Chapter 3301

Nolan scoffed; he didn't think Harvey would understand his country's beliefs and culture.

Harvey revealed a profound look upon seeing Nolan's confident and stubborn look.

In reality, Nolan's life would be gone instantly if Harvey decided to put in a little more force.

Aaron and Totto were terrified over the present situation. They wouldn't dare move a single inch, fearing they would get Nolan killed...

Yet, Nolan didn't seem like he cared at all.

"Don't think I'll give in, Harvey."

Nolan looked at Harvey with a blank face.

"Us Indians are the same. You can cut off our heads, but you can never take away our pride."

"If you're good to us, we'll repay the favor wholeheartedly.

"But if you humiliate us, we'll always find a way to deal with you!"

"Even if you kill me, as long as India is still alive, there'll always be someone to avenge me!"

"Besides, I believe you wouldn't dare kill me anyway."

"After all, I'm a noble Kshatriya. A lowly man like you has no right to do such a thing.

Slap!

Harvey swung the back of his palm across Nolan's face.

"You think you're so noble?"

"So what if you're a Kshatriya?"

Slap!

"You think you're impressive?"

"You Kshatriyas are just royalty who gave up on their country against their invaders back the n!"

"You abandon your country and make your invaders. Brahmins!"

"You hand over your country's thousand -year history, your land, and your culture!"

"And yet you're still here, flaunting about it?!"

Slap!

"How dare you take pride in that!"

"You can't be humiliated, you say?"

"Kill off the Brahmins then if you're really that impressive!"

"You're just a higher-class slave at the end of the day."

"Who do you think you even are?"

"You think you're some hotshot?"

Slap!

"You want to kill my entire family?"

"You have no right!"

"Make the call, Rachel."

"Get Nelson and Ansel here. Bring the journalists here as well."

"Tell them these people have an illegal gambling site set up in our borders."

"I'd like to see who gave them permission to do such a thing!"

"A mere Kshatriya has no right to show off in Country H!"

Rachel froze. Immediately after, she took out her phone.

Nolan was filled with rage after being slapped around constantly.

He felt his pride trampled on after Harvey pointed out the true nature of the Kshatriyas.

He wanted Harvey dead right then and there.

In Nolan's mind, the Brahmins were not to be humiliated.

But after hearing Harvey's words, his heart sunk instantly.

The Bharata Gang had a pretty strong background in Flutwell. The Bharata Business Council was an impressive organization as well.

Because of Frankie and Joseph's relationship, everything had been smooth sailing for them.

However, there were some things that shouldn't be said.

For example, setting up a gambling site was clearly illegal in the laws of Country H.

Even if the government of Flutwell wouldn't dare go against them, the royal court of Country H would never allow such a thing to continue.

Chapter 3302

Judging from how the royal court and the legendary Big Boss would handle things...

If the matter were to be exposed, it wouldn't be as simple as destroying India's entire foundation within Flutwell.

Country H would probably have an excuse to station their men outside the country's borders.

After all, setting up an illegal gambling site within the country was already considered to be utterly disrespectful.

Of course, there was another reason entirely.

If it came down to it, India would probably cut ties with the people involved with such a crime...

Simply put, Harvey's phone call was a lot more terrifying to Nolan and the others.

They weren't scared of the entire army deployed against them, but they couldn't afford it if Harvey made the phone call.

At this moment, Nolan wasn't sure that Harvey wouldn't kill him anymore.

"This man's a lunatic! He doesn't care if things escalate!"

"Are you a man or what, Harvey?!" Aaron exclaimed instinctively.

"We should settle things with our own power!"

"How dare you use the royal court against us! You're shameless!"

"Shameless?"

Harvey chuckled.

"You think you have the right to say that to me?"

"While we were going against each other, I told Kayden to take the surveillance footage in the monitoring room."

"Simply put, the truth is in my hands now."

"You know full well who's in the wrong as of now!"

"Not only did you refuse to take the loss, but you also blamed and threatened the guest to make sure you get out of the situation scot-free! Since you're already this shameless..."

"What does it matter if I call the cops at this point?"

"I got the people from the government, the police station, and the media to come!"

"We'll see what the truth looks like soon enough!"

"Everyone will know how you do your business!"

"How dare a bunch of shameless and spineless criminals show off in front of me?"

"You said that you can't be humiliated?! Ha!"

"You're humiliating yourselves!"

Aaron's expression changed after hearing Harvey's words. He hurriedly made a phone call, but it didn't go through even after a long while.

Clearly, something had happened in the monitoring room.

"Wait!"

When Rachel was about to make the call, Nolan couldn't help but speak up.

Rachel calmly glanced over.

Nolan, who had been perfectly calm, was showing a horrible expression. He was gritting his teeth.

"Make way. Let them go..."

"You hear me?! Let them go!"

Naturally, Nolan could see Aaron's panicked expression. He knew Aaron was planning to double down at this point. If this were to continue, Nolan's dignity would be completely ruined

Thus, Nolan didn't want to keep fighting.

He gave up.

Harvey slapped Nolan on the face again, his expression cold.

"You think this is enough? Where's your apology?"

Nolan clicked his tongue before gritting his teeth.

"I'm sorry."

"Something's still missing!"

Harvey laughed coldly before he grabbed one of the bodyguards' firearms and pulled the trigger.

Bang, bang!

Aaron screamed in pain when two holes appeared on his arms. He was on the verge of passing out, but he managed to keep himself conscious because of his pride.

"We gave you what you wanted. Are you still not satisfied?"

Nolan's face was cold as he watched what went on; he wasn't planning to leave.

Chapter 3303

"I'm happy with this."

"There's just one more thing..."

Harvey calmly pulled the trigger once again.

Bang, bang!

Aaron screamed in pain; two holes appeared on his legs.

He fell to the ground paralyzed; all he could do was roll around with all his might.

"How dare you?!"

"Are you planning to piss us off completely?!"

Nolan was filled with rage at the sight.

He initially thought he could endure everything that happened...

But Harvey kept pushing the limits, constantly disrespecting him.

No! Harvey was completely disregarding the Bharata Business Council!

"How dare I?"

"Cross you?"

"You have no right to say that!"

Harvey threw the firearm aside, and then grabbed Nolan's Hermes handkerchief to wipe his fingers.

He folded the handkerchief nicely and stuffed it back in Nolan's pocket after he was done.

"How about this? I'll give you a chance," he said with a smile.

"I hope you'll do something about the Hearthstone Corporation incident tomorrow at the same time."

"If you can't, I'll destroy both the Bharata Gang and the Bharata Business Council."

"Mark my words."

Harvey kicked Nolan to the ground before strutting out of the place proudly with Rachel.

Nolan's eyes couldn't help but twitch frantically.

Ever since he was born, he had never suffered this much humiliation!

This was just too much!

Without a second thought, he furiously lifted Aaron, who was still shivering uncontrollably.

"Talk! What did you do in Hearthstone Corporation?!"

"I didn't do anything! I swear!"

Aaron held in his pain. Then, something came to mind.

"Young Master Myers! Your cousin, Eli, borrowed a few men from me, saying that they were going to deal with an ignorant fool..."

"I heard they didn't find the person they were looking for, so they beat his wife up to the point she was hospitalized..."

Nolan froze immediately; he understood everything.

Harvey didn't come here out of pure coincidence...

He came here for revenge!

He demanded a statement!

"We might be in deep trouble!"

Under Flutwell's Holy Mountain, an exquisite scenery could be seen.

The oxygen saturation here was the highest in the entire world. The quality of the air could boost anyone's lifespan just by a single breath.

Ozzy was wearing a neat suit. After three whole checkpoints, he arrived at a villa by a lake surrounded by a marvelous view.

Outside the villa, Joseph was casually fishing with a bamboo pole.

That said, there was no hook on his fishing pole. It was a strange sight.

"There's no hook on your fishing pole, Young Master. You can't catch fish that way."

Joseph didn't bother to turn back.

"Have you read the book, Investiture of the Gods?"

Ozzy froze.

"You know me, Young Master. If I had the time, I would've used it to play with some more w omen..."

Chapter 3304

Joseph sighed.

"I told you already! Don't top your ugliness with ignorance."

"If you did that, you'd know what it means to get someone caught with their own will."

Joseph set his fishing pole down before wiping his hands with the wet towel, which he took from the basin beside him.

He then gestured to Ozzy to sit.

"Did something big happen? You seem to be in a rush."

"That's right," Ozzy replied quietly.

"I received word that Mandy got hospitalized after Eli beat her up."

"Harvey took Rachel to Flutwell Hotel not long ago."

"They won three hundred million dollars from Aaron..."

"And they even crippled him completely, and slapped Nolan around."

Ozzy quickly summarized the entire situation.

"During the process, Nolan even brought up your name, saying that you and Frankie are sworn brothers."

"If this keeps up, I have a feeling you'd get involved with the situation."

"Maybe you should prepare for the worst..."

"Or maybe you should deal with Harvey as soon as possible!"

"How is the Bharata Business Council so useless nowadays?"

Joseph smiled.

"Looks like our friends are getting a little rusty after all that smooth sailing they had the past few years."

"Aaron's crippled. Nolan got slapped in the face. Surely Frankie won't sit still after knowing all this."

"There's going to be a big show soon enough."

Ozzy frowned.

"But Young Master, aren't we the ones in trouble if Frankie can't deal with Harvey either?"

"Why shouldn't we take action now?"

"You've been teaching us to go all out against all of our enemies, right?"

"Even though there's no word about this outside, there's news saying that the chief is almost done for."

"He'll probably pass away in a few days."

"Once that happens, both Longmen and the Bauer family will have no leader!"

"We need to save our strength while my two brothers are sitting in the back lines."

"Rising to power is our top priority!"

"Compared to that, Harvey means nothing!"

"Unless... You're telling me to sacrifice my end goal just to deal with a small fry!"

"That said, if we don't deal with Harvey now, he'll cause a lot of problems for Longmen."

Ozzy narrowed his eyes.

"Are you suggesting that we use someone else to deal with him?"

"I see you still know how to use your brain," Joseph said calmly.

"But still, you're exaggerating a little bit. Us good citizens can only fan the flames, at most."

"Find someone to clean up Flutwell Hotel for me."

"Aaron and the Bharata Gang are useless to me now. Catch whoever's responsible for the situation, and kill whoever's needed."

"It's better if we put away things as far as we can."

"Didn't Harvey demand a statement?"

"He should be satisfied by this, I assume."

Ozzy chuckled calmly.

"If we're actually doing this, Frankie won't be happy about it..."

"Flutwell Hotel is his money tree, after all."

"He won't stop until he deals with whoever's screwing with him!"

Chapter 3305

While Joseph and Ozzy were planning for their next move, Harvey was already back in Hatch et Gang's base camp.

Since Lilian and Xynthia were accompanying Mandy in the hospital, the once bustling courtyard seemed a little lonely.

Rachel left after making Harvey some black tea.

Kayden ran in with a frantic expression not long after, saying that someone wanted to see Harvey.

Harvey told Kayden to invite the person in without wasting any time.

Harvey froze before he instinctively stood up.

"What brings you here, Elder Torres?"

"You can just call me if you want to see me. Why show up here yourself?"

The person who came was none other than Colton Torres.

He was wearing his suit, with a cane in hand. He seemed to be in high spirits.

Naturally, he was brimming full of energy after Harvey dealt with his sickness.

Colton sat in front of Harvey without any restraint.

"No need for formalities between us, Harvey," he said with a warm smile.

"I came here for two things."

Harvey poured Colton a cup of tea before showing a faint smile.

"Tell me."

"Number one: I came for that ungrateful kid, Brady."

"To show my sincerity, I broke every single one of his limbs. He'll have to spend at least six months in a sickbed at this point."

"Another thing. Here are fifty percent of the Fraternity Hospital's shares."

"Simply put, you have total control over the hospital from now on."

Colton was smiling as he brought out a share transfer agreement on the table.

Before even giving Harvey a chance to talk, Colton immediately continued speaking.

"No need to reject this immediately. This is not just to show you my thanks, but also my apology."

"The most important thing is, I hope you can have your own business here in Flutwell."

"Only then can I ask for your help with something."

Harvey's eyes lit up. Then, he nodded.

"Please tell me. For Ansel's sake, as long as it's in my power and is not anything immoral, I'll definitely lend a hand."

Colton smiled.

"You'll definitely be able to help if that's the case. It's nothing illegal as well. You have my word."

"It's a simple request: I want you to participate in the Longmen Summit."

"The Longmen Summit?"

Harvey froze. He didn't understand what Colton meant.

"The so-called Longmen Summit is a gathering of Longmen, along with the gangs under its jurisdiction."

"On every Longmen Summit, all thirty-six branches of Longmen would send someone out and compete for the title of Longmen's top talent."

"Not only the top talent would be able to boost their reputation to an unimaginable level, but there are also a lot of other benefits as well."

"For example, Longmen has belonged to the Bauer family since ancient times..."

"But every time a top talent is selected, they have the right to compete against the descendants of the Bauer family to become the master of Longmen."

"You're a talented young man, Harvey. If you participate in the summit, you'll definitely win."

"That's why, I'd like you to go."

Chapter 3306

"I see."

Harvey nodded. He thought that the Longmen Summit would have something else going on.

At the end of the day, it was just another martial arts tournament.

Harvey shook his head.

"It's not that I don't care about your request, Elder Torres, but I'm not interested in such things."

"I'm afraid I won't be able to help you with that."

Colton smiled upon seeing Harvey's disinterest.

"Actually, I think you'll have to participate."

"Hmmm?"

Harvey was confused; it didn't matter if he went to an event like that or not. Why was Colton so sure that he'd have to go?

There were already a lot of things in Harvey's mind. Harvey really didn't care about something like the tournament.

"According to my sources, the master of Longmen, Samuel Bauer, is critically ill. He'll die at any minute."

"If he does die, both Longmen and the Bauer family will be in utter chaos."

"They need someone with absolute authority to take control."

"If not, Country H's underworld will cause an uproar after Longmen falls."

"As the head of Longmen's Law Enforcement, this is your responsibility."

Harvey wasn't surprised that Colton knew that he was the lead of Law Enforcement.

"Are you serious?" Harvey asked with a frown.

"Samuel's really about to die?"

"He's critically ill even with all that strength? You're kidding, right?"

"Of course not. You think Rudolph was only here to check in on me?"

"I'm just a sideshow, at the end of the day."

"Princess Wright only brought Rudolph and his team. here for Samuel."

"It's a shame he's already spent at this point. His sickness can't be cured with just medicine a nymore."

"Princess Wright brought Big Boss's medicine for Samuel

..."

"Yet, Samuel could only last two to three months at most ..."

Harvey's eyes twitched.

"It's that serious? I should go take a look."

Colton sighed.

"You're not a doctor. You have no excuse to get close to him. Even with your identity as the head of Law Enforcement, you won't even get past the front door."

"Besides, the young masters of the family have been waiting for this day to come for a long time."

"You think they'd want you to save Samuel?"

"If you do go, you'll cause a conflict between both sides of the family. No matter who wins i n the end, both Longmen and the Bauer family will suffer."

Harvey's face became severe. He wasn't close with Samuel, true.

But as Colton said, Country H's stability depended on Samuel's life.

After taking a deep breath, Harvey managed to regain his calm.

"Can't the royal court deal with this instead?"

"Why should I join the Longmen Summit in the first place?"

"What happens here should stay here."

Colton sighed.

"Scholars and martial artists use their skills to challenge the law. The saying isn't just for show."

"The situation will get a lot worse if the royal court gets involved."

"We need someone with the strength to rise!"

"For example, you."

"If you do, both Longmen and the Bauer family's crises will disappear in an instant."
