Chapter 695 Pay The Price

Garrett pursed his lips sadly.

"Laney has been practicing martial arts Since I was a girl.Naturally, his temperament is different from those rich ladies spoiled with those who want me to marry.It is sensible and reasonable, which is already very difficult to find these days.

"But already! You defend her so much, Garrett, do you really you love her? Still, love fades with the weather. What will you do if you fall out of love in the future? If you marry a woman from a wealthy background, at the less you can maintain the marriage with money. But Miss Garcia doesn't even have a family. How will you maintain your marriage? marry for impulse is an injustice both to you and to the Miss Garcia."

Garrett clicked his tongue, disappointed at the boring opinion of his mother.

"I have dated many women before, I know what I feel for Laney. She is different. Also I have to take responsibility for her. Is not that the Harding family is struggling and has to depend on my marriage to keep me float. Why don't you let me marry the woman what I love? Plus she's pregnant with me. Do you really have the heart to let this child grow up without his father? Dad, Mom, let me simplify things for you. If I can't marry Laney, I'm not marrying anyone else."

Garrett used hard and soft tactics to convince His parents.

Vera had never seen her son act like this. She sighed and looked up at her disappointed son down.

Finally, she turned to her husband with impotence. "Well, it's up to you. I do not can control your child. It seems that he is obsessed with Miss Garcia."

Leo frowned hard. I was distraught.

Vera was a cunning woman who cared only for his image.

By giving her husband the decision-making responsibility, she was secretly asking him to force Garrett to undergo.

On the other hand, Leo also wanted to be a father and a kind grandfather. So that left him with a single option.

"Fine" Leo finally agreed.

"I approve of you marrying her. But with a Condition: You have to leave the Larson Group.

Of that way, you can take over the business family and make a plan for future development.

Before, we only allowed you to work in the Group Larson so you could get some of experience.

Unexpectedly, you were reluctant to leave the company after working there for so long, leaving our family businesses in the dust for several years.

Now that you have elected to marry Miss Garcia.

Good this marriage will bring nothing to the table, so you have to compensate by adding value to the family in another way."

Leo spoke solemnly.

Garrett knew that his father was very serious fell into silence Thoughtful.

The Larson Group was founded by him and Brandon when they were young.

The family and the Larson Group were competitors in some fields.

If he decided to go back to the Harding family, meant that one day in the future, I could end up on the opposite side of the Larson group.He and Brandon would become rivals.But I had to make a decision.

Right now Laney it was his priority.

"Fine...I promise."

Garrett's eyes They took on a fierce light.

Laney had been waiting for Garrett at home for a long time.

When he finally returned, he smiled happily at her.

"Mom and dad will pick a perfect date for you to let's celebrate the wedding She loves you very much and also hopes that we can return and live with them after we got married."

Garrett flopped down, sat on the couch, and hugged Laney hard, Laney pushed him a little to look him in the face carefully. I was confused.

"How did you manage to convince them? your parents don't they agreed before. What made them be agree now?"

Guess Garrett must have paid a high price for his parents to change their minds.

Smiling brightly, Garrett pinched her cheek and joked, "What's with that long face? Aren't you happy to be my girlfriend? They are my fathers. They wouldn't do anything to hurt me. They just asked me to come back with the Harding family and take over the business family. He spoke with calculated casualness, but the heart Laney still sank.

Perhaps it was due to his raging hormones that your emotions They fluctuated easily.

Tears welled up in her eyes as she said: "You're stupid? Why would you accept such condition? You built the Larson Group from zero with Brandon! The Larson Group is practically your son, isn't it?"

She knew that Larson Group was very important for Garrett, or he wouldn't have worked there for so many years.

Now he was forced to leave he had built so he could marry her.

"It must have been a very difficult decision.." Garrett's expression softened dried the tears from the corners of Laney's eyes, he wrapped her arms around her and said softly, "What I can do? I can't work at Larson Group for the rest of my life. My parents are getting old. I needed to take care of family business sooner or later.

Also, now I have something more important to protect than the Larson Group.

Looking at him with tears in her eyes, Laney didn't She was able to stop herself from crying even more.
