

Elliot: "..."

He thought Avery knew Italian, so he tried his best to let him use Italian Confess to her.

"Then you ask me to confess, doesn't it show loneliness?" Elliot said angrily.

"How can it be lonely? I can feel your sincere feelings for me from your tone and eyes.

And Italian is really good. Maybe because you said it, I feel very good. Even if I don't know what you said What does it mean, but it sounds like a pleasure."

Avery responded to his confession seriously.

All his embarrassment melted away in an instant.

"Mom, do you want to know what he just said?" Hayden asked seriously.

Avery was stunned for a moment and said in surprise: "Do you know what it means? Didn't you say you don't understand?"

"I really don't understand. But there is a simultaneous translation function on the mobile phone. When he said it just now, it's recorded." Hayden clicked on the simultaneous translation, so the Italian that Elliot said just now was translated into English.

—"Avery, it's a pleasure to meet you. I'm very happy to spend the next day with you. I love you very much, I love you very much."

After the mobile phone translation, Avery was stunned for a moment: "Is it just these few sentences? but Elliot said a lot just now."

Elliot's face was a little red: "It's just these few sentences in translation."

“Oh...although it’s just a few simple words, it’s often the simplest language. Can express the strongest feelings.” Avery spoke for him.

Elliot’s face turned even redder: “Because I only know these simple sentences.”

“Enough, just say you love me.” Avery gave him full affirmation.

Hayden silently stopped and looked at the scenery outside the window.

At noon, during the celebratory meal, Avery looked over the photos taken at the tea bar, and then selected a few photos that she thought were better, and sent them to the circle of friends, with the accompanying text: [The sun is very good today, and the tea is very fragrant, the dim sum is sweet.]

There were tea and snacks in the photo, as well as a group photo of Elliot and Hayden that she secretly took.

Not long after this circle of friends was released, someone immediately commented –

Ben Schaffer: [Wow! First time seeing father and son in the same frame! Are they reconciled?]

Chad: [Hayden finally lost his murderous look, and he finally let go of his hatred! So moving!]

Mike replied to Chad: [Can you not be so exaggerated? What a murderous... Listening to see people.]

Chad replied to Mike: [Then you ignore what I said earlier and just read the last sentence.]

WHEN HIS EYES OPENED

“Hayden, Dad has to admit that you are more powerful than Dad.” Elliot used milk instead of wine to fight with Hayden a cup.

Avery knew that Hayden better.

He ate soft and not hard.

Elliot is now willing to lower his stance to please Hayden and flatter Hayden. Hayden will definitely not show Elliot’s face.

“You are you, I am me, there is no need to compare.” Hayden used to care about which of the two is more powerful, but now that he has done what he wants to do, and has a clearer goal, he doesn’t care who is more powerful.

Avery: “Hayden, you’re right. No matter who is more powerful, you or your father, both of you are my pride.”

Avery wanted to drink a glass of milk with them when she said this. At this time, the phone on the table rang.

The call was from Mike.

Avery had already guessed what Mike was calling her to say.

In her circle of friends, Mike was bullied by Ben Schaffer and Chad together, and Mike definitely wanted her to help him do justice.

Avery took a sip of milk and took Mike’s call.

“Avery, Hayden and Elliot are reconciled?” Mike didn’t believe the result, so he called specifically to ask.

“Yeah. Would you like to come and see for yourself?” Avery asked.

“Can I still believe what you said? Since the two of them are reconciled, that’s fine! You don’t have to worry about this problem in the future.” Mike accepted it quickly.

Avery jokingly said: “how can I hear your tone, I’m a little lost.”

“What am I missing, do I look like the kind of villain who can’t see your family reunion and beauty?” Mike’s tone was a little sour, “Forget it, let’s be honest, I’m really a little lost. Hayden’s favorite man in the past, it must be me. Now that he is reconciled with Elliot, I think it won’t be long before Elliot will take my place in his heart.”

“Mike, why do you have such thoughts? You are in Hayden’s heart, your status It can never be replaced by others. Just like your position in my heart, it is by no means that Elliot can easily replace it.” Avery gave Mike a boost.

Mike felt better when he heard her words.

“Mike, you and Chad... Why don’t you stay in Aryadelle in the future! Hayden doesn’t need you to watch and take care of him all the time. I believe he can take care of himself.” Avery began to think about Mike future life.

Mike: “Why don’t you let Chad go with me to Bridgedale? Bridgedale is my motherland.”

“Chad doesn’t listen to me. You have to discuss with him.” Avery couldn’t help.

“Chad doesn’t listen to you, but Elliot listens to you! It’s better if you let Elliot let go.” Mike said, suddenly thinking of their group’s plan to let Avery and Elliot get married on New Year’s Day, so he said, “Don’t worry about our business. I will find you when I need your help in the future. As long as I don’t look for you, it means it’s not a big problem.”

“I’ll go again in a few days! I haven’t had enough fun!” Mike replied, “You guys can play, I won’t disturb you anymore.”
