelchair in front of her desk, Gloria's eyes flashed with sarcasm.

She had begun to verify what Angela had done before. She only hoped that Angela would be able to hold on after that.

Brenda closed the door and went out.

Angela looked at Gloria and asked, "Did you go to the Collins Group?"

Gloria's eyes darkened a little, and in the next moment, she said with a faint smile, "That's right.

Thanks to Sister, the contract was successfully signed. Now Mr. Collins asked me to take charge of this project, and I will go to San Diego with him tomorrow for a week."

Angela's expression changed abruptly. "You're going on a business trip with him?!"

Gloria nodded his head, "Yes."

Angela suddenly frowned and said coldly, "You are a member of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the White Group. Your job is to talk about work, not to do anything else. If you go out with Jordy, it will be recorded as an absence from work."

"So, you don't want me to go?"

Angela suppressed the anger in her heart and saw Gloria's unreconciled expression. She smiled and said, "There's nothing we can do about it. The company has its system. Cousin, I can't abuse my power. Besides, as proud as you are, you won't agree to it."

Gloria nodded her head, "Sure."

"What?" Angela said as she stared at Gloria. She said yes, what did she mean?!

Gloria smiled, "In any case, my mission is already complete. Whether this contract can continue or not is your business. However, there is one thing that I need to tell you in case you don't know when the time comes."

Angela frowned. "What are you trying to say?"

Once upon a time, Angela had been extremely lofty, and would not reveal anything in front of Gloria. However, now that she had fallen out with Gloria, there was nothing for her to be pretentious about.

Gloria's lips twitched, "If I don't go, Jordy might terminate the contract in anger. Many people are paying attention to me because of you. So, you tell me, do you think someone will think that you deliberately hinder me from going with him because you are jealous?"

"You..."

Gloria smiled and said, "Even if you manage to maintain a good image, others won't believe you. Then, will they think that Mr. Collins terminated the contract which was already consented was caused by the person, who was in charge of the White Group? If so, isn't the chairman of the White Group also incompetent?"

Angela instantly clenched her fists and said nothing.

Gloria smiled, "You are my superior. You have the final say in this matter. If you can't agree to it, just let me know at any time. I didn't even inform him before coming to the company to work."

Angela was speechless.

This woman did it on purpose!

No! She had to succeed tonight! She had to let Gloria disappoint Jordy. If that was the case, Gloria would no longer need to take charge of this mission!

However, she did not understand why Jordy had insisted on having Gloria do it. With the plan in mind, their employees or other talents of the White Group were able to do it, but Jordy...

Without thinking too much, Gloria's voice entered her ears once again.

Chapter 324 So Oily

"So, Cousin, if you're afraid that he'll come back to love me again, think of a way quickly. Otherwise, I'll leave with him tomorrow."

"If this happened in the past, what would you say if we switched places? I guess you would say, yes, yes, many things are forced, and I don't want to destroy your relationship like this, but... he wants me to go. For the sake of our company, it can only be like this. Well, don't worry, I will keep my distance from him and not let you misunderstand."

Gloria's voice was full of emotion and sentiment, and she seemed to have learned it very well.

Angela was speechless.

Bang-!

Angela slammed her fist on the table in anger!

"Gloria, you've gone too far!"

Gloria pursed her lips, "Well, since you don't like me, I'll go out to work first, tonight..."

As she spoke, her smile deepened. "I'll wait for you to hold a celebratory banquet for me."

After that, she went straight out without waiting for Angela's reply.

How Angela had treated her in the past, now she is just paying back a little. If Angela could not bear it, what about in the future?

"Brenda!"

Just as they reached the door, Gloria heard a slightly irritable voice from Angela, which was much higher than before.

On the way back to the office, Sheila looked worriedly at Gloria, "Gloria, you're back."

She wanted to say something but stopped on second thought. For a moment, she didn't know what to say. Gloria acted as if she didn't see her and only nodded with a smile, "Mm."

"What about the cooperation with the Collins Group?"

"Everything will go on as usual. You don't have to worry about me."

Sheila saw that Gloria was so at ease and did not panic at all. The worry in her heart seemed to have been reduced subconsciously.

While most of the people were looking forward to it, it was finally time to get off work.

Angela directly asked Helen to inform everyone in the chat group. No one left, and they all went to the dinner place together.

“Everything will go on as usual. You don’t have to worry about me.”

Sheila saw that Gloria was so at ease and did not panic at all. The worry in her heart seemed to have been reduced subconsciously.

While most of the people were looking forward to it, it was finally time to get off work.

Angela directly asked Helen to inform everyone in the chat group. No one left, and they all went to the dinner place together.

Everyone walked in one after another. Gloria was among them, her expression indifferent.

Angela, the daughter of the chairman, was in a wheelchair, so she was naturally in the front.

Everyone sat down at the same time. They all wanted to see what the big show would be next.

Because... In the chat group just now, Helen had said that this was not only a celebration feast for Gloria but also a chance to get close to Mr. Waydell.,

So!

Hunter Waydell will also be here today!!!

This was simply a piece of big news. Only a fool would not come!

Soon, after everyone sat down, Angela looked at everyone with a smile. “I have just asked Manager Johnson to talk in the chat group that today is a celebration feast for Gloria. At the same time, I also thank President Wang for willing to cooperate with our company. Today, I specially invited President Wang to be here. He is now on his way here. Everyone, please sit for a while. When he comes, we will serve the dishes.”

Everyone naturally cooperated without the slightest hesitation, and no one spoke a single word of refusal.

At that moment, some people began to flatter.

Gloria had been sitting quietly all the time, as though she was a man who talks a little.

In the past few days, she had been like this in the company. Her colleagues didn't think there was anything wrong with her. They were used to it.

The moment the crowd was waiting in anticipation, Hunter Waydell finally arrived.

At that moment, many people turned their gazes to Hunter Waydell. They were all sizing him up.

Some people couldn't help whispering to their colleagues around them.

“This President Wang, he's so oily-looking, how did Gloria endure it back then....”

Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 325

Chapter 325 Women Are the Most Underestimating

“Who knows? There is a saying that money makes the world go round.”

“Does Gloria lack money? She is Master Iris after all.”

“I'm just taking an example. Now that Gloria has entered the company, isn't she just trying to make a name for herself?”

A sneer flashed across Angela's eyes. Perhaps Gloria had predicted that she would attack her, but she had not expected herself to send Hunter over.

Perhaps Gloria's charm was too great. When Hunter heard that Gloria was going to invite him today for the celebration feast, he enthusiastically agreed.

She would later tell Gloria these words.

She wanted to let Gloria know the consequences of provoking her.

As they had mentioned the number of people in advance, there was not a single extra chair in the room. Coincidentally, the last seat was beside Gloria.

Mockery flashed across Gloria's eyes, but she did not care about the details.

Since she dared to accept the challenge, how could she not do anything?

Angela had no idea that Gloria had already predicted that she would find Hunter. It was the most effective way of attacking.

Therefore, how could she have not made any preparations?

But...

"Hunter seems to be particularly cooperative?"

Gloria kept feeling that there was something wrong.

Hunter walked in with a smile. Angela's eyes lit up when she saw him. "President Wang, you're here. Please have a seat. I'm very grateful to you for attending this celebration party."

Hunter burst out laughing. "You must be joking. Of course, I have to come to celebrate Miss White's party!"

Everyone seemed to have understood. They looked at Hunter as if they were saying, "I understand."

Hunter's heart trembled, and he suddenly thought of a person's cold and murderous words.

"As long as I find out that someone has misunderstood your relationship with Gloria, your whole family will be buried with you."

Hunter was covered in a cold sweat and immediately bowed respectfully toward Gloria.

"Miss White, I benefited a lot from your cooperation last time. Through this proposal, my position was improved a lot in the Wang family. You are my benefactor! If you have any difficulties in the future, just tell me. I will take care of it. Whoever dares to disrespect you will be my enemy!"

Angela was speechless.

Everyone:"???"

"What's going on?"

This doesn't seem to be the case...

According to Hunter's character, the moment he saw Gloria, he must have been sitting next to her and started touching her thigh.

But what was he doing now?

Gloria was full of questions.

At this moment, Gloria was also confused.

Although she had made preparations and contacted Hunter, she had not expected Hunter to give her so much face.

No.

Hunter was not so respectful toward her because of her warning.

Hunter was a man attaching great importance to the face job. How could he bow to others so easily?

Moreover, according to her investigation, he despised women the most.

But now...?

Angela gritted her teeth and immediately said with a smile, "President Wang, what are you doing? in terms of qualifications, and age, we are all juniors. You don't have to be so polite."

She sounded casual, but she was reminding Hunter not to lose his sense of propriety!

Coldness flashed across Hunter's eyes instantly. His fury seemed to have intensified.

Chapter 326 Confused

Didn't he know that Gloria wasn't worthy of his actions? It was all because of Jordy Collins!

suddenly laughed and said, "Miss White, you are too polite. You are my benefactor, and I will never forget it in my life. Miss White, shall I pour you a glass of wine?"

Everyone looked at Hunter hesitantly. He was so attentive, that it didn't seem like he had a relationship with Gloria.

It was a one-sided crushing.

From the beginning to the end, Gloria did not say a single word, and his expression was extremely relaxed. He had always been fawning over Hunter.

But in this case, she should show her attitude, shouldn't she?

Everyone looked at Gloria. They wanted to see her reaction.

Gloria did not disappoint everyone. He only looked at Hunter with a calm expression and said, "President Wang, you are being polite. Please take a seat."

Hunter secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Luckily, this Gloria was not arrogant because of his favor. After all, if it were any other woman, under the premise that he bullied her before, she would not know how to strut around this time.

As of this moment, some of the rage in his heart weakened.

"Okay."

Hunter politely sat down. He was especially reserved all the time. He even kept a certain distance away from Gloria and was close to the male comrade on the other side.

Male comrade: "..."

He was a little disgusted.

It was as if he would soon be targeted by Hunter.

Everyone was even more shocked.

Damn it, why did it turn out like this!

How could this be?! –

She couldn't accept it!

Seeing that everyone's expression had changed and that they were gradually admiring Gloria, Angela clenched her fists tightly and looked toward Gloria.

Her eyes were full of anger.

She had spared no efforts to spread rumors for a few days, and she had spent so much money setting up a feast, Everything has benefited Gloria!

Angela was so angry that her body was trembling.

However, no matter how hard she tried to provoke, no matter what she did, it was in vain, and Jordy whom she had attracted over...

Not only was it useless, but also it made her regret it!

Because.

Gloria happened to meet Jordy while he was in the bathroom.

At this moment, she had just walked out of the bathroom and saw that the man was not far away. He was leaning against the wall with a lit cigarette in his hand. Gloria furrowed his brows slightly. When did he start smoking? Seeing that Jordy's head was lowered as if he was deep in thought, Gloria withdrew her gaze and walked back. But... Just when he passed by her, he heard an irritated voice. "Jordy, what the hell are you thinking? If you like her, just go after her. Why are you here..." As soon as he finished speaking, he suddenly stopped talking. It was because he saw the real man. Gloria was stunned for a moment. Jordy would go after her if she liked him? Now that Angela liked him so much, was there still a need to chase after him? "It turns out that Jordy cares so much about Angela, and he still wants to be romantic?" Ridicule flashed across Gloria's eyes. That's right, Jordy was only slightly cold towards her.

Chapter 327 Something's Not Right

"Gloria"

Gloria stopped in her tracks, seeming a little confused.

Angela also felt that something was wrong at the moment, so she asked Brenda to push her out.

On the other side of the corner, Gloria had already turned around and looked at Jordy.

"Mr. Collins."

Angela's face changed slightly, and she quickly motioned for Brenda to stop.

Gloria turned her head and saw Jordy's cold gaze. She felt slightly suspicious.

"Grandma hasn't slept for two consecutive nights."

Gloria's expression froze and her eyes were filled with worry, "What's going on!"

W

Jordy gave her a cold look. "Thanks to you."

Gloria's face turned pale, and she looked at him in confusion, "What's going on?"

Jordy said flatly, "Go back to the old house with me after the banquet."

Gloria furrowed her brows but ultimately pursed her lips and did not say anything.

In the corner, Angela's face instantly became extremely terrible.

Why? Why did Jordy ask Gloria to go back to the old house? Why?!

Old Madam isn't feeling well and can't fall asleep, so we'll find a doctor. Why do we have to send Gloria back?!

Even if the old Mrs. Collins liked Gloria, Gloria was destined to never get back together with Jordy.

Why could Jordy never let go of him?!

Angela's expression seemed to be uncontrollable. However, when she suddenly saw Gloria walking over, she quickly sorted out her emotions and faced her with a professional smile on her face.

However, Gloria did not even look at her. Instead, she picked up his phone and walked towards the corner.

Soon, the phone was connected.

The other side's amiable and haggard voice also sounded. "Gloria."

Gloria frowned slightly, "Grandma, have you been feeling well recently? Why can't you fall asleep?"

Karen smiled. "Nonsense! Grandma sleeps soundly every day!"

Gloria furrowed his brows and didn't say anything. He didn't believe it.

Karen, on the other hand, chuckled and said, "Gloria, have you been busy recently? Did you miss grandma?"

"Of course. I'm going to visit you tonight."

"Tonight?" Karen's voice was a little surprised, "not tonight."

"Ah?" Gloria thought that there was something wrong with his grandmother.

But before she could think further, Karen had already said, "Tonight is absolutely out of the question. According to your character, you won't live here at all. How long can you stay with me? Tomorrow is your double break. Come here early and chat with me!"

"But your body..."

"I'm clearly in good health. Where did you listen to the nonsense?!"

"Grandma..."

This time, before Gloria could finish her sentence, she was interrupted by Karen, "You don't believe me, right?"

"No!"

"Why don't you listen to me? Grandma has always been in good health. What's more, there are so many people in the family who love me. If I don't feel well, why don't they find me a doctor? Will I be fine if you come to see me?"

Gloria furrowed her brows, feeling that something was amiss.

However, Karen's voice was particularly firm, making her hesitate for a while.

But before she could think much, Karen said again, "Your grandfather has asked me to sleep. Well, if you want to come, you can come and see grandma tomorrow!"

Gloria White: "..."

Knowing that she couldn't get anything out of her grandmother, she could only sigh and reply respectfully, "Okay, grandma. Go to bed early. I'll visit you tomorrow."

Chapter 328 Two Men

Karen looked extremely happy when she heard the reply, and she immediately said, “Okay, okay!

Then I will wait for you!”

“Okay.”

Hanging up the phone, Gloria still felt that something was not quite right, so he directly dialed the old housekeeper’s number.

“Miss White?”

“Uncle Dale, I want to ask about my grandma’s recent situation.”

“This...” Uncle Dale hesitated.

Gloria’s heart tightened, “Did something happen to Grandma?”

Uncle Dale sighed and said, “Old Madam has been having sleepless nights these two days. Old Master is also very worried.”

“Why did this happen all of a sudden?” Gloria White subconsciously tightened his phone.

Jordy said that this was all because of her. Was it because she had proposed a divorce?

Uncle Dale sighed and said, “Alas, Old Madam is getting old, so it’s inevitable that her sleep condition will be poorer. I’ve asked a doctor to see her. Old Madam has taken her medicine. She should be able to sleep well this evening.”

Gloria pursed her lips. It seemed that the Old Madam had instructed them not to say anything.

However, it was easy to guess.

Gloria replied, “Alright.”

This evening was not a good time for her to go there, and she would never go there with Jordy.

The two of them had no relationship at all.

However, just as she put down her mobile phone and was about to return to the private room, she suddenly saw Brenda pushing Angela in her direction.

There was no one else in this place.

Angela looked at Gloria with cold, sharp eyes.

Gloria raised his eyebrows slightly. Just now, Angela must have heard what she and Jordy had said.

Without waiting for Gloria to think too much, Angela had already coldly said, “Tonight, you are not allowed to go to the old house of the Collins family.”

Gloria immediately chuckled and looked at her in confusion, “Are you afraid I will kidnap your man? He hates me so much, what are you worried about?”

Angela looked at her indifferently and said, “I did this for you, not for worrying about something. Moreover, Jordy is a living person. I won’t take any action because Jordy has his choice. If he chooses someone else, in the end, I will give him my blessings.”

Gloria gave a cryptic smile and said, “Okay, since my cousin is doing this for my good, I don't need to listen to your explanation. I'll listen to you. After all, Jordy Collins has told me many times that you are my cousin. No matter how despicable I was, you will treat me the same as before. So, this time, I believe you."

Angela was confused.

She didn't think it was strange for Jordy to say such words, but...

"Why is this woman so obedient? There's something wrong with her! A big problem!"

Angela frowned and looked suspiciously at Gloria. Her eyes were scrutinizing him.

"Gloria, you..."

Angela was also a smart person. She was afraid that Gloria would make a recording and make a countercharge at any time so that Jordy would hear that. Therefore, she naturally had to pretend when it was time.

Gloria smiled, "It's okay, it is my celebration feast inside, isn't it? I'm the main character, how can I not be there? Let's go back."

Angela's brows furrowed again, and she did not speak.

She glanced at Brenda and asked her to follow her.

By the time the banquet ended, Gloria had not done anything wrong.

On the other hand, Angela...

She was so angry that her intestines were about to turn green!

From the beginning to the end!

This bi*ch was not threatened at all, and even completely clarified her relationship with Hunter because she invited everyone to dinner today!

While she was angry, the banquet was completely over.

Everyone went out one after another, and everyone saw that two men were leaning against the wall in front of them.

Chapter 329

Chapter 329 Is Their Relationship That Good?

Gloria's expression froze. She did not think that Jordy would deliberately wait for her here.

Meanwhile, when the people in the office saw Jordy and George, many women couldn't help drooling. They wished they could jump on these two men right now.

After all...

No matter if it was Jordy or George, in their eyes, they were unreachable and excellent.

As long as one of them is willing to be with us... that would be fine as well!

It was said that George was a very romantic person. What if he took a fancy to someone?

Numerous women had begun to nod their heads in a flirtatious manner to get a better look at them.

But...

Both of them were staring at Gloria.

Hunter followed closely behind Gloria and was exceptionally attentive. When he saw Jordy present, he felt that today's decision was too right!

This would at least protect the Wang family!

He had truly regretted doing something to Gloria back then!

At this moment, someone couldn't help but want to curry favor with Angela. He hurriedly said with a smile, "Oh my God! Manager White, Mr. Collins is so kind to you! How could he come to pick you up at this time!"

Angela's expression changed slightly.

The employee's words were like a slap in her face!

W

Even if she was not self-aware, she knew that Jordy was here to look for Gloria and bring her back to the old house!

She looked up at the employee and said flatly, "Don't talk nonsense. It's not what you think."

The employee immediately chuckled. "Manager Gloria, you're really..."

When she said this, the employee behind her suddenly pulled her sleeve. She immediately realized that something was wrong. When she saw that Angela did not look at her at all, and even her profile was a little cold, the employee suddenly panicked.

She... had said something wrong?

Even some employees who wanted to curry favor with her stopped talking and didn't know what to say.

Ridicule flashed across Gloria's eyes; he did not say anything as he walked forward.

Hunter was a clever man. He immediately walked over to Jordy and George and said respectfully, "Mr. Collins, George, what a coincidence that you are also here."

"We meet again, CEO Wang, "George said with a faint smile.

Hunter's body stiffened. He did not know what was wrong with his strange behavior.

Gloria frowned slightly and chose a different path. She did not greet everyone and only calmly said, "You guys can leave first. I'm going to the bathroom and be back soon straightly."

After saying that, she ignored everyone's reaction and walked away. Angela immediately looked at Gloria and said irritably, "Mumm, I'll stay behind and wait for you."

Gloria furrowed his brows and replied without looking back, "No need."

Angela immediately looked at the crowd and said, "Well, you can go back first. That's all for today. Let's meet again next time."

Everyone nodded in agreement. However, those who had always thought that the sisters were only friendly on the surface were sizing Angela up at this moment.

Today, Angela had probably asked Gloria to clarify the situation.

Was the relationship between the two sisters that good?

After all, everything was arranged by Angela. Everyone was a little confused.

Jordy and George did not move at all. The employees walked forward one by one, but some of the girls obviously could not control their emotions.

Chapter 330

Chapter 330 I've Been Waiting for You Here, But What About You?!

When a female employee passed by George, she suddenly slipped. "Ah!!"
Her entire body fell in the direction of George.
Countless women looked over, and some of their eyes turned red!
How could she! How could she use such a despicable way! If she had known that someone would do this, she would have done the same to them!
Without even thinking about it, he immediately dodged!
Coincidentally, the female employee was pulled into Hunter's arms.
At that time, her eyes were closed, and her face was full of panic. Suddenly being hugged, she was secretly delighted!
The bystanders saw Hunter wearing a smile on his lips. At the same time, he deliberately pinched her waist twice with the hand that was around her waist.
Everyone: "..."
She deserved that!

The face of the female employee who was being held suddenly turned redder. George was indeed a playboy!
She opened her eyes in a panic, but when she saw that it was the oily Hunter, her expression changed!
Hunter chuckled. "Beautiful girl, be careful when you walk next time."
The female employee's face was full of horror, but with Hunter's status, she didn't dare to offend him. She got up in a hurry and forgot to say anything.
George sneered and didn't say anything.
Female employee: "!!!"
She didn't have the face to see George and he quickly ran away. After today's incident, she would become the joke in the office!
It's Hunter's fault!
She might as well fall by herself!
The staff dispersed one after another, but the deputy manager of the department, Sara, was still in a state of confusion.
How did Gloria... do it today? How did she free herself so smoothly?
Maybe others would suspect that Gloria and Angela might have a good relationship, but she could see that Angela had been restraining her emotions today, and she had even revealed her true colors twice.
Gloria did not go to the bathroom as she said. Instead... she left through another road.
Jordy stepped forward.
"Jordy." Angela quickly called him.
Even if Gloria went to the bathroom, would he have to follow him?
Jordy stopped in his tracks and turned to look at her.
Angela pursed her lips, sorted out her emotions, and looked at him with a smile. "Gloria,

I just went to the bathroom. We can wait for her here.”

Jordy glanced at her insipidly and said, “I have other things to do. You can go back first.”

Angela’s expression changed slightly. “Jordy…”

Jordy’s footsteps paused again. He looked at her and tried to speak as softly as possible. “Take care of yourself. Don’t get too tired.”

After speaking, he no longer looked at Angela and strode towards the direction where Gloria had disappeared.

Angela didn’t understand Gloria. But now, for some reason, Jordy felt that Gloria didn’t go to the bathroom at all. Instead, he avoided him directly!

The more he thought about it, the gloomier Jordy’s expression became. His footsteps became faster and faster. When he discovered Gloria’s figure, he immediately walked forward and quickly clasped her wrist with his agile hands!

Gloria’s expression froze for a moment and she immediately looked up. When she saw Jordy Collins, she immediately struggled and furrowed her brows: “What are you doing?”

Jordy’s face turned cold. “I’ve been waiting for you, but what about you?!”

Gloria immediately smiled and said sarcastically without hesitation, “Who are you waiting for?”

Jordy’s sharp gaze swept over her, but Gloria was not afraid at all. She sneered and said, “You don’t want to ruin Angela’s party, don’t want to make her lose face in front of everyone. If it was organized by me, you wouldn’t care about whether I would lose face or not, and take me away by force, right?”
