

Substitute Bride's Husband Is An Invisible Rich Man

Chapter 31: Are You Crazy

Chen Ya's face stiffened, and she suddenly lost her aggressive aura. She pretended to be calm and said, "Are you crazy? If this matter goes to the general manager, it will be even worse for you."

However, the more Chen Ya panicked, the more determined Mo Yan was to expose the matter to the general manager. Before Chen Ya could say anything more, Mo Yan took a few steps forward and knocked on the door of the general manager's office.

"You!" Chen Ya was so angry that she choked and stared at Mo Yan.

"Who is it?" A woman's voice came from inside.

The secretary who was standing at the side quickly walked to the door and answered, "CEO Song, Supervisor Chen and an employee from the sales department said that they have something to talk to you about."

"Okay, let them in," the woman inside instructed.

After the secretary got the CEO's permission, she opened the door and let the two people in. Mo Yan was the first to walk over. Seeing that Chen Ya was frozen on the spot and did not follow, she smiled slightly and said, "Supervisor Chen, didn't you have an issue you wanted to bring up? Why are you so timid now?"

Upon hearing that, Chen Ya lowered her voice and threatened Mo Yan, "Do you really think that that old woman Song Yun will protect you? Just you wait!"

When Mo Yan entered the office and saw how the company's general manager looked like, she was slightly surprised.

Sitting at the office table was a woman about 35 years old. She was wearing a light gray professional suit. Her hair was neatly combed behind her ears. Although her appearance was not outstanding, her eyes were very firm and powerful, her temperament was also very outstanding.

Mo Yan took the initiative to introduce herself, "Hello, CEO Song. I'm Mo Yan, a new employee of the sales department who joined half a month ago."

Song Yun calmly sized up Chen Ya, whose expression was obviously not too good, and smiled, "I remember you."

Mo Yan was stunned, and then she heard Song Yun slowly say, "I've read the reports from your department. There have been many big and difficult orders that have been held back for several years. Their sales were finally negotiated by you. Good job."

Mo Yan did not expect the boss of the company to actually remember the name of a small employee like her. She was immediately overwhelmed and said a little embarrassedly, "CEO Song, you flatter me."

Song Yun nodded lightly and turned to look at Chen Ya on the other side. She asked, "Supervisor Chen, is there something wrong?"

Chen Ya smiled very unsightly. She looked at Mo Yan warily and then explained, "This employee was dissatisfied with how Supervisor Zhou and I punished her for her mistakes. She insisted on making a fuss and coming to you."

Since Chen Ya had been in the workplace for a few years and had harmed countless rookies, she knew exactly how to put the blame on Mo Yan.

On one hand, she had dragged Zhou Shuai down with her and exposed their abuse of power by punishing Mo Yan for her "mistakes". On the other hand, she had slyly accused Mo Yan of not obeying management and disregarding company rules, this made Song Yun feel disgusted.

When she said this, Chen Ya thought that Mo Yan would be in trouble after this. However, to her surprise, Song Yun's tone did not change at all. She nodded and turned to look at Mo Yan, asking, "Do you have anything to say?"

“Of course!”

Mo Yan replied immediately. Looking at Song Yun’s smiling eyes, Mo Yan pursed her lips and said, “However, I would like to talk to you in private.”

From the moment she entered the office, she had felt the tension between the two women. Seeing how Chen Ya reacted earlier, she assumed that the relationship between Chen Ya and Song Yun was not very good.

Which boss would be glad to have a small supervisor always bossing others around in the company?

Sure enough, after hearing Mo Yan’s words, Song Yun nodded and ordered, “Then Supervisor Chen, go outside and wait for a while. Have some tea.”

No matter how unhappy Chen Ya was, she could not force CEO Song to let her stay. She could only leave dejectedly.

Once she was out of the office and out of Song Yun’s line of sight, Chen Ya’s gaze immediately turned vicious.

This damn old woman, she always got involved in everything. Now, she was helping that little bitch Mo Yan. Was she trying to target her and her uncle?

Seeing that Mo Yan was so confident, perhaps she had some trump cards. She had to quickly find her uncle to get back at her!

As soon as Chen Ya left, Mo Yan took out a recorder pen. It recorded all the audio from the moment Chen Ya called her to the office until now. The recorder’s quality was so good that it even recorded Chen Ya’s cursing through her gritted teeth.
