

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2281

Chapter 2281

Camila hardly hesitated: "If you have a way to help me get an inheritance from Emilio, I will definitely be with you."

Norah: "First of all, I'm not too full to panic, so I want to help you. I can try to help you get as much inheritance as possible, but we will get half of the inheritance."

"You are also Travis's daughter, so you can fight for it yourself?" Camila asked.

Norah: "Yes. But I can't win much. After all, I don't live by Travis's side."

Camila: "I see. If so, I can appeal by myself, I don't need you to help me..."

"Hahaha! Do you think Emilio is a vegetarian? You hire a lawyer, but Emilio won't hire a lawyer? Emilio gets so much property, he can hire the best lawyer in the world. You are sure to rely on your brain, can you win the lawsuit? If you are really that powerful, will you be held down by Emilio all the time?" Norah laughed mercilessly, "If you want to fight alone, please do it! I can also find other people. There are so many Travis's Children, there must be someone willing to cooperate with me."

Camila lost all confidence in being beaten.

Norah looked at her frustrated look and continued: "If you don't believe me, then treat me as if I didn't say anything. Just keep waiting for Emilio to contact you! Let's see when he will find you."

Camila: "Norah, it's not that I don't believe you. You can kill Travis, which is beyond my expectations. Your ability is the strongest among all our brothers and sisters. I believe that if you fight for inheritance, you will definitely win. Let me think about it! I'll see how the will is made first."

"Yes! You will know the answer tomorrow." Norah showed a satisfied smile.

Aryadelle.

After Avery and Elliot had breakfast, Avery walked to the door and looked at the weather outside.

The weather was not very good today, there was a long mist outside.

Looking at the white mist in front of her, Avery was a little shaken.

They could choose to go out when the weather was good.

“The fog will dissipate at noon. When the car reaches the foot of the mountain, there may be no fog.” Elliot took a scarf and wrapped it around him, “Let’s go!”

Avery: “You also bring a scarf!”

“Don’t you want to climb the mountain with me?” Elliot said, “If you allow me to climb the mountain...”

“Of course I won’t allow you to climb the mountain.” Avery took his arm and went out with him, “There are a lot restaurant at the foot of the mountain. You can find a restaurant to stay there. It’s a bit cold outside, don’t be foolish to blow the air-conditioning outside.”

Elliot: “Well.”

The two went out.

After an hour’s drive, the car stopped at the foot of the mountain.

There was a commercial parking lot on the ground with full of cars.

At a glance, there were people preparing to go up the mountain to pray for blessings.

“Why don’t you change a temple! It’s the same wherever you pray.” Elliot didn’t want Avery to crowd with so many people, for fear of accidents. “There seems to be a temple nearby. It’s not so well-known, and there should be fewer people.”

Chapter 2282

“Where is it? I only know this temple.” Avery was also frightened by the crowd in front of her.

“I searched the map before going out. Another temple is about ten kilometers away. It’s a quick drive.” Elliot discussed with her, “Why don’t you go to another temple!”

“There are indeed too many people. It is estimated that there are more people on the mountain.” Avery fastened her seat belt again and asked, “What is the name of the temple you mentioned, I will search it on my mobile phone.”

Elliot: “It’s called G-Temple.”

“I seem to have heard the name of this temple.” Avery turned on her phone and typed the temple name into the browser.

Elliot: “It seems to be a nunnery.”

He checked the temple.

G-Temple has a history of more than 100 years. At first, this temple had a heyday like the very famous temple they were going to go to. Later, it gradually became lonely and turned into a nunnery.

Moreover, the G-Temple only accepted female pilgrims, which also leads to the fact that there were not as many people there to offer incense and pray for blessings as the temple just now.

“Well, G-Temple used to be a very big temple. Later, except for the name of the temple, all the internal staff changed. It’s a huge change.” Avery searched for relevant information on the Internet, and said The temple is full of curiosity, “This way I don’t have to worry about you secretly following me up the mountain.”

Elliot: “How do you know that I plan to secretly go up the mountain with you?”

“You have to come out with me, or just want to come out to play?” Avery glared at him, “If it’s still early after I go down the mountain, we can go outside for a walk.”

Elliot: “Let’s talk about it when you go down the mountain and have energy! It’s not easy to climb the mountain.”

Avery: “Okay! We can also wait for the weather to get better before going out for a walk.”

“Do you think I’m no different from a normal person?” Elliot asked with a serious face.

Avery: “I’m afraid you’ll panic. After all, staying at home every day is a bit boring. If the weather is good this weekend, we’ll take the children to go shopping for the New Year’s goods.”

Elliot: “Is it a little early to buy the New Year’s goods now?”

“Otherwise, what? Our family lacks everything.” Avery was a little tangled.

Elliot: “Then I’ll listen to you! The children should enjoy shopping for New Year’s goods.”

About 20 minutes later, the car stopped at the foot of another mountain.

After Avery got out of the car, she first found a restaurant for Elliot to rest.

Avery: "You wait for me here. When I go down the mountain, we can eat here before leaving."

"Well, the fog has cleared up a lot now." Elliot looked at the scenery outside and said, "Go up the mountain! Come back quickly. I'll wait for you here."

"Okay." Avery and the bodyguard came out of the restaurant.

Elliot watched her back go away, and then took his eyes back.

"Boss, do you want to go too?" Elliot's bodyguard stayed in the restaurant to protect Elliot.

Elliot: "What do you think?"

"I'll carry you up the mountain." The bodyguard's eyes were firm, and his tone was even more firm.

Elliot: "..."

"Although I can't carry you up the mountain in one breath, I can continue to carry you up the mountain after a short rest. I can definitely carry you up the mountain." The bodyguard continued to describe the feasibility of this matter.

Elliot: "You might as well find two people to carry me up the mountain, it may be safer."

The bodyguard: "Okay, I'll find the bearer now!"

Chapter 2283

Elliot grabbed him: "I was mocking you just now, I didn't say I wanted to go up the mountain."

The bodyguard returned to his seat and sat down with a look of embarrassment: "I thought you really wanted to go up the mountain."

"I really want to go up the mountain. But that temple doesn't accept men. So I can't go to Avery when I go up the mountain. I might as well just wait here." Elliot said calmly, "Even if I can enter the temple and Avery sees me going up the mountain, she will definitely be angry. Going out, I don't want to make her angry."

The bodyguard said casually, "Boss, what are you afraid of her doing, she is just a woman..."

"Do you not want to do it anymore?" Elliot looked sharp. Looking at the bodyguard, "you have been following me for a long time."

"Boss, I... what I want to do! I was wrong! You really have to listen to what Miss Tate says! Miss Tate is all for your own good!" The bodyguard immediately reflected and admitted his mistake.

"Is she just Miss Tate?" Elliot looked at him with seemingly gentle but sharp eyes.

"Old, lady boss!" The bodyguard corrected.

Elliot: "In the future, I will not only listen to her, but you must also listen to her."

"Good boss! I remember it! If the boss tells you not to go out in the future, but you insist on going out, I should listen to the boss, or you. What?" The bodyguard threw this conundrum.

Elliot was stumped.

After struggling for a while, Elliot said with difficulty: "Let's listen to her! Everything is based on her happiness, remember?"

"Okay, I remember. You also need to remember what you said now, Don't let me help her, you blame me..." The bodyguard gave him a vaccination in advance.

Elliot picked up the water glass and took a sip, but didn't answer.

What Elliot said was like poured water, could he take it back?

On the mountain.

Avery arrived at G-Temple smoothly.

The bodyguards waited outside the entrance, and Avery entered the temple alone.

The mountain was relatively clean, and there were not too many pilgrims.

Avery came today mainly to pray for the health and safety of the whole family, no disease or disaster, and a smooth and prosperous life.

After the incense was over, Avery asked the staff next to her if she could walk around in the yard.

Because the building of this temple was relatively grand and atmospheric, and the whole temple looked very big, and the scenery on the mountain was relatively beautiful, it was difficult to come up, so see if she could take a stroll.

The staff told Avery to walk around, but not to take pictures.

After she agreed, she walked around the yard.

There were also other tourists hanging out in the yard, and there were dedicated staff to explain them.

Avery followed behind them and rubbed off on the staff's explanation.

"Our temple is funded by charities to maintain daily expenses, so we don't have tickets here, and incense is free. If you want to donate, I need to ask us to host." The staff said to the tourists around, "We are here. The girls we adopted all live with us, and are also funded by charities. I haven't heard of the need to accept social donations. If you really want to help these girls, you can donate materials."

Avery heard this, she couldn't help but ask curiously, "Are there any adopted girls here?"

The staff looked at Avery and replied, "Yes. They are all children who were abandoned at the gate of our temple. Most of them have congenital diseases. There are also a few healthy children.

"Children." Avery couldn't help but ask: "How many children have you adopted? If you need supplies, I can also donate them."

The staff: "At present, there are thirty-two girls adopted by our temple."

"I didn't expect G-Temple to have such a touching act of kindness. I have never seen reports on the news before." Avery sighed, "Can you take me to see those girls? I want to do my best to help them."

Chapter 2284

The staff hesitated.

At this time, other tourists also said: "Please take us to see! Those children may welcome us! We also want to help them, and they will definitely not hate us."

The staff: "Okay! I'll show you guys."

The staff took them to a building at the back of the temple.

As they approached, they could hear the voice of the little girl playing.

“Some of the school-age children went to the school at the foot of the mountain. Those who stay in the temple now are all children who are not fit for school or children who have not yet reached school age.” The master walked in front and introduced to everyone.

“School children, do you go up and down the mountain by yourself every day?” Avery asked.

“Yes. We take turns to pick them up every day. But they also need to climb the mountain by themselves. It is harder for them to go to school than the children down the mountain. Like in winter, they have to get up and go down the mountain before dawn.” The master explained.

Avery just climbed up the mountain and felt a little tired. It was hard to imagine that such a small child had to climb up and down every day.

Avery: “Why don’t the children who can go to school normally go to the local welfare home?”

“The welfare home cannot accept so many children at one time. Besides, the children are used to staying in the temple and are unwilling to leave here.” The master explained, “There were pilgrims who wanted to adopt our children before, but the children didn’t want to, and we wouldn’t force it.”

Avery was very moved: “It must be because the masters are very kind to the children, so the children are reluctant to leave. Here.”

Chatting and chatting, they came to the area where the children lived and played.

There were about a dozen children, under the care of a staff member, some played games, some played by themselves with small toys, and some children lied on the ground and watched the little ants in the cracks of the bricks.

The children saw that the tourists who came together immediately walked up to a little girl.

“You are Lilly, right? Lilly, you are so cute! And you’re so brave! Auntie brought you a toy...” Avery looked at Lilly and was shocked.

This child had white hair and fair skin...

“Master, does Lilly have albinism?” Avery immediately asked.

“Yes. Her disease cannot be cured. Before, pilgrims came to take pictures of Lilly and posted them on the Internet, so people often came to see her.” Master explained, “She is four years old and should have gone to school. But we don’t worry about her going down the mountain to go to school, and she doesn’t want to go down the mountain. So we let her stay in the temple, and we usually teach her some basic knowledge.”

Avery looked at that little girl like an angel and moved with compassion...

There was currently no effective treatment for albinism.

And the care of people with albinism was also very important. A little careless, the patient might have problems.

“Master, can I take her down the mountain to the hospital? Even if she can’t be cured, I will try my best to keep her in a healthy state. I will ask someone to take care of her and let her go to school for education. Many people come to see her because of her illness, and I don’t think it’s a good thing.” Avery wanted the child to have a better environment, and even wanted her to live a normal child’s life.

The Master was a little embarrassed: “There are many people who want to adopt her because of her rare disease.”

“Master, I understand your concerns. I will talk to Lilly later, if she wants me to help her, I will take her down the mountain. If she doesn’t want to, I will never force it.”

The Master: “In addition to Lilly, we have to agree to this matter. But you need to get Lilly’s consent first! Lilly may not go with you.”

A cool breeze blows past, and leaves fall with the wind.

A little girl was lying outside the door, her bright, dark eyes staring at the picture in the room.

Inside was her good friend Lilly.

The unfamiliar Auntie beside Lilly didn’t know what she was talking to Lilly.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2285

Chapter 2285

The little girl really wanted to go in and listen, but her mother-in-law pulled her and wouldn’t let her in.

“Mother-in-law, what is that Auntie talking to Lilly?” The little girl who spoke was called Siena.

Siena was more than three years old, but she did not go to kindergarten.

“Mother-in-law can’t hear it. You can ask Lilly later.” Mother-in-law was about sixty years old, her hair was all gray, but she was very shrewd.

“That Auntie wants to take Lilly down the mountain. She wants to adopt Lilly.” The tourist who came with Avery just now stood behind the old and young and interjected.

Siena heard the words, and her little face was full of sadness.

She was reluctant to leave Lilly leaves here.

If Lilly left, then Siena would never have such a good friend in the future.

In addition to being reluctant to leave the little leaves, Siena was also a little envious of the little leaves.

The Auntie who was talking to Lilly in the room looked so gentle. If Lilly leaves with her, she should be nice to Lilly, right?

Siena thought of this, and her eyes suddenly became moist.

She reached out and rubbed her eyes.

“Little girl, what’s your name? You are so beautiful, and someone will definitely adopt you.” The tourists cried when they saw Siena, and immediately used adult thinking to speculate on the child’s mind.

The mother-in-law immediately picked up Siena and rolled her eyes at the tourists: “She is my treasure, don’t even think about it!”

The mother-in-law quickly left with Siena in her arms.

Siena was reluctant to leave Lilly, so she asked her mother-in-law to take herself to Master.

The master touched Siena’s head: “Siena, that Auntie doesn’t want to adopt Lilly. She wants to take Lilly down the mountain for treatment. You also hope that Lilly can be cured, right?”

Siena held back her tears and whispered, “Can that Auntie really cure Lilly’s disease?”

“I don’t know. But that Auntie is a very famous doctor. I chatted with the host just now, and the host agreed that Lilly will go down the mountain with that Auntie.”

“Ugh... If Lilly and Auntie leave, will I never see Lilly again?” Siena’s crying little shoulder twitched. Shaking, very sad, “What’s the name of Auntie? If I want to find Lilly in the future, then I can only go to that Auntie...”

“Auntie’s name is Avery Tate. You don’t need to look for her, She will definitely bring Lilly back often in the future.” When Master said this, the expression of the mother-in-law standing beside her suddenly changed drastically.

To be precise, after hearing the words ‘Avery’, the expression on mother-in-law’s face changed.

She picked up Siena again.

After the Master’s voice was settled, she hugged Siena and walked away quickly.

On the other side, after Avery chatted with Lilly for a while, Lilly agreed to go down the mountain with her to try.

If Lilly doesn’t adapt to life under the mountain, Avery will send her back to G-Temple.

“Then let’s go down the mountain now!” Avery held Lilly’s hand and said with a smile.

Lilly hesitated for a moment, then raised her head: “I’m going to tell Siena. Otherwise, she will be anxious if she can’t find me.”

Avery: “Who is Siena?”

“She is my good friend. I play with her every day.” Lilly said, let go of Avery’s hand, and ran out of the room to find Siena.

Avery followed Lilly out and heard Lilly shout Siena’s name loudly, but no one responded.
