

Chapter 76

The muscular men's leader flashed her a despicable smile and questioned her first.

"Who are you? Why are you looking for me?"

Adina remained calm as she continued to move backward.

The muscular men slowly walked toward her. "Ms. Daugherty, we heard that you're the most beautiful woman in Sea City. We purposely came to see what makes you the most beautiful woman."

One of the muscular men suddenly raised his arm and grabbed Adina's wrist. She was prepared. She threw the glass to the floor and used a sharp shard to scratch his wrist.

"How dare you, b*tch!" The muscular man was angry, and he quickly rushed over.

Adina grabbed his arm and slammed him over her shoulders. The man was so heavy. He should have weighed more than 400 pounds. She only managed to slam the man on the ground after she used almost all of her strength.

"This b*tch knows martial arts!"

The remaining three muscular men looked at each other and secretly broke into cold smirks. Luckily, they were prepared.

As they spoke, the man who was standing at the back took out a bottle of powder from his pocket. He poured it in Adina's direction when she was not paying attention.

Adina just got a whiff of an unfamiliar scent.

Before she could respond, her legs suddenly felt weak, and she also became a little dizzy. "Haha! B*tch! You're so fierce. Unfortunately, you're up against a few of us."

The muscular man, who had been thrown on the ground, got up and smiled coldly as he moved toward Adina.

Adina held her breath while she kept moving backward...

The muscular man quickly moved forward, grabbed her chin, and flashed her a wicked smile as he said, "We initially wanted to kill you instantly, but you're so ignorant. In that case, don't blame us. Ab*tch like you should have slept with a lot of men, right? Just cooperate, or else I'll give you a fate worse than death!" Adina's gaze turned cold,

She gathered all her strength into her knee and ruthlessly hit him with it.

The muscular man screamed in pain.

The four men finally realized that Adina was not easy to deal with

It would be impossible for them to make this woman sleep with them obediently! They looked at each other and decided not to go ahead with it. They would directly take the woman and kill her!

Adina's response became very slow.

She sensed that she was about to faint, but she could not.

Alden and Mel were still waiting for her. She could not be ruined like that. "Dew hir.... hired you, right..."

When she spoke, her tongue became twisted. She held her breath and said, "How much has she paid you? I'll pay you ten times!" "If you had behaved yourself, perhaps we could've had a discussion. But you've been too ungrateful. You have to die today!" The muscular men looked cruel as they walked over and emitted a killing intent. Adina's heart slowly sank. She initially thought that Dew wanted to get some people to defile her, like how she had found a man to sleep with her five years ago. She did not expect Dew to actually want to kill her.

They grabbed both her arms and stuffed her mouth with a cloth. Then, they placed a cap on her head. Subsequently, they got a wheelchair out of nowhere before they pressed her down into the seat.

The drug had taken effect, and she did not have the strength to resist at all. She would be pushed out of the building like a disabled person, and the security guard would just let them go... Adina felt hopeless.
