

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2324

Chapter 2324

"Avery, Robert likes to eat the dumplings you made." Mrs. Cooper came over and smiled at Avery, "I have to add more after eating a bowl. I said that today's dumplings are really delicious."

Mrs. Cooper came over to tell Avery this, in order to make Avery happy.

Because when Layla was eating dumplings just now, the expressions on Avery and Elliot's faces were apprehensive and uneasy.

People like the two of them who didn't usually cook, could make dumplings, which was already very worthy of encouragement.

Mrs. Cooper also ate the dumplings they made. Although the taste was average, it was definitely not bad.

"Really?" Avery was attracted to the dining room.

Robert took the spoon by himself and smashed the last dumpling in the bowl into his small mouth.

"Baby eat slowly. Your kindergarten still has breakfast!" Avery walked to Robert and wiped his mouth with a tissue.

Robert: "Mom, the dumplings you and Dad made are delicious. I still want to eat them tomorrow morning."

Avery: "..."

The daughter asked them not to get up so early in the future, and the implication was to tell them not to make breakfast in the future.

But her son seemed to really like to eat...

"Baby, you are really a good baby who is not picky eater." Avery couldn't help laughing, "Daddy and mommy will make it better next time and give it to you."

"Today's one is delicious...it's delicious, Mom!" Robert's mouth was as sweet as honey.

Avery picked up Robert and took him out: "you said that, your Mom is really happy. I will cook it for you next time."

Robert: "Mom, you are awesome. You can make dumplings!"

“Next time, mom will bring you to make it together, okay?” Avery thought that the New Year would be coming soon, and the family would make dumplings together, which would be fun and lively.

“Okay, okay!” Robert clapped his hands excitedly.

After Avery sent Robert out, Elliot went downstairs after talking on the phone.

“Husband, who did you talk to just now?” Avery walked to the stairs and watched him come down.

“Exactly. He told me that the two of us should not go out recently.” Elliot was at a loss, “I asked him why, guess what he said?”

Avery couldn't guess at all: “what did he say?”

“He said that there will be a cold current that will cool down.” When Elliot said these words, he still suspected that he had heard it wrong.

Avery looked blank: “Is it a big cold snap? Why haven't I heard the news? I'll check the weather forecast...”

The cold snap that Jun Hertz could make a special call to remind Elliot must be a once-in-a-decade extreme cold snap.

“I read the weather forecast, and on New Year's Day, it will drop by about 5 degrees.” Elliot was very puzzled about the cold snap he said because of the weather forecast.

A five-degree drop in winter temperatures couldn't be more normal!

Even if it suddenly drop ten degrees, it is a situation that can be encountered every year. This kind of drop, this tiny cold snap, is it worth making a special call to tell him not to go out?

Avery laughed out loud. After laughing, She thought it was a little weird.

“I'll ask Tammy what's the matter.” Avery found the phone and dialed Tammy's number.

Tammy answered the phone quickly.

“Avery, how is Elliot's recovery? You two have no plans to go out recently, right? It's so cold in winter, so you two should rest at home.” Tammy said with a crackle.

Avery almost forgot that she called her on her own initiative.

Avery: "Tammy, just now your husband called Elliot and said that there will be a cold snap, and we should not go out. I just checked it, where is the cold snap coming from? Did your husband read the weather forecast differently from ours?"

"How come it's not a cold wave? It dropped 6 degrees on New Year's Day! Do you know what the 6 degrees are?" Tammy used an exaggerated tone to express her awe for the 6 degrees, "Like your husband recovering from a serious illness, these 6 degrees for him, it is likely to be a fatal blow."

Avery: "...My side shows a 5 degrees drop."

"It's 6 degrees here! No matter whether it's 5 degrees or 6 degrees, it's a big cooling!" Tammy spoke very quickly, "So before New Year's Day, don't go out for the two of you! If you're bored, I can accompany you at any time to play!"

Avery: "Tammy, you two are very strange. Elliot is not that weak, you know..."

"I know he was not weak before. But he is weak now! You should pay more attention." Tammy racked her brains in order to reassure her, "I have a relative who is in his 70s. After walking around, he got sick from the cold! he's still in the hospital now!"

Avery immediately understood their painstaking efforts: "old people in their 70s really need to keep warm. But Elliot is really not that weak..."

"Look at you, Elliot is better, you start to be careless." Tammy sighed.

Tammy's tone made Avery very ashamed.

"Tammy, don't sigh. I won't let him go far. At least not before the Spring Festival this year." Avery said, "I went to the mountain to pray for blessings a few days ago. He wanted to climb the mountain together, but I didn't let him..."

Tammy: "You're right. What if he faints on the mountain? If he's really bored, you can just take him to the community."

Avery: "Um."

After talking on the phone, Avery looked up and saw Elliot standing beside her.

Elliot's face was not very good.

Maybe Tammy's voice was sharper. Just now, Elliot stood beside Avery and heard everything Tammy said.

“What’s the matter with Tammy? It’s up to me.” Elliot walked to the sofa and sat down, sulking.

Especially when Tammy said that Avery could only take him to go shopping in the community, Avery not only did not refute, but also agreed.

“Tammy said that a relative in their 70s was ill from the cold. Tammy and Jun also cared about you, so they called specifically to tell you.” Avery walked over to Elliot and coaxed him.

Elliot: “I’m not an old man in his 70s.”

“Is it wrong for people to care about you?” Avery sat down beside him, “I’ll take you out for a walk when the weather is good. Waiting for the cold wave on New Year’s Day...”

“What kind of cold snap is a five-degree temperature drop? The children are on holiday on New Year’s Day. We can plan it.” Elliot couldn’t stay at home anymore, “How about going to Bridgedale to find Hayden?”

Avery thought carefully and replied, “I will let Hayden come back on New Year’s Day. You don’t need to fly to see him.”

Elliot: “Alright. Our family will go out to play at that time.”

“Then make a plan and show it to me.” Avery didn’t want him to be too depressed.

“I’ll make a few more plans and let you and the children choose.” Elliot’s eyes suddenly gleamed.

Avery: “Okay! Don’t choose too far away.”

Elliot: “OK.”

At 10 o’clock in the morning, a bodyguard sent to a neighboring city took the ‘Siena’ hair sample back to Avonsville.

Elliot and Avery saw the hair of ‘Siena’ in the DNA identification center.

Finally, they took Avery’s hair sample and tested it with ‘Siena’.

After Elliot paid the testing fee, Avery led him away.

“When the results come out, someone else will call us.”
