Let me go, Mr. Hill Author: Shallow South Chapter 2902

"It's an eye-opener for me." Dean Edwards sighed, "I have persuaded you so many times before, and my saliva has dried up. It's not as good as a word from other girls."

"Nonsense." Chester showed no mercy and chuckled lightly, "Don't look at yourself, how many wrinkles on your face, can you compare with others?"

Dean Edwards thought: "Do you think I think, it's not the hospital that worries so much. "

"But let me tell you, I can't work the night shift, and my body can't bear it." Chester said lightly, "I can't do the surgery for the time being, and my legs can't stand for that long now. "

That's fine. Even if you sit, you can help us a lot." Dean Edwards breathed a sigh of relief, "By the way, after you left this afternoon, your mother asked someone from the hospital to inquire about Mrs. Robbins's condition. "

"What does My mother want to do?" Chester narrowed his eyes.

"I don't know, but the security guard said that your mother and Cindy didn't go up to disturb Mrs. Robbins." Dean Edwards was also a little uneasy in his heart, "I don't want to interfere in your family's affairs, don't get me involved in this matter. I can't afford to offend you and your father... We have known each other for more than ten years. ah, alas. "

"I see." Chester was not in a hurry. The soldiers came to cover the water with the soil, but he wanted to see what Hank Jewell and his wife wanted to do.

The next day, Charity fed Lisa and rushed to the hospital.

Today Mrs. Robbins's had surgery. Charity stayed in the hospital for an hour. Due to work problems, she had to go to the office address of FYG Videos headquarters.

In the conference room over there, several major shareholders of FYG Videos and Cindy were also there.

"Sorry to keep you waiting for a long time, I have something to delay." Charity walked in quickly and put her bag on the chair.

"It doesn't matter." Cindy turned the leather seat gently and laughed lightly, "Ms. Eliza's mother is in the hospital. She must have just come from the hospital. It's hard for Ms. Eliza to rush over to sign the contract."

"Ms. Eliza, Is your mother sick?" FYG Videos's President Jones asked with concern.

"Well, it's a minor operation." Charity glanced at Cindy, "Ms. Turner is well-informed. Could it be that she met me in the hospital yesterday, so she can ask the people in the hospital when she turn around."

"I care about Ms. Eliza, after all, we will become close partners soon." Cindy replied with a blushing face and a heartbeat.

Charity didn't bother to talk to her anymore, "Since it's signed, let's take a look at the contract. I still have a lot of things to deal with today."

The lawyers of the two companies have carefully discussed the contract before, and Charity brought After her personal lawyer saw it, she quickly signed it.

After the signing, President Jones took the lead in applauding and stood up to welcome Cindy.

When Cindy stood up to speak, she did not hide her ambitions at all: "I hope my participation can make FYG Videos develop better. In fact, I usually watch FYG Videos's small videos. I think FYG Videos still has a lot of content."

Next, Cindy spoke by herself for half an hour.

Hugo Cheever leaned into Charity's ear and whispered, "She came here after she was fully prepared, and her strategic plan is better than that made by President Jones, and her ambition is clear. Her plan is good, but there are some things. It will touch the interests of other companies."

Charity chuckled, but it wasn't.

After the meeting, Charity and Hugo left together.

Cindy then stopped Charity, "Ms. Eliza, what do you think of what I just said?"
