

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3067 - 3075

Chapter 3067

The hound's saliva was all over the floor which looked quite disgusting.

Since Jackie had not moved at all, the hound started to get anxious. It had been waiting for Jackie to make the first move but did not expect Jackie to be so patient, merely standing in place with his sword in hand, not moving at all. Slowly, the hound's patience wore off. Its hind legs bent slightly, looking like it was about to attack.

Looking at that, Jackie raised an eyebrow as his left hand constantly moved, forming seal after seal.

In the air, a hundred soul swords slowly condensed.

After being summoned by Jackie, those swords turned into black spots of light and fused into the sword in Jackie's right hand.

This time, he did not hold back at all. The upper ultimate god rank technique, Destroying the Void, had already been completely mastered by Jackie, and Jackie was using it in full force! The whole blade was filled with his full might.

With a howl, the hound could finally not hold back anymore as it shot right at Jackie like an arrow. Its mouth was wide open as it charged incredibly quickly!

With how powerful it was, each step it took caused the earth to shake slightly.

Looking at that, all of the warriors breathed a sigh of relief. It was just like they thought, that beast had an incredible defense, and that was perfect for going against a soul attribute warrior.

"This guy is done for! Unless his technique is an ultimate god rank technique, there's no way he'll survive this battle!"

"That's right! In front of a beast like that, the sword in Lucius' hand is just like a twig. It can't stop the beast's claws at all!"

As the hound started to speed up, Jackie could even feel the wind blowing in his direction. He frowned slightly as he shot forward as well!

Just as they were about to clash, Jackie activated the laws of space and disappeared from the spot. When he appeared again, he was already behind the beast. However, the beast's reactions were faster than any ordinary beast.

After Jackie disappeared, it was immediately on alert. The moment Jackie appeared behind it, its whole body turned around as its mouth bit right at Jackie.

Jackie retreated, slashing out as he pulled the distance. The gray slash suddenly struck the hound's forehead!

Jackie merely heard a small crack. He could not help but raise an eyebrow as he saw a drop of blood flow out from where the attack landed.

Being that, he licked his lips and lamented how strong the beast's defenses were. Beasts with weaker defenses would not even leave any wounds on their bodies after being struck by Destroying the Void. That was because they could not stop its power at all. It would go right into their souls.

However, the defenses on the energy hound had actually managed to block a small portion of Destroying the Void's power. Even though most of it still entered the hound's body, it was still enough to shock Jackie!

However, even if the hound's defenses were very strong, it could not completely stop Destroying the Void. Only a portion of its power had been used to break through the hound's defenses, and the wound on the hound's forehead was where Destroying the Void's power chipped off.

Chapter 3068

With a thud, the hound's body fell heavily on the stage.

Jackie looked at the hound's body, not showing much emotion at all. After all, he had already expected that result.

The hound was no match for the Thousand Feathered Beast, and its attacks only relied on brute strength. It was not going to trouble him at all. After the hound died, the barrier around the stage disappeared.

Jackie turned around slowly as he walked off the stage calmly. He knew that the caretakers needed to clean up the stage to revert it to its original state.

When Jackie walked off the stage, he was shocked to realize that the noisy spectators had turned completely silent. He looked up to see that all of the spectators had their eyes widened, and their mouths were gaping as well.

No one was talking anymore. It looked like the warriors on the spectator stands had all frozen in place. Even their breathing was shallow.

It took a long time before someone started to rub their eyes and pinch their arms, telling themselves that everything was real.

"I actually saw all of that. I'm not dreaming at all! Lucius won again! He won so cleanly this time..."

"Didn't all of you say that the beast's defenses were incredibly strong and that Lucius could definitely not break through them? Didn't you say that he would be ripped apart?"

"That's right! Didn't a lot of people say that Lucius was definitely going to lose and that he had no chance? You all said that he would definitely get ripped apart by this wolf-like or dog-like beast. You said that he would end up even worse off than Lesley!"

"Come out and tell us what happened. Didn't you say that the beast's defenses were very strong? Why did it crumble like paper in front of Lucius? Lucius killed it in one blow!"

"During the first match, Lucius had fought for a long time and used a few skills. You said that he would definitely lose in the second match, but why did he win so easily? He won with just one strike. It was so easy! Tell me right now, what happened?!"

The ones who asked those questions were those who had remained silent before. They had only listened and felt like everyone else sounded reasonable. Some of them had initially planned on betting on Jackie, but had been stopped by those around them.

Slowly, they started to notice that Jackie's chances of winning were slowly growing. The second match that everyone thought would be so difficult turned into a match that ended so easily. It had not been difficult at all. It was as easy as drinking water.

That caused those warriors who had initially planned to bet on Jackie to start to lose their calm. They started to question those warriors who led the flow initially.

At that moment, all of those people had their mouths completely shut, unable to say a word at all. They had turned completely mute, not responding no matter what those around them said. It was as if they had not been the ones who had said anything before.

"All of you really know how to talk! Didn't you analyze everything so well earlier? What's happening right now? Are you not going to continue?"

Chapter 3069

"Shouldn't you at least address the matter to us? I had planned on placing my bet on Lucius, but all of you did your best to stop me!"

"That's right! Weren't you so sure that Lucius would definitely lose in the second match? Weren't you sure that he would lose incredibly badly too? You even analyzed everything so much, talking like you've personally witnessed it. Why aren't you saying anything now?"

“Can you stop trying to hide?! I had planned on just gambling on Lucius, but you were the ones who laughed at me for trying to stand out from the crowd, and seemed so confident in your analysis!”

“Thanks to all of you, I have placed my spirit crystals on the beasts and took out my whole family fortune. Don’t think you can just avoid everything like this. If you don’t do something about this, I won’t let you off!”

Thanks to Jackie’s victory, those warriors that had been so sure that Jackie would lose did not dare to say anything anymore. However, when the shouts got louder and louder, some people could no longer stand them.

A gray-robed man let out a cold laugh and said, “You were the ones who bet on the beasts yourself, what does anyone else have to do with it? People can think what they want, you don’t have to follow them... In the end, you were the ones who weren’t resolved enough. You asked for an explanation, but how are you going to explain it to yourselves? Why do people owe you anything? Stop trying to force your way!”

The moment that person spoke, it caused even more people to stand up, “That’s right! What does anyone have to do with you staking your whole fortune on the beasts? No one forced you to do it!”

“Don’t you think you’re acting like a complete joke? We said everything because we thought we were right. You didn’t have to listen to us at all. We didn’t say you had to listen to us. You were the ones who insisted on doing that, so why does it concern us?!”

The man who was demanding an explanation earlier was shaking in anger after hearing all of that. He felt like he was being thrown under a bus, and hated himself for being weak-willed.

Why did he falter and insist on following the guesses of others when making a choice?

The more that person thought, the more furious he got. He could not even breathe properly at that point. There was no way anyone could ignore what had happened.

Those of them who had been certain that Jackie would die had long looks on their faces. After all, two-thirds of the warriors there had taken part in the bet. Some of them had even taken out all of their savings.

If they lose the bet, they would have nothing left. To them, it would be quite a big blow. Quite a few of them were beginning to get incredibly anxious.

The mustache man turned to look at Rudy anxiously. It was then did he realize why Rudy had been so calm the whole time.

Rudy already knew how strong Jackie was. That was why he never faltered no matter what everyone else said!

The mustache man took a deep breath and said, "Hey, it looks like you already knew how strong Lucius was."

Rudy raised an eyebrow as he looked at the man, "Of course. I told you early on as well, but you didn't believe me. You thought I was ignorant to say all of that."

Those words rendered the guy speechless. That really had been the case. When Rudy said that he was incredibly confident in Jackie, everyone thought that he was crazy.

Chapter 3070

After all, Lucius was definitely a wandering warrior.

The mustache man felt a bitter taste in his mouth, regretting that he had bet on the beast. He should have ignited his gambler's spirit and betted everything on Jackie.

If Jackie really won, he would have gotten seven times the crystals back. Just thinking about it drove him crazy. Even if he had not spent his whole fortune like some others, he still put in quite a bit.

A loss would be quite a big blow for that man. After all, he did not come from a large clan and had slowly accumulated his wealth. He had participated in so many bets before and had carefully made safe choices for all of them. This time, he had gotten a bit greedy, but he did not expect the results to end up like this!

The man felt a chill as he shook his head, shutting his mouth up.

Arne felt his whole body stiffen, not even feeling like he was breathing. He felt like everything seemed unreal as if he was in a dream. Otherwise, he would not have seen something so absurd!

His mouth trembled, taking a long time before he said, "This can't be real!"

At that moment, his words did not sound convincing at all. Even the disciples behind him did not know what to say. If Jackie really won in the end, Arne felt like he would not be able to accept it!

He suddenly straightened his back as he raised his voice, "What they said earlier was all wrong! That beast wasn't strong defensively at all. It just looked like it was!"

"Lucius was just lucky! He picked another incredibly weak beast. That has to be the case! It's definitely so! Soul attribute warriors are afraid of defensively strong beasts. That beast died so easily. It must be because it was weak. Otherwise, it would at least have taken a few more blows!"

After he said that, Arne's eyes slowly regained their color. He felt like he was right, that it was definitely so.

Jackie was definitely just incredibly lucky to choose another weak beast. Not only was it weak offensively, but incredibly weak defensively as well. The body just looked strong. After all, Jackie had fought the bird in the first match for so long.

The bird should not have been that strong defensively, only stronger than normal beasts in terms of its attack and speed. The second one had died so easily simply because it was just too weak. Not only was it weak, but it was also fragile as well. That was how it all happened.

Arne sighed, feeling like his guess was right. He could not overestimate Lucius.

Lucius was just a wandering warrior without a clan. He was just lucky.

Thinking about that, Arne could not help but curse, "It's so unfair. Why did fate allow him to win twice in a row?! He's just too lucky!"

The moment he said that the discussions around him started to quiet down quite a bit. A lot of them looked over with looks of pity. Some of them had hatred, but it was mostly exasperation and sympathy.

The warriors there all understood that Arne would definitely not be able to accept what happened with everything that had gone on between him and Jackie.

He had brought up the same argument from before, saying that Jackie merely won because of good luck. No one believed him anymore, feeling like it was completely unconvincing and hilarious given the circumstances.

Chapter 3071

However, Arne was not trying to convince those around him. He was only trying to convince himself.

He panted as he continued to say loudly, "The third match is about to start! He's already used all his luck on the second one. You absolutely won't win the third match! You can't get the black iron medal!"

As he said that, Arne's expression started to get more and more resolved. It was as if what he said would definitely happen. Even God would not be able to change it!

Everyone did not know what to say after they heard that. They even felt like Arne was quite pitiful at that moment. After all, Lucius was just a wandering warrior, but he had already won two rounds. He only had the last round left to win the black iron bet.

Luck would not always stick to one person. Even if they did not want to see Lucius winning, the reality was right in front of all of them. Even if they wanted to deny it, they had no reason to.

The second beast relied on brute strength to fight. Those beasts were usually stronger defensively than normal. It was an irrefutable truth.

Furthermore, so many of the warriors there had been at the colosseum for a long time. They had seen countless battles. Each time, even if there were weaker and stronger beasts, even the weakest one would have a baseline of strength.

The fact that Lucius managed to win two in a row meant that his skills were definitely much stronger than most warriors. Other than Arne, even those who did not want to admit that fact had been forced to. Even the disciples of the Deer Pavilion behind Arne had slowly accepted the truth.

Time flashed by, and the stage was quickly cleaned up.

Jackie steadily walked up the stage again. This time, the crowd was exceptionally quiet. Everyone was already looking at Jackie with a different expression.

The caretaker took out another black scroll. After opening the scroll, five new beast images were shot into the air.

Jackie looked up at those beasts in detail. He was thankful that he recognized two out of the five beasts this time. The first was a coral drake that was on the rightmost end, while the nine-tailed scarlet fox was on the left end.

The two beasts were at about the same level, they were both a bit stronger than the energy hound. If Jackie was arranging them in order, the coral drake should be in third, while the nine-tailed scarlet fox should be in the fourth.

The two beasts were not too different from each other. If the environment suited the fox, it would probably be able to fight to a draw against the drake or even have an advantage.

The coral drake specialized in poison. Its whole body was surrounded by poisonous gas. Weaker warriors would start to foam at the mouth the moment they got close to the coral drake. It would not take long for their bodies to turn purple from the poison and eventually die.

The nine-tailed scarlet fox specialized in illusions. Its natural-born skill was called the nine-tailed illusion. Some mentally or spiritually weaker warriors would immediately lose themselves in the illusions after it was used. The fox would then hide in the shadows and take the chance to bite the warrior's neck, killing it in an instant!

Neither of the beasts was easy to deal with, but they were not too difficult for Jackie. He then decided in just a moment as he pointed right at the nine-tailed scarlet fox!

Chapter 3072

Just like before, compared to the others, Jackie had chosen the beast incredibly quickly. He clearly had five minutes to choose, but he merely picked one out swiftly. However, this time the spectators were strangely quiet. Not a single one of them voiced any opposing sentiments.

The truth was on display for all of them to see. The more they had doubted Jackie, the greater the blow had been on them!

When it came to this wandering warrior, anything could happen!

When the nine-tailed scarlet fox solidified, the spectators were already completely silent. The fox's body was completely red, and its fur was very bright. Compared to how ferocious other beasts looked, the fox looked much tamer.

On closer inspection, there seemed to even be a hint of human charm to the fox. However, no matter how nice the fox looked, it was still just a beast in Jackie's eyes.

After the nine-tailed fox dropped to the ground, it stood at the opposite end of the stage to Jackie. The fox was quite smart. Its intelligence was similar to that of a teenage human. Even if the nine-tailed fox was composed of just energy, it still retained some of the original fox's intelligence. It gave Jackie a glance over as an incredibly cunning glint showed in its eyes.

Jackie raised an eyebrow, not paying what the beast did much thought. The fox paced around lightly, seemingly waiting for something, looking like it was trying to figure something out. However, no matter how far it walked, its eyes were always fixed on him.

Jackie narrowed his eyes, curious as to what the fox was planning.

Any other warrior would probably be on full alert at that moment, wary of any sudden attacks from the fox. However, Jackie did not care and was instead full of anticipation as to what the fox would do.

Feeling Jackie's emotions, the fox frowned slightly, feeling like he was different from other humans. At that moment, the fox narrowed its eyes as it suddenly turned red, as if they had been stained by blood.

Jackie suddenly felt everything change. The stage that originally only had the two of them was suddenly filled with scantily clad beauties. Those beauties were incredibly seductive, and their faces were covered by thin veils. The women laughed and played around.

He turned to look and noticed that some of the girls were already in front of him. He saw that the women reached out and begged for him to join them.

Jackie could not help but roll his eyes. Low-level illusions like that would not affect Jackie at all. Probably feeling Jackie's temperament, the women suddenly stiffened as their eyes filled with anger. They seemed angry that Jackie was not reacting. After that, Jackie heard several explosions as the beautiful women exploded into pink powder one after another, disappearing into the air.

Jackie's lips twitched helplessly, wondering if that was all. It felt a little too useless.

Did he already enter another illusion?

It did not even elicit any interest from Jackie.

Just as he was wondering if it had already ended, the spectators suddenly let out a few cries. He immediately turned around, finding that the silent spectators were suddenly in an uproar.

Quite a few of them stood up with looks of horror!

Right after that, a group of caretakers suddenly rushed up to the stands. Those caretakers had their swords in hand, all of them were filled with killing intent.

Chapter 3073

The spectators were all retreating. Some of them were shouting out while some of them were frantically running away!

At that moment, Jackie was in no mood to care about anyone else but merely looked over at Rudy.

Rudy seemed exceptionally pitiful in front of the crowd. He had a look of complete horror as he constantly begged for mercy. Since he was seated at the front, he had been the closest to the caretakers. At that moment, they were already in front of him.

The caretakers seemed to have gone mad, slashing at everyone they saw. Their skills were extraordinary. They were at least in the divine solidifying realm. Warriors at that level were absolutely impossible to defeat especially when none of them were over sixty years of age! No one had any ability to stand up to the caretakers!

The caretakers were incredibly quick. After cutting off two heads in front of him, Rudy was right in front of them!

If Jackie continued to not do anything, then Rudy would definitely die!

Feeling Jackie's gaze, Rudy looked over with an expression of complete helplessness. He knew he was about to die, and he begged for Jackie's help!

Facing that sudden development, Jackie merely stared coldly, not moving his body at all. Even if he saw someone about to kill Rudy, his expressions did not change. He did not react to anything that was happening at all!

The nine-tailed scarlet fox's eyes reddened more and more, so much that it was beginning to glow. At that moment, it was already using the nine-tailed illusion to the brink. The whole arena had been covered by a red glow.

At that moment, the stage was covered up in that light, but the spectators could still see the stage. Unlike what Jackie was seeing, the actual spectators were fine. Nothing had happened, and the caretakers were not on a rampage. Everything he had seen had just been an illusion from the nine-tailed scarlet fox. The spectators had not been hit by the illusion, so all they saw was a man and a beast facing each other.

The fox stared right at Jackie, and Jackie did not move at all. It was like his whole body had stiffened and was fixed in place.

Someone curiously asked, "Why isn't Lucius moving? It's like he's been pinned!"

"Who knows? Could that be his strategy?"

"Can all of you just use your brains?! Don't you see that the nine-tailed fox is already attacking!"

"What? The beast has already attacked? Why don't I see anything? All I see is a red glow surrounding the whole stage. Other than that, nothing is happening! I feel like Lucius is just standing there not moving. I don't feel anything else."

"You're such an idiot. Have you never heard of illusions?! It looks like this beast is good at illusions, and its natural-born skill should be at quite a high level. Lucius is not moving because he's in an illusion. That red fox is waiting for a chance. Once it's sure that Lucius is completely trapped in the illusion, it will launch its attack! If Lucius can't escape the illusion, he's dead!"

Arne naturally had some knowledge as a chosen disciple of the Deer Pavilion. When he saw that the red glow had enveloped the whole stage, he was certain that the beast was using an illusory attack.

Chapter 3074

He narrowed his eyes as he chanted at the stage again, "He'll definitely die! He won't get away this time! That fox will bite down on his throat!"

At that moment, Arne seemed like a scorned woman who only knew how to curse.

The nine-tailed scarlet fox finally moved. It was sure that Jackie was already trapped in the illusion, unable to escape for the moment. That had been the chance it was waiting for!

The nine-tailed scarlet fox opened its mouth, revealing a human-like sinister smile on its face. It suddenly shot forward at Jackie at an incredible speed!

Everyone held their breaths. The distance between the beast and Jackie got shorter and shorter. With how fast the fox was, it only took a while for it to be right in front of Jackie. If he did not wake up at that time, he would definitely die!

Everyone there, including Rudy, who was still absolutely confident in Jackie, held their breaths. Rudy might be confident in Jackie's skills, but he did not know if Jackie could withstand an illusion. After all, illusions were not physical attacks.

Rudy pursed his lips into a line, unable to stop himself from praying for Jackie.

"He's still not awake? Then... Lucius is dead! There's no way he can live!" On the spectator stands, someone could not help but shout.

At that moment, the nine-tailed fox was right in front of Jackie. It had its jaws wide open and would rip Jackie's throat off the next second. There was no hope anymore!

At that precise moment, Jackie widened his eyes in sudden and pierced his blade out. That strike had perfectly pierced the fox's throat.

The fox never expected that Jackie would actually wake up at that moment. Even if it wanted to, it was already too late to dodge! Everyone heard a splash as blood spurted over thirty feet. The nine-tailed fox's eyes widened and Jackie saw a sliver of disbelief in them.

Jackie let out a cold snort, he knew what the nine-tailed fox was thinking at that moment. After all, the fox was already certain that he had been completely trapped in the illusion, unable to even struggle. That was why the fox attacked.

Yet, Jackie had actually broken through at the last moment, attacking so suddenly that the fox could not avoid it!

With a bang, the fox's body slammed onto the ground. It was in so much pain that its whole body twitched. Yet, it could not even cry out in pain since its throat had been pierced through, unable to make a sound.

Jackie let out a laugh as he said, "Your meager illusions are nothing in front of me. I'm a soul attribute warrior. If my soul wasn't strong enough, how could I practice soul attribute techniques?!"

Warriors with strong souls were the bane of illusions. As long as one's soul was strong enough, illusions would not affect them. Jackie had already mastered Destroying the Void and had absorbed so many soul fragments. His soul was already as strong as a city wall. The nine-tailed fox's illusions were nothing to him. It would never be able to break down those walls.

Jackie had deliberately let the fox think that he had fallen into the illusion, unable to get out. It was to get the fox to attack. In truth, Jackie had seen everything the fox did!

Jackie's explanation basically answered the fox's question. Its body shook a bit, seemingly wanting to say something, but Jackie clearly did not want to waste any time.

With another stab, the fox's body stiffened as it stopped breathing.

Chapter 3075

The moment the fox died, the barrier around the arena completely dispersed.

Jackie finally let out a sigh of relief as he breathed in the air from outside. It was finally done. Even though the three matches were actually not that difficult for Jackie, he did not want to waste any more time in the outer city.

After the fox died, its body turned back into energy and was absorbed by Hundred Beast city. Once the energy had been completely absorbed, a bundle of black smoke suddenly formed in the air. The smoke got denser and denser before it finally condensed together and formed a medal that was about the size of half a palm.

Jackie reached out and the medal fell into his hand. That was the famous black iron medal. It was the highest honor in the outer city. He had not felt anything when he saw someone else with it earlier, but now that he got it himself, he was actually quite elated. His lips curled up slightly as he walked over to Rudy.

Rudy was already waving his hands excitedly as he shouted, but Jackie could not hear him due to the distance.

Jackie merely nodded at him before he put the medal in his hand into Mustard Seed. He did not plan on wearing it since it attracted too much attention. It would only invite looks of envy and admiration from others, but he did not care about that.

No matter where he went, Jackie merely wanted to maintain a low profile. That was because attracting attention without a background would only invite endless trouble. If not because of that, Jackie would not have changed his name and his looks.

The three matches had already ended, so all of the arguments and fights before had lost all meaning. The results were out!

Jackie had won. He had won incredibly easily. Other than the first match taking up some time, the second and third had been quick. He had only used three attacks in total.

Compared to others who battled to their limits, he had won far too easily. It had been so easy that many of spectators could not believe what they saw was real. They felt like they were dreaming.

“He won! He actually won!”

“It was one to seven odds. I would be rich if I had just bet on him!”

Quite a few spectators were filled with regret at that moment. They were tempted to chop off their own hands, lamenting their choices.

Why did they decide to believe in others and bet on the beast?!

If they had bet on Lucius, then they would have been rich. Betting one million would have given them seven million back!

Just thinking about it got them emotional. The gap was so great that some of them could not calm down. Those who had been tempted to bet on Jackie were all furious.

“I bet eight hundred thousand spirit crystals, and they’re all gone now. That was my whole fortune. I’m done for!”

Rudy felt a sense of relief hearing everyone’s regrets. They had all been so adamant that Jackie was worth nothing, saying that Jackie was just a clown that only knew how to show off. They finally knew who the real clowns were.
