

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2271

Chapter 2271

“Yeah.” Avery said, looking at Elliot, “Your company must be very busy recently, right? You can use the computer, but you have to control the time. If you get dizzy, you must rest.”

With Avery’s permission, Elliot immediately nodded happily.

After breakfast, Elliot went to the study.

Gwen took Avery to the living room to see the wedding dress, makeup, wedding shoes, etc.

Avery looked very seriously. Choose more carefully than when she got married.

“Gwen, I think this white gauze is pretty good, but this toast dress, I think the long one looks better. You are tall, and wearing a long skirt is just too fairy! With a normal height like me, I want to wear this kind of long skirt. All must be made to order.” Avery looked at the two toasting suits in the picture, and chose a long skirt without hesitation.

Gwen did not dare to tell the truth. What she came to find Avery to choose today was what Avery would wear when she got married on New Year’s Day.

“But I think this short style looks good too. It’s very lively.” Gwen was afraid that Avery’s height in the long skirt could not handle it.

“Well, the short style is also good. You look good in anything. If you like this short style, choose the short style. The most important thing in a wedding is to be happy.” Avery followed her words.

“What about this makeup look? Do you think it will be too gorgeous?” Gwen flipped through the picture and showed it to Avery.

The reason Gwen asked this was because Avery’s previous wedding makeup was dignified and elegant, and what she showed Avery now was completely different from the style.

The makeup in the picture would be more fashionable. The model’s face was affixed with shimmering diamonds to make the whole face look sparkling.

“It’s so pretty!” Avery glanced at the picture and then at Gwen’s face, “Gwen, if you like it, you can try makeup.”

Gwen was going to try makeup, but Avery's wedding on New Year's Day was going to be for Avery, so she hadn't tried it yet.

"Uh... I've been a little allergic to my skin recently. So I didn't try it. And I've done similar makeup before, and I think it's pretty good!" Gwen replied with a smile.

Avery: "Well, as long as you like it. In fact, the ones you chose are all very good-looking."

"What about these shoes?" Taking advantage of Avery's patience, Gwen immediately turned over the following pictures one by one to her.

Avery carefully looked at the pictures at the back and replied seriously: "I think they are all good-looking. If you can pick them out, you must have screened them. The things you like are all good-looking."

Gwen: "Hahaha! Avery, I asked Ben the same question, and he answered the same as you."

"Because it's really good-looking." Avery replied affirmatively.

Gwen pondered for a few seconds and asked, "Then do you think my second brother would like this?"

Avery: "You get married, it doesn't matter what he likes or not."

"I just want to know!" After all, it would be Avery. For Avery and Elliot's wedding, Gwen hoped they were both satisfied.

"...Elliot doesn't have the same eye as ours. He likes simple and elegant styles. You refer to the style of the time I married him before. He handled my dress and all the other details." Avery didn't like to worry, and was more assured of him.

"Okay!" Gwen could already imagine that on New Year's Day, Elliot was definitely not satisfied with the wedding and all the details of the wedding.

But whether he liked it or not, as long as Avery liked it.

"Gwen, you don't need to worry about Elliot, as long as you like it." Avery saw Gwen frowning, so she said softly, "If you can marry the person you like, other trivial matters are not important."

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2272

After receiving Avery's answer, Gwen was relieved.

"Avery, you and my second brother's personalities are quite complementary. My second brother seems to be a particularly difficult person to serve, and you are very easy-going and easy to get along with." Gwen flattered.

Avery: "That's because you don't know your second brother. For example, the servants in his family have worked here for many years..."

"Working here for many years does not mean that my second brother is easy to get along with! Only it shows that the treatment here is good. That's why they can tolerate my second brother." Gwen had a unique opinion, "I just want to praise you. If I were a man, I would also like a woman like you who balances career and family."

"Gwen, You are so sweet, don't you want me to help?" Avery blushed after being praised, "We are not outsiders, you don't need to flatter me."

"If I have something to do now, Ben can also help me solve it. I'm going to marry him, of course I have to trouble him if I have anything." Gwen said playfully, "I now realize that as long as I don't confront him, he's actually not that annoying."

Avery: "Haha, Brother Ben is very nice. At least every time I see him, he smiles. In terms of temper, he must be much better than your second brother."

Gwen: "He is very nice, but he likes to take care of me sometimes. I think this is the disadvantage of our age difference."

Avery: "I understand what you said. Elliot and I came here too. After getting along for a long time, it will be settled."

"The two of you are at home every day now. What are you doing?" Gwen was very curious, "My second brother won't be able to go to work until after the Spring Festival?"

Avery thought about it and replied, "We find small things to do every day, like yesterday we practicing calligraphy at home, doing handicrafts at home the day before yesterday, and tidying up the children's wardrobes together the day before yesterday, and the day before yesterday, we invited a fitness trainer to come home..."

Gwen: "Oh, it sounds quite fulfilling. After the weekend, you can play with the children."

"Yeah! Actually, we only have the time during the day for ourselves. After school in the afternoon Robert, we have to play with the children." Avery asked, "After you marry Ben, do you have any plans to have a child?"

"Avery, do you think I should have it immediately?" Gwen was a little uncertain.

Sometimes she wanted a child, sometimes she didn't. Mainly after having children came responsibility and stress.

"My suggestion is that you be mentally prepared, especially if you want a child." Avery gave her advice.

Gwen: "I just don't know if I want children."

Avery: "Then you probably don't."

Gwen: "But I saw that Layla and Robert really liked them. I think I like children."

Avery: "You like children, But you don't like the painful process of having a baby!"

"Hahaha! Yes!" Gwen was told what she felt in her heart.

"Tammy was like this at the beginning." Avery said, "You can talk to her more. In fact, everyone has a different tolerance for pain. Like me, I don't feel so terrible about having a child. I don't feel so painful."

"Because you're a doctor." Gwen cast an envious look.

"Gwen, the doctor is also afraid of pain. Don't think about it now, wait until the wedding is done, and then think about it slowly. When your expectations for your child reach a higher point, then you will Overcome the fear of pain."

Gwen: "After chatting with you, I suddenly became a lot more open-minded."

"Because this is not a big problem." Avery chuckled and wanted to ask her if she had any other questions. At this moment, her phone rang.

Because she had the matter of Bridgedale in mind, she picked up the phone and took a look.

It was Emilio who sent her a message: [My father is dead.]

Avery looked at the message, and the expression on her face froze.

She didn't know if this was a simple grievance between Norah and Travis, or if it involved other people.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2273

“Avery, what’s the matter?” Gwen saw that Avery’s expression was wrong, and immediately asked, “If you have something to do, then I won’t disturb you. I came here today, and I have nothing to do.”

Avery stood up from the sofa Get up: “Did you drive by yourself?”

“Yeah! I came by myself.” Gwen also quickly stood up from the sofa, “I’m going out by myself, you don’t need to take it away.”

“I’ll take you out...” Avery put down the phone and sent Gwen out, “Next time you and Tammy come over to play.”

Gwen: “Okay, next time we come over, I will tell you in advance.”

Avery: “Well.”

After sending Gwen away, Avery quickly returned to the living room, picked up her mobile phone, and dialed Emilio.

Emilio quickly answered the phone and said, “Avery, my father is dead.”

“I saw your message. How did your father die? Where’s Norah? Did you get in touch? Does this matter have anything to do with Sasha?” Avery asked.

“I don’t know...I only know that my dad is dead. Someone sent me a picture of my dad being shot.” Emilio was cold all over.

Although he had always fantasized about Travis’s death, Travis was really dead, and he felt as if he was alone and had no direction.

Now the Jones family was up and down, and everyone was staring at him.

And, almost everyone was on his opposite.

Because in their opinion, he would inherit most of the Jones family’s property.

Travis’s death made him succeed.

Before Travis’s sudden death, others never thought that Travis would die so quickly.

In addition to the Jones family, the outside world also began to spread the Jones family’s gossip. Once the rumors spread, it would be like water that was poured out and could not be taken back.

Many friends called him and asked if Travis was really dead and if he was about to inherit the Jones family’s business.

At this moment, Emilio felt uneasy and panicked.

Only then did he realize that it was right for his father to call him incompetent.

He sent a message to Avery to seek some comfort.

But Avery didn't understand his mood at all, she just wanted to know Sasha's whereabouts.

"Emilio, your father is dead, will you take over MH Medicine in the future?" Avery heard the unease in his tone, "Has his will been announced?"

"No. I just found out that my father is dead. I haven't told anyone yet. But everyone else has already guessed that my dad is dead." Emilio clenched the phone tightly with his fingers, "Now everyone is staring at the Jones family..."

"Don't be afraid. You should contact your father's lawyer first, and then notify other siblings. After the will is made public, life will continue." Avery said, and the conversation changed, "Emilio, I hope that after you take over MH Medicine, immediately stop your father's new project before his death."

Emilio: "My father may not necessarily give me the company."

"Then you go to contact your father's lawyer. Let's see how the will is made." Avery calmly said, "You can get in touch. Norah?"

Emilio: "No. Norah must have done this. I'm waiting for Norah to contact me."

After Avery heard his words, a thought suddenly flashed in her mind: "Norah is also Travis's daughter. Right?"

After Avery said these words, Emilio immediately understood what Avery was going to say next.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2274

Chapter 2274

"Do you think Norah will come to fight with me for the family property?" Emilio asked this question.

Avery pondered for a while, and said, "Based on what I know about Norah, I think she will find a way to win Travis's inheritance. She can find a way to kill Travis, and her methods are far beyond your imagination."

Emilio's mood was a little nervous and flustered. After Avery said this, Emilio's heart beat faster.

"Emilio, are you afraid that you are not Norah's opponent?" Avery said, "Don't be afraid. If you are sure that your father is dead, then you should contact your father's lawyer and strengthen security at the same time."

"Well, how is your husband?" Emilio suppressed his unease and asked casually.

Avery: "He is recovering well and has started working from home."

"It seems that Margaret's resurrection technique is really a scam." Emilio sneered.

"If it exists, why should I overthrow it? What really exists is not something that can disappear if I want to overthrow it. Emilio, don't be like your father, doing anything to make money won't go long." Avery advised.

"Let's take one step at a time!" Emilio remembered the mess left by his father, and his head was big.

"Well. If you need help in the future, feel free to contact me. I will do my best to help you." Avery said, "As long as you are not like your father, we are still friends."

"If my father didn't give me the inheritance, would we still be friends?" Emilio said sarcastically.

Avery: "Do you think I'm your friend because of how much you are worth? I told you, you helped me, I remembered."

"Got it." Emilio said and hung up the phone.

Emilio looked at the screen of his mobile phone. In the family group, someone was chatting.

first Sister: [Emilio, is there any news from the police? My father has been missing for two days. I'm afraid it's bad luck!]

Second Sister: [Emilio, did our father's lawyer contact you? Or does he have to wait for you to contact him before he announces his father's will?]

third Sister: [Emilio, father has been out of contact for two days, he must have an accident. You don't have to be afraid of him anymore!]

Fourth Sister: [Have all the sisters returned to Bridgedale? I'm still abroad! I bought a ticket back home, but the weather was bad and the flight was canceled! If the lawyer publishes the will, you must make a video call with me! I don't believe that Dad didn't leave anything for our sisters.]

Emilio watched their chat, and after deliberation, he sent a message: [When you are free, let's meet!]

Usually they never met in private.

They only met at family banquets during the New Year's and festive seasons.

Now that the father who maintained their relationship was gone, there was no need to maintain the superficial affection between them.

Sister: [I am free at any time.]

Second Sister: [I will go to Bridgedale in the afternoon. How about meeting at night?]

Third Sister: [Not tonight! I can go back tomorrow. tomorrow!]

Emilio: [Then tomorrow!]

Caleb Jones, who had not been in the group for a long time, suddenly appeared: [Is father really dead?]

Sister: [Caleb, you finally appeared! Father is probably dead. You can still use your phone now, are you not stupid at all? I miss working with you so much!]

Second Sister: [Even if Brother Caleb is fine, Dad definitely didn't leave any inheritance to Brother Caleb, right? After all, Brother Caleb made his father so angry before.]

Third Sister: [Oh, what you said, I really want to know how Dad's will was made.]

...

After Emilio glanced at the messages in the group, he turned off the group messages.

Like his siblings, he wanted to know how his father's will was made.

Chapter 2275

He found the contact information of his father's lawyer and dialed the phone.

The other party answered the phone quickly.

After Emilio explained his father's situation, the other party said: "I really can't contact your father these two days. We usually contact every day."

"He should be killed, but the body is unknown. I called the police yesterday. Now, the police are searching, and I don't know if they can find his body." Emilio told his decision, "If I still can't find it today, I plan to send more people to find it."

"Well, Emilio, your condolences. The death of your father was too sudden. But... Pardon me for saying something that shouldn't be said, don't be too sad, because your time has come." The lawyer's words were actually very obvious, "Let's have a cup of tea together when you are free!"

"Okay." Emilio heard the meaning of the lawyer's words, "I am free at any time now, I will come to you and invite you to have tea."

The lawyer: "Okay, I'm waiting for you."

A high-end hotel.

Norah was wearing a burgundy silk nightgown, sitting in front of the vanity mirror and putting on makeup.

After Travis's death, Norah slept in the presidential suite for two days.

In the past few days of fleeing, she hadn't had a good night's sleep.

Now that Travis was dead, no one would hunt her down again.

She slept well and had enough to eat. After putting on makeup, she planned to go out to get some air and started implementing her next plan by the way.

After checking the makeup on her face, she put on her coat, slung her bag, took her mobile phone, and put on her shoes to go out.

When she went out, she turned on her phone.

She got a new phone and a new phone number and there were only a few people's numbers on this phone number.

Although there were not many contacts, she still turned off her mobile phone during the two days off.

The moment the phone was turned on, her mother Madelyn's missed calls and messages popped up.

Norah called her mother back: "Mom, didn't I tell you that I would take a two-day break? Why are you calling me?"

Madelyn's laughter came first: "I and your dad want to find you. You have suffered a lot these days, and we are worried about you."

"Don't come to me yet. I haven't done anything yet! But you can go back to Aryadelle." Norah said, "Travis must have given to Emilio all his property. I have seen Emilio, a playboy, and he has no ability at all! How could I allow him to take such a big advantage by himself?"

"Norah, don't underestimate the enemy! We finally have a stable life, Although there is no money, at least you don't have to worry about being hunted down... or just accept it as soon as you see it!" Madelyn advised.

"Mom, I'm not reconciled. I've already killed Travis, and now I only need to deal with a mere area of Emilio, I'm sure there's no problem." Norah is full of confidence, "And, I will definitely not come forward by myself, I will find someone elseLike this time Travis was killed, what does it have to do with me?"

Madelyn: "Hmm! You must be careful."

"Mom, thank you for helping me this time." Norah thanked Madelyn.

The woman who went to assassinate Travis this time was recommended by her mother.

The woman who was abandoned by Travis formed a group, and the women in it all hated Travis.

And the woman who assassinated Travis this time was the one who hated Travis the most in the group.

Norah explained her plan to that woman through the introduction of her mother. Without a second thought, the woman immediately joined her plan.

"Norah, why did you tell me thank you. I know you're not willing to be mediocre, so just do what you want to do next!" Madelyn said, "By the way, have you met that Sasha?"
