Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 481

Chapter 481

Who the Hell Did It! Harold, "Mr. Collins, I've found out a part of the record that can match up, and I hit a dead end when I tried to find the other part." George frowned, "A part can match up? Why do I have a hunch that it's not the point?" After he finished, Harold sent the record.

Jordy tapped the play button.

The conversation between Martha and Angela was heard.

However...

It was about how they planned Angela's relapse to seek Jordy's compassion, which had been a sure thing.

But...the crucial part was missing.

"Ooof..." George couldn't help but chuckle, "Why do I feel Harold is tricking you?" Jordy's face darkened, though he knew George was joking.

He was wondering why the more important part was missing.

Jordy, "Where's the other part?" Harold, "The record has been corrupted.

Our man restored this part of the record.

They are still working on the rest." The sure thing was the part that couldn't be restored was not corrupted by Gloria.

Gloria only corrupted the part that could prove Brenda's involvement so that Brenda would not get implicated.

Meanwhile, the White family was no longer peaceful.

The Whites were restless and busy with their affairs.

Angela was panicked “Why is there a record! Why! We didn’t turn on the recorder that day!”

The family of three was sitting on the couch in the study with gloomy expressions, “Someone installed bugging software on our phones.

Damn it, now we can’t trace the source!” Claude’s face could not be anymore sullen.

They smashed their phones and got new ones because of it.

“Who the heck did it?” “Only people close to us could do it.” Martha was still calm but also looked upset.

Angela frowned at once, “It can’t be Brenda.

She’s timid and cowardly, and her parents are under my control, so it couldn’t be her.” Claude knitted his brows and thought about his assistant.

He believed she didn’t do it.

Martha thought about her assistant, who was believed to be innocent by her.

Pausing for a moment, Martha said quietly, “Honey, I don’t think it’s done by your assistant.

Mine or Angela’s should be the culprit.” Angela looked gloomier, “I felt your assistant was strange before.

She asked that man out and gave him money in a public place rather than book a private room.

It was clear that she was trying to make others witness their transaction.”

“Well, now the video and records spread.

What can we do? If Jordy knew it, my years of efforts would be in vain!” Angela felt more panicked while talking.

Martha pulled her hand and said quietly, “Calm down! We’ve corrupted the data and maybe it can’t get out.

Even if it does, you’re still the lady of the White family.

Old Joseph will build connections with us through business marriage if he wants to work with us.”

Angela didn’t calm down but bellowed, “That’s how it works.

But Jordy dislikes me.

Old Joseph Collins is old.

If he died, Jordy's father would take charge of the Collins family.

Chapter 482

Chapter 482 Did You Make a Move?

"By then, Jordy can divorce me as he wishes. I."

"Enough! You should think about how to marry Jordy first.

After you get married, try all means to make Jordy fall in love with you!"
Precisely she should try to gratify his passion.

Angela drew a breath and didn't know what to say, looking really hopeless.

Martha wanted to wrap this up, so she said coldly, "We've destroyed the evidence, so don't worry about imaginary troubles. All you have to do is deny and play innocent. Never show a guilty look!"
Angela didn't say anything.

Claude's face darkened, "What's our next move?"

"Find out the person that schemed against us.

Also, we should get rid of Gloria as soon as possible!"

Claude narrowed his eyes instead, "It's hard to get rid of her, but having her raped is a piece of cake." Angela's eyes lit up, and all her annoyance seemed to have been dispelled! "Yeah, it's hard and risky to get rid of her, but it's very easy to have some men gang rape her." Claude nodded approvingly, "She's been taking care of Bryson in the hospital over the past two days, so I think she didn't get much sleep.

It's a good chance to destroy her reputation when she's exhausted."

Martha scowled, "Who should I order? People around us are untrustworthy." Claude narrowed his eyes, "I have a candidate. Leave it to me."
In the hospital.

Gloria was resting in bed.

The rest of the people in the room were quiet without doing anything.

It was mainly because none of them were in the mood.

They couldn't fall asleep even though they haven't rested for long.

The phone's vibration made Gloria open her eyes.

She designed a program on her phone, so it would only vibrate when important people sent a message.

She swiped the phone and saw Brenda's text.

Brenda, "Miss White, they've found something amiss and changed the phones," Gloria squinted and texted back.

"You don't need to spy on their recent actions.

Be her assistant wholeheartedly as usual and protect yourself." Brenda, "Does it mean that they're suspicious of me? And I can't do anything for you in the future?" Gloria, "Don't worry.

You're not the one that they doubt.

Just act normal.

Do not fawn over her or spy on her." Brenda, "Alright."
The light from Gloria's phone screen made Nydia and Jennifer look over.

Since Nydia couldn't fall asleep, she started a conversation with Gloria, "Gloria, what are you doing?"

Gloria looked calm, locked the phone, and put it aside, saying softly, "Nothing, some minor things." Nydia looked at her, "Did Angela do any bad things to you?" Gloria sneered, "She's planning to set me up all the time.

She's now more anxious to kill me." Jennifer frowned immediately, "Why did you say that? Did you make a move on her?" Gloria pursed her lips and was about to make up an excuse so they wouldn't feel worried about her.

Nydia read Gloria's thoughts and said quietly, "It's safe here and no one is monitoring us.

Don't hide things from us.

We can share your burden.

At least we can pray for you from the bottom of our hearts.

Chapter 483 The Next Storm

In a blink or an eye, Gloria finally gave them a brief account of what had happened in the past few days.

Nydia laughed instantly.

“Hitch! She deserves to be exposed! These two bastards really should be a couple!” Jennifer frowned, “Yeah.

We got revenge on them, but then Jordy wouldn’t marry Angela, would he? Now he’s harassing you from time to time, so if he knew Angela was like this, later he might...” Speaking of this, Jennifer stopped with worried eyes.

WO

Gloria just smiled flatly.

“No. Jordy wouldn’t do such a boring thing. He just thinks I’m a little scheming and trying to protect Angela. He won’t bother me like this again after he knows what Angela is like.”

Jennifer subconsciously frowned and glanced at Nydia, who was also looking at Jennifer.

They had the same expressions and thoughts.

Is this really the case? Is it really as simple as Gloria says?

After a moment of hesitation, Nydia couldn’t help but say, “Okay, but you better be careful.

The White family is still too dangerous.

Make sure it’s all right before you start.

Don’t hurt yourself.

If you need our help, let us know.” Gloria felt warm.

“OK”.

arm.

She then picked up her phone again and messaged in the WhatsApp group.

This was her exclusive hacker group.

Gloria, “Guys, are you asleep? I need you guys to do me a favor.”
Soon, they replied.

Vincent, “What?” Vincent, “I told you not to be so cautious when talking to us.

We are friends, you can say it directly.

What is this? I will help you.” Braxton, “Me too.” Gloria felt warm.

Her friends always cared about her so much, so every time she thought of it, she really wanted to beat herself up, not knowing why she abandoned her best friends for that loser in the first place.

She hated herself for being so stupid!
Taking a breath, she typed again.

Gloria, “Alright, thanks.

One of Martha’s assistants is loyal to her, but recently a recording was lost at the Campbell family, and now they are suspicious of those around them.

Brenda was sent by me, so I want you guys to install a monitoring app on Martha and her assistant’s phone to make them suspicious of Martha’s assistant.” Vincent, “No problem.

I will do this.

I am the best at alienation.” Braxton, “What do I need to do?”
Gloria, “I will go to you if I need your help.

Only Vincent is enough today.

I’m out now, so I can’t use a computer.” Braxton, “Okay.”
Both were young.

Vincent was the boss but not as composed as Braxton.

Gloria replied with an emoji and turned off the phone screen.

Before, she had succeeded in making them suspicious of Martha's assistant.

This monitoring app was her next plan.

It was a quiet night.

But the next day, something happened.

Chapter 484

Chapter 484 Did He Know Everything?

After getting up, Gloria received a message from the White family's servant, This was her informant.

She was an ordinary servant and couldn't take care of the members of the White family by herself, but the White family would not guard against her, so such a person was most useful.

Gemma had been with the White family for four or five years.

She was not their father's confidant, so the White family didn't drive her away.

But they didn't know that Gemma had been favored by Gloria many times.

She was secretly loyal to Gloria and could only see trivial things. was sec But today was different! Something quite shocking happened today, so the whole family knew about it.

Gemma, "Miss White, Martha has fired her assistant.

She was very angry and asked why she did that.

In the end, despite her cry for redress, Martha drove her away."
Gloria smiled.

Gloria, "Thank you.

Next, you need to pay attention to how things are going and let me know.”
Gemma, “Okay.

Don't worry.

I will definitely keep an eye on them.” Gloria, “Okay.” Gloria put down her phone with worry in her eyes.

Nydia walked in with breakfast while looking at her suspiciously.

“Why are you in a daze? Have you washed up yet? Go have breakfast!”

Gloria came to her senses.

“Not yet. I'll wash up now.” She went into the bathroom and fell into deep thoughts again.

She was thinking about what to do next.

After Gloria dealt with the White family this time, they would undoubtedly think of her.

If nothing else, this would annoy them and make them hurt her.

She needed to think about what to do.

After packing up and having breakfast with everyone, Gloria continued to be with Bryson.

This was working time.

Everyone started today's work.

Knowing that her mother had found the real mole, Angela ignored Brenda and went to the Collins

Group

Angela went upstairs smoothly.

Seeing her, many people couldn't help but talk about her.

Of course, many people were envious of her family background, her appearance, and the favor she received from Mr.

Collins, No one felt that Jordy's divorce had any effect or that he would be ineligible to love Angela In fact, they thought Angela was inferior to Jordy.

After all, Mr.Collins was such an excellent man...

Gloria didn't cherish him before.

In the discussion of the crowd, Angela arrived at the door of Jordy's office nervously.

She took a deep breath to control her emotions and knocked on the door.

"Please come in."
His voice was cold.

Angela blinked and entered.

Seeing Jordy sitting at the desk, Angela smiled at Jordy, suppressing her panic.

"Jordy."
She closed the door and stepped forward.

Jordy looked at her flatly.

"Why are you here?" Angela sat on the chair opposite Jordy with fluttering eyelashes and put the document in her hand on the table.

"You've already read it, so I want to continue to discuss it with you today."
Without speaking, Jordy stared coldly at her face.

Angela felt her heart flutter.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 485

Remarriage Never And Go Away

Chapter 485

Chapter 485 I Will Be Sad Angela was flustered and at a loss.

Jordy didn't say anything while Angela didn't dare to do anything and said again with a smile, "It's about our company's cooperation."

Gloria's friend is in the hospital.

She doesn't have much time, so my dad wants to talk to you again.

He wants to ask another one to do this.

There are a lot of people with more experience than Gloria.”
If Gloria was there, she would admire Angela.

Even in this situation, she still tried to sow discord.

Jordy had a gloomy look after Angela mentioned that Gloria’s friend was in the hospital.

Angela’s eyes lit up.

She suddenly felt that it was possible.

Before Jordy said anything, she persuaded again, “I know you appreciate Gloria’s talent.

Her plans surprised a lot of people, but...

Sometimes, people who can make a good plan may not implement it well.”
In Angela’s view, Gloria was not good at practice.

Even though Angela admitted that Gloria was very talented, she didn’t think Gloria could do it well!

Jordy chuckled suddenly, which stiffened Angela’s body.

She could feel the sarcasm in Jordy’s eyes.

Angela took a deep breath, not knowing what he meant.

Jordy’s eyes were like a sharp knife.

Suppressing her panic and pretending to be puzzled, Angela looked at Jordy.

“Why are you looking at me like that?” Jordy looked at her with a faint smile.

“You’ve always supported her in every way, haven’t you?” Angela felt her heart tremble again!

She nodded hastily.

“That’s right.

I’m very supportive of her, so I don’t want her reputation to be ruined.

It’s just in case.

I know my decisions may limit her performance, but...” Speaking of which, she stopped.

Jordy said flatly, "We don't need to discuss this." 11 USS
This cooperation just seemed to be for her.

Angela looked at Jordy with her expression slightly changed.

"Jordy, are you sure you want to take over this cooperation? Then what about Brown Group?"

"It's up to you," Jordy responded calmly, staring at her coldly.

S Aula suspected that the man seemed to know something But she didn't dare to ask more questions or test Jordy, for fear that it might remindhim.

Angela didn't know what to say for a moment and looked at him worriedly.

At this time, she could only respond to Jordy with her gaze.

Jordy asked quietly, "Anything else?" Angela shook her head subconsciously.

Jordy looked away.

"I have other work.

Please go back." Angela felt her body stiffen and tried to call his name.

However, when Jordy suddenly looked at her again, she dared not stay there any longer.

Feeling her heart racing, Angela whispered, "Okay, see you.

Please rest well.

If you're tired, I'll be sad." Speaking of this, Angela bowed her head shyly.

But seeing Jordy staring at her coldly, Angela suddenly dared not speak anymore and left in apanic.

Silence returned to the office again.

Jordy's phone rang suddenly.

Seeing the phone number, he had a serious expression.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 486

Chapter 486 The Voice of Despair After a pause, he answered the phone.

“Who?” His voice was as cold as ever.

The guy froze for a moment, frowned, and said, “Little bastard! Pay attention to your attitude!” Jordy pursed his lips and waited for him to continue.

After a pause, the guy whispered, “The invitations have been sent out.

There is only half a month left until your engagement.

During this time, go out with her often.

After the engagement is over, travel with her for a month.”

Jordy suddenly had a gloomy expression.

“Stop working for a month to travel with her? What are you thinking?”

“You...” Joseph took a deep breath to control his anger.

“You like the White Group’s plan, don’t you? Your dad could take over your job.” Jordy frowned.

“I’m afraid the engagement will be canceled.” Unable to believe what he said, Joseph paused and confirmed that Jordy had really said something bad.

He was instantly furious.

“What the fuck are you talking about? I’ve sent out the invitation, but you told me it’s going to be canceled? You...”

Before he could finish, he was interrupted by Jordy.

“Then get them all back.

I have work to do.

Talk to you when I get home.” With that, Jordy hung up the phone, ignoring Joseph.

Joseph called Jordy again, but he refused to answer, he went to the conference room, and gave Harold his phone.

Time flew by.

Bryson had been in the hospital for three days.

Stimulated constantly by Gloria, Bryson was about to wake up.

Everyone was extremely excited, nervous, worried, and scared.

They didn't want Bryson to remain in a coma, but no one dared to think about it.

After all, Bryson had moved his body more than once.

Today was his fourth day in the hospital.

Sitting next to Bryson, Gloria couldn't help sighing and sniffing, as if crying.

After a pause, she said sadly, "Bryson, I said before that I can only be with you for three days.

If you still don't wake up, it means you don't want to see me.

In order not to affect your treatment, I..." Speaking of which, Gloria saw Bryson frown and his hand move.

She froze for a moment but pretended not to know anything and said slowly again, "I'm leaving.

I won't mention this again in the future.

If you wake up, forget that.

We..." Gloria sniffed again and saw Bryson move his hands and try to grab hers.

Gloria seemed to see hope and cried, "Let's be friends, Bryson...

Bye." With that, she stood up and took a few steps back, making the chair rub against the ground and making a sound.

With his eyes closed, Bryson could feel Gloria get up and about to leave.

He started talking, "No..."

His voice was too low.

If Gloria hadn't seen his lips move, she wouldn't have heard it.

After she took another step, Bryson's desperate voice suddenly sounded.

"No!" The next moment, he snapped his eyes open and grabbed Gloria's hand in a panic.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 487

Chapter 487 Please Don't Time froze for a moment, Gloria said in surprise, "Bryson! You're finally awake!"

Bryson's hand was weak and fell off after touching Gloria's.

However, he struggled to say with flustered gazes, "Don't... leave."

Gloria responded immediately, "I won't.

I'll ask the doctor to come!" Bryson was relieved to hear her reassurance.

"...OK."

Gloria immediately rang the bedside bell.

Soon after, two doctors came quickly.

Seeing that Bryson had opened his eyes, the two doctors stepped forward with shocked expressions.

"I didn't expect Mr.

Lloyd to wake up so early this time!" Bryson's handsome face paled for a moment.

He smiled and said nothing.

The two doctors immediately gave him a comprehensive examination with serious expressions.

After the examination, one of the doctors said with surprise, "We thought it was a blessing for Mr.

Lloyd to wake up, but we didn't expect him to be in very good condition and meet his standards in all aspects.

As long as he continues to recuperate for a while, he will fully recover."

Gloria was immediately surprised.

"Great."

The doctor smiled and said, "I'm prescribing Mr.

Lloyd now.

Discharge is just around the corner!"

Gloria nodded quickly.

"Then can my friends come in now?"

"Yes.

Mr.

Lloyd can leave the intensive care unit.

We will arrange another ward for Mr.

Lloyd soon." Gloria turned to look at Bryson with a smile.

"Jennifer and Nydia are outside.

I'll tell them that you're awake." Bryson blinked in agreement.

Gloria smiled and walked out.

The doctor also left after making some arrangements.

Jennifer and Nydia had been outside all the time.

Seeing them, they hurried over.

Jennifer couldn't help but ask, "How is he?" Seeing their happy expressions, Jennifer and Nydia looked forward to it.

After a short pause, Gloria smiled and said, "He's awake."

"Really?" Jennifer cried with joy.

The doctor responded with a smile, "Of course.

It's a miracle that Mr.

Lloyd woke up.

You must consider his emotions when you take care of him.

His head injury is serious, so he must not be stimulated in the slightest.

Otherwise, This will affect his recovery!”

They nodded obediently.

Jennifer quickly said, “Okay, thank you.

We promise to take care of him and not let him relapse!”

Gloria’s assurance was out of concern for Bryson.

The doctor nodded with a smile and glanced at the intensive care unit.

‘TH make the arrangements.” “Okay, thanks.” Soon, only the three of them were left in the corridor.

Jennifer immediately grabbed Gloria’s hand with a firm gaze.

“Gloria, come.

I have something to tell you.” Jennifer lowered her voice in case Bryson heard it.

Nydia immediately knew what Jennifer was going to say, and so did Gloria.

She took a deep breath, looked at Jennifer with complicated eyes, and whispered, “I know what you’re going to say.

Don’t worry.

I won’t irritate him.” Jennifer pursed her lips and squeezed her hand.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 488

Chapter 488 Are Those Dreams? Gloria whispered regretfully with her eyelashes trembling, “How could I irritate him?He is also my friend.” Jennifer was startled and nodded with no word.

Next, doctors transferred Bryson to a private ward.

Gloria called Patrick and told him that Bryson had woken up.

After adjusting their emotions, they entered the ward.

Because of Bryson's condition, his diet and treatment were all up to the doctor.

So, they didn't need to worry too much.

At this point, the doctors had left.

Only the four of them were there.

The three girls all stared at the man lying on the hospital bed.

The bandages on his face had not been removed, but he looked better than before.

At least, it was no longer pale.

There were four people in the room, but Bryson could only see only Gloria.

He had a mixed gaze full of anticipation.

After a moment of hesitation, Gloria said softly, "You're lucky to wake up, so, during this time, you must be obedient and rest in the hospital.

Forget all your work and leave the hospital when the doctor allows it.

Can you do it?" Bryson smiled and said while blinking.

"Will you be with me?" Jennifer looked at Gloria in a panic.

So did Nydia, but she was not as nervous as Jennifer.

Gloria smiled and nodded.

"I'll come to you every day because the company won't give me such a long vacation." Bryson reacted immediately and said softly, "Yes.

You are important to the company at this stage.

Just do your job.

I'll go to you when I'm out of the hospital." He had been staring at Gloria fondly.

Before, he always hid his affection in his eyes, but now, he showed it all without hesitation.

Gloria was stumped and didn't know how to explain it to him when he was healed.

Gloria bowed her head slightly, not knowing what to do.

All she could do at the moment was pretend to be his girlfriend.

Thinking she was still not quite used to it, Bryson controlled his gaze, looked at Jennifer and Nydia, and said with a smile, "Sorry for worrying you."

Jennifer shook her head and tried to say something but didn't know what to say.

Nydia smiled.

"You don't need to apologize! I'm glad you woke up.

You don't know how worried Jennifer is about you." Bryson looked at Jennifer and smiled.

"I'm fine.

Don't worry about me.

I'm God's favorite, so how could I die?" After speaking, he looked at Gloria again with the tenderness in his eyes almost overflowing.

God indeed favored him.

Without this accident, Gloria would not have agreed to be with him.

In an instant, the three girls in the room had more mixed expressions, which was not shown.

Chapter 489 Hug Gloria took a deep breath and said softly, "No. This is me." With that, she lowered her head to avoid Bryson's affectionate gaze.

Nydia and Jennifer were nervous because they knew Gloria was afraid to face him.

But Bryson didn't think much of it, thinking that Gloria was just shy and still smiling.

However, Bryson was controlling his tenderness so as not to make Gloria uncomfortable.

Jennifer looked greedily at Bryson, but he was always looking at Gloria.

She took a deep breath as if compromising.

“Bryson, now that you’re awake, we won’t disturb you.

Just have a good chat.

We’ll rest in the next room for a while.

We’re tired after taking care of you for so many days.”

After speaking, Jennifer got up and took Nydia’s hand.

Looking at Jennifer who was forced to smile, Nydia had no choice but to smile at Bryson.

“That’s right.

We might be a little redundant here.

You should have a chat.” Gloria looked up slightly with mixed glances.

Bryson smiled gratefully at the two of them.

“Okay.

Rest well.

Thank you very much.”

“Don’t say that.

We’re friends!” Jennifer feigned displeasure and walked out with Nydia.

“Okay.

We’re leaving.

See you later.” After the door was closed, only Gloria and Bryson were left in the ward.

Gloria lowered her head, not knowing what to say.

Bryson looked at her guiltily.

“I could hear every word you said when I was asleep, but I couldn’t respond to you.

Gloria, I’m sorry.

I will never be so reckless or make you worry about me again.”

Gloria looked at him with tender eyes with eyelashes trembling, subconsciously trying to avoid it.

But at this time, she couldn't show it.

Of course, many emotions, including guilt at the moment, were beyond her control.

She sighed.

“This time, it was my fault.

I...”

“No, Gloria.

I'm glad.” Bryson looked at her fondly.

“Without what happened this time, I wouldn't have...” Having said that, he didn't seem to dare to continue speaking, for fear that Gloria would be even shyer.

Gloria lowered her head and said nothing.

Bryson moved his body and tried to sit up.

Gloria stopped him immediately.

“You have a head injury, so don't move.

Lie down.”

Bryson smiled wryly.

“If it goes on like this, I will become mentally retarded.”

Gloria stepped forward and helped him change his posture.

Bryson suddenly raised his hand and took hers.

Gloria was startled and subconsciously tried to withdraw her hand.

However, after a moment of hesitation, she did not do so.

But her body was a little stiff.

Bryson pulled her and made her sit on the bed.

“Gloria, do you know how happy I am?” Bryson looked at her with a quiver of his Adam’s apple.

“Without you, I don’t think I’d wake up this time, but you had been with me.

Remarriage Never And Go Away Chapter 490

Chapter 490 Sweet Candy Gloria’s body stiffened instantly. Until now, he was still holding her hand.

“Gloria.”

Gloria looked at him. Bryson’s eyes were soulful.

“Gloria, I know you said that to me just to wake me up.

You’re not going to tell me the truth until I’ve recovered, are you?” Gloria felt her heart racing and Bryson staring at her face the whole time.

She adjusted her mood and frowned, “Do you think I’m lying to you?” Bryson froze and stared at her, not knowing what to say.

Gloria sighed.

In fact, she knew that Bryson lacked a sense of safety.

He said it just to test her to see if she was like what he said.

At this time, Bryson had a clear mind and extreme anticipation.

He hoped what he said, which might be true, was not the truth.

If so, all his anticipation and struggles these days would be gone.

At that time, he would be very sad.

Sighing and adjusting her emotions, Gloria looked at him with clear eyes.

“Bryson, I didn’t lie to you to wake you up.

I really agreed.” Bryson felt his heart quiver violently with disbelief in his eyes.

Bryson was looking forward to it, but hearing Gloria's confirmation, he felt his heart racing and thought it was a hallucination.

Bryson held Gloria's hand even tighter.

"Gloria..."

He was very emotional and incredulous.

"Did I hear it wrong? Say it again, Gloria.

Say it again." At this moment, Bryson was excited like a child.

If it wasn't for his serious injury, he might have held Gloria in his arms at this moment.

At least, at this time, he didn't want to let go of her hand.

Gloria smiled at him and nodded with twitching eyelashes and mixed emotions.

"No, Bryson.

I agree to be your girlfriend." Bryson could barely hear Gloria's voice during the second half other words, but for her, it was torturous.

Gloria didn't care what would happen when she pretended to be Bryson's girlfriend or if it would damage his reputation.

She just wanted to know what she'd do when Bryson got better, lest he'd be too sad and hit the bottle again.

Bryson was suddenly excited.

He was like a kid who wanted and finally got the candy.

This was his candy! It was very sweet! He wanted to have it for the rest of his life!

"Gloria, I think this accident is the greatest luck of mylife!" Bryson didn't know how to express his joy and excitement.

Gloria smiled and looked at him seriously.

"Don't think about anything.

Just take good care of yourself.

Otherwise, my long-term care for you will be wasted.” Bryson nodded obediently and looked at her dotingly.

“Okay.

You’re the boss.” After he finished speaking, the door of the ward suddenly opened.
