

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2331

Chapter 2331

Avery: “Come on, husband! Our next one must be a big fish!”

Elliot: “Well, I think I have mastered a little trick.”

“Husband, you’re amazing! Let’s eat braised fish tonight!” Avery laughed, watching him throw the hook handsomely into the water.

After half an hour—

Mike Aite Avery in the group: [Avery, how many fish has your husband caught? Send us a look!]

Tammy: [Rubbing hands in excitement.jpg]

Tammy: [Watch the fun.jpg]

Jun: [Wife, can you stop being so gloating? o(∩_∩)o]

Jun was afraid that Elliot didn’t catch any fish.

After all, Avery didn’t post pictures in the group.

If Elliot had caught a big fish, with Avery’s character, she would have posted pictures in the group.

Tammy:[Which one of your eyes sees me gloating? I am definitely looking forward to it!]

Tammy: [Avery, are you still fishing? If you’re still fishing, I’ll drive over to the scene now! At that time, it will not be a problem for me to divide half of the fish I catch, right?]

Avery saw their messages.

At the same time, she glanced at the fish in the bucket.

Elliot caught several fish. However, they were all small fish.

This made Avery really embarrassed to post pictures.

Whenever Elliot caught a slightly bigger fish, she would definitely bask in the group.

She didn’t know if it’s Elliot’s technical problem or the fishing rod. In short, the big fish just won’t take the bait.

Avery was very distressed. But she couldn't show it. Because Elliot was more distressed than Avery.

Elliot wanted to show his skills, but he encountered Waterloo. That was not a pond in the wild, but a small pond in his yard. And the pond was full of fish.

According to what Avery said before, if she went into the water, she could catch a big fish casually.

If it wasn't for Avery watching, Elliot might have thrown away the fishing rod and went directly into the water with the net bag to catch it.

"Husband, fish slowly, don't worry. I'll go to the toilet." Avery got up from the chair, said to Elliot, and walked into the room.

After Avery entered the house, she chatted with Tammy privately: [Tammy, don't come here. He can't catch big fish and is in a hurry! If you came, where would he put his face.]

Tammy: [Ah! what's up? There are so many fish in your pond, how can you not catch any fish?]

It's a good question, but Avery didn't know how to answer it.

After Avery entered the house, Mrs. Cooper walked to Elliot's side and glanced at the fish in the bucket.

Seeing that they were all small fish, Mrs. Cooper comforted Elliot with a good attitude: "Maybe the fish in this pond are full and not hungry, so you can't catch big fish. Sir, why don't we starve these fish? A few days, and then you come back to fish. You're sure to catch a big fish by then."

Elliot: "..."

It didn't have to be.

Elliot fished for the pleasure of fishing, not for the real purpose of fishing.

Of course, if he couldn't catch fish, he would definitely feel frustrated.

An hour later, Tammy drove over to watch the fun.

Although Avery told her not to come, Tammy insisted on watching the fun.

She told Avery that if Elliot couldn't accept even this little humiliation, how could it be a big deal?

Avery thought, yes, maybe Elliot wouldn't take their ridicule seriously at all.

As soon as Tammy came over, she immediately looked at the bucket with a smile.

Avery brought the bucket in front of Tammy and showed her.

"F*ck! Such a big bucket of fish!" Tammy was stunned, and asked Avery, "Didn't he say that he couldn't catch big fish? Was he caught?"

Chapter 2332

Avery: "Don't you want to eat fish? How much do you want, take it yourself."

Tammy took Avery aside and said, "Is this what Elliot caught in the water? Or was it caught by your bodyguards? This must not have been caught by Elliot, right?"

Avery sighed: "I caught it with a net bag. There are several big fish in one net bag!"

Tammy: "Pfft!"

Avery: "I didn't even go into the water, I caught it from the edge of the pool."

Tammy: "Hahahahaha!"

Avery: "Okay, Tammy, stop laughing. I think my husband may not be able to fish in the future. He can't catch it. Big fish, after returning to the house, I have been looking up what's going on on the Internet. I feel distressed when I see it."

Tammy: "What about you? He is not your son, why are you so careful? If Jun, I will definitely Laugh at him!"

Avery: "..."

Elliot heard the movement in the living room and came out.

"Tammy, you came alone?" Elliot asked.

"Yeah! I'll take a look at the fish you caught." Tammy sneered, "Why can't you catch a big fish? Is your technique so poor? Where's your fishing rod? I'll try it out."

Elliot will Tammy generously pointed out her own fishing equipment.

"Go fishing! If you fish better than me, then I will give you the equipment." Elliot not only didn't get annoyed, but spoke generously.

Tammy happily took the fishing rod and went out to fish.

“Husband, don’t be angry. Tammy didn’t mean to laugh at you.” Avery comforted Elliot in a low voice.

Elliot’s face was calm: “It’s okay. What is this setback? I won’t fish in the future.”

Avery: “???”

Avery thought Elliot was going to say, ‘what is this setback? I will try my best next time to make sure I can catch a lot of fish.’

“Avery, go and see Tammy fishing! I’ll take a break.” Elliot patted her on the shoulder.

Avery: “Okay! Don’t get too upset, it’s not your problem that you can’t catch fish.”

Elliot: “Avery, even if it were my problem, I wouldn’t be upset about it. I’m not that vulnerable. I’m just not that interested in fishing. I don’t particularly want to conquer those fish.”

Avery: “That’s good.”

Avery went out to watch Tammy go fishing.

Half an hour later, Tammy caught two small fish.

Tammy was so angry that she almost dropped her fishing rod.

“My dad knows how to fish, so I made a video for my dad to ask what’s going on!” After Tammy dialed the video to her father, he let him take a look at the fish in the pond, “Dad, there are so many fish, I can’t take any of them. I can’t catch it! This fishing rod is better than yours. This bait smells so good, I want to eat it... But why don’t these fish catch the bait?”

Thiago watched it through the video. Looking at the situation, he laughed and said: “Silly daughter, you are using the wrong bait. There are a lot of ornamental fish in this pond, so don’t eat the bait you used.”

Tammy: “...”

Avery suddenly realized, immediately went and explained the reason to Elliot.

Elliot: “I know that different fish use different bait.”

“It’s all my fault. If you go fishing in the wild, maybe you can catch fish.” Avery blamed herself, “Husband, you should have told me in advance, I don’t understand this.”

"It's okay. Fishing is a trivial matter. I just bought a fishing rod to play with." Elliot comforted her, "The way you just caught fish was much more interesting than fishing."

Avery: "..."

Bridgedale.

Norah easily collected evidence of Travis's mental illness. After all, Travis was dead, and now as long as Norah was willing to spend money, she could buy all kinds of information about him.

The main reason was that he was dead, and there was no need to be afraid of those who served Travis before.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2333

Chapter 2333

Emilio was young and strong now and didn't need a personal doctor at all.

When Emilio needed to use a personal doctor, he would not use Travis's previous doctor.

Norah posted Travis's results in the group.

In addition to Emilio, the other children of the Jones family had established a new group called: Fight for Legacy.

Norah: [I have obtained evidence of Travis's mental illness. When the time comes to file a lawsuit, our odds of winning will be greatly improved.]

eldest Sister: [Norah, you are amazing. I didn't even think about that.]

Second Sister: [When will the lawsuit be filed? I can't wait to grab my share from Emilio!]

Norah: [The lawyer's letter has been delivered to Emilio. Everything is going according to the process. When the time comes, just listen to me and make sure you get more inheritance.]

eldest Sister: [Norah, I will listen to you.]

Second Sister: [Norah, I also listen to you.]

After chatted in the group, the eldest sister, the second sister and other siblings chatted in another group of Jones's siblings.

There was no Norah and Emilio in that group.

Eldest Sister: [Norah is still awesome! It felt like the moment she stepped out, the matter was instantly stabilized.]

Second Sister: [Although Norah is amazing, she won't get any benefit without us.]

Third Sister: [Yes! How much benefit are we going to give her? I don't even know how you talked to her.]

Eldest sister: [Let's see how much she can win for us first! She said she would not take the big head. She shouldn't go back on her word.]

Second Sister: [I won't take the big head, that means I might take 40%! If we take 10 million alone, we have to give her 4 million... If she takes 40% of each of us, then she will take more than us!]

Third Sister: [But without her, we would get less! Now we don't have to do anything to get more, and if you don't like it, you can quit.]

Second Sister: [Eldest sister, you don't need to be so fierce! I just don't like Norah.]

Eldest sister: [I don't like it, but bear with it. When we get the inheritance, there is no need to contact her in the future!]

Second Sister: [Don't talk about Norah, I don't think we will be in touch again in the future.]

The group suddenly felt silent.

The few of them were usually not in contact, but this time they got together to fight for Emilio's inheritance.

The next day.

Jones's family eldest sister, second sister, third sister, fourth sister, eldest brother... had received invitation text messages from Emilio.

Emilio invited them to a hotel near the old house for dinner and meet.

If it's just for dinner, they might not be willing to go to the appointment.

At the end of the message, Emilio explained the theme of this meeting-discussion on inheritance distribution.

At 10 o'clock in the morning, the Jones family's brothers and sisters met in the private room of the hotel restaurant.

The meeting was a little awkward.

The last time they met was at their father's funeral.

Although it has only been a few days, they were brothers and sisters last time. Now, they have become enemies fighting for family property.

"I asked you out, did you tell Norah?" Emilio asked after everyone was seated.

The eldest sister: "I didn't say it."

The second sister: "I didn't say it either."

The others also shook their heads.

"This is my father's former lawyer, and this is another lawyer I hired. I'm calling you here today, mainly to resolve the inheritance dispute between us. First of all, I admit that the distribution of my father's estate is indeed unfair. I am willing to give up Part of it is for you, so you don't go to Norah. You should be very clear about how my father died. I don't want Norah to get any benefits from the Jones family."

Emilio's words caused a thousand waves in everyone's heart.
