Chapter 201: Intentional Murder Is Against the Law

0 5 minutes read

The mobile phone was given to Amber by Lu Yi. They came to pay ransom for Cindy. Without a mobile phone, they might not even be able to find the kidnappers.

Her eyelashes trembled, and her bright eyes seemed to be covered with a layer of mist.

Amber slowly raised her head. She looked in the rearview mirror. The car behind them followed more closely. Sean did not brake, instead the car was getting faster!

If he kept doing this, their car would collide with the car behind sooner or later!

Amber's pupils contracted, "Sean, what are you doing!?"

Sean suddenly came back to his senses. He slammed on the brakes. Their car steadily stopped in the middle of the road, and the other car that was a few centimeters away, almost crashed into it.

Amber gasped sharply. She raised her eyes and shivered constantly!

She saw it clearly. Sean's eyes had been fixed on the rearview mirror outside the co-driver's seat window!

So, Sean did that on purpose!

Amber saw Sean rub his temples, and an emotion similar to chagrin crossed his face.

She only thought she was mistaken, and spoke coldly, "Well, you think you will be disgraced if you die with me, so you planned to kill me on this road?"

"Intentional murder is against the law! It leads to imprisonment!"

Amber was furious. Her voice was not only raised, but even a little sharp.

Sean frowned, clenched his fists, and slammed hard on the steering wheel. The harsh horn sounded immediately.

He sneered, and Amber's shadow was clearly reflected in his black pupils.

"Against the law? imprisonment? Director White, are you going to sue me?"

"Don't you know that? Without evidence, I can counter-sue you for slander, defamation and violate my reputation!"

Amber trembled, and Sean thought she was scared.

He frowned. He was focus on the name Lu Yi he saw on Amber's phone just now!

He almost saw what the two of them were talking about!

It was precisely because of his distraction that his car nearly collided with the other.

“Besides, the car has been damaged, and its maintenance cost is sky-high. Why would I damage the other side of it?”

“Director White, you think your life is worth that much?”

“You know what the lawyers of the Smith Group are capable of!”

“Don’t give me the chance to sue you until you lose everything!”

Sean spat out these words and drove the car directly onto the main road. He wasn’t driving very fast and he was just about to bring the car up to speed.

Suddenly, his own voice rang in the car.

“Amber! So do I!”

“When I was on the mountain, I tried to kill you more than once!”

“I tried to drown you in the reservoir!”

“I tried to burn you to death at the rescue station!”

“I wanted to be killed by falling rocks in the maple forest!”

Sean was taken aback. When he heard his own voice, a touch of disbelief flashed across his eyes.

“You recorded our conversation?”

Amber, “Mr. Smith, you said these words yourself. You admitted these! If something really happened to me, even if the police in Tong City don’t dare to put you in prison due to the pressure of the Smith family, I am afraid that you will be on the blame at least.”

Sean was stiff all over in a moment.

“You’re threatening me?”

“You’re really disgusting. It’s just a few words, but you deliberately recorded them. Amber, I underestimated you!”

“But you really think you can scare me?”

Amber sneered.

“I wasn’t trying to threaten you!”

“I just want to be safe and take Cindy back!”

“Mr. Smith, like what I said before, I don’t want to die, and I want to take Cindy back!”

“Mr. Smith, you are an adult, and there is no need to play the drama of staging a series of car accidents!”

“As long as Cindy goes back with me safely, I’ll destroy this recording, and I’ll pretend I never heard anything you said!”

Sean didn't know how to describe his mood at this moment.

It was like a dead fly being stuffed into his throat by Amber. He couldn't spit it out, nor could he swallow it. He felt cold because of feeling sick!

Amber was really sly. Even he was not her opponent, let alone Manman who was so innocent.

The series of words, despicable and shameless, were not enough to describe Amber's cattiness at all!

Sean took a deep breath, turned the steering wheel and drove the car out. The speed of the car was neither fast nor slow, and there was not a trace of expression on his face.

If it wasn't for his constantly trembled eyelashes, Amber would really think that he had already regained his composure.

Amber's mind was like a paste.

She pressed her lips and whispered, "Sean..."

Don't blame me...

Before she could say anything, she was interrupted by a light cough from Sean.

The man looked over coldly, like a gust of breeze with a deep coldness.

Amber's heart raced.

"What are you going to say?"

"You'd better save your insincere apologies."

"I'm afraid that it will affect my mood, and that if I don't drive well, I may let you suffer losses!"

"Wouldn't I then have to take full responsibility?"

Amber's lips turned a little pale. She didn't continue to say what she was trying to say just now. She also knew that it was too deliberate to apology at this time, and Sean might not be in the mood to hear her out.

"You just coughed. I listened to the sound, and thought there may be a problem with your lungs. When you go back, you should go to the hospital for a lung examination..."

Amber knew medicine. They just had a fight, so the atmosphere between them was not good. She really didn't know what to say, so she said this.

Sean was really not feeling well. He had been in the mountains longer than Amber in the rain, and besides, he still had injuries on his back.

At least Amber had been treated in the hospital. However, as soon as he woke up, he seized Gu Jinyan's car, chased Amber, and accompanied her to pay the ransom for Cindy!

He had saved her many times, but she never knew how to appreciate his favors.

She wanted him to die on the mountain, and wanted him to die on the way to take Cindy back!

The blue veins on Sean's forehead jumped, and he began to breathe slowly.

Without receiving a response, Amber, with her head aslant, glanced at Sean. Her sight of line was cut off by her black hair. Amber couldn't see his face clearly, and didn't whether know her words were registered in his brain.

She hesitated for a moment. Sean suddenly asked, "Are you caring about me?"

His words were tinged with some sarcasm and mockery, stinging Amber's heart and making her feel a little uncomfortable.

"You are overthinking. I am just worried that if anything happens to you, your mother will pick on me then!"

Saying that, Amber pushed her long hair back, and turned her cheek to Sean. There was a slight pink mark that hadn't faded on her face.

Judging from its shape, it should be fingerprints.

Amber didn't feel embarrassed. The smile on her lips was a bit bitter, "Mr. Smith, look at this. This is what your mother did to me when your life is uncertain on the mountain!"

Chapter 202: Your Face Looks Good Today!

0 5 minutes read

At that time, Mrs. Smith was so emotionally devastated that she didn't have much strength, but Amber's skin was too tender and the fingerprints still left on her face.

Sean turned his head and stared at Amber's face.

His gaze was like a knife, clinging to her skin, and making Amber's hair stand upright.

After a while, he suddenly laughed, "Director White, your face looks good today!"

Amber sneered. It looked good after being slapped!

Without beating around the bush, Sean directly expressed his disgust towards her.

All these years, Sean's upbringing and manners, even in the entire upper-class circle, were second to none. However, he always gave her a hard time!

She laughed, but did not answer.

Sean drove the car, and was a little absent-minded.

His mind was full of fingerprints on Amber's face. Although it was almost invisible, Sean still thought that it offended his eye.

He even faintly felt that Amber's face shouldn't look like this!

It should be, clean and flawless, porcelain-white, like that of a doll!

He frowned and found a reason.

No matter what, Amber was a management, and her face was closely related to the company's face. How could he not care about it?

Besides, he should be happy that Amber was beaten.

It was just a slap!

On the mountain, for Amber, he was knocked out by the falling rock and almost drowned in the reservoir!

But the first thing Amber did after she was rescued from the mountain was to withdraw the rescue team and take away his chance of surviving!

Sean licked his lips and stepped on the accelerator.

The car was like an arrow off the string, leaving a smooth trail on the not-so-wide-road.

Neither of them made any more trouble again, and they soon arrived at the place where the kidnapers said.

Sean braked and parked the car on the beach.

The azure water, wrapped in damp and cold wind, forced the surrounding temperature to drop a lot.

After Amber got out of the car, she reached out and wiped the sweat from her forehead.

She held the suitcase and walked a few steps. She looked back and saw Sean who was following her closely.

Amber stiffened and stopped, "Sean, the kidnapper said clearly on the phone. He wants me to go there alone with the money!"

Sean pulled a cigarette out of the cigarette case and sandwiched in between his fingers. He frowned, and his eyes were deep.

"Give me the money. I will pay the ransom for Cindy!"

"Cindy got kidnapped because of me. No matter what, I can't let you shoulder the responsibility for me!"

"Director White, I can't afford to owe you such a favor!"

Carrying the safe, Amber took two steps back, "Mr. Smith, it's not about responsibility or favors. This is the kidnapers' request!"

"This request is related to Cindy's safety!"

"Besides, now it is not the time for you to be a hero!"

"Please wait for us here!"

Be a hero?

Sean clenched his fists. What was wrong with Amber!

The kidnapers asked them to meet on the beach, and the beach was empty!

They could see clearly whether Amber came alone or not.

What if there was a trap?

He suddenly reached out and grabbed Amber's arm. Almost as soon as he touched her, she threw Sean's hand away without hesitation.

He used his left arm. After Amber did that to him, Sean's arm was in sharp pain.

His lips suddenly turned pale, and he clearly felt that the glass splinters that had not been taken out of his body before got deeper in his flesh...

His heart raced, and Amber opened her mouth impatiently, "Mr. Smith, can you stop be so unreasonable?"

This was familiar. Before he left the hospital, Lu Yi also said the same words. Amber and Lu Yi had had mutual affinity?

A touch of sneer sneaked on Sean's lips. His expression was cold, so was the look in his eyes that rested on Amber!

"Yes! I'm being unreasonable. You wish I could die, and I wish you couldn't take your daughter back!"

"Today, you either give me the safe and let me pay the ransom for the kid, or, neither of us goes!"

"Just let your good daughter stay with the kidnapers!"

"Anyway, the child is not the offspring of the Smith family. I have plenty of time to waste on this!"

Amber wouldn't back down, "Sean, I've already let you take care of Cindy once!"

"You're the one who caused Cindy to be kidnapped, and you don't feel guilty?"

"What makes you think I can entrust Cindy to you again?"

Sean lit a cigarette lazily, leaning on the Maybach. The car behind him was badly damaged, but it did not affect Sean's temperament.

He stood alone, with narrowed eyes and a lit cigarette, making people feel cold.

"In this case, neither of us should go!"

"The scenery here is pretty good. I'll think it as I came here to enjoy the scenery!"

Saying that, Sean glanced at Amber, and scoffed with a smile, "It's just the person, who is watching the scenery with me, spoils the fun!"

For the first time, Amber found that Sean was so unreasonable!

Amber took a deep breath. She hadn't seen Cindy yet and cannot be sure that Cindy was safe. She simply couldn't be at ease.

Sean was right. He didn't care about Cindy's life or death, but Amber did.

Cindy was the only spiritual support she had in this world!

She only had Cindy!

Amber didn't want to say anything more, turned around, and strode towards the destination.

Sean frowned deeply and caught up again. He asked in a low voice, "Are you really going to let your daughter die here?!"

"Sean, I'm not in the mood to argue with you here. Please don't give me any more trouble!"

There was a trace of redness in Amber's eyes, "I'm begging you! Okay?"

"Sean, I don't want to threaten you! Dad's still mad at you. If you keep interfering with me like this, I'm afraid your punishment will not be only whipping after you get back!"

"Don't keep following me!"

Sean stopped in situ in an instant.

Amber really didn't know how to appreciate his favors!

This was the only thought in Sean's mind.

The wind mixed with the salty smell of the sea blew over. Sean was standing on the beach. His pink shirt was rolled up in the wind!

Sean stopped abruptly, motionless, like a lifeless sculpture.

His sight seemed to be nailed on Amber.

He would let Amber go, and let this damn woman suffer a bit!

He had suffered so much for her. He really shouldn't care about what would happen to her!

Besides, this was her own choice. She said she was not threatening him, but her means of threatening him were endless!

What the hell did she mean by not letting him go instead of her!

Chapter 203: Kill Cindy

0 5 minutes read

He breathed slowly. Standing on the empty beach, Sean still had a feeling that he couldn't breathe.

There seemed to be nails under his feet, and he couldn't stand still at all. After three or four minutes, Amber's figure became smaller and smaller in his sight.

Sean closed his eyes, and his heart was full of doubts.

There were too many problems with this kidnapping. No one in Tong City didn't know the incompatible relationship between him and Amber.

They took advantage of the day of them paying their respect to Johnson. They went to the Smith family's shrine to take Cindy away directly in less than half an hour!

Sean really doubted that it was a long-time plot. They didn't know that Cindy was very important to the Smith family.

If they were not prepared, how could they go up to the mountain of the Smith family's ancestral hall and kidnapped Cindy!

No one knew what those kidnapers would do. If Amber went to them alone and was taken advantage of, she couldn't get any help at all.

Sean hesitated. When Amber was about out of his sight, he suddenly chased in her direction.

Lu Yi and Gu Jinyan both knew that he accompanied Amber to ransom the child. If something happened to Amber, how could he explain it?

Oh!

In a fit of anger, he even said in front of Lu Yi that he wanted to kill Amber. Who knew if Amber would collude with Lu Yi...

Sean thought, and quickened his pace. Amber's face and Cindy's face appeared in his mind alternately. They just wouldn't stop!

When Sean chased Amber to the place where she met with the kidnapers, Amber was already confronting the kidnapers.

They drove a van, which could accommodate quite a few people, and also had a license plate number. But he didn't know if it was real.

The windows of the van had a film on them. People standing outside couldn't see what was inside at all.

Beside the driver's seat, a man was standing there. He had dark skin, wearing a gray T-shirt, leaning on the car door, and looking very simple and honest.

He glanced at Amber, curved the corner of his mouth, and laughed.

"Have you brought the money?"

Amber raised the safe in his direction and whispered, "I want to see my daughter first!"

"You can't get the money until I'm sure my daughter is safe!"

The man curved the corner of his mouth and whispered, "Mrs. Smith, this small box doesn't seem to be able to contain fifty million dollars. I guess you are not going to pay the full ransom for your daughter!"

Amber's eyelids jumped wildly.

“Yes! It indeed can’t contain fifty million dollars in cash, but you’re the ones who asked me to come alone to ransom my daughter. Fifty million is too much to convert into cash. Ten safes may not be able to contain them!”

“There’s only two hundred thousand dollars in cash in the box. As for the rest of money you asked for, I prepared a check. You can go directly to the bank counter to get it.”

Fearing that they wouldn’t give Cindy back to her, Amber hurriedly explained, “Don’t worry. I didn’t call the police before coming!”

The kidnapper smiled and whispered, “Mrs. Smith, if you want your kid back, you have to let us get the money first!”

“You give me a check. Who knows if the police are waiting at the bank counter?”

“Give me the check. I will send someone to the bank to take it out. If my brother comes back safely, we will surely return your daughter to you!”

Amber gripped the safe tightly, and she took a step back and emphasized, “I want to see my daughter first!”

The kidnapper was not the kind of person who liked to be reasonable. Hearing this, he took a step forward and went straight to grab the safe.

Amber was unprepared. As soon as the box was snatched away, she subconsciously chased for a few steps, and blocked the kidnapper’s way.

“Where is my daughter? Where’s my child? !”

“You’ve got the money. You can’t go back on your word!”

“Give me back my child!”

The kidnapper curved the corner of his mouth, glanced at Amber, and the smile on his face was somewhat mocking, “Mrs. Smith, are you talking about integrity with desperadoes?”

“The Smith family really impressed me.”

A bad feeling crossed Amber’s heart. She followed the kidnapper’s gaze and looked back. Her pupils contracted when she saw Sean.

She thought the kidnapper was upset that Sean followed her over, and hurriedly grabbed the kidnapper’s arm,

“Please return my child to me first. She still has a fever, and she needs to go to the hospital!”

After getting the money, the kidnapper apparently wasn’t so good-tempered and directly threw Amber away. The man was so strong that he directly threw her onto the beach.

She fell and hurt her injured leg. She exclaimed in pain.

Sean happened to see this scene. He strode forward and pulled up Amber from the ground with one hand, staring at the kidnapper with overcast eyes, and said coldly, “Where is the child?”

“You’ve got the money. Return the child to us!”

“Otherwise.....”

The kidnapper took a step back, “Well? The people in the Smith family were not only unfeeling and ungrateful, but also untrustworthy!”

“You didn’t come alone, so how do I know if you brought the police here or not?”

Sean’s eyes turned colder, “You guys want to go back on your word?”

The kidnapper smiled embarrassedly.

“Mr. Smith, I’m afraid you are mistaken!”

“Wasn’t this matter a play from beginning to end? Your Smith family spent fifty million dollars to invite us over and act it out with you, didn’t you?”

“Get your money, solve your problems for you! Don’t worry. Our brothers will never let that child live through today!”

With that, the kidnapper got into the car directly.

Amber’s pupils contracted violently. She clasped the door of the van’s co-driver’s seat, and layers of cold sweat appeared on her forehead.

“What do you mean? Make it clear!”

“You are going to kill her? Why? I have brought the money over. Return my child to me!”

“Give me back my Cindy!”

The man slammed the door, the smile between his lips was impatient, and the man in the driver’s seat quickly started the car.

“What do you mean?”

He opened the safe, fumbled out a cheque and kissed it, and then said, “That kid is not in our car at all. She is in the hands of our other brothers! At this moment, her body has probably been cold!”

“Mrs. Smith, why are you pretending to be confused? Wasn’t it the Smith family that wanted her to die? The Smith family paid us to kill that kid. Of course we will do what they told me!”

These words were like a thunderbolt, and Amber suddenly widened her eyes in shock.

Her legs felt like jelly, and she threw herself on her knees on the beach.

The kidnappers had already drove the car away. Amber seemed to have fallen into an ice cellar. The sweat on her was ice-cold.

Amber’s heart seemed to be raised high, and then fell heavily into pieces.

Kill Cindy?

The Smith family wanted her to die?

They spent 50 million dollars to hire killers to kill Cindy? !

Chapter 204: I only have Cindy.

0 5 minutes read

For the first time, Amber White felt so desperate. The sand made her legs sore, but she felt that there seemed to be a knife stabbed into her heart which made her not breathe.

If she didn't pull the knife out, it would be hurt.

But if she pulled it out, it would be more hurt!

Sean Smith was also shocked. He just got the news of Cindy White's kidnapping, so he rushed here without preparing anything.

After hearing the kidnappers killed Cindy, he trembled.

His mobile phone broke down. Subconsciously, he wanted to ask Amber White for her mobile phone to contact Gu Jinyan.

Just when Sean Smith looked down, he saw Amber White kneeling on the beach facing the sea. All the noise suddenly disappeared. There was only her. She was covered in sadness. It seemed that she was drained of her strength. There was a body left.

Unexpectedly, Sean Smith could feel Amber White's despair.

He even felt the same for her despair. He felt hurt.

But it just lasted for a second. The car stopped too far, and the kidnappers had already left. Sean Smith needed to contact others to know the situation.

He walked in front of Amber White. He didn't find that his voice was trembling severely until he said to her.

"Amber, cell phone!"

"The kidnappers will definitely go to the bank counter to withdraw money. It's just less than ten minutes' car ride from here to the business circle closest to the sea, so I don't have much time left!"

Amber White made no response.

There were no tears in her eyes. Her eyes were dull. Sean Smith's fingers trembled. He hesitated for a moment before squatting down in front of Amber White.

"Don't you want to see Cindy?"

Amber White finally had a reaction. Her eyes moved. Her gaze focused, then she looked at Sean Smith.

Amber White felt painful. She even felt something wrong with her. Looking at the eyes of Sean Smith, but who appeared in her mind was Cindy White.

The scenes Cindy had spent with her suddenly became clear. The way Cindy was smiling, crying, and her eyelashes shaking.

All these pictures irritated Amber White's fragile nerves. She seemed to be dumb, as if there was some blood choking in her throat. Even her lungs were painful.

Sean Smith was at a loss. He had never been so panicked in his life.

He unconsciously wanted to go away. Amber White suddenly said.

"Sean Smith."

"I only have Cindy."

There were only six words in total, but Sean Smith felt that she said these hoarsely and desperately.

"She was kidnapped because of me. I will give you an explanation. You give your phone..."

"Explanation?" Amber White laughed suddenly.

She laughed loudly.

Sean Smith had known Amber White for three years but he had never seen her laugh this. Her laugh now... was scarier than crying.

"What the point I need your explanation? Didn't you hear? That person said he killed Cindy!"

"He said Cindy was dead. Did you hear that?"

She looked at him. There was too much hatred in her eyes. Sean Smith had a feeling that he couldn't bear it.

Every word she said was like a sword to stab Sean Smith's heart.

"He also said Cindy's body was cold!"

"Sean Smith, you are happy now, aren't you?"

"You got what you wanted! Why don't you laugh?"

Sean Smith trembled. He pursed his lips.

He couldn't feel sorry for Amber White!

"Are you insane? They have long thought of killing her. Why do you look at me like this?"

"Whether I come here or not, they will kill Cindy White!"

Every words of Sean Smith hurt Amber White so extremely.

Amber White laughed out of tears. She cried down on the beach!

"At this time, why are you still acting in front of me?"

Sean Smith's lips trembled and asked her, "What do you mean?"

“You believe the kidnapers? Do you think I let them kidnap Cindy?”

“Amber White!”

Sean Smith suddenly raised his tone, “Are you insane?”

Amber White was in a mess.

It was Sean Smith who said that he wanted Cindy to die!

He said in person that he wished she could not redeem her daughter!

Tomas Smith knew Cindy’s identity. Although Sean’s mother was harsh, she always thought that one day in the future, Amber could donate bone marrow to Sean Smith!

Only Sean Smith!

Only Sean Smith!

“Do you hate me for driving Man Man away three years ago? Sean Smith! You want to kill me?!”

“You are really mean! How could you do it to a three-year-old kid?”

“Yes, I’m insane. Otherwise, how could I fall in love with you!?”

She looked extremely numb. What she said was so vicious.

Sean Smith was so furious by Amber’s words. Did he kidnap Cindy White? Was it he who asked the kidnapers to kill Cindy?

But had Amber White ever thought about it? If he wanted Cindy to die, why should he use this way?

When Amber was locked in Ye Se by Tang Tian, he could directly strangle Cindy White. It would be quicker, wouldn’t it?

Would he choose such a stupid way? Would he let the kidnapers to expose him?

Amber White was stupid.

“Well!”

“Well, well!”

“Yes, I let them kidnap Cindy. I let them kill Cindy. Cindy White was thrown into this sea to feed the sharks by someone I sent!”

“I don’t want her to be alive. I don’t want you to see her face or her body!”

As soon as Sean Smith finished speaking, Amber White was stunned.

Her lips trembled. She couldn’t say a word!

Amber White’s eyes became so red, an unreasonable red.

After Sean Smith saw the hatred in her eyes, he also felt he couldn’t breathe!

Did Amber White hate him?

Sean Smith laughed inwardly. He could tell himself that he didn't hate Amber White. But how dare she hate him?

He licked his dry lips, stretched out his hand to hold her arm. With a little force, he directly lifted Amber White from the beach.

"Where is the cell phone?"

"Give it to me!"

Amber White subconsciously covered her pocket. Her emotions agitated. Her lips were so pale.

"Give you the cell phone?"

"Are you going to call someone else to fool me?!"

"Let them prove you are innocent in court? Sean Smith, you wish!"

Tears swarmed from Amber's eyes. For the first time, she hated her powerless and weakness so much!

Even, Amber White took what harsh words Sean said before to her heart. She wished to cut open the heart of Sean Smith, then saw what color his heart was.

She was so desperate. She shook off Sean Smith's hand.

She didn't want to cry, but her tears did not listen to her.

Amber White pointed at Sean Smith. Her voice trembling sharply. "Sean Smith, you will regret it! You will regret it!"

Regret?

Sean Smith only felt that he couldn't breathe. Why would he regret it?

Whether Cindy White was dead or not, it had nothing to do with him!

Chapter 205: I Want to Stay Here to Accompany Cindy

0 5 minutes read

Sean squeezed his five fingers, the joints cracking made a clear sound. On an empty sandy beach, the sound of the waves was jarring.

In the twilight mist, the flow of the sea became very strong.

The waves hit the feet and even wet the hem of the trousers of Amber's hospital gown.

Sean suddenly remembered before leaving the rescue station, old man Zhang emphasized repeatedly that Amber's wound shouldn't get in contact with water.

He even thought that the seawater is not clean and contains all kinds of bacteria. It's more likely that her wound would be infected.

The humid wind and a hint of seawater brushed through Sean's face. He came back to his senses and sneered.

On the mountain, Amber could wake up halfway and drove the ATV away. Could even a mere touch of seawater in her wound kill her?

It's her who wanted his life. Shouldn't he be the one who's unhappy seeing them?

"Let's leave first!"

Sean licked his lips, there's a salty taste on the tip of his tongue, which was creeping through his body.

"The tide is rising. It's not safe here anymore."

Amber stretched out her hand to wipe her tears. There's a lot of terrifying emotions in her eyes, panic, fearful, despair, sorrow, and desolation, if she saw through the old woman in life.

On the contrary, that strand of hatred seemed to be heavily suppressed by her deep sorrow, and vanished in the sky.

Seeing such Amber White, Sean didn't dare to reach out and pull her!

How did it turn out to be like this?

It's just simply a hide and seek, how could it turn out this way?

Although Sean wasn't really fond of Amber's daughter, he never thought of letting Cindy die!

He stood up, reached out, and pulled Amber after pondering for a while.

Just as he almost stretched out his arms, Amber suddenly moved, turned around, and looked at Sean, before asking, "You are right. The tide is high, it's not safe here anymore!"

"But Cindy has not come back yet!"

"I'm not going. I will stay here to accompany Cindy!"

Sean clasped Amber's strong palm with sudden force.

Has Amber gone crazy? Did she really believe those angry words? Did she really think he would ask someone to throw Cindy into the sea?

"What's up? Did Director Qin really plan to die again? Jumping into the sea is indeed better than jumping into the river!"

Those hurtful words seemed to be at the tip of the mouth. Amber didn't say any hurtful words to Sean, but Sean had more hurtful words waiting for her,

It's obvious that Sean had done it.

Amber's slender figure was shaking. Her whole body looked like a piece of paper, that even a gust of wind could blow her away.

Sean pulled Amber harder, his face was gloomy. Under a pair of narrow eyelashes, Amber's eyes were stained with panic.

These three years, Amber kept saying that she loves him, but she would rather believe the kidnappers' words whom she happened to meet just once, and chose not to believe what he said!

Sean took a deep breath, seized Amber to go back.

The problem wasn't over yet. No matter who did it, he definitely wouldn't let it go!

Or else, that old man would come to him and ask for his life!

"You let go! Sean!"

"Don't touch me!"

Amber struggled fiercely. Following the strength of her struggle, Sam's arms, back, and every wound in his body, were affected because of her.

The painful Sean couldn't help but groan.

"Let's go home first!"

"Don't you want to get revenge for Cindy?"

When she heard the word 'revenge', her eyes shook. Until this moment, her pupils came to focus together.

"Revenge? Whom could I search for revenge?"

"Sean, after playing it like this, hasn't it concluded that I can't do anything about you! I can't get justice for Cindy!"

"Is it because you see me in despair and a difficult position, so that you show off your pride and honor!"

"My daughter, Cindy is gone! President Smith, you're happy, right?"

"Cindy is still very young. She is so sensible. Sean, how could you do this? What is your heart exactly made of!"

"Return Cindy to me!"

Amber said and rushed towards Sean's direction.

Sean was caught off guard. She pounced him open. His left arm shook. A sharp pain stung through his tall body, making him numb, caused him to push her by reflex.

She has a serious illness. She hasn't recovered yet, so she couldn't handle a heavy burden. Sean only used a little strength, but her body wobbled twice, and finally fell directly to the ground.

Sean's feet seemed to be nailed to the ground.

He stared straight at Amber.

Amber had stabilized her body, but she's still weak. After standing firmly, she staggered. Following the force, she should've fallen toward Sean's direction.

Instead, she felt abruptly on the beach.

How much did she hate him, that she prevailed her reflex, and also draw a clear line with him?

Standing on a vast seashore, Sean felt cold all over his body, sweats were dripping from his temple. Both the sensation from his body and soul, made Sean's heart in pain.

He doesn't love Amber, he shouldn't felt pain!

Sean's lips were trembling, he subconsciously touched the cigarette that he took from Gu Jinyan's car, when he got off.

He brought the cigarette, but forgot to bring the lighter. Looking at the trembling woman lying on the ground, he really felt like a fool.

A hopeless fool!

He didn't owe Amber. The reason why he's in pain so much, was because, this time, something happened to Cindy, and he's got something to do with it!

He didn't love Amber. The reason why he's afraid, was because when they returned to the hospital, and if he couldn't explain clearly, that old man would've asked him to pay for Cindy's life!

Right!

Sean blinked his eyes, his strength seemed to be drained. He was so flustered. There's only Amber and Cindy's shadow in his heart!

Especially at the time, when Cindy was together with him!

The laughter of that little dumpling, gradually squeezed into his mind, and spread into every corner. Sean blinked his lashes, only to feel that his lips had become drier.

Sean squeezed the cigarette pack, took two steps forward. He stretched out his hands intending to pull Amber, and as if the woman felt it, she hid aside.

He moved his hand again, eagerly and quickly, reached out to grabbed Amber's slender waist. His hand directly touched Amber's thigh!

Amber was dumbfounded, her face blushed. She didn't even think about it and slapped Sean in the face, without hesitation.

There was a loud 'smack'.

Sean's movement stopped in an instant. Amber took two deep breaths, and with a sharp and trembling voice, "Sean, you are shameless!"

Amber slapped him hard and had not strengthened left. A red mark quickly formed on his pretty cheek.

When she fell silent, Sean raised his right arm. Amber saw the phone in his palm.

The air was suddenly quiet.

Sean's eyelashes were hidden within the twilight, inexplicably gloomy.

His pink shirt was stained with dust, making him look less distant.

Chapter 206: Tell My Accomplice to Leave no Trace!

0 5 minutes read

Amber's action paused suddenly, and she realized that she might have misunderstood what Sean really meant.

And Sean...

Within one day, he was slapped twice by Amber, and now, his eyes were so cold and gloomy.

But when he thought of Cindy, he held back his anger in his heart, and then it faded away gradually.

Sean looked askance at Amber, reached out to dial the phone, and tightly clasped Amber's body with his thin but strong arm to prevent her from continuing to do any action.

"Sean, what are you doing?"

Amber remembered Xu Lin's cell phone number, and her pupils were contracted, and then she heard Sean's voice.

"What am I doing? Didn't you suspect me? I'm afraid you'll catch me in the act!"

"I will make a phone call and tell my partner to leave no trace!"

Amber was stunned, and her body struggled with less movement.

She looked at Sean, and her heart seemed to have been torn open, and the wind came in through the opening, making her even shiver in summer.

The call was quickly answered.

"Hello, who's it?"

Sean's eyes became serious, "It's me!"

Before Xu Lin reacted, Sean spoke faster and directly reported a license plate number, "Bring up the surveillance video near the suburban waters for me, and lock this license plate number, as well as the Wuling van!"

Saying that, Sean scanned the call records on his phone and reported a cell phone number to Xu Lin, "Look up this cell phone number and bring up all the numbers that went through this phone in ten minutes!"

“One by one, identify the location! You have ten minutes to sift through the dens of the gang that kidnapped Cindy!”

Xu Lin looked confused, his voice trembling, “Mr. Smith, you’re with Miss White? I’m going to check it now! Is Cindy safe?”

Sean’s pupils were contracted and he just cut off the call.

When the kidnapers came over to make a deal, they were lax and looked unprofessional, talking too much.

The fact that they didn’t bring anyone over meant that there’s another group of people guarding Cindy.

In other words, after getting the money, the people who came to make the deal would be in touch with the people guarding the kid!

If they killed Cindy...

Sean suddenly was shocked. He’s not sure if Cindy was still alive, but the words the kidnapers said before that Cindy had been dead must be a lie!

They wouldn’t easily kill Cindy when they hadn’t got the money they wanted!

That’s why he had told Amber that he wasn’t given much time before.

These people even nearly got him killed on the mountain, but now it didn’t matter!

The important thing was that Sean hated this practice of letting him take the blame!

He clasped Amber around the waist and walked directly to the car. The two of them were so close that Amber had heard Sean’s conversation thoroughly.

She suddenly regained consciousness.

Xu Lin is the secretary of Sean, and Sean let Xu Lin to investigate, so was he not afraid that Tomas would know it?

Could it be that the things really weren’t done by Sean?

She was so confused, but when she heard him making orders calmly, she somehow had some hope in her heart.

Sean dragged Amber, walked to the place where the car was parked, opened the passenger door, and stuffed Amber into the car.

Sean then got in and started the car.

When Sean saw Amber was not in good spirits, he had a rare tenderness in his voice.

“Don’t make a fuss, the car they’re driving isn’t going very fast, and I’ll take you after it now!”

Amber knew that Sean was explaining that the kidnapping of Cindy had nothing to do with him.

The car didn’t walk smoothly on the beach, and even Amber’s body shook from the bumps.

Usually kidnapers kidnap people for money and won't hurt them, because if they get caught by the police, murder is a much bigger crime than kidnapping!

Fifty million, that's as much as an astronomical figure to the average person!

At first, Amber thought that the kidnapers wanted so much money because they knew that Smith family was so rich...

"Okay, let's go after it! But after catching up, what if the kidnapers still say it's you Sean who plotted it all?"

Amber said, starting to cry again. Cindy was not only her daughter, but also Sean's. Although Sean didn't accept Cindy and always said some nasty words, she could still tolerate it!

But if Sean really wanted Cindy to die, what could she do?

Sean held the steering wheel more and more tightly.

In one word, Amber had been sure that it was Sean who bought the kidnapers and let them kidnap Cindy!

In her heart, was he such a person?

"Miss White, you're really overestimating your importance in my heart, there are so many ways for me to make you miserable!"

"I won't choose to make you in pain by killing someone!"

Sean then continued, "Murder is against the law!"

Amber pursed her lips and laughed out loud, "You still don't admit it..."

Although Sean didn't see Cindy very often, Amber didn't believe that Sean didn't know how important Cindy was to her!

There were many ways to make her miserable, and killing Cindy was indeed one of the most painful ways to make her miserable!

Sean couldn't let go of the frustration in his heart, and he smashed the steering wheel resentfully.

"Yes! I deny it!"

"What does Miss White want? Let me die with your daughter?"

"Yes! You can sue me!"

"Miss White, don't forget to bring enough evidence! Otherwise, I, Sean, won't let you go easily!"

Saying that, Sean threw his phone at Amber, his voice was full of unexpressed anger.

"Did you record the words this time?"

"Here's my phone! Record now!"

"Do you need me to repeat it to you?"

“I want your daughter to die, even though she is a three-year-old baby!”

“Cindy was kidnapped by me, Sean, and I killed her, even the body was thrown by me! “

“Is Miss White satisfied with that kind of talk?”

Sean drove the car down the road, his heart burning with flames, and by the end of it, he wasn't even sure what he was saying anymore!

Amber closed her eyes and lay on the passenger seat, keeping silent.

Before, she didn't believe that Sean would leave her on the mountain and want her dead!

But after she came back, he confessed.

Now, she didn't believe that Sean was mad at Cindy because he didn't like Amber, but why would the kidnappers say something like that?

As such a powerful man, Sean wasn't a person who the kidnappers dared to plant the kidnapping on

Amber was getting more and more confused, and listening to Sean's angry words, she really felt so painful.

Amber didn't say anything, and Sean's words were like a punch into cotton, soft and extraordinarily suffocating.

He licked his lips, and looked at Amber through the right rearview mirror.

In the past, when working in the business world, Amber was confidence, but at this moment, ever since she learned that Cindy might die, all the bright light in her eyes had faded away.

Even her lips, which have always been fluorescent, had lost their luster, and she completely looked like a lifeless puppet.

Chapter 207: Never Give Up

0 4 minutes read

Sean gripped the steering wheel tightly and the steering wheel sank when he pressed the gas pedal. As soon as the car reached the road, it was like an arrow flying off the string and he drove towards the kidnappers.

He would not let it go at that no matter who offended him!

It was obvious that the kidnappers were familiar with this route. They had disappeared when Sean and Amber caught up, which was like disappearing into thin air. Sean pulled up to a fork in the road and slapped the steering wheel bitterly. Amber blinked, Sean thought she was going to say something bad again but she did not and there was no movement either as if she had been tranquilized.

Sean was even more upset and he glanced at his watch. It was only a few dozen seconds away from ten minutes after he finished the call. There was no news from Xu Lin and his efficiency should be improved. The phone suddenly rang in the cramped car, which was particularly abrupt.

Amber answered the phone quickly, "Any news?"

It was Xu Lin, Sean took the phone and turned on the pa before Lin answered Amber.

"Hey, Mrs. White? According to the instructions of the president, I checked the video of the suburban beach but I did not find the Wuling van."

Sean frowned and asked, "How about the phone number? Have you determined the exact location of the kidnapper's hideout?"

"The license plate is fake and the one you gave me is a truck license plate, which was canceled three years ago. I find the location of the truck by the license plate and it is in the southern suburbs.....Also, I took the telephone record of the kidnappers within 10 minutes and people that they contacted were not much, which were four or five and I already checked their identities but there was a number that could not be checked...I found it was also located in the abandoned car factory with the help of the police."

Sean smirked and he took back what he had just said because Xu Lin was of use!

Then he ordered, "Tell our men to guard all the exits of the car factory. Keep an eye on it!... Wait for me!"

It was not far away from the southern suburb but Sean grew up in Tong City and he was not familiar with it. He only knew a path that could get there in half an hour, then he drove along the road to destination after hanging up the phone. The path was not wide or smooth but it had just rained and there were wheel marks on the ground. Sean thought that the kidnappers should pass this way, so Xu Lin had not seen them.

Amber blinked her eyes and licked her lips, she whispered, "When will your men arrive?"

What if we arrived and they left?"

Sean glanced at Amber who was anxious.

"No worries. You should know the influence of the Smith family in Tong City. As long as Xu Lin gives an order, people nearby will go there first no matter where they are...I'll be informed immediately if the kidnappers make any changes. "

Amber nodded, she was so weak that she looked pale, had dry skin on her lips, and was no longer as radiant as she used to be.

Sean frowned and involuntarily speeding up.

Half an hour later, in the south of the abandoned car factory.

Xu Lin was already there when Sean and Amber arrived and Gu Jinyan was there too. As soon as they got out of the car, Gu went around it and whispered, "Didn't you and Amber go on a redeem Cindy? Why did my car change the way it did?"

Sean did not explain and he held Amber's arm tightly but there was always a distance between them. Gu did not see Cindy, Amber was in such bad shape but she was here to catch the kidnapers. Sean would not take a sick person for anything, would he?

Gu just realized something was wrong but Xu Lin was in front of them before he reminded him, "Mr. Smith, Miss White, is Young Lady sleeping in the car? It's not safe here, should I take her home first?"

There was a hush as soon as he said. Sean's face was downcast and he looked at Amber who was redness in eyes. Her hysteric and heartbreak seemed to have been vented at the seaside. She said nothing at this moment, which was unexpectedly strange.

"Where are the kidnapers?"

Sean whispered.

It was only then that Xu Lin realized something was wrong. his throat was a little dry and everything he said was embarrassed.

"They were still inside and we did not get them in the case causing undesired agitation. The van you mentioned was in but it did not come out....."

Sean sweated as he clasped Amber's arm and now, he suddenly regretted taking her with him. In case Cindy was killed and they will see her body when they came in later. If so, what if Amber lost her temper again?

He knew that Cindy meant a lot to Amber and he was afraid that Amber would do something stupid if Cindy was killed.

It was getting dark and their vision gradually blurred. Sean took a deep breath, "Get a few reliable men to guard the exits and the rest of you to follow me inside...Do not let anyone go!"

Gu and Xu Lin looked at each other, they were shocked by Sean. Fortunately, Lin had enough men before he got here.

Amber suddenly pushed Sean away and said, "Make sure you catch them, Mr. Smith...Just think of it as paying off what you owed me, thanks!"

Her voice was so low that Sean could barely hear her and he moved his lips but said nothing. He suddenly did not dare stimulate Amber again.

Although the road here was not easy, the location was good.

In the city, the lights on in the evening. Although the lights did not reach here, the noise of the city had gone away. It was a quiet and peaceful place where people could enjoy the night scene. Sean followed Amber with a flickering light as if he were a marionette. The closer he got, the more frightened he became, which Sean wanted to restrain but he could not.

Chapter 208: I'll go with you

0 4 minutes read

Xu Lin and Gu Jinyan had a whispered talk.

"What's wrong with them, Mr.Gu?"

"Who knows. Anyway, do not mention Cindy in front of them."

"Why?"

Sean heard their conversation and warned Xu Lin with his eyes widening, but he was not sure if Amber heard them.

The atmosphere turned quiet at this moment.

Amber had fallen on the ground when Sean looked back again, and she hummed. Sean could see her knees in the faint light. There was a dark liquid coming out, which dyed her light gown a bit darker.

Sean quickly stepped forward and held her hand again. She tried to struggle, but he held her more tightly, "It's not the right time to fight against me, director White. Don't you want to find the kidnappers and get even for Cindy as soon as possible?... You're wasting our time now!"

He just heard Amber sobbing faintly when he got closer to her and even felt that she was trembling. She was afraid that she would never see Cindy anymore and was afraid that her hopes would be dashed, "Well, get them and leave me alone."

Sean sneered helplessly, "What? what if the kidnappers say it's nothing to do with me if you're not there?"

After that, Sean stared at her eyes and asked, "Or, you trust me, do you?"

Amber said nothing, she had not seen Cindy until now and even thought that Cindy had been killed. She did not believe anyone before they caught the kidnappers. She snuggled up to Sean, "Okay! I'll go with you."

Sean put his arms around her waist as if lifting her off the ground. It was the first time in the three years of their marriage that they had been so close in sober moments. Amber just felt absurd, and her heart was no longer throbbing when he approached her.

It was quiet. With Amber in his arms, Sean felt groggy too. It was particularly quiet at night in summer; even the slightest sound would be a little abrupt. Amber suddenly put her hand on his chest, which attracted Sean's attention.

The night turned her face paler, "I heard Cindy, Sean."

She looked at him, anxiously, "Did you hear? She is crying..."

Sean said nothing and frowned. The kidnappers had said that their purpose was to get money and kill Cindy, which showed that they were not nice folks. Amber knew that maybe Cindy was already gone. She might have been so sad and hallucinated that she said those words, or to frighten him! It was very dark, and there was a little rustle in the wind, combining with what she had just said, which was quite frightening. Instead of answering, Sean blamed himself in the heart. After all, it was he who did not take good care of Cindy when she entrusted Cindy to him on the mountain.

“Further ahead should be where the kidnappers are hiding, if you’re scared.....”

Amber shook her head so hard that he could see her suddenly burst into tears, which made him embarrassed and unprepared.

“No, I heard Cindy.”

She suddenly struggled in his arms when she said, and he clung to her waist, regardless of his injury, “Amber! Listen to me, Amber! It’s your illusion...Cindy was young, and she could not run away from a group of kidnappers.”

As he was talking, a sobbing suddenly came into his ears, which made him froze. Amber tried to control herself with covering mouth, trembling, “Did you hear it? It’s Cindy!”

Sean looked around, the cry died away, and there was no more sound. He was worried that why did he show up if it was a hallucination? Did her daughter mean so much to him? Sean licked his dry lips and looked around by the light of his phone. Amber clutched his shirt and pointed east, “It was coming from there!”

Her legs had gone soft, perhaps because she had seen the hope after so much despair. Sean shoved the phone into her hand, leaned over to pick her up, and then walked quickly in the direction she was pointing. They came to the end of the road soon, and there was the wall built by the old car factory.

Amber struggled, “Put me down!”

Then Sean put her down. She looked around by the light of the phone. There was a thicket at the wall’s base, whose branches were trembling but did not make any sound. They looked at each other, and she took a step. Although the light was dim, she could see Cindy crying so hard.

Her legs became weaker, and she dropped to her knees, “My Cindy.....”

She felt sad and bad; the big drops of tears rolled down from her eyes. She reached forward and carefully picked Cindy up from the bushes.

“Mommy...”

Cindy choked with sobs and then burst into tears. She must have cried for a long time because her voice was hoarse. Her clothes were wet through, while her right foot was bare. Her pink stocking was torn, and her toe was wet with mud. Also, there was a swollen palm print on the right side of her face. Amber could feel that her high temperature when she held her. There were full of tears in Amber’s eyes, and she wiped Cindy’s face trembly, then held Cindy tightly in her arms.

“Cindy...my baby!” Amber asked with a hoarse voice, “Why are you here, Cindy?”

“Mommy, I’m scared...I crawled out of the dog hole. I exhausted myself running...”

Perhaps she was extremely frightened, Cindy was incoherent, but Amber could understand her. Her girl escaped when the kidnappers were not looking.

Chapter 209: Were you going to kill me, Daddy?

0 4 minutes read

“Sorry, Cindy, Mommy is late...”

Amber dropped to her knees and sobbed. The despair when she was in the seaside and the fright when she knew Cindy was killed were all vented out at this moment, which made her almost faint. Seeing them hugging together and crying, Sean felt a sense of relief. There was no denying that Sean was a little happy when he saw Cindy again. He relieved and relaxed his nerves. The pain in his body made him grit his teeth as the after-effects of injuries he got on the mountain, and the accident all came up. He bent slightly over and saw there were a pair of chubby hands with mud reached out from her arms, applying it to Amber’s face.

“I know you’ll come to me, Mommy, don’t cry, mommy.”

She was only three years old. Although she could say clearly, it was the tone of babies. Amber’s heart seemed to be torn in two. The noise of them attracted the attention of Gu Jinyan, who had been following them, and he walked over with Xu Lin. Gu stunned when he saw Cindy, “What’s going on? Why is Cindy here?”

As he said, Cindy curled up into Amber’s arms. Amber held her tightly and shook her head. There were tears in her eyes. She had never cried so badly in her life.

Sean frowned and whispered, “It’s better to leave here, take men to catch the kidnappers, Xu Lin...I’ll take Amber and Cindy back to the car.”

Then he reached out to hold Cindy, but she wrapped her arms around Amber’s neck tightly, “I’m scared...Mommy, hug.”

Hearing this, Amber tightly held Cindy, who had a fever, and Amber was not in a hurry to find the kidnappers but to take her to the hospital.

She wiped her tears and looked at Sean, “Shall we take her to the hospital first, Mr. Smith? She has a fever.”

Sean nodded; he did not hold Cindy roughly and just took the flashlight from Xu Lin.

“Mrs. Smith asked me to take a doctor here and you can ask the doctor to see Cindy.”

Amber was about to nod, but Cindy’s words stunned her. “Were you going to kill me, Daddy?”

Hearing that, Amber was nervous.

All of them heard it clearly. Sean frowned and looked towards Amber and Cindy’s eyes were clear in the night.

“What?”

Sean felt a wave rising in his heart and it was so strong that he couldn't control his trembling body. Not only did Amber think so, but Cindy who was three years old, thought that, too. Did they think he was too narrow-minded to accommodate a kid? He took a deep breath and said with a chill tone.

Cindy shrank her shoulders instinctively when she said, “I heard that beard uncle said...I'm not your kid, so you want to kill me and then have babies with Lin Man.”

It was very dark, and hardly anyone noticed that Amber was shocked when she heard what Cindy said. The atmosphere was suddenly awkward, and everyone was silent. There was no sound except for the faint sound of breathing; even Gu glanced at Sean surprisingly.

Everyone in Tong City knew Sean had a great depth of feeling on Lin Man. Besides, it was said by Cindy, who was only three years old, which was no possibility of lying.

“Eh-hem!”

Gu giggled, breaking the awkward atmosphere. He grabbed Xu Lin by one hand and pointed to the factory, “There seems to be something wrong over there. Let's go and have a look.”

Lin got him and they walked over together.

Cindy's tears oozed down Amber's collar as if soaking her heart.

“Really, Daddy? I'm not your daughter?”

Her words were a slap in the face to Amber because she had been telling Cindy how much Sean loved them over the years. She had thought of countless images that had been debunked, except for that she heard it from an outsider and asked Sean innocently. Amber held Cindy tightly; then, she looked at Sean. It was a good opportunity to get rid of them, and he would not miss it, would he? A few minutes later, Sean still kept silent. Amber looked at him, and his eyes were sightless as if he was lost in thought. Cindy had just mentioned Lin Man. Obviously, Amber could know what Sean was thinking about. She had known him for more than a decade, and for the first time, she thought he was strange. He did such a cruel thing but dared not admit it.

Amber blurted out with a tone of complaint, “I was mistaken about you, Sean.”

Her hollow sound brought Sean back to himself, and then he sneered. Was she wrong about him? Was she not bored that she had said it many times?

“What are you talking about, Miss White?” Sean licked his lips and groaned, “Is your way of judging things so arbitrary? Convict me for just a few words?”

Her lips trembled, and Sean tugged so hard at his collar that the first button on his shirt snapped.

His collarbone loomed in the night.

“You should know that your daughter is only three years old, and everything she heard was one-sided! Are you going to sue me? And plan to put your 3-year-old daughter on the witness stand? Besides, who knows if you taught Cindy about it? I could say you were in cahoots with the kidnappers to set me up!”

Sean grabbed Amber by her chin. There was a coldness in his eyes, which made the night colder. Amber felt hurt on the chin, also hurt in heart, which was a kind of pain she could not ignore!

Chapter 210: Why are you so mean, Mr Smith?

0 4 minutes read

Amber White sneered.

The things Cindy heard was one-sided? Then how could she dictate the cause and course? As Sean said, Amber hired someone to kidnap Cindy to set him up? Look! This was the man she had been in love with for so many years.

There was no point in arguing, and Amber just felt absurd. She was about to leave subconsciously with Cindy in her arms when Sean stopped her, "Where are you going?"

"I'll take Cindy to the hospital."

"Didn't Xu Lin say he took a doctor? Stay here!" Sean said with a chill tone, "We haven't found the kidnappers yet, and I would be wronged if you left."

Amber could not take it anymore; she shook him off and said aggressively, "Then what I know was true? And...how do I know you wouldn't have colluded with the kidnappers beforehand?"

There was sadness in her eyes and mixed feelings in her heart; even she could not know what it was like.

"So, does it matter?"

"Get out of my way! I'll take Cindy to the hospital."

Amber shocked Sean with her words so much that he was short of breath and felt dizzy, then he took a deep breath.

And now, he seriously suspected that Amber could not understand the human language! He never touched Cindy or even met the kidnappers. Also, he even knew about it later than Amber; how could he bear this crime for nothing?

"Yes, you don't care, but I do!"

Sean suddenly grabbed Amber by the arm and walked back. Being afraid that Cindy would fall, Amber did not struggle too hard and followed his steps.

"Sean Smith!" there was a note of desperation in her voice, "You will let it go if Cindy died?"

Sean turned a deaf ear to it but held her arm more tightly, "What does your daughter have to do with me?"

He pursed his lips and said in a sarcastic tone. The hand he held Amber was harder, and he glanced at Cindy, who was sleeping in her arms out of exhaustion. He said through gritted teeth, "You overestimate yourself, Amber! If I wanted to kill your daughter, would she still be alive?"

Amber trembled, tears in her eyes were streaming down, and her heart seemed to have been beaten, which made her face pale.

“Sean.....”

She was about to say something when they were stopped by a man who had a beard, also a cigarette in his mouth, but they could not see what he looked like. Amber stepped back subconsciously, so did Sean! He stood in front of Amber like a mountain, which took her breath away.

“Hey?”

Sean raised his eyebrow and found that he did not know this man. All the men Xu Lin took here went to the car factory. Although Sean did not know all of them, he knew clearly that the man in front of them was not his man.

“Who are you?”

The man laughed, “We talked on the phone before, Mr. Smith!”

Sean frowned.

He had been with Amber for the last few days; when did he talk with him on the phone? Sean had a foreboding, and then the man took out a pistol.....

“Let’s talk about something, Mr. Smith. Look! Your family business is very large, but why are you so mean that you can’t bear to give up 50 million RMB?”

Sean was shocked and stunned. Also, he was sure that he did not know the kidnapper, but why did he mean that he was the mastermind of this case?

The man held the pistol and pointed at Cindy, who was behind Sean; he whispered, “Are you angry because we didn’t kill this little girl, Mr.Smith?”

Sean blocked the muzzle for Cindy, and he was shocked by his subconscious action. How was she worth letting him stop it for her as she was Amber’s daughter? Then he was about to move away when found something was wrong. Amber was an insidious woman who could get Tomas Smith to withdraw capital with a few words, and Sean would have a hard time if he could not handle this case well.

“Wait! When did I contact you, and what did I have you do? And what evidence do you have?... You’re the first and only one to have been so brazen in laying this charge on my head! You have to be careful! It’s Tong City here!”

The man laughed, “Oh my god! Are you going to disavow this?”

Amber, who was behind Sean, pushed him away, and she held Cindy behind her. Cindy hugged Amber’s leg and said, “It’s he who tried to kill me, Mommy!”

Cindy was shaking so terribly that Amber was worried and tried to swallow the urge to hold her in his arms. The man glanced at Amber and added, “Well, I’ll kill this bitch and this girl, but you have to take your men away! What do you think? I don’t want to go to jail.”

Then the man pointed at Amber with his pistol, and Sean suddenly kicked him in the wrist, which made the man scream in pain, and the pistol fell to the ground. Sean punched him in the face so hard as if he used all his strength.

“Who gave you the nerve to frame me? Who?!”

Sean was furious, whether his tone or punch was hard. Anyway, Sean was wounded. The man had been held down by him because he was not prepared for the attack. Then he pushed Sean away, getting up from the ground and walking towards the pistol. Sean immediately caught him, and they fought again. The man was cruel; he knew Sean had a wound and deliberately attacked his wound and head. Sean would die even if he beat him.

“Business is the salt of life! Mr.Smith! You don’t have to be ruthless!”

Sean was helpless, and he would have believed the kidnapper if he had been a bystander because every word the man said was deeply ambiguous.
