Chapter 421

Chapter 421 How Long Are You Going to Put This off?

Olivia saw that Martha didn't want to talk about Gloria anymore, so she nodded and stopped talking.

Martha sighed with resignation, "After Angela was suspended, she stayed at home in dismay all day long, and she called Jordy and told him all those things."

Olivia froze for an instant and said with some guilt, "And then? I don't know these things at all."

Martha nodded as if it were understandable, "They have grown up and have their own ideas. It's normal. You don't have to feel so guilty."

Olivia sighed, while Martha continued, "Angela was very aggrieved at that time. Jordy comforted her, told her to rest at home, and advised her not to work so hard, so... I want to know if he... wants to marry Angela or not."

"If he does, I will certainly control Angela and teach her the rules so that she will know how to be a good daughter-in-law. But... if he doesn't, I'll help Angela return to the company."

"If she can't marry Jordy, she will only be dead inside. She doesn't want to marry anyone else, so she would focus on her career. Otherwise, she will be alone after I and her father die. Even if she gets married and has children, she might not love the man she marries..."

Martha looked sad and worried, as if she didn't know what to do.

But she sneered inwardly. That was her point, to tell Olivia that Jordy advised Angela to rest at home.

Olivia said anxiously, "Oh, how could that happen? I won't let Angela marry anyone else. Don't worry. I'll urge Jordy right away! We'll try to get them engaged the next month!"

The next month.

Hearing this, Martha was relieved.

She nodded as if she had no other choices, “Olivia, I’m not here to force you to do that, I just...”

At this point, she seemed to be too guilty to speak Olivia quickly nodded as apprehension spread across her face, “I know, I know. You don’t have to be so cautious in front of me. I know you didn’t mean to force me.”

Martha sighed and nodded, “Alas, I’m just worried about my daughter. If she waits any longer, she will be 30 years old soon...”

It was a bit exaggerated. Actually, Angela was only 26 years old,

Olivia nodded hurriedly, “I know. I’ll get it done. Don’t worry, I’ll discuss it with Joseph. You know, Jordy... Alas.”

Martha forced a smile. This time, she did not say anything like “there’s no rush”.

They chatted for a while, and then Martha left.

However, Olivia hurried to Old Joseph. They discussed for a while, and then went straight to Jordy’s company.

Jordy was working in the office at the moment, Old Joseph directly opened the door and walked in. Olivia immediately followed Jordy frowned and looked up at them. Then Irritation spread across his face. The moment of seeing them, he already knew why they were here.

Immediately after Olivia closed the door, Joseph said to Jordy, “How long are you going to put this off?”

Chapter 422

Chapter 422 It Must Be an Illusion!

Jordy looked more sullen. He stared at Olivia silently, but the interrogative look in his eyes was obvious.

Even if Josephi was the chairman of the company, he wasn't in real power. The company was dominated by Jordy.

However, Olivia always liked to go to Joseph when things came up, such as his marriage.

This annoyed Jordy.

Olivia immediately frowned being interrogated by his look. She walked up to him and said, "Why are you looking at me like this? You are old enough for having a child. How long are you going to put your engagement off? Angela is your lifesaver. You didn't take good care of her and feel indebted to her, but hurt her so many times. I really want to crack open your head and see what you are thinking."

Jordy frowned, "This is no time to get married."

"Then when is the right time?" Olivia snapped.

If other people saw this, they might open their mouths in shocked silence. Sure enough... only parents could scold their children. Jordy was so influential and powerful. He could even let a person disappear from the world. Who dared to offend him like that?

Olivia did!

She questioned Jordy confidently, scolded him confidently... and could even beat him confidently.

Jordy pursed his thin lips, and the cold aura around him could almost freeze the other two people. He said helplessly, "I'm working now. Let's talk at home, okay?"

"Are you serious?" Joseph laughed angrily. He took two steps forward and said in a rage, "Do you go home? You don't want to even see it now!"

Jordy was speechless.

Olivia looked at him coldly, "Since you wanted Angela to stay at home for recuperation, shouldn't you reassure her by marrying her? She was sick and weak but still had to run errands. Her health was ravaged for saving you. Do you want her to be in worse health?"

Joseph didn't want to waste his breath on Jordy. He just whispered, "If you have any work, get it done quickly. The 10th of next month will be a lucky day. You will be engaged to Angela on that day."

Jordy turned extremely cold. He looked at Joseph with icy eyes and said in a deep voice, "No."

He was not refusing, but ordering Joseph not to do that.

"Jesus Christ!" Joseph was so angry. He raised one hand and pointed at him in a rage, "Are you serious? You don't want to marry Angela, do you?"

Olivia turned pale. Even her heart did a somersault. She immediately looked at Jordy.

She thought that Jordy was just trying to put their engagement off, but seeing his reaction, she guessed that he didn't want to marry Angela anymore!

"What do you mean?"

Jordy's expression stiffened.

He didn't want to marry Angela anymore?

He should marry Angela. If it weren't for him, Angela would not have been in such a situation. But why did he want to put their engagement off?

In an instant, Gloria's sarcastic look appeared in front of him. Jordy was startled and took a deep breath unconsciously. However, seeing his silence, Olivia looked more sullen. She walked directly to Jordy and asked in disbelief, "You really don't want to marry Angela? Again?"

Jordy frowned, "That's not what I mean."

It must be an illusion! How could he think of Gloria just now?

Chapter 423

Chapter 423 A Happy Event!

Gloria was vain and scheming! She had been tricking him since the beginning. She and her father forced him to do so many things. He must hate her too much. That was why her face appeared in his mind!

Jordy tried to calm himself down.

Joseph looked at him coldly, "What do you mean? When can you get engaged? Give me an exact time. You can't keep the White family waiting!"

"Now everyone thinks that you and Angela will certainly get married, but you haven't given a simple promise yet. Do you know what will happen in the end? Even if you can stand being embarrassed like that, I can't! I have been wise all my life. I don't want my reputation to be ruined by you! You can't do such a contemptible thing!"

"Grandma is in bad health now."

Joseph snorted coldly, "Yes. She hopes that you and Gloria can remarry. Since you don't want to marry that vain woman at all, you can't fulfill her wish. Then why do you bother about her health?"

Jordy was speechless.

Olivia nodded helplessly, "Yes, if you are worried about your grandmother's health, then get married. She will be very happy to see her grandchildren."

Jordy sat on the office chair with a pen in his right hand. He paused for a moment and signed his name without saying anything

Joseph was speechless.

Olivia got exasperated, but before she could say anything, Jordy said in a flat tone, "Then make it the 10th of next month."

Olivia and Joseph both looked surprised. Neither of them had expected that Jordy would agree so quickly.

So... it was just their illusion that Jordy didn't want to marry Angela?

"Are... Are you kidding us? Your engagement will be made public."

"I know." Jordy looked sullen and didn't say anything else.

Olivia was elated, and her attitude softened, "Hey, if you had agreed earlier, I and your grandfather wouldn't have made this futile trip. We're going back to prepare it, and we'll send out the invitations in two days. You should also get everything ready. I don't want any trouble on the 10th. There is still one month left. Get ready, okay?"

Jordy gripped the pen silently.

He should agree to marry Angela. She almost died for saving him. He owed her and should take care of her for the rest of his life.

His silence was a tacit yes.

Old Joseph had a wide smile, "Then we will leave you alone. Go on with your work"

Then both of them went out.

The staff of the company was surprised to see them.

They came with sullen looks but left with big smiles. What had happened?

A senior manager who could have contact with them walked up to them and said with a smile, "Mr. Collins, why do you look so happy? What happened?"

old Joseph just wanted to make the news public, so he said with a smile, "It's about the engagement of Jordy. We're going to get him engaged to Angela on the 10th of next month. Please come to the party."

The manager was shocked. He nodded quickly, "Sure, what a happy event! I'll be there!"

After the employees who tried to eavesdrop on them heard this...

They were all dumbfounded!

Chapter 424 1 Also Like Her

At this moment, they were standing in the lobby on the first floor. The receptionist and some employees passing by all opened their mouths in shocked silence.

Was Jordy finally going to get engaged?

Just as they expected!

The 10th of next month!

This time, Gloria completely lost!

“I’m going back to make some arrangements and send out the invitations.” Joseph said with a wide smile.

The manager immediately said, “Okay, just let me know if you need any help.”

“Hah, hah, okay.” Then Joseph left. He was very down-to-earth, which shocked many people.

As soon as they left, the company fell into an uproar!

The receptionist had spread the news all over the company!

But the employees in the Collins Group were not the only ones who knew this, and...

Time kept passing by.

It was time to get off work.

Gloria walked out with her purse. However, she saw a familiar person. The blue Lamborghini was parked in a very eye-catching position at the door of their company, and the man was leaning against the door in a customized blue suit with a bunch of red roses in his hand.

Many employees who came out were shocked at the sight of this, and all of them had an envious and adoring look

If... if this man’s flowers were for them, they would be ecstatic!

As soon as Gloria came out, she saw this scene. Her expression changed slightly and she turned to leave. But Jonathan had long guessed her thoughts and kept watching her. He immediately said with a smile, “Gloria.”

His melodious voice was penetrating. He spoke in a low voice, but everyone present heard him.

Gloria was speechless.

She could only stop, but Jonathan had come to her gracefully. He handed her the roses. Gloria wanted to step back, but Jonathan had grabbed her hand and put the flower in her arms.

“How come it took you so long to come out? You were handling your work?”

Gloria was speechless.

She looked up at Jonathan, almost grinding her back teeth.

Jonathan looked at her with smiling eyes. He knew what was on her mind, but he didn't care. He just said with a smile, “What do you want to eat? I'll take you there.”

Saying that, he naturally raised his hand and was about to wrap his arm around Gloria's waist.

Gloria was startled. She hurriedly moved forward, “I'm cool with anything.”

She didn't want to be so embarrassed in the company!

The only way was to follow Jonathan to leave this place.

What was wrong with him? Did he have to attract so many people's attention?

Many female employees were about to cry with envy, “Ah! They are such a perfect match! Gloria is a divorced woman, but Mr. Brown still pursues her wholeheartedly... I envy her so much... Oh...”

“If Gloria is a good-for-nothing, you could say that. But she is excellent, isn't she? She is worthy of Mr. Brown.”

“Even so, there is a great disparity in their identities. There are so many beautiful ladies from rich families. I don't understand...”

“oh, I also envy Gloria so much. She is really lucky. When she got married to Jordy, it caused a sensat/on. Then, their divorce also threw the public into an uproar. At that time, I thought Gloria's life would be ruined. However, her situation changed in the twinkling of an eye. It seems that there are always excellent men around her”

“That's right. I also heard that Bryson, the young master of the Lloyd Group, is also into her!”

Chapter 425 Be Kept in the Dark

“Oh my God! Are you serious? What did they see in Gloria?”

“What did they see in Gloria? Do a sex change operation and try to seduce them. Then you’ll know.”

“Screw you!”

While everyone was talking about it, Jonathan opened the co–driver’s seat’s door for Gloria, and Gloria immediately sat into the car.

She was still holding that bunch of roses in her arms...

Jonathan smiled, “Put the flowers on the back seat?”

Gloria was speechless.

She immediately handed the flowers to him. She just wanted to get in the car and leave here quickly. But in Jonathan’s eyes, she seemed to be too fond of the flowers to put them down. God!

Seeing her slightly blushed face, Jonathan chuckled.

Gloria didn’t want to see him, so she closed the door and looked away.

Jonathan quickly put the flowers away and returned to the driver’s seat.

Gloria turned her head to look out of the window. At this moment, she was torn.

Jonathan’s smile gradually widened, “Are you angry?”

Gloria pursed her lips, “No.”

Jonathan said with a smile, “What do you want to eat?”

“Just send me back home, thank you.” Gloria didn’t even want to look at him.

“Your home or mine?”

Gloria was speechless.

She forgot that Jonathan never minded being shameless in this respect.

She took a light breath and looked at him.

“Jonathan, how long are you going to play like this?”

“Play?” Jonathan seemed to sigh helplessly, “Fine, call it play. We’ll keep playing until we die.”

Gloria was speechless.

She didn’t want to talk to him anymore. If she kept doing this with him, she might be depressed.

She turned her head and said in a flat tone, “Just drive.”

Jonathan smiled and started the car.

Then the car gradually left the sight of the crowd.

The discussion never stopped.

What Jonathan did on this day became a trending topic on Twitter again.

They arrived at a restaurant. Jonathan looked at Gloria tenderly, “Let’s get out of the car. We won’t meet any acquaintances here.”

Gloria got out of the car silently.

They went in together, and Jonathan gave the car key directly to the waiter here.

It was a restaurant covered by the Brown Group.

Jonathan sat opposite Gloria with a soft smile on his lips, “What would you like to eat?”

Gloria looked calm, “Whatever.”

Jonathan didn’t force her to choose. After ordering, the two of them were left in the box.

Jonathan sized Gloria up, “I heard an interesting thing today.”

Gloria sized him up and said nothing.

Jonathan smiled, “But I’m afraid you’ll be sad if you know.”

Gloria looked at him with a puzzled look, “What is it?”

Hearing his words, Gloria suddenly remembered that many employees looked at her with strange eyes this afternoon and Sheila hesitated several times and was trying to tell her something.

It probably had something to do with what Jonathan had heard.

Jonathan smiled, "I'll tell you after we finish our meals, or I'm afraid you'll be too sad to eat."

Gloria was very sure that it had something to do with her. She said with a stiff smile, "My father has passed away and I have no other families. What else can make me sad?"

She was kept in the dark about something that was related to her. She felt very uncomfortable

Chapter 426

Chapter 426 Mr. Brown Pursuits Her in Every Way

Jonathan paused for a moment and then whispered, "Jordy will be engaged next month."

The look in Gloria's eyes froze. Jonathan looked at her. She suddenly smiled, "I finally understand why people in the office all looked at me like that."

Her eyes were satirical and her tone was casual. There was no sign of sadness that could be found on her

Jonathan slowly showed a smile, "So, you are not sad?"

"Why would I be sad?" Gloria looked calm, as if she didn't care.

However, knowing this news was not bad for her, she could speed her plan up. Brenda might contact her soon

Jonathan said with a chuckle, "It seems that you have really been over Jordy. If so, why don't you consider being with me?"

Gloria, "... Mr. Brown."

"Call me Jonathan."

Gloria was speechless.

They were not familiar enough to call each other by name.

Jonathan stopped talking about that. Seeing Gloria's carefree look, he said with a smile, "Where are you with the cooperation between our Brown Group and your White Group?"

"They're trying to figure out a way to make you agree to work with someone else." The look in Gloria's eyes was sarcastic.

Jonathan sneered, "They haven't given up?"

"They will have a meeting in two days. Maybe they will choose a person to negotiate with you."

Before, Gloria was somewhat reluctant to work out the plan with Jonathan,

But now, she felt that only after this plan was made could her status be raised and she take the White Group back. She did not want to waste time anymore.

She would take the White Group back sooner or later.

"Heh..." Jonathan chuckled, "What should I do then? I only want you, and I'm only in love with you."

Jonathan frowned

disapprovingly, and displeasure emerged in his eyes, "In my eyes, you are the best girl in the world. Don't belittle yourself."

Gloria was speechless.

She really didn't know what to say.

The waiter quickly served all the food. Gloria ate without hesitation.

This was her usual habit.

Jonathan had been taking care of her. He spoke to her in a gentle voice and looked at her with soft eyes, politely and gentlemanly.

In Gloria's opinion, if she put aside the fact that he was a dandy, he was against Jordy and he approached her with some purposes, maybe he was a very good man.

But many times, good actions mixed with purposes were meaningless.

After they finished eating, Jonathan looked at her with a smile, "Do you want to go out for a walk?"

"No, thanks. I want to go back and have an early rest.",

The main reason was that she just received a short message from Brenda, who was Angela's assistant. Gloria had been looking forward to it for a long time.

Jonathan nodded, "Okay."

They got in the car, and Jonathan drove her home.

Gloria wanted to tell him not to come to her like this again, but she had said that more than once. He just didn't listen, so she didn't want to repeat it again.

Along the way, he kept talking with her. The topics were very light, and he didn't seem to have any other intentions. Anyone who spent time with Jonathan would feel relaxed as long as Jonathan wanted him to.

But those who knew him wouldn't feel so. They would have pressured no matter how Jonathan talked about the topics.

Soon, they arrived downstairs.

"Thank you very much." Gloria was about to open the door, but Jonathan suddenly grabbed her arm.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 427

Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 427

Chapter 427 The Eye-Catching Title

Gloria looked at him with a puzzled look.

Jonathan had wiped the smile off his lips. He looked at her seriously, "Gloria, I was serious every time, but you just didn't believe it. You are the only woman who reaches my heart."

He looked at her with affectionate and intent eyes.

Gloria slowly retracted her arm with a calm look. She looked at him and said word by word, "Jonathan, even if everything you said is true, I won't be with you, let alone I don't believe what you said. I won't be with you, never."

A sad look flashed across Jonathan's eyes. He sighed helplessly and soon recovered his gentle look. He smiled, "I guess it's not time yet. Go back and have an early rest."

He let go of her arm very naturally. Gloria could hardly bring out her words.

After pausing for a moment, she whispered, "Jonathan, don't waste your energy on me. I have been through a failed marriage, so I don't want to waste my energy on men anymore. You can't be my home, and we are not the same."

After that, Gloria got out of the car and left without hesitation.

Jonathan stared at her receding figure, slowly showed a smile and whispered, "Gloria, you can't escape me."

Instead of leaving, he got out of the car and lit a cigarette.

The faint smell of tobacco surrounded him. After waiting for a while, he slowly raised his head and saw that the light in Gloria's living room was on. He then put out the cigarette, threw it into the garbage can, and left.

Night was growing late.

Jordy also went home early.

He was still very irritated. The news that he was about to be engaged to Angela had been thoroughly spread around.

There must be a lot of discussion about it on Twitter.

He unlocked his mobile phone and clicked into Twitter.

However, when he saw another trending topic besides the one about his engagement, he was furious instantly.

The trending topic had a very eye-catching title.

He clicked into it and saw the annoying content.

–Pine and Cypress, (Mr. Collins is going to be engaged to his ex-wife's cousin, and Mr. Brown is pursuing Mr. Collins ex-wife all out. Did they agree on this?... )

Jordy was too furious to read the rest.

–Lois, (Why do I always feel that Mr. Brown is serious this time? Can Gloria really accept him?)

– Jonathan, (I'm always serious in pursuing Gloria, okay?)

–Alexia, (Oh my God! Sweetheart, you replied to this in person! Ah, ah, ah, you are serious!)

– Jonathan, [If you see my sincerity, please help me pursue Gloria.]

–Autumn Sugar, (Ah, ah, ah! Gloria is so lucky! I think she and Mr. Brown are very likely to be together. Aha!)

Jordy was so angry that he threw his mobile phone on the coffee table. He didn't want to read another word.

He agreed to his family's request in a complicated mood and under various pressures. He even thought...

But now.

Heh.

All he did was unnecessary.

Jordy got up irritably and went into the bathroom.

He couldn't calm down even if the cold water flushed on him. When he came out, he had got dressed and then he rushed out.

At this moment, Gloria had just come out after the bath and was about to go to bed. Suddenly, her door was banged.

Chapter 428 Break His Heart

Gloria looked sullen instantly.

Because there was only one person who would bang her door like this!

Why was he here again?

Gloria walked to the door and saw that it was really Jordy. She took a deep breath and could only open the door.

If he kept banging her door like this, her neighbors would all be disturbed.

Jordy saw Gloria's cold and disgusted look, and then became more furious.

He walked in. Gloria immediately closed the door, turned her head to him and said, "What's wrong with you?"

Jordy's stern eyes directly rested on her face. He said stonily, "Gloria, good for you!"

Gloria frowned and remembered the trending topic on Twitter. She immediately smiled, "Mr. Collins, is it my illusion? Are you here to question me after seeing the news that Jonathan dated me?"

Jordy wished he could swallow Gloria alive. He clasped her wrist and said, "I warned you to stay away from him!"

Gloria shook off his hand and laughed angrily, "What are you? What right have you to tell me what to do? For grandma, I put up with you again and again. Jordy, do you really think you can control everyone?"

"Gloria!" Jordy suddenly shouted her name with scarlet eyes.

But Gloria was not afraid at all. Obviously, she was completely enraged by him. She said coldly, "Jordy! I have monitors in my house. If you don't want Angela to see you like this, don't come to me again! Just keep the last decency you could have!"

"Decency?" Jordy also laughed with anger, looking at her with fierce eyes!

"Gloria, the decency I could have is to prove how blind I was!"

Slap!

Gloria raised her hand and slapped him across the face!

Then he turned to Gloria angrily, and gave her creeps with his murderous eyes.

But Gloria was not afraid. She looked at him in the eye and said angrily, ignoring his rage,

"Yes! I think I was blind, too! Are you a moron? You actually couldn't see through Angela! I married you, such a disgusting person. I wasted three years of youth and gave up all my career for you. Jordy, being in love with you and marrying you are the things I regret most! If I hadn't been so stubborn, my father would not have been killed by them! Jordy! Get out of my house! I don't want to see you anymore!"

He was a disgusting person?

Jordy suddenly pressed her against the corner and confined her. If he looked down, he could see her who was completely enraged.

"Gloria! You think I will let you go if you do this? I also wasted three years on you! Don't think about getting rid of me in this life, never! You owe me!"

Gloria struggled, and Jordy almost restrained her in his arms. Gloria laughed sadly.

It was her fault that she liked him. She wouldn't blame him for her own mistake. It was she who ignored her father's illness.

After all, Jordy once only wanted to get rid of her and didn't restrict her freedom at all. It was her mistake! She was so stupid back then! Why was she so obsessed with him? Jordy wasn't worthy of it!

She could have paid more attention to those three people! Then her father wouldn't have been hurt em...

Gloria's eyes turned red instantly!

Jordy seemed to have become her mortal enemy, "Get out of my house! Get out of here!"

The next moment, she lifted her leg and kicked straight at his crotch!

Jordy was startled. He immediately let go of her and stepped back. Gloria's eyes lit up slightly when she saw this work. She paused. If he restrained her like this again, she would kick him again!

Gloria sneered, "It was my fault. I trusted those three people, and my father was too kind. We brought the disaster upon ourselves. But when I see you, I will think of the stupid things I did before Jordy, I don't want to hate you. You didn't force me to love you, but it doesn't mean that I won't be paranoid and blame you for what had happened!"

"I have recorded everything you said, and I have monitors in my house. If you don't want Angela to see you pester me like this, then get out. You are engaged, so you must take the responsibility of a husband. She's your lifesaver, isn't she?"

Gloria's eyes were sarcastic,

If it weren't for revenge, it would be good if Angela could marry Jordy. Then they would have a happy life and never bother her again.

But Angela and her family hurt her like that. For every ounce of blood she spilled, they would pay tenfold.

Jordy's heart trembled violently.

He looked at Gloria, and the sudden heartache made him feel difficult to breathe.

Gloria completely gave him up?

She didn't love him anymore?

Jordy laughed angrily, "If you want any difficulties in your career, stay away from him."

Gloria looked at him coldly, "Jordy, if you want your Collins family to be peaceful, don't provoke me again! Since you don't mind enraging your grandmother and making her sick, I have no misgivings! Believe it or not, even without Jonathan, I can also destroy your Collins family!"

She didn't want to hurt the Collins family just because she cared about grandma, but it didn't mean that Jordy could threaten her at will.

Jordy sneered, "Then try it. I warn you for the last time. If I see you and Jonathan be so close again, I swear I will kick you out of the White Group!"

Gloria chuckled, "Angela and her parents are my enemies. They also want to drive me out of the White Group. If you marry Angela, you will also be my enemy. Jordy, from today on, you and I are mortal enemies!" .

Jordy's pupils suddenly contracted!

He looked at Gloria in disbelief. He never expected that Gloria would say such words!

Gloria looked at him coldly, "To be honest, Jonathan is far better than you. Even if he is a playboy and has many shortcomings, he is devoted to me, but what about you? You've been hurting me since the beginning. I can't get any warmth and comfort from you. I really feel that Jonathan is far better than you and is more suitable for being my husband."

Jordy was shocked.

The anger he had just suppressed was ignited again by Gloria's words! The fury in his eyes could almost burn Gloria to ashes.

"Good! Very good!" Jordy was too furious to say anything else, and he could hardly breathe because of the sudden heartache.

He didn't know why he would feel like this. Gloria looked at him coldly, "You can get out now. If you don't, Angela will see this clearly. You don't want to break your lifesaver's heart, do you?"

Jordy looked at Gloria coldly and said, "I don't want to push you to the cliff, but if you still turn a deaf ear to my warning, don't blame me for making a move against you!"

Gloria smiled sarcastically, "I don't care."

Anyway, Jordy would be in Angela's camp in the future. Angela would use Jordy's power to deal with her. It was like Jordy would deal with her in person, wasn't it?

She didn't care.

Gloria didn't want to talk to him anymore, and the sarcasm in her eyes grew stronger and stronger.

Under her glaring eyes, Jordy suddenly lost the courage to stay. He was good at saying harsh words but he didn't know what to say at this moment.

He looked away and then rushed out.

Gloria looked at the closed door and paused for a moment, as if what had happened were just a dream and an illusion.

She leaned against the wall, almost collapsing to the ground.

She took a deep breath and felt that she was exhausted again, then she lay down on the bed limply.

She was muddleheaded all night.

It was not that she couldn't be over Jordy or that she felt terrible after knowing his engagement. She just didn't want such a life. When would Jordy never bother her again?

Gloria didn't know if Jordy would really make a move against her, but she had made up her mind. If he really did that, she would also make him suffer.

If the worst came to the worst, both of them would suffer heavy losses.

Soon, it was the meeting every three days.

They would discuss who would work with Jonathan.

After Gloria went in, she sat quietly in her own place. She didn't participate in their discussion at all.

The shareholders were divided into three camps. One was neutral and the other two were at odds on the issue.

In the end, they all looked at Gloria.

Gloria raised her eyes slightly, "Why are you all looking at me?"

Claude was annoyed. If this thing weren't related to her, they wouldn't have looked at her like that!

After a pause, Claude continued, "Gloria, this job involves great interests of our company and needs someone who is more experienced to do it. Do you agree?"

"Yes." Gloria answered straightforwardly, but seeing the self-confidence she showed, Ted and Yvonne smiled.

Although she agreed, it did not mean that she would finish. Her confidence was enough to show that she was the only one Jonathan wanted.

Besides, all of them had seen what Jonathan had done recently.

He was calm but also impulsive, but he liked Gloria. Moreover, Gloria was not a novice. She wrote the plan after all, and her character was very similar to her father's. Why couldn't she take the job?

Claude also had a bad premonition, but what else could he do if Gloria was so cooperative?

Suppressing his unease, he looked at Gloria with a smile, "You are sensible. Anita will take you to Mr. Brown. She'll lead the team. You'll persuade Mr. Brown, which is your task."

The implication was that it was a task that was imposed on her.

If Gloria failed, they would think she was incompetent.

Those who supported Gloria frowned slightly and naturally understood Claude's implication.

Gloria nodded with a smile and said, "Okay, but I can't decide whether I can succeed. Manager Smith, who is more capable than me, can't, either."

Ted and Yvonne both laughed.
