

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2322

Chapter 2322

“Are you going to deal with your boss? It’s not that I don’t want to cooperate with you, it’s that she has a fever, you guys staying here, she is afraid... Isn’t there a DNA test to check whether it is a parent-child relationship? Why don’t you pull out a few hairs of her and take it away, and take it back for a test with your boss?” The mother-in-law suggested.

“Hair is very troublesome! It seems to need the kind with hair follicles. If we don’t pull out well, wouldn’t it be in vain? It’s better to draw blood!” The bodyguard said.

When the mother-in-law heard that the little girl was going to have blood drawn, she immediately lowered her face: “Siena is already sick and weak, and she is very afraid of pain, most afraid of injections. If you want to draw her blood, she will definitely cry...”

The mother-in-law’s voice was settled, and the little girl suddenly cried out on the bed: “I don’t want an injection... Mother-in-law, I don’t want an injection...”

“Siena, don’t be afraid! Mother-in-law will protect Yours.” The mother-in-law sat down by the bed, held Siena in her arms, and looked at the three bodyguards with embarrassment, “If you don’t know how to pull her hair, you can find a professional... you guys. I also saw that Siena looks like this, how do you draw blood?”

The three bodyguards looked at each other, and after a while, one of the bodyguards went out to find someone.

The other two bodyguards continued to discuss, and then another bodyguard went out to buy antipyretics for Siena.

“Thank you!” The mother-in-law said to the bodyguard in the room, “But I’m not lying to you, Siena is just an ordinary child. If she is Mr. Foster’s daughter, how come I haven’t heard of it at all? I don’t stop her from living in a wealthy family! Do you think so?”

“Mother-in-law, it’s useless for you to tell me this. I just follow my boss’s instructions. When the DNA results come out, no, it’s not the two of us. Open your mouth and say it.”

“Yeah! You’re right. But can I trouble you to wait in the living room? Siena has a fever, I have to wipe her body.” The mother-in-law touched the forehead of the girl in her arms and spoke to the bodyguard.

The bodyguard hesitated for a moment, glanced at the window of the room, there were security windows installed outside, and then he exited the room with confidence.

The bodyguard came to the living room, took out his mobile phone, and sent a message to Elliot to report the situation here.

Foster family.

After Elliot and Avery were busy in the kitchen for more than an hour, they finally ate the dumplings they made by themselves.

The two were at the dining table, each with a bowl of hot dumplings, which was delicious.

After eating a few dumplings, Elliot was thinking about the crispy, so he picked up his mobile phone and opened it, and saw the message from the bodyguard.

“Avery, the person I sent out saw Siena. They said Siena didn’t look like the two of us.” Elliot’s eyes softened a bit.

Siena didn’t look like them, and this sentence pierced his heart.

“You ask him to take a crisp photo to come and see.” Avery was also a little disappointed, but she didn’t show it.

“Okay.” Elliot responded and replied to the bodyguard.

After a while, the bodyguard sent over the secretly photographed photos.

In the photo, the mother-in-law was bathing the little girl.

The little girl’s clothes were taken off, her hair was disheveled, and half of her face was blocked by her mother-in-law’s body.

Bodyguard Attachment: [Boss, Siena has a fever, and her mother-in-law is scrubbing her body. It is not convenient for me to enter. So you’ll see! I could see it clearly in front of the bed just now. Siena’s facial features are quite beautiful. She should be a little beauty when she grows up, but she just doesn’t look like you and the proprietress.]

Elliot: [Take her sample back. Do a DNA test.]

Bodyguard: [Hmm. Originally I wanted to draw blood, but she was afraid of pain, so she pulled her hair and took it back. I was afraid that we would not be able to pull it out well, so I asked a professional to come.]

Elliot put down the phone.

“Have you received the photo?” Avery asked after seeing Elliot put down his phone.

“Well. It’s not very clear. The child has a fever, and her mother-in-law is wiping her body.” Elliot turned on the phone, clicked on the photo, and handed it to Avery.

Avery stared at the photo on the screen and observed it carefully.

After watching for a while, she returned the phone to Elliot.

Avery: “Not like us.”

Elliot: “Well.”

“Don’t be discouraged. Eat dumplings! Even if Siena is not Haze, it doesn’t mean we won’t be able to find Haze in the future.” Avery encouraged Elliot.

“Yeah.” Elliot put a dumpling in his mouth, chewed it, and said, “It’s really unpalatable.”

Chapter 2323

Avery: “...”

The two of them made dumplings together.

Avery rolled out the dumpling skin, and Elliot chopped the meat filling.

This was Avery’s first time rolling out dumpling skins, and it was also Elliot’s first time mincing meat fillings.

The two of them had no experience and followed the online tutorials completely.

The taste was not as good as the frozen dumplings sold in the supermarket.

When they didn’t receive bad news, the two of them were in a good mood, so they didn’t feel bad when they ate the dumplings.

Now that they had heard the bad news, the unpalatable taste of dumplings was vividly reflected.

After a while, Layla got up and went to the dining room for breakfast.

After Layla glanced at the breakfast on the table, she served herself a few dumplings without hesitation.

Elliot’s Adam’s apple rolled, wanting his daughter not to eat it.

Avery glanced at Elliot and told him not to say anything.

Layla filled the dumplings and sat down in the dining chair.

“Mom and Dad, why did you two get up so early today? You two haven’t woken up yet at this time!” Layla stared at Mom and Dad as she put the dumplings into her mouth.

Elliot and Avery looked away from their daughter’s face when they saw their daughter eat the dumplings in their mouths.

Even if her daughter’s food and clothing expenses from childhood to adulthood are not the best, they are not bad either.

Avery felt that her daughter would probably spit out the dumpling.

The dumpling skin she rolled out was a little thick.

Elliot’s meat filling was a bit salty.

However, Layla ate the dumpling!

Not only that, but Layla also ate the other three dumplings in the bowl.

Avery and Elliot looked at each other.

The eyes of the two are saying: [Maybe the dumplings we made are not so bad.]

Ten minutes later, Layla finished her breakfast and got up from her dining chair.

“Mom, come here.” Layla wiped the corners of her mouth with a tissue and said to her mother.

Avery immediately followed Layla.

The mother and daughter walked out of the villa and into the courtyard.

Layla said in a low voice, “Mom, didn’t Grandma Cooper make today’s breakfast? Did you find that today’s dumplings are a bit unpalatable?”

Avery: “...”

“If Grandma Cooper made it, that’s when I didn’t say it. I just think it’s not as delicious as what Grandma Cooper used to make.” Layla was carrying her schoolbag and was about to get into the car.

Avery immediately grabbed her daughter: "Layla, you are so sensible. Fortunately, you didn't say dumplings were unpalatable in the dining room just now. It gave me and your dad enough face. Today's dumplings were made by me and your dad."

Layla was shocked for a moment, then sighed: "No wonder it's a bit unpalatable! I haven't eaten something so unpalatable for a long time. Mom, you and Dad will sleep more in the morning from now on, so you don't have to get up so early."

After that, Layla get in the car.

Avery adjusted her mood and went back indoors.

Elliot didn't know who to call, so he was walking upstairs with his cell phone.
