Chapter 421: Is He Going to Fight You for Cindy's Custody

0 4 minutes read

Amber was alone in the huge SVIP ward.

The air-conditioning in the room was running well. Leaning against the sofa, Amber broke out in a cold sweat.

She thought that Sean knew...

Amber arranged her dress and cradled her arms, almost crying.

She was sitting on the sofa in a daze. After a while, the door of the ward was knocked from outside.

Amber calmed down and looked back. It was Lu Xiangxiang.

"You didn't have to knock on the door."

Lu Xiangxiang smiled and touched Amber's head, "I thought your ex-husband was here. I have to do that. Otherwise, your ex-husband will think I'm impolite!"

Amber laughed.

"Come on, you don't have to maintain a good image in his heart. You are not going to marry him!"

Amber took a deep breath. Lu Xiangxiang sat down on the sofa and asked indifferently, "Where is Cindy?"

"She is out with Sean." Amber's voice was a little low. She seemed to be very low spirit. Lu Xiangxiang asked, "Did that scumbag say something mean to you?"

Amber looked more frustrated, "He knows that Cindy is his child, so he is hesitant on the divorce matter."

Lu Xiangxiang understood, "Is he planning to fight you for Cindy's custody?"

"Amber, what's your idea? You have always been thinking about what happened eleven years ago. How can you let the person go so easily? You have loved him for such a long time. If Sean really knew he was wrong, you can give him another chance."

Amber didn't look up. The light outside fell on her eyelashes, reflecting a mysterious light.

Amber said bitterly, "He trusts Lin Man, and always thinks I'm up to something. If I keep staying by his side, I will only be heartbroken."

"In the three years, he exhausted my enthusiasm in the past eleven years. Xiangxiang, I don't mind staying by his side, but Cindy is still young. I can't let her grow up in such a family. The original family has a great influence on children. What if she couldn't grow up healthily?"

Lu Xiangxiang sighed, "Maybe you should tell Sean what happened eleven years ago!"

Amber, "He will think that they are stories I make up to deceive him."

Amber was helpless. Lu Xiangxiang gritted her teeth with hatred.

She took a deep breath and continued, "Amber, you don't have to worry about Cindy's custody."

"You can leave Cindy to Sean. Cindy was injured because of him. Knowing Cindy is his daughter, he probably will take care of her by himself. Over the years, you suffered and shed so many tears. You should let him taste it!"

Lu Xiangxiang thought for a moment and continued, "You are jobless. Why don't you come to the Feng Group? Although Mr. Feng is not very nice, there are many handsome guys in the company. Just leave Cindy to Sean and let her give him a headache. Then you can concentrate on finding a new father for Cindy!"

"You are so pretty. Don't waste your time on Sean!"

Amber didn't have the plan of remarrying, but she thought leaving Cindy to Sean to kill his enthusiasm was feasible.

She blinked and asked in a low voice, "What can I do in the Feng Group?"

Lu Xiangxiang smiled and said, "Amber, you are so excellent. You can do the job you want!"

After chatting for a while, Lu Xiangxiang made an excuse and left the ward.

She stood at the door of the ward with a gloomy expression.

Lu Xiangxiang took out her cell phone and called her high school squad leader, "Squad leader Lin, I haven't seen you for many years. Would you like to come out and have a drink?"

"Xiangxiang?"

Lu Xiangxiang worked in the Feng Group. The Feng Group was a competitor of the Smith Group. Many people want to curry favor with Lu Xiangxiang, and this squad leader was no exception.

Hearing what she said, he hurriedly agreed, and in a few words, they decided the time and place.

Lu Xiangxiang smiled viciously.

Amber couldn't tell the truth to Sean, but others could.

Didn't Sean treat Lin Man like a treasure? Since Lin Man harmed Cindy, she wouldn't let her get away with it!

...

Cindy was in Sean's arms. Sean was holding her carefully.

Sean asked her, "What do you want for lunch?"

"I'll eat whatever you eat!"

Sean was restless. How could he be in the mood to think about this?

He started the car. Cindy suddenly said, "Dad, why do you and mom quarrel every day?"

Well...

Sean couldn't give her an answer.

He still didn't believe that photo was real!

How could Amber be his ex-girlfriend? They were obviously born to be enemies!

How could he fall in love with her?

How could he laugh like that!

"Because your mother is unreasonable."

Sean replied, "Cindy, you must not follow your mother's example, okay?"

"No, you are wrong. Last month, my teacher asked mom to teach other parents how to teach children in our kindergarten!"

"The teacher said mom did a good job!"

Cindy was puzzled, "Dad, mom said, your company is a big company."

"She worked there for three years. If she is unreasonable, won't there be many unreasonable people in your company?"

Sean's face turned livid in anger.

When she was speaking for Amber, she was very glib-tongued.

But why did she never speak for him?

Sean was sulking, but Cindy was still young and would not coax him.

Sean frowned and asked in a low voice, "What do you want to eat?"

Cindy said a bunch of dishes. Sean turned the car directly and drove to the wonton restaurant where Amber took them to before.

Cindy asked in a low voice, "Dad, are we going to have small wontons?"

Sean nodded, "You have a lot of injuries, so you can't eat most of the food you mentioned. After you recover, I will take you to eat them."

Cindy nodded.

She listened to Sean obediently. After ordering wontons and side dishes, he was no longer displeased but only felt proud.

Chapter 422: Sean, Do You Want to Know the Result or Not

Cindy was good, as befitted his daughter.

If she were other people's child, she would clamor for what she wanted without thinking of her condition.

She was like him. It must be because of his excellent genes!

Sean was having lunch with Cindy when Gu Jinyan called him.

He paused, and answered it. Gu Jinyan's voice was very light, "Sean, where are you?"

Sean glanced at Cindy across the table, and whispered, "I'm eating with Cindy."

"You've got the result?"

Gu Jinyan suddenly laughed, "Is that all you care about?"

"What should I care about? Whether you can get Lu Xiangxiang or not?"

The voice on the other end of the phone paused. Gu Jinyan pressed the corner of his lips tightly, and the atmosphere got cool, "Sean, do you want to know the result or not?"

He sounded a little sullen.

Sean suddenly remembered that Lu Xiangxiang wanted to ask Gu Jinyan for help when Cindy disappeared.

But when she was talking to Gu Jinyan, Feng Chen put in a word. Then Gu Jinyan misunderstood.

The tension between Gu Jinyan and Lu Xiangxiang was palpable. After that, it became worse.

Sean suddenly laughed.

Lu Xiangxiang was cunning, as befitted Amber's good best friend. Both of them were good at controlling and fooling men!

Tsk!

What a tragedy.

"Of course I do. It's the third time. The result can't be wrong!"

Gu Jinyan snorted, "I was worried about them making a mistake. I kept an eye on them during the whole progress. Last night, I asked them to work overtime and I haven't even had a drink of water until now."

Sean paused for a while before reacting, and said, "I don't care about the process. Just tell me the result!"

Gu Jinyan was amused, "It is a miracle that Amber could put up with you for three years before divorcing you!"

Sean held the porcelain spoon tightly, and his face instantly darkened.

He didn't speak. Gu Jinyan was used to joking with him. Anyway, Cindy's paternity test result was in his hands. No matter what he said, Sean wouldn't hang up.

"I really feel sorry for Amber who found your true face until now! You are not worthy of her."

"Is Cindy with you? What a cute little one. If I were her, I won't accept you as my dad!"

Sean was irritated, "I won't have a son as old as you!"

Cindy made the right choice to accept him as her dad. He was rich, influential and handsome.

If she lived with him, at least she wouldn't be called bastard wherever she went.

Amber couldn't even protect her own daughter, but had the courage to divorce him without hesitation?

She should at least thought about Cindy a little more!

Sean felt sulky and the anger in his heart was stirred up, "Can't I be worthy of Amber? Do you know what she has done? She stated in the divorce agreement that I cannot pay Cindy alimony!"

"How can I plead with her for taking my money?"

Sean had a bad temper. Gu Jinyan had known him for a long time, but he knew that every time Sean got angry was because of Amber.

Gu Jinyan's anger was almost dispelled, and he suddenly laughed, "Sean, stop it. Let's get down to the business. I've got the result of the paternity test. Cindy is indeed your biological daughter!"

"I advise you to get Amber back before you completely serve your relationship!"

"Don't think that you are the only victim in your marriage. You called Cindy bastard, and if I remember correctly, it was because of your denial, Cindy failed to enter the family tree!"

"She was forced to take Amber's last name. After you get the divorce, maybe Cindy will call someone else father soon!"

"Boom".

Cindy, who was sitting opposite, was taken aback. It was Sean who lost himself and knocked over the wonton that had just been served.

His chest was sodden with the hot soup.

"Dad? Dad, are you okay?"

Sean didn't say a word. Cindy cried in fear. Sean lowered his eyes and comforted, "Don't worry, I'm okay!"

"The little wontons are here. I will feed them you."

Cindy stopped crying upon hearing this and whispered, "Thank you, dad."

After coaxing the little girl, Gu Jinyan continued, and asked amusedly, “Are you panic? You will also get panic?”

Panic?

Of course he was panic. His daughter would call someone else dad?

How could he accept it?

He had to keep Cindy by his side no matter how Amber reacted.

“You are right. Find me a lawyer, and I will get Cindy’s custody.”

Gu Jinyan cursed, “Sean, you are asking for trouble!”

Gu Jinyan thought that he was already the person with the lowest EQ in this world, but Sean’s EQ was obviously even lower!

“I’m afraid you would be killed by your father before I find a lawyer for you!”

Gu Jinyan sighed and continued, “Aren’t you curious? You and Amber had a picture of you two, which proves that something happened between you eleven years ago.”

“Lu Xiangxiang and Amber are so close. She must know a little bit about this matter. I will ask her for you.”

As Gu Jinyan spoke, he suddenly remembered that eleven years ago, he was not in the same high school as Sean, and he did not know his emotional life very well.

But there was one thing he knew. After Sean had that car accident, he forgot some things. The person who was the victim was still in doubt.

There was silence on the phone, and Sean pressed the corner of his lips.

He was not at all curious about what happened between him and Amber before!

Gu Jinyan was really nosy.

Gu Jinyan continued, “I’ve gotta go. I’m at the entrance of the hospital. Now I’m going up to see Lu Xiangxiang.”

“I will take a photo of the result of your paternity test and send it to your WeChat. I will destroy the file for you later.”

Sean responded okay and then hung up.

Within two minutes, his phone buzzed.

He clicked into WeChat and took a look at the picture. The result proved that Cindy was indeed his daughter.

Chapter 423: How Did You Learn to Cook at Such a Young Age

Sean locked his phone and glanced at Cindy. Her eyes were the most like his, but they were covered by gauze. Only her nose and small mouth could be seen.

Her lips were pink which were very similar to Amber's.

This was his and Amber's daughter.

All the results and signs proved it. He could not deny it.

Sean took a piece of food and fed it to Cindy. He focused on her, and Cindy felt it. She smiled and said, "Dad, what they made is not as good as what I made. When I recover, I will make something for you, okay?"

Sean's eyes dimmed.

"How did you learn to cook at such a young age?"

Amber must have abused his daughter. With just this, he could get Cindy's custody!

"Because mom was often not at home. She was very busy and hired a babysitter for me. The babysitter starved me and beat me."

"Later I learned how to cook and made food for mom. Then she found that babysitter was a bad person..."

Sean's heart ached.

Cindy was abused?

He frowned. For the first time, he felt regret. A woman raised a child alone and had so many works to do in the company.

Cindy's words seemed to slash Sean's heart fiercely.

After a while, he reached out and rubbed Cindy's little head, "Dad won't let anyone bully you in the future."

"And your mom."

Cindy added.

"Yes, and mom."

...

After Gu Jinyan sent the picture to Sean, he went straight upstairs.

Lu Xiangxiang was Feng Chen's secretary. At this time, she must be taking care of Feng Chen. He went directly to the SVIP floor.

The door of Feng Chen's ward was not closed. Lu Xiangxiang was holding Feng Chen's waist tightly.

His eyelid jerked, and he knocked hard on the door. Lu Xiangxiang was startled and turned back at once. Her hair was messy, and her face was reddish, bright and sexy. She looked incredible.

“What are you doing?”

Gu Jinyan frowned and asked loudly.

Seeing him, Lu Xiangxiang paused. Feng Chen spoke before she could say something, “What brought you here?”

Feng Chen was lying on the bed, unable to move. Instead, his weak look weakened his habitual coldness.

Gu Jinyan smiled and his peachblossom-shaped eyes were full of coldness, “Mr. Feng, I need to have a word with your secretary.”

He squinted and turned to look at Lu Xiangxiang. She lowered her head, with her hair covering her expression.

“Okay.”

As soon as Feng Chen finished speaking, Lu Xiangxiang raised her head, looked at Gu Jinyan, and said, “We can talk here. Mr. Feng is not feeling well. I won’t be at ease if I leave him alone.”

Feng Chen’s hand, holding the file, paused. He glanced at Lu Xiangxiang, then sneered.

Lu Xiangxiang knew why he sneered.

She just came out of Cindy’s ward. If he didn’t call her in, she was probably talking on the phone outside!

Anyway, Feng Chen and Mr. Smith were business rivals. . Gu Jinyan, a friend of the Smith Group’s boss, might not be liked by Feng Chen. She didn’t look back at Feng Chen.

“It’s about something private.”

These words seemed like coming out between Gu Jinyan’s gritted teeth.

She squinted and glanced at Gu Jinyan suspiciously, “How can your personal business be related to me?”

Gu Jinyan got impatient. He strode to the bed, pulled Lu Xiangxiang up from the stool, and pull her out.

Lu Xiangxiang was unprepared. Her calf hit the chair leg, and she couldn’t help exclaiming in pain.

“Mr. Gu, you’ve seen so many beauties with Mr. Smith. Why haven’t you learned to take care of ladies?”

Gu Jinyan suddenly glanced back at Feng Chen.

Hearing this, Lu Xiangxiang suddenly stretched out to shake off Gu Jinyan’s hand, “Who wants to be taken care of by him?”

Feng Chen curved the corner of his mouth and said in a low voice, “Secretary Lu, I’m hungry. Remember to buy me lunch after you are done talking with Mr. Gu.”

Lu Xiangxiang said okay, glared at Gu Jinyan, and walked out of the ward.

Gu Jinyan looked back at Feng Chen, and the two people glanced at each other meaningfully.

Lu Xiangxiang walked quickly. Gu Jinyan caught up with her in two steps and grabbed her by the shoulder.

She was forced to look back, facing Gu Jinyan's gloomy peachblossom-shaped eyes.

Lu Xiangxiang laughed angrily.

When he hit headlines with that young model, didn't Gu Jinyan smile very happily?

Who asked him to see her?

Who wanted to see his unpleasant face?

"Get me out of your blacklist!"

Gu Jinyan spoke in a commanding tone. Lu Xiangxiang gave him a push and said, "Is this you are here for?"

"You are upset when you see me. Why should I do that? You can also blacklist me."

Gu Jinyan's eyes were dark.

Looking at Gu Jinyan, Lu Xiangxiang was a little scared. She bit the corner of her lips and took a half step back.

"You..."

"What do you want to say? I have to take care of Mr. Feng. Gu Jinyan, don't waste my time!"

Gu Jinyan paused. His already clouded expression was even darker.

"Taking care of Mr. Feng is your pleasure, but talking to me is a waste of your time?"

"Good! Great!" Gu Jinyan sneered, and turned around without hesitation, "I have nothing to say. Miss Lu, go back to take care of your boss."

He walked quickly and directly distanced himself from Lu Xiangxiang.

Lu Xiangxiang's eyes turned red.

Her calf was still in pain. Lu Xiangxiang stared at Gu Jinyan's back. The more she thought about it, the more aggrieved she felt. She gritted her teeth and said bitterly, "You asshole!"

Gu Jinyan stopped.

He turned around, looked at Lu Xiangxiang fixedly, took out a cigarette from the pocket of his suit and lit it.

Gu Jinyan took a drag of it, and the thick white smoke came out of his mouth. He asked directly, "How much do you know about the thing that happened between Amber and Sean 11 years ago?"

Hearing Gu Jinyan's words, Lu Xiangxiang glanced suspiciously at him and asked, "Sean got you to ask me this?"

Gu Jinyan raised his eyebrow and said in a low voice, "No, I'm doing this out of curiosity. Don't you claim to be Amber's best friend? Why? She didn't even tell you her relationship history?"

Chapter 424: You Are Birds of a Feather

0 5 minutes read

"Even if I know, do I have to tell you? Gu Jinyan, you and Sean are birds of a feather! Amber is my best friend. I will never tell anyone about her past without her permission!"

"Whether it was Sean who asked you to be here or not, he's a bastard. Don't try to be smart!"

Gu Jinyan was speechless.

Lu Xiangxiang obviously resisted answering his question.

"I am doing this for Amber. Cindy is Sean's daughter. If there is any misunderstanding between Sean and Amber, we should help them solve it as soon as possible. Amber may not be affected after leaving Sean, but what about Cindy?"

"You hate Sean because of Cindy's car accident. But Cindy can forgive Sean and is unwilling to leave him. Why can't you and Amber forgive him for the sake of Cindy?"

Gu Jinyan blew out a stream of smoke.

Lu Xiangxiang's expression obviously softened.

She took a look at Gu Jinyan. His face was wrapped in thick white smoke, so she couldn't see his expression.

She had known Gu Jinyan for a long time and had always understood him. He was not such a nosy person.

However, she was keen on letting Sean know how bastard he was.

She had asked someone to throw a classmate party, and she was thinking about how to get Sean to attend. Here came the opportunity!

"Amber won't let me say anything about their past. If you really want to know something about it, the classmates reunion will be held the day after tomorrow in Ritz-Carlton. Come with Sean."

"Besides, even if I tell Sean, he probably won't believe it. In these years, Sean has never participated in the classmate reunion. One of the reasons is that Sean is the president of the Smith Group and he is very busy. The other is probably about Lin Man!"

"I won't say anything. If you want to know, go to others."

Gu Jinyan pondered for a moment, then nodded.

Lu Xiangxiang stroked the hair beside her ear, and asked casually, "Is there anything else?"

“No.”

Gu Jinyan licked his lip and looked at Lu Xiangxiang.

Through the smoke that was about to disperse, she looked pretty.

“How is Feng Chen?”

Hearing this, Lu Xiangxiang was not so surprised.

He and Sean were good friends. Feng Chen was injured for saving Cindy. He should show his concern.

“He was injured seriously. Two of his ribs were broken, and he has a concussion.” Lu Xiangxiang whispered, “Cindy was traumatized seriously. She might lose a lot of blood.”

Gu Jinyan nodded, put out the cigarette butt between his fingertips, and asked, “You are taking care of Feng Chen?”

“Yes.”

“What about at night?”

“Still me!” Lu Xiangxiang said, “Feng Chen has a morbid fear of getting dirty. He is not used to being taken care of by others.”

Gu Jinyan became stiff all over, pressed his lips tightly, and his perfectly curved lips instantly tensed into a straight line.

“So, the secretary is not others?”

Lu Xiangxiang raised her head and looked at Gu Jinyan, “What do you mean?”

“You’re just Feng Chen’s secretary. Why should you take care of him 24 hours every day? Lu Xiangxiang, do you know what you are doing?”

“Others will think you are using sex to get a promotion...”

“Pop!”

Lu Xiangxiang raised her hand and slapped Gu Jinyan across the face. Gu Jinyan gasped. He narrowed his eyes and looked at Lu Xiangxiang incredulously.

“Only you would think like that, right?”

The tip of Gu Jinyan’s tongue touched the corner of his lips. His hair was a little messy, adding a bit of charm to his peachblossom-shaped eyes.

“If I hadn’t begged Mr. Feng to save Cindy, he wouldn’t have been so badly injured!”

“I’m taking care of him readily, and I can never be ungrateful!”

Gu Jinyan laughed angrily, “Don’t make it high-sounding. Feng Chen is a famous bachelor in Tong City. If you have no idea of getting involved with him, hire a caregiver to take care of him!”

“Lu Xiangxiang, are you a fool? How can he get used to your care? Are you better at taking care of people than caregivers?”

Lu Xiangxiang paused.

“If you want to marry rich men, tell me. I know many rich and influential figures. You don’t need to humble yourself to please men!”

How could Lu Xiangxiang, who had always been arrogant, put up with such humiliation? She raised her hand but was grabbed by Gu Jinyan on the wrist.

“Why? I got you, so you are annoyed and angry?”

“Lu Xiangxiang, only my wife can slap me like this!”

He pushed Lu Xiangxiang away.

Lu Xiangxiang’s back hit the trash can in the corridor, and pain came from her waist.

She turned pale, biting her lower lip tightly and holding back the tears that were about to fall.

“Go away!”

Lu Xiangxiang pointed to the end of the corridor, “I don’t want to see you.”

Gu Jinyan snorted coldly, “It’s really funny. When did the hospital become yours?”

“The owner of Tong City Central Hospital is Sean. I hold shares. Are you in any position to drive me out of here?”

Lu Xiangxiang pressed her lips, stood up, turned around without saying a word, and walked towards Feng Chen’s ward.

With her back to Gu Jinyan, her tears suddenly ran down.

She took a deep breath, not daring to turn her head.

Lu Xiangxiang directly pushed open the door of the ward. She would rather show her vulnerability to Gu Jinyan.

Feng Chen was reading the documents, and when he heard the movement, he raised his head and saw Lu Xiangxiang’s red eyes.

His pupils contracted, and he held the documents tightly.

Lu Xiangxiang wiped her tears, but her tears seemed to be out of control. She couldn’t wipe them up.

Feng Chen glanced at her, then lowered his head to read the documents.

His expression remained unchanged, as if he didn’t see her aggrieved appearance.

Lu Xiangxiang sat down on the sofa in the room and cuddled her shoulders.

She had been having a secret crush on Gu Jinyan for so many years. It was the first time that she was so heartbroken and aggrieved.

She didn't owe Gu Jinyan!

"Secretary Lu, where is my lunch?"

Feng Chen suddenly said. Lu Xiangxiang sniffed and whispered, "What do you want to eat? I will buy it for you immediately."

"Anything will do. Maybe something mild. Choose a sanitary restaurant!"

When Lu Xiangxiang came out of the ward, she ran into Amber. Her eyes were so red. Amber could tell she cried.

Amber was startled, "Xiangxiang? Why did you cry?"

Lu Xiangxiang's eyes were redder when she saw Amber. She took a step forward, and hugged Amber tightly.

"Amber, I feel so bad."

Amber was at a loss. Lu Xiangxiang was very strong in her eyes, and nothing could beat her, let alone let her shed tears.

"What happened?"

"Did something happen to Mr. Feng? I'll go check."

Amber was about to leave but was held tightly by Lu Xiangxiang who repeatedly denied, "No, it's not about Mr. Feng."

"Did he bully you?"

Lu Xiangxiang shook her head and asked Amber in a low voice, "Are you going out?"

"Yes, to buy something for Cindy." Amber's lips were white, and her eyes were a little dull. She whispered, "You are right. If I want Cindy to stay by my side forever, I have to give up something."

Lu Xiangxiang looked at Amber.

She was beautiful. Her skin was flawless and smooth, and her eyes were affectionate.

But in just one month, Sean tormented Amber and made her even thinner.

She and Amber were so unlucky. One met Sean and the other met Gu Jinyan.

She held back her tears and suddenly smiled, holding Amber's hand tightly, and whispering, "Great, you finally came around."

“With your conditions, you can get the men you want. Sean is blind and can’t see good in you. You deserve better!”

“I know a lot of excellent young men. Since you’ve decided to leave Cindy to Sean to take care of for several days, you should take advantage of this to find someone you like!”

“What kind of men do you like? If you like scumbags like Sean, then I really can’t help!”

Amber suddenly laughed. She stretched out and wiped a teardrop from Lu Xiangxiang’s face, and said in a low voice, “There is no rush.”

“Are you going down too?”

Lu Xiangxiang nodded and said, “I’m going to buy lunch for Mr. Feng.”

They held hands downstairs. When Lu Xiangxiang mentioned Feng Chen, her eyes brightened, and she whispered, “Amber, what do you think of Mr. Feng?”

“Mr. Feng is different from Sean and Gu Jinyan. Others think he opened the company with the help of the Feng family. I am his secretary. I know that the Feng family wanted him to enter politics back then. They did not want him to do business and did not give any help at all.”

“The Feng family looked on coldly, and many people did not dare to help Mr. Feng. However, he accomplished so many things and became Sean’s rival in business. He is much better than Sean!”

“I can be the matchmaker of you two. Although he is a terror for work, he is considerate and will definitely love his wife very much.”

Amber glanced at Lu Xiangxiang with a surprised look, “Xiangxiang, didn’t you say that Mr. Feng was a pervert? But you seem like having a high opinion of him?”

Lu Xiangxiang touched her nose.

“How could employees speak highly of their bosses?”

Amber smiled and said in a low voice, “Xiangxiang, don’t try to bring unsuitable people together. I’m afraid Mr. Feng already has a crush on someone.”

Lu Xiangxiang was stunned.

She stayed with Feng Chen for at least twelve hours every day. Even if she was sleeping at night, Feng Chen would summon her on a whim!

Feng Chen was probably born to be single!

She took a deep breath, looked at Amber suspiciously, and continued, “What about Lu Yi? You’ve known each other for so long. Lu Yi and you were classmates in college.”

Amber shook her head, “I don’t want to be in a new relationship for the time being. Xiangxiang, I arrived.”

In front of the convenience store, Amber stopped. Lu Xiangxiang smiled and said goodbye to her.

...

Sean received a call from Gu Jinyan when he finished feeding Cindy.

He didn't sound in a high spirit, "Sean, come out for a drink?"

Sean said in a low voice, "Gu Jinyan, didn't you go to Lu Xiangxiang to ask about what happened between me and Amber eleven years ago?"

"Why do you suddenly want to drink?"

Sean quickly ate up the wontons in the bowl.

Holding the phone in one hand, he walked around the table. Avoiding Cindy's injuries, he carefully held Cindy in his arms.

Gu Jinyan's tone was flat, "I just want to drink. I went through so many hardships to help you. Can't you take out some time to drink with me?"

Sean actually felt his tone was a little aggrieved.

"Where will we meet?"

"Ye Se, Twilight, you can choose one."

Gu Jinyan was very depressed. After saying this, he paused for a while and continued, "By the way, Lu Xiangxiang said that there will be a high school party in Ritz-Carlton the day after tomorrow!"

"Sean, if you want to know anything, you can ask them about it."

Sean snorted disdainfully.

The party was probably arranged by Lu Xiangxiang or Amber. Who knew if what they said was true or not?

He was not going!

It was impossible for him to listen to the lies of those people!

"What time does the party start? What is the specific location?"

Gu Jinyan suddenly sneered and said, "Don't you have your own high school chatting group? You'll know if you read the news in it."

"Lu Xiangxiang doesn't want to see me right now. I just asked a few questions and was slapped by her. I'll call her again only if I'm insane."

Gu Jinyan finished speaking and directly hung up.

Sean glanced at the phone suspiciously, frowned and chuckled.

High school chatting group?

At that time, WeChat was not popular. He left the wonton restaurant with Cindy in his arms.

The restaurant was opposite the hospital. Sean held Cindy through the intersection and walked towards the hospital.

“Dad, I want an ice-cream cone.”

Sean stopped and looked at Cindy who had an expectant look.

“You want it very much?”

“Can I have one?”

“What flavor?”

“Vanilla!”

Cindy screamed in excitement. Seeing this, Sean smiled. He narrowed his eyes slightly and said in a low voice, “Okay, I’ll buy it for you.”

After getting the ice-cream cone, Cindy very happy.

Sean smiled, holding her to the hospital.

When he reached the gate, he ran into Amber who was coming out of the convenience store.

She carried a large bag of things, all of which were daily necessities, for men and children.

Chapter 426: Why Did You Buy These Things

Sean’s head buzzed.

Men’s slippers and razor, through the transparent shopping bag, came into Sean’s view.

What was Amber going to do?

In order to force him to divorce, she was going to live with her lover in the hospital without giving thought to Cindy’s feelings?

Sean was like eating a dead fly. He was unable to swallow or spit it out.

“Why did you buy these things?”

Hearing Sean’s voice, Amber raised her head. His dark eyes were bottomless and deep.

She stood straight slowly and said, “Have you got the result of the paternity test?”

Normally, it took more than ten days to get the result.

Even if it was Sean, he may not be able to get it in one day.

“Cindy is my daughter.”

Amber was a little surprised. He seemed to have got the result.

Sean did not ask how she got pregnant with Cindy, and Amber did not have the desire to explain. She lowered her eyes, carrying the things in her hand, and said.

“Let’s go up.”

No!

Why should he listen to Amber?

Sean paused and followed Amber for one step. Then he caught up with Amber in two steps.

With Cindy in one arm, he freed the other, reaching out for the shopping bag in Amber’s hand.

Amber let the bag go calmly.

In the ward, Sean put Cindy on the bed, and Amber called the nurse to give Cindy a drip.

The nurse checked Cindy’s wound. She frowned and said in a warning tone, “The wound on the baby’s leg is stitched up, but it hasn’t recovered. Now it’s bleeding.”

“Don’t take her out again!”

Sean’s heart contracted. He frowned and asked, “Can you stop the bleeding for her?”

The nurse nodded.

The nurse quickly gave Cindy a hemostatic needle.

Sean blamed himself.

Ever since he suspected that Cindy was her daughter, he wished he could stay with Cindy every day.

Unexpectedly, love was also a burden.

When Cindy was having the drip, Amber pointed to the door and whispered, “Mr. Smith, can I have a word with you?”

Sean hesitated and followed Amber to the door of the ward. Amber stopped in a position where she could see the hanging bottle in the room as long as she turned around.

He said directly, “Amber, I don’t agree with you living with other men in the hospital!”

Amber was confused, but it suddenly dawned on her. She laughed and continued, “Mr. Smith, you overthink. I bought those things for you.”

Sean was shocked.

Bought for him? Did Amber change her mind? She was not going to divorce him but raise Cindy with him?

Amber’s words, like a warm current, ran into Sean’s chest.

But Amber suddenly said, "Aren't you going to fight me for Cindy's custody? I'll give you a chance. I will leave, and you will take care of Cindy these days."

Sean took a deep breath, as if someone had poured a basin of cold water on his head in winter.

"What?"

He must have misheard.

Didn't Amber always take Cindy as her life?

How could she leave her daughter to him and let him take care of her?

He had no experience of taking care of children!

Moreover, Cindy was seriously injured. If he made any mistake in taking care of her, he might put her in danger.

"Are you out of your mind?"

"I've never taken care of a child. Aren't you worried that I..."

"Enough!" Amber yelled.

Sean's eyelashes trembled, and he looked at Amber with deep eyes. She was more than one head shorter, thin and weak, but she looked confident.

Amber raised her eyes slightly and said gently, "Three years ago, I didn't have any experience of taking care of children, either!"

Sean's breathing slowed down.

"You are at least rich. Three years ago, I had nothing!"

"You didn't admit that Cindy was your child and didn't let her return to the Smith family. You even locked me, who was about to give birth, in the room. I overcame those difficulties!"

"If you can't learn how to take care of children, give up fighting me for Cindy's custody!"

Sean's chest was like being blocked by something. The unfamiliar pain hit him suddenly, and his face turned pale.

"Okay."

Sean responded. Amber glanced at him and turned to leave.

Suddenly, Sean grabbed her wrist, "Aren't you going to explain this to Cindy?" Amber looked back and hesitated.

She sneered, "You should do that."

Explain?

She had been explaining to Cindy for three years why her father didn't come to see her!

She was tired.

She didn't want to explain anymore.

She shook off Sean's hand and quickly disappeared into the hospital corridor.

Sean's eyes deepened.

Amber left quickly without hesitation, which caught Sean off guard.

He stood at the door of the ward, smoking. A layer of ash fell on his shiny leather shoes.

He then moved and turned back to the ward.

Hearing the sound, Cindy called, "Dad, is that you?"

"Yes."

Sean walked to the bed and sat down.

Cindy looked very pale. When the nurse gave her the drip, she said that it would hurt. If the child cried, he could feed her some sugar.

Sean rubbed his daughter's bloodless face. Cindy smiled, "Dad, I can tell your footsteps."

"Huh?"

"I can also tell mom's footsteps."

Sean was surprised.

He kissed his daughter's forehead and asked in a low voice, "Does it hurt?"

"Yes," Cindy whispered. Sean was a little flustered. He reached out and sent a candy to Cindy's lips, "Have a candy?"

"No."

Cindy shook her head and whispered, "I have already eaten the ice-cream cone today. If I eat sugar, I will get decayed teeth."

She was very sensible and would not bring trouble to adults at all.

If it were an adult who had the car accident, he may not be able to put up with the pain, but Cindy, a three-year-old child, did that and even refused candy.

Sean's chest was filled with Cindy's words. He was gratified and satisfied.

"Dad, where's mom?" Cindy asked, "Didn't mom come back with you?"

Chapter 427: Dad, Aren't You Busy Anymore

“Did she go to aunt Xiangxiang?”

Sean lowered his eyes and said in a low voice, “Your mother will be very busy in the next few days. I will stay in the hospital and take care of you, OK?”

Cindy was a little surprised, “But, dad, aren’t you busy anymore?”

“The company is mine. I can handle my work in the hospital.”

Sean explained in a low voice. Cindy kept silent for a while, “But, mom said you were busy with work. You didn’t have time to see me, because you needed to make money to buy dolls and dresses for me. Dad, who is telling the truth, you or mom? Did mom lie to me?”

Sean was wordless.

He pressed his lips, and Cindy asked, “Dad, will mom start to be busy with work?”

“Will I seldom see her in the future?”

Sean could tell that Cindy hoped that he and Amber could live with her together.

Sean hesitated and said in a low voice, “Yes, mom will be the one who buys Cindy’s dolls and dresses.”

Cindy suddenly cried, “You are a liar!”

“Mom said this morning that she had no job and wanted to take me to travel!”

“Mom is a liar. I hate her!”

Cindy cried, curling in the bed, and looked pitiful.

Sean didn’t expect that he made his daughter cry after taking care of her for such a short while.

He hurriedly comforted Cindy and finally coaxed her to sleep.

He took a deep breath. The temperature in the room was low. After he tucked Cindy in, his phone rang.

“Sean, I am waiting for you in Ye Se. Why haven’t you arrived?”

Sean paused, frowned and whispered, “Gu Jinyan, Amber left the hospital. She left Cindy to me!”

“She said if I couldn’t take good care of Cindy, I wouldn’t have the qualification to fight her for Cindy’s custody.”

Gu Jinyan pondered for a while and asked, “Is that why you stood me up?”

Gu Jinyan laughed, “Sean, haven’t you figured out whether you want custody of your daughter or the marriage with Amber?”

Nonsense!

In the past three years, he had been thinking about getting a divorce with Amber!

Since Amber took the initiative to divorce him, why would he disagree!

Sean snorted coldly, "That's ridiculous! How can I not know my own thoughts."

Gu Jinyan, "..."

"I won't drink with you. If you are in a bad mood, you can come to the hospital. Cindy is cute. You will love staying with her."

Gu Jinyan kept silent again.

...

At night.

Sean finished processing the documents in his hand, sorted them, and threw them on the bedside table.

Cindy's attending doctor came to remove the gauze for Cindy. Cindy was sleeping.

"Are Cindy's eyes okay?"

"Yes, after the operation, we covered her eyes with gauze because her eyes were very fragile. If they are exposed to strong light, they will be hurt."

"I'm not sure if Miss Bo..."

Sean got it.

"I will keep a watchful eye on Cindy. If there is any problem, I will come to you."

"Okay."

Sean went to the bathroom, took a shower, changed his clothes, and lay down on the bed.

He glanced back at Cindy who was asleep. Her eyes looked extraordinarily similar to his.

Sean smiled, closed his eyes, and fell asleep.

Sean had a dream. It was eleven years ago.

He had just woke up from the car accident and was lying in the hospital bed. The ceiling was white, and the bed was icy cold.

Then, Lin Man walked in. She was wearing a red dress with a pale face.

Sean couldn't remember who he was, nor did he know the woman in front of him.

But he got up from the hospital bed with difficulty, reached for Lin Man's hand, and said in a low voice, "You don't like red dresses, do you?"

"Sean?"

Lin Man called him. Sean pressed the corners of his lips, and lay down again.

He was soaked in sweat and pain. He always felt that he had forgotten a lot of things.

“My... my name is Sean?”

“Yes, Sean, do you remember me? I am your girlfriend, Lin Man.”

Sean’s lips moved, and he looked Lin Man up and down.

He struggled to recall everything, but only grasped a trace of memory.

“Lin Man?”

Sean blinked and smiled suddenly, “I seem to remember a little. I gave you a red dress before.”

“You never wore it, but you did today. Are you afraid that I will forget you?”

Lin Man smiled and nodded, “Am I look good in it?”

Sean grinned, “Yes!”

“Sean, if you like, I will wear it for you every day.”

Sean just woke up, and was very weak. He was holding Lin Man’s hand, and his heart seemed like floating in the air.

Lin Man opened the drawer and took out a gift box from it, “Sean, is this what you got for me?”

Ladies’ Patek Philippe. Lin Man put it on her wrist, testing the fit.

Sean’s eyelashes trembled. He wanted to say no, but he was a little confused.

Lin Man was his girlfriend. If it was not for her, who else could it be for?

Sean nodded and asked her, “Do you like it?”

Lin Man said she liked it. She liked it very much.

Sean was very tired. After Lin Man left, he slept. When he woke up, he was no longer in the hospital.

He was on the rooftop of the school’s building.

Lin Man sat on the railing with her back to him. As long as she moved, she would fall off the building.

Sean was scared, “Lin Man, come down. It’s dangerous there.”

Lin Man didn’t look back. She was wearing a white T-shirt, and black trousers, simple and clean.

“Sean, have you forgotten me?”

“No, you are Lin Man. You are my girlfriend.”

“You’ve forgotten me!”

Lin Man suddenly cried, “You’ve forgotten me. You’ve forgotten me!”

She kept repeating those words. Sean’s heart seemed to be gripped by a big hand, and it hurt so much that he couldn’t even breathe.

Chapter 428: You've Forgotten Me

He slowly approached and took the woman's arm. Her eyes were full of resentment, and it was Amber.

"You've forgotten me!"

Amber gritted her teeth and repeated it again, then she pushed him away and jumped off the building.

"Amber!"

Sean abruptly sat up from the hospital bed.

He was in a cold sweat, and his heart was beating quickly. It seemed that his cardiovascular system would burst open in the next second.

Sean cursed. He actually had such a dream!

He pressed his lips tightly. The ward was dark. The light outside was on and came in through the window. Sean wiped the sweat from his forehead, took a deep breath, and fell back on the bed.

He tilted his head and glanced at Cindy.

Sean found something wrong. Cindy's breathing seemed to be very rapid.

He reached out and touched Cindy's forehead.

It was very hot. Sean reached out to turn on the light and pressed the nurse bell on the desk.

He called Cindy in a low voice, "Cindy?"

Cindy didn't react at all. Sean took out his phone and called Amber.

It was already four o'clock in the morning. Ignoring the time, Sean called Amber, and Amber answered it quickly with a sleepy voice.

"Hello?"

Sean took a deep breath and said, "Cindy has a fever... Why would she have a fever?"

Sean asked.

Cindy was hit by a car and injured. Why did she suddenly have a fever?

Sean didn't know why.

When Amber heard Sean's voice, she sobered up, sat up and said in a low voice, "Why are you calling me instead of bringing her fever down?"

Sean's blood seemed to be frozen.

Why are you calling me instead of bringing her fever down?

“She...”

Before he could finish speaking, the busy tone came from the other side.

Amber hung up.

He felt that this scene was a bit familiar, as if it had happened somewhere.

Sean put away his phone with a sullen face.

Amber hung up on him.

She was too indifferent to what happened to Cindy. To get a divorce with him, she even ignored her daughter?

Since Amber hated him so much, why did she marry him three years ago?

Sean waited for a minute or two. The nurse didn't come. He threw his phone on the table, bent down and carefully picked Cindy from the bed.

Then he strode out of the ward.

After he reached the nurse's station, a nurse was lying prone on the desk, sleeping. Sean woke her up and said, “My daughter has a fever. Please help her.”

The nurse was shocked when she saw Sean, and asked him, “Have you taken her temperature?”

Sean shook his head. The nurse quickly took out the thermometer to take Cindy's temperature.

Cindy opened her eyes. She looked weak and pale, and her lips were a little dry.

“Dad...”

Her voice was almost inaudible. Sean's heart seemed to be penetrated by a sharp sword.

“Cindy, you are... awake?”

“Dad, it hurts.” Cindy sounded aggrieved.

“Mr. Smith, the wound on the child's leg is serious. After being stitched, it would usually hurt.”

The nurse whispered. Sean put Cindy on the plastic bench, “Cindy, after it dawns, I will buy your favorite Black Forest cake. Bear with it, okay?”

“Dad, can you ask the doctor to check the wound for me?”

Cindy's tears rolled out, and she grabbed Sean's shirt with her little hands, “Where is mom?”

“Aren't mom coming to see me?”

She choked up and asked, “It hurts. I want mom. Can you ask mom to see me?”

Sean reached out and wiped the sweat from Cindy's forehead. Her eyes widened, but there was no light in her eyes.

"Dad, I'm so scared... I'm uncomfortable. Will I die?"

Sean's pupils contracted violently. He held her tightly, "You won't!"

"You will be okay!"

Sean reassured Cindy, then asked the nurse to get his phone from the ward.

Only Cindy and Sean were in the corridor of the hospital.

Sean took out the thermometer and took a look at it. 39.3 degrees centigrade!

The nurse came back. Sean took the phone and called the dean.

Five minutes later, Cindy's attending doctor hurried over, and checked Cindy.

"How is she?"

"Her wound is infected." The doctor paused, and continued, "Don't take her out before her wound is scabbed."

"It's dustier outside. Her infection was found in time. But next time, she won't be so lucky."

Sean said okay.

"Cindy said it hurts. Can you give her a pain killer injection!"

He stood, looking at Cindy who was shivering on the hospital bed. There was obvious distress in his eyes.

"Mr. Smith... Your daughter can't have a pain killer injection."

Sean glanced at the doctor.

The doctor had a cold sweat on his forehead. He gritted his teeth and said in a low voice, "Mr. Smith, your daughter is allergic to pain killer injection. Mrs. Smith specifically mentioned it to us."

"The indwelling needle in her was specially made up by us..."

Sean paused.

He was in poor health and was allergic to many drugs. In other words, he couldn't use most of the drugs on the market.

But he knew that Amber was not allergic to any drugs.

So Cindy's drug allergy was inherited from him?

Sean laughed suddenly with a bit of pain that was hard to ignore in his eyes.

He failed to give Cindy a good life but made her sick and suffer such unnecessary pain.

Sean kept silent, and the nurse pressed her lips and said in a low voice, "Mr. Smith, you heard what Miss Smith said just now. She has always been smart and sensible. She probably really misses her mother."

After hesitating, the nurse continued, "Why don't you call Mrs. Smith and ask her to see your daughter?"

Sean licked the corner of his lips.

Amber hated him.

How could she come and see Cindy?

As long as he was by Cindy's side, Amber would never show up.

After the nurse left, Sean hesitated, took out his phone and called Amber.

Chapter 429: Tell Her Cindy Wants to See You

Amber loved Cindy. What if she agreed?

Besides, Amber wouldn't fall out with him.

The Smith family was influential in Tong City. Amber was a smart person, knowing that falling out with him wouldn't do her any good.

after he dialed, a mechanical and indifferent female voice came, "Sorry, the subscriber you dialed can not be connected, please redial later."

A bad presentiment rose in his heart.

He called Amber a moment ago, but she couldn't be reached at this time.

Did Amber blacklist his phone number?

Sean didn't believe it. He strode to the nurse's desk, borrowed the nurse's phone and called Amber.

He stuffed the phone into the nurse's hands and whispered with gloomy eyes, "Tell her Cindy is crying and wants her to come."

Amber quickly answered the nurse's call.

The nurse was stressed and stammered over the words.

"Mrs.... Mrs. Smith, your daughter has a high fever. She has been crying and wants to see you. We can't calm her down. Can you come to the hospital and see her?"

The nurse turned on the hands-free, and Amber's indifferent voice came from the phone.

"Was it Sean who asked you to call me?"

The nurse looked at the man opposite. Sean nodded slightly.

There was no need to lie. There were so many patients in the hospital. The nurse didn't make calls for others but for Cindy?

No one would believe it even if the nurse lied.

"Yes..."

Amber smiled and said in a low voice, "Cindy is very sensible and won't keep crying. It hasn't dawned, and it's not safe for me to go out alone."

"When I have time, I will come to see Cindy."

After speaking, Amber hung up.

Sean stiffened all over, and he pressed his lips tightly.

Somehow, he suddenly thought of a thing.

After the opening ceremony of Luoshenwan, Amber stood in front of his car and told him Cindy wanted to see her dad and asked him to make time.

In the scorching summer, Sean was like being covered with ice.

[She is not my daughter. Why should I see her?]

With that, he hit Amber with the car, and left.

Sean had never thought that one day he would try his best to make Amber show up and see Cindy.

Maybe this was Amber's retaliation. Sean returned to the ward.

He didn't dare to be away for too long. Cindy's car accident had already cast a deep shadow on his mind.

He entered the ward. Cindy curled in the bed with a thin blanket on her. She was shivering and still crying.

Sean's heart seemed to be held by a pair of big hands. He froze in the center of the empty ward.

As long as he bowed his head and admitted defeat to Amber, saying that he didn't want the custody of Cindy. Amber would come back.

He knew that Amber had many ways to coax Cindy.

But he was not willing to give up Cindy's custody like this.

The man pressed his lips and sat down on the bed. He reached out and rubbed Cindy's head and whispered, "Cindy, stop crying."

"Your mom is afraid of the dark. She will come tomorrow."

Sean saw her red and swollen eyes.

Hearing Sean's words, Cindy raised her head, sobbed, and said, "Dad, you are lying."

Her voice was hoarse. It stabbed Sean's heart like a sharp knife.

"Mom is not afraid of the dark. When Cindy had a fever at night, she could buy medicine for me alone..."

Buy medicine alone?

If it was before, Sean would suspect that Cindy was taught by Amber to say these words.

But facing the sad appearance of Cindy, he had to believe it.

"Daddy, you and mom are getting a divorce... When you didn't come to see me, mom would say it was because you were busy, but... later I learned that it was because you didn't like me..."

"You told me mom was busy... Does it mean mom doesn't like me anymore?"

Cindy cried loudly.

Sean touched Cindy's little face and had to admit... It was not because Amber didn't like her but because she didn't like him.

At this moment, Sean took a deep breath.

"Cindy, can you stay in the ward by yourself?"

Cindy looked at Sean blankly. Sean pressed his lips tightly and said in a low voice, "I'll bring your mother here."

Cindy wiped her tears, nodded, and said, "Don't worry, dad. I will be brave."

Sean leaned over, dropped a kiss on Cindy's head, and left the hospital directly.

He was still wearing the loose and comfortable home clothes. He went downstairs and walked straight to the parking lot, without noticing Amber who was standing behind the greenery.

Amber paused.

After Sean called her, Amber felt very worried and took a taxi to the hospital.

It was not until Cindy had her injection that she was ready to leave.

As soon as she went downstairs, she saw Sean who also came downstairs.

Sean was dressed casually. Where was he going?

Amber paused and didn't move forward.

She suddenly sneered. Since he was gone, she could go up to see if how Cindy was.

She turned around and went straight upstairs.

In the corridor, the nurse who called Amber was still up. When she saw Amber, she was shocked, "Mrs. Smith?"

Amber smiled at her and went straight into Cindy's ward.

Cindy was having a drip and curling in the hospital bed with tear stains on her face.

Amber touched Cindy's face. Cindy had had a fever-reducing injection, and her fever went down.

Cindy lost a lot of weight in the hospital these days.

Cindy was originally thinner than kids of the same age. She looked even thinner at the moment.

Amber's eyes were suddenly filled with tears.

"Mom..."

Hearing this, Amber raised her head. Cindy had opened her eyes and was looking at her.

"Mom, did dad bring you here?"

Amber froze.

Sean came out in the middle of the night to get her here?

Amber thought that she could stay here with Cindy for a short while, but Xingyue Bay was not very close to the hospital. It would take Sean an hour to get there and come back by car.

Chapter 430: Why Hasn't Dad Come Back

0 4 minutes read

Amber rubbed Cindy's head and whispered, "Yeah."

"Why hasn't dad come back yet?"

"He is parking the car. Mom is here with you. You sleep."

Cindy nodded.

Amber sat on the edge of the hospital bed, and raised her head, looking at the infusion bottle.

With a fever, Cindy was in a low spirit, and soon fell asleep again.

Amber lifted the quilt and checked Cindy's wound. After making sure that there was no problem, she pressed her lips and felt relieved.

...

When Sean arrived at Xingyue Bay, half an hour had passed.

It was too late, and there was only a solitary street lamp at the gate of Xingyue Bay.

Sean got out of the car. The hot wind came, and the shadows of the trees shook.

He took out a key from his pocket.

Last time, he lied to Amber. He did not return the key to her. In fact, he wanted to have the key very much.

Amber had built a wall around her heart, and he couldn't break through it anyway.

His father took sides with Amber. If he fought Amber for Cindy's custody, he would not help him.

Sean walked directly to the gate. Sean looked at his indistinct shadow on the ground, and his heart seemed to be fried in the fire.

He put the key away, raised his hand and knocked on the door. There was no movement in the room.

Sean hesitated and waited a long time before opening the door with the key.

He turned on the light, and lowered his head to change shoes. Amber's slippers were neatly placed in the hallway.

Sean froze.

Amber was not at home?

He frowned and opened the shoe cabinet. He didn't know much about Amber's shoes, but he remembered the high heels Amber wore in the manor.

But that pair of shoes was not in the shoe cabinet.

Sean took a deep breath and walked in.

There was a snow-white sunscreen on the sofa, and a can of beer in the living room. Sean squeezed the can. It was empty.

Next to the beer can, there was a bowl of instant noodles, but it was not opened.

Amber probably only drank a can of beer last night without eating anything.

Sean didn't know what was wrong with him. He turned around and opened the door of Amber's bedroom.

The bed was a bit messy, but the light from outside was enough for Sean to see that Amber was not in the bed.

Sean didn't go in, but walked to the study.

There were many books on the bookshelf, and a notebook on the desk. Sean walked over and there was a document on the desk.

It was the divorce agreement.

Sean's heart contracted when he saw these two words.

He picked it up.

Its content was similar to that of the one Amber gave him.

The only difference was the time. It was printed three years ago.

Amber signed her name.

Her name seemed to be engraved on it.

The two words "Amber White" gripped his heart.

Sean didn't believe that Amber would give up the shares and money of the Smith family.

If it was all because of love, what he did three years ago was enough for Amber to let go.

The world was full of excellent people. Sean didn't think he was outstanding, and he never believed Amber's words.

He knew clearly that all Amber wanted was everything of the Smith family.

Sean's fingertips fell on an item.

After the divorce, the custody of the children shall belong to Party A.

Party A was him.

Three years ago, Amber wanted to divorce him and give Cindy to him.

Sean stood in the study and recalled what he was doing when Amber signed the divorce agreement.

At that time, he hated Amber for breaking him and Lin Man. He fooled around with other women in nightclubs, trying to change Amber's mind.

He suddenly laughed.

If he could be more reliable three years ago, he might have married Lin Man and had children with her.

To be honest, Amber thought of everyone in this divorce agreement, except for herself.

Sean's chest was like being blocked by stones.

What a selfless woman.

He began to hate Amber. Since she was so selfless, why did she force him to give her that huge wedding?

If she didn't force him, he wouldn't hate her. If she did that for Cindy, couldn't she adopt a gentle approach?

She was so smart. She must have plenty of ways to let him know that Cindy was his child.

Sean sat in the chair in the study.

He waited in the study for a long time, but Amber did not return.

He thought that Amber would probably not come back.

She was bent on divorcing him. He didn't know what trick she would play.

He didn't know if she would fool around in the bar every night and have scandals with different men to force him to give in.

Thinking of Amber holding other men's hands and nesting in their arms, he almost suffocated.

He touched his chest, and there seemed to be a huge hole on it.

The cold wind blew in, making him shiver in cold.

Sean picked up his phone and called Xu Lin.

At four o'clock in the morning, if there was any big news, the paparazzi would already put it on the internet.

"Check if there is any news related to Mrs. Smith on the internet."

Mrs. Smith?

"Mrs. Smith? Your mother?"

Xu Lin asked cautiously. Sean was speechless.

If it was not Xu Lin, he would think the person on the phone was making a fool of him.

"No, my wife. Amber!"

Xu Lin became even more confused. He was a little surprised, "Mr. Smith, isn't Director White getting a divorce with you?"

Sean didn't speak. Xu Lin, who was a little drowsy, instantly sobered up.

Xu Lin laughed awkwardly, and took the order from Sean immediately, "Mr. Smith, I'll check it right now."

Sean responded okay and then hung up.

Coming out of Xingyue Bay, Sean received Xu Lin's call. Xu Lin said, "Mr. Smith, there is no news about Director... Mrs. Smith."
