

Chapter 91

It was difficult to secure the project with Boyd Corporation, but it was not entirely impossible. If Adina resorted to dirty tricks like sleeping with an executive, maybe the executives would lower their requirements and sign the contract. The project was incredibly important, but Dew would rather not cooperate with Boyd Corporation than allow Adina to work in Daugherty Corporation...

Adina was like a wild wolf that was waiting for the right moment. If Adina entered the company, the Daugherty family would no longer know peace. "Adina, Boyd Corporation is well-known for being hard to deal with. I think you shouldn't waste your time," Dew said. "If you really want to do something for Daugherty Corporation, you can try to approach Mr. Williams..."

Adina raised her eyebrows and smiled. "Not even ten Williams families and Jones families can compare to a project from Boyd Corporation. I'll convince the staff of Boyd Corporation to sign the contract in three days."

Her tone was filled with arrogance.

Not many people in the room believed in her, but they had hope. If Adina truly achieved the collaboration with Boyd Corporation, Daugherty Corporation would not need to worry about getting customers over the next six months. Mr. Lawson was the first to speak. "Three days is too little time, you'll end up rushing to finish the job. One month is a more reasonable deadline." "If you can really sign the contract with Boyd Corporation, it'll show that you're a capable woman." Mr. Porter also said, "If you're able to secure such a big but tough customer, you can hold the position of manager in the Customer Service Department." Since things had progressed to this point, Dew was unable to stop Adina. She took a deep breath. "Adina, business negotiations are not a game. I hope you'll only decide after you think about it." She could not give Adina any chance to enter Daugherty Corporation! Even if the possibility was 0.1%, she had to destroy it. "If I can't make a deal with Boyd Corporation in three days, I won't attend the shareholder's meeting anymore," Adina said indifferently, "But if I succeed, I hope the shareholders here can keep your promise and make me the Customer Service Department's manager." Dew had nothing to say about that.

She opened her mouth but could not utter a word.!

Her sixth sense told her that Adina would succeed.

She wanted to stop it, but she did not know what to say. She heard the shareholders agree to it and also heard Aaron giving Adina a chance. Just like that, everything was set.

Adina put her stuff away before she turned around and walked out of the meeting room. Actually, she just needed to make a call to sign the contract with Boyd Corporation. She had requested three days because she wanted to give Dew some time to mentally prepare herself.

She hoped that Dew would not let her down.

As soon as she walked out of the meeting room, Dew came after her. "Adina, wait. I want to talk to you."

Adina turned around, and her lips curled into a sneer. "There's nobody else here. You don't have to put up that act of sisterly camaraderie with me." "How about we make a deal?" Dew raised her chin. "Quote a price for the shares on your hand."

"Oh, do you want to buy my shares?" Adina seemed to be interested. She smiled and said, "The price for Daugherty Corporation's stock has dropped a lot, so I can't sell my shares at a premium price. If I sell it for $1,000,000,000, would you want to buy it?" The overall market price for Daugherty Corporation was less than $3,000,000,000, but Adina was asking for $1,000,000,000 for her 25% share. She was being greedy. Even so, Dew nodded, gritted her teeth, and said, "One billion dollars is doable, but aside from that, you have to promise me one thing."
