

Madam Winters 202

Chapter 202

He slowly asked, "What is that little girl's relationship with Adina?" Earlier in the ward, Harold mentioned that Melody had followed Adina to visit him in the hospital. Now, Melody was in the same place as Adina. Besides, Adina was holding another boy's hand.

He began to suspect something. Dew's heart suddenly skipped a beat.

George rarely showed interest in anything on anyone, but he had actually taken the initiative to ask about that little b*stard?

That little b*stard was Adina's daughter and also George's sister! If there was an invisible blood tie connecting the siblings, would George quickly find out that Adina was his and Harold's biological mother with his high intelligence? In an instant, countless thoughts filled Dew's mind. She took a deep breath and said, "I'm also curious about the little girl's relationship with Adina. Even if Adina immediately got pregnant after she went missing four years ago, she can't have a daughter of this age." She was trying to say that the girl was not Adina's daughter.

George looked away indifferently.

He would learn about Melody's relationship with Adina after he asked Harold later. He pursed his lips and said, "Let's go, Mom."

But his calm expression made Dew anxious.

She went after him and asked, "George, how's the investigation on the accident? Have you found any evidence related to Adina?"

George shook his head. "I shouldn't be related to Adina." Dad already fished out the Fuller family. The accident should unsurprisingly be related to the Fuller family.

Even if Adina was capable, she could not have possibly colluded with the Fuller family from Central City.

"Why isn't it related to her?" Dew raised her voice. "Who else besides her would injure Harold? George, you're not bewitched by Adina, are you?"

George frowned. "Mom, there's no evidence that shows it's related to Adina." "She's very smart, so she could have gotten rid of all the evidence, and you wouldn't be able to find anything." Dew gritted her teeth and said, "It has to be her! It can only be her if she isn't brought to justice, she'll hurt Harold and you again! George, I'm really worried about the two of you. I'd rather get hurt than see any of you injured and admitted to the hospital." Perhaps George had often seen her acting, so he could immediately tell what she was thinking. She just said that because she wanted to use the Winters family's power to kick Adina out of Sea City. If Dad did not care about that woman, perhaps he could deal with Adina for his mom.

But Dad did not allow him to do so. When he accidentally invaded Adina's company website the last time, his Dad reprimanded him for the first time.

Unless he had a proper reason, he would not simply take action.

The way he acted made Dew furious Was George also refusing to help her now?

Was that b*tch, Adina, so powerful that even George, who had always been on her side, changed? Even if the car accident was not Adina's fault, she still wanted to twist the truth!

"George, you can choose not to believe me, but the truth will show that I'm right. I'm not going back with you. I'm going to practice my piano playing." Dew took a deep glance at George before she turned around and got into her car.
