

LET ME GO, MR. HILL!

Chapter 2866

“Thank you, if I leak it out, maybe my wife will divorce me.” Shaun said very self-consciously, “Tell me, Eliza, is it Charity?”

Chester gritted his teeth, he knew that this b*stard Shaun could guess.

“Really?” Shaun was shocked when he saw that Chester didn’t speak anymore.

“Didn’t Charity die in the sea?” Shaun felt a little weird, “Oh, could it be that she didn’t die, but she changed her appearance to the current Eliza? No, where did Eliza really go?”

Chester had no choice but to tell the story of Charity’s rebirth, but seeing Shaun guessing so blindly, he simply said: “It’s true that after Eliza and Monte dated, suicide is gone, Charity impersonated her, So when Eliza entered the entertainment industry, her acting skills were mediocre but after Charity replaced her, her acting skills were reborn.”

What he said was actually not a lie, isn’t Charity living in place of Eliza now?

Shaun still thought it was very bizarre, “Then how did Charity escape? I heard that she accidentally fell into the sea.”

“She didn’t have to be eaten by fish when she fell into the sea, she was just rescued by a passing fisherman. Later, he went incognito and found Eliza, whom she had known since childhood.”

Chester was so saddened by his own lies that he finally said annoyed:

“Shaun, Catherine is so kind to her, not only because Charity used to be kind to her. Friends, it’s because you owe Charity, understand?”

Shaun was at a loss for words.

In fact, after Shaun and Catherine got back together for so long, Charity had always been a word that could not be mentioned between the two of them. Now that Shaun heard that Charity was not dead, he was actually quite relieved.

“Since Charity is no longer a fugitive and her grievances have been cleared, why not reveal her identity?” Shaun still didn’t quite understand, “It’s not a problem to live as someone else.”

“Charity doesn’t want to make Mrs. Robbins sad...” Chester stared at Shaun warningly, “Don’t talk nonsense, Mrs. Robbins is alone, she is just such a woman and how sad she would be if she found out that her daughter committed suicide for a man! Charity is grateful to Eliza, Eliza has saved her life, she will continue to live as Eliza and take care of Mrs. Robbins.”

After a pause, Chester said in a low voice, “Besides, everyone in the Neeson family is dead. Charity survived, is it Charity or Eliza, does it make sense?”

Chapter 2867

Chester turned his head and said, “So I don’t want Charity to be a test-tube baby. Even if she is the child of a strange man she doesn’t know, I can’t stand it and I’ll go crazy.”

Shaun frowned, “ But even if I don’t help, if Charity has this heart, with her connections, she can ask others to help.”

Chester was speechless.

It's a pity that he was in such a state now that he couldn't even be discharged from the hospital. Otherwise, he would definitely try his best to save the woman's heart.

Chester: "Actually let Charity go to my friend's place to be a test-tube baby, I think it's good for you too."

Shaun glanced at him calmly and lowered his voice, "The source of the sperm is kept secret, you can secretly take your Get it."

"..."

Chester's heart jumped fiercely, he was clearly sitting in a wheelchair, but he grabbed Shaun in front of him, "This... is not good. "

"You said it wasn't very good, but your hands were so tight that my clothes were torn to pieces, and my eyes were about to pop out." Shaun reminded silently.

Chester's heartbeat accelerated violently.

If he uses his own sperm and Charity's to make a test tube baby, then it will be his and Charity's child.

Chester was never excited at the thought of two people having a child.

In the past, he didn't like children at all, but if it was with Charity, it would be his life-saving straw, and he seemed to see hope in his life.

"But... if Charity finds out, she will definitely be very angry." Chester's thin lips trembled slightly, "She will definitely think that I am despicable."

Shaun twitched the corners of his mouth, "Excuse me, when will you be? Not despicable anymore."

"..."

Shaun pulled his hand away hard, “Okay, if you’re afraid, forget it, I’m just going to tell you, but Charity really decides to be a test-tube baby. I hope you can accept it calmly.”

Chester’s temple anger suddenly burst, “Anyway, it is made of sperm, why can’t you use mine, I have good medical skills, good business acumen, high education, and good appearance. Even if my sperm is taken to a sperm bank It’s the best, can other men compare to mine?”

Shaun raised his eyebrows, “It looks like you’ve made up your mind, aren’t you afraid that Charity will be unhappy?”

Chester nodded and made up his mind, “Even if she doesn’t forgive me in the future, but there is a child between us. I didn’t ask to marry her or have s-e-x with her. If I could have a child, I would accompany her occasionally, care for her, grow old together, and stay with her. I am very satisfied.”

Chapter 2868

Chester and Shaun looked at each other and felt guilty at the same time.

Soon, Shaun opened the door and said with a serious face: “Wife, don’t talk nonsense, Chester said that his leg hurts a little, So I had closed the door and helped him check.”

Catherine said seriously: ” Was it serious, did you want to go back to the hospital for a look?”

“It’s probably because I practiced walking in the morning, it’s too hard.” Shaun said the same thing.

“Take your time, after all, your body hasn’t fully recovered.” Catherine said to Chester kindly.

“Shaun also told me just now.” Chester’s thin lips sighed softly, saying something serious.

Shaun couldn’t help but glance at his acting. Chester was like a good actor.

“Okay, I’ll let Kaiden look at you. Ryan and I are going to have lunch.” Shaun rolled up his shirt sleeves, revealing his strong arms.

“You cook?” Chester was surprised.

Shaun glanced at his wife, clenched his fist and coughed softly, “Do you know why Ryan and I were able to find a wife, because in front of my wife, we all put ourselves low, as low as the dust.”

“When did I let you fall into the dust?” Catherine gritted her teeth, pretending to be angry and grabbing Shaun’s ear.

The couple walked out together, Shaun leaned over to his wife and said quietly, “You’re kidding me, I turned over and became the master last night and climbed on top of you.”

“Rogue.” Catherine glared at Shaun. Her Cheeks were flushed.

Chester in the back saw this scene in his eyes, and his heart was sour.

...

Ten minutes later, Chester sat quietly in front of the fireplace and played a game with a blanket on his lap.

Charity came over with a cup of hot chocolate and put it in front of Chester, her beautiful face was warm and calm, “When did you play games?”

“When I sit on the hospital bed every day with nothing to do.” Chester raised his head and smiled gently, “It’s quite fun.”

“This game...it’s okay.” Charity was sometimes tired. She also played this game from time to time, “But the character you’re playing now, it’s not very good to upgrade later, it’s a bit tasteless.”

“Really!” Chester looked down, “I think its attack power is quite strong.”

“It’s slow to level up later, and its defense isn’t very good.” Charity sat down with a chair, opened the same game on her mobile phone, and focused on telling him which characters were worth cultivating.

Chester listened quietly from beginning to end. Sometimes he glanced out of the corner of the eye, and his delicate white earlobes and thick black eyelashes came into view. He didn’t know what lipstick was on her thin lips, and the color was bright.

There was also a good smell coming from her.

Chapter 2869

Chester’s heart froze, but he could only say: “Charity, why don’t you want to find a boyfriend to marry, people’s life is too long, and it is not easy to have children, especially when you are sick, someone will share the burden with you, so you won’t be so tired.”

Charity thought about this question seriously.

Why doesn’t she want to get married.

She actually tried her best to try to date Miguel.

It’s just that after Chester’s accident, she no longer has that idea.

Seeing that Charity didn’t speak for a while, Chester felt hopeful in his heart, “Charity, is it because I used to...”

“There must be some scars you brought me.” Charity interrupted him, telling the truth To be honest, “Emotional matters, after the experience, you did not leave me any good. The rest was torture and hurt, I think it’s good to be alone, and my parents are dead, I have Eliza’s body can continue to see that the world is already very happy, how can I be qualified to be happy?”

“You can.” Chester heard her words, and his heart was aching, “Charity, you deserve better. “

Charity said, “Forget it, what if I meet a sc*mbag again. You see Eliza fell in love with Monte and gave her life for it, you see Freya is very happy now, but when she and Rodney got married, she was hurt. How miserable it is!, let’s look at Cathy, but along the way, how hard and desperate she is! I think it’s good to be a test tube baby, I have the money to support the child.”

As Charity spoke, The hesitant mood in her heart suddenly figured out, “I’ve decided, I’m going to be a test-tube baby.”

Chester: “...”

Chester also decided that he must get his sperm there.

...

The night of Christmas Eve.

After dinner, a group of people sat in the box watching a movie, chatting and drinking.

At 8:30 in the evening, Charity drank two bottles of beer and went to the bathroom. When she came out, Chester appeared in the corridor. The tall man who used to be in a wheelchair was now in a wheelchair, wearing a double-breasted woolen jacket. A coat with a plaid scarf around his neck.

“Going back to the hospital?” Charity guessed by looking at his attire.

“I have to go back to the hospital before 9 o’clock, and Shaun will take me there.” Chester handed over the red apple in her hand, staring at her face, “Remember to eat apples on Christmas Eve, I hope you will be safe in the years to come. “

Thank you.” Charity took it, “You too, it seems to be snowing outside, be careful.”

“Well.” Chester forced himself to look away, “Goodbye.”

Charity: “Goodbye.”
