

Mr Smith 61

Chapter 61: He wanted her to atone, not die

0 5 minutes read

Sean Smith suddenly remembered what Lu Yi had said in his office.

“You forced her to have a c-section in the bathtub by herself!”

“You have no idea how terrible it is when a man is about to die — two lives! How cruel are you to blindfold yourself and harden your heart against her? “

The man’s gaze was ambiguous, and he rubbed his thumb and forefinger together, then he was thoughtful.

So, what Lu Yi said is not false?

So did Amber White deliver the baby by caesarean section in Smith’s bedroom bathtub three years ago?

Is this scar from that year?

When Sean Smith thought about this possibility, he felt a little uneasy. Although he hated Amber White for driving Man Man away and marrying him with a bastard. However, he just thought Amber White needs atonement, and atonement didn’t mean she has to die!

Women love beauty, if he had sent her to the hospital, maybe she would not have to caesarean section and there is no scar!

Amber White would have a scar that looks ugly, but she still gave birth to Cindy White, so he must really want the baby!

For Cindy White, she could even die!

He stroked his brow. Three years ago, he mistakenly thought that Amber White’s stomachache was her reason to keep him.

He took a deep breath, and his eyes seemed to linger on Amber White’s stomach. Amber White is always crafty, which is why he did what he did.

This woman has such a gift of gab. From the way she got his father’s help to join Smith’s, and from the way she was promoted to the position of marketing director, you can see that she is not easy to handle.

If he had brought her down to this, would she have accepted it?

Since Amber White is trying to trick Lu Yi into falling in love with her, this scene must be complete.

If it was true, why didn’t he hear anything?

Smith’s house was full of people of his mother. Would she not tell him what had happened?

After all, Amber White was chosen by her mother!

If she told him about it, it might ease the tension between him and Amber White.

Mother must know!

He pinched the brows. The scar may not have been left by cesarean section, appendectomy also requires an appendectomy.

And this perfect incision, even if Amber White knows how to do it, how does she do it with one hand?

She didn't have anything to stop the bleeding, she didn't have any tools, and she gave birth in the bathtub and she's still alive?

Is she a god?

He won't believe lu yi's story!

Sean Smith lost his blanket irritably.

If he believed Amber White, he was really falling for it!

He gave a cold snort and looked around at Amber White before settling on her body.

The reason for pulling the blanket was that Sean Smith was standing next to the bed and could clearly see Amber White.

He had just seen Amber White's scar, and his eyes had turned away to see what was wrong with her.

Amber White's dress had been torn from the driver and hung like a rag on her body. There were a few scrapes on her long, slender legs and a faint flush.

She was lying on the bed, her legs were not closed because of her posture, and her skirt could not hide the light emanating from her body.

The woman's legs were straight, the buttons of her shirt had been ripped off a few times, her messy shirt Outlined an attractive scene, and the line of her chest was more beautiful.

Her black and beautiful hair fell down on her chest and face covering the ferocious wound on her face, and she only showed a cherry mouth, which was rosy and shallow with a few wisps of tempting aftertaste.

This was when she's most attractive, he could not help exploring.

Sean Smith's brain whipped, and he got a fire going on inside his belly.

He froze.

His eyes were locked tightly around Amber White, and he suddenly remembered the way she looked in her suit when he and Amber Whit met several times before.

She wore a suit to accentuate her half-faded appearance.

Amber White, in particular, was already the mother of a three-year-old. She had the look of a grown woman and a stunning figure.

A man can not withstand such a temptation!

Sean Smith is no exception!

He felt only a slight warmth in his throat, and his eyes could hardly be moved from the body lying across the bed.

There was an air-conditioning auto-tune in his ear. Sean Smith snapped back and looked away.

He bit his lip unconsciously. The sting of the pain struck into the man's mind, and a flame shot out of Sean Smith's eyes.

Bitches are bitches. Whether she was sober or not, seduction was her instinct.

Sean Smith put his hand to his head. He thought it was ridiculous!

He pressed the corner of his lips, and he was depressed. Damn it!

He could feel it in her face, which was about to be beaten to pig head, either he's stupid or he hasn't had a woman for too long!

Sean Smith turned around, swore, and stalked out of the bedroom.

His hand touched the door of the second bedroom. He suddenly remembered Cindy White who was still lying downstairs.

He kicked the door angrily, strode down to the sofa, picked up Cindy White, and strode upstairs.

He's already done so many good things. Does he care about one more?

Sean Smith licked his lips. He didn't want to give them any reason to hang out with him!

He just didn't want to wake up in the morning and Amber White accused him of not taking care of her baby.

What if Amber White asked Amber to pay for something if Cindy White fell off the couch and hit her head?

He took Cindy White and turned off the light in the living room. He went upstairs and put Cindy White on the bed. Cindy White's little hand moved and took one of his fingers as he pulled away from her.

She uttered a soft, soothing whisper: "dad... "

When he entered the door, he did not turn on the light. The moonlight fell on Cindy White's small face through the window making her look more jade and lovely.

The tip of his brow moved, and the furrow between his brows hid something deep.

He pulled out the finger held by Cindy White with a deadpan expression and gave a cold snort.

She and Amber White are the same, as always, no one likes them!

Without hesitation, Sean Smith turned around, pushed open the door of the guest room, pulled out a clean robe, took a shower, and then went to bed full of fatigue.

Please Go Away, Mr Smith! – Chapter 62: Dad, are you awesome when you fight?

0 4 minutes read

When Sean Smith woke up again, it was daylight.

Even though he slept late last night, the biological clock he had developed over the years still made him open his eyes.

His head stung because he had stayed up late, and he stayed in bed for five minutes to get better before getting up to wash.

No sooner had he gone downstairs than he heard a noise coming from the kitchen. He paused, licked his lip, and reached up to button his sleeve.

Amber White woke up?

She was going to make him breakfast to thank him for saving his life last night?

Or was she going to stay a little longer at this house?

Sean Smith thinks the latter is more likely. After all, when he pulled Amber White out of the darkness yesterday, she was saying his name.

He thought for a moment and strode towards the kitchen. Bay champs-elysees was his personal domain, and now that she was awake, she should take her child out of his domain!

Or they would affect his mood!

As soon as he reached the kitchen door, he saw little figures bustling about inside.

Cindy White stood on a stool on the floor, leaned forward, and her hands poised on a plate of freshly prepared food.

Cindy White's long eyelashes shivered twice in the air, just like a butterfly's wings about to fly.

Her cherry pink mouth was tightly pressed, and he saw seriousness in her face.

She has the demeanor of Amber White and is very ingratiating!

He gave a cold shucks. Cindy White turned her head after hearing the voice and saw that it was him. Her eyes brightened and a layer of light came into her dark eyes.

"Daddy, you're awake!"

Sean Smith grunted and said, "I'm not like some people who sleep like pigs!"

Cindy White had no idea she was talking about her mother.

Cindy White came down from the stool with the plate of dishes. She tilted her head and whispered, "dad, I have made breakfast. Let's eat!"

He froze.

Last night, he was so angry with Cindy White that he refused to eat the rice cooked by her. By nine o'clock, he was so hungry that he had a stomachache.

He wrung brows, this is his home, why should he wronged himself?

His body loosened at the thought. He followed Cindy White to the table with her plate.

She bustled about and brought things to the table. He touched the bridge of his nose in a slightly embarrassed way.

A three-year-old girl who walked around the kitchen and table. Luckily, people didn't come here very often, otherwise, they think he was abusing Amber White's daughter.

He was stunned for only a moment. Cindy White had moved a stool to stand by his side. She took a spoon and gave him a bowl of well-boiled White fungus and lotus seed porridge.

Since Cindy White used up almost all the ingredients for cooking last night, there were not many things on the table. There were two Fried eggs with sugar hearts, one rice ball with shrimp and one egg cake.

It was simple. It was just the two of them.

He frowned and turned his eyes away. His eyes stared at Cindy White's face with scrutiny and suspicion.

Didn't she get up in the morning and go to his bedroom? She didn't know Amber White was here?

As the thought showed up, the gap between the man's brow deepened a little.

Why does it matter if she doesn't make Amber White breakfast? He wasn't hungry!

He pressed his lips, and then he held out his hand to stir the soup spoon in the bowl. The fragrance overflowed.

After Cindy White sat down beside him, she grabbed the chopsticks and put a rice ball on the empty plate in front of him. "dad, when did you get back last night? Did you carry me into the room?"

He held his peace as he delivered the rice ball to his mouth. The soft, glutinous rice aroma mixed with the umami of shrimp swept through his taste buds.

He couldn't find fault with a three-year-old's breakfast!

Sean Smith's face darkened for a moment, and there was silence at the table.

Cindy White didn't care if Sean Smith ignored her. She met her dad for the first time in three years, and even if he didn't talk to her, she couldn't stop her from trying to talk to Sean Smith!

On the wall opposite the dining room table were several pictures of Sean Smith in fencing and boxing matches, some of him accepting prizes, and one or two of him punching his opponent in the face.

Cindy White saw them at dinner last night. She pressed her lips together and looked at Sean Smith innocently, "Dad, are you awesome when you fight?"

Seeing Cindy White's eyes constantly looking up at the wall, he glanced at the pictures on the opposite wall.

Mrs. Chen put up these pictures. Bay champs elysees is located in a remote location, is a single-family villa, and there are no neighbors around, Mrs. Chen worried about the villa's security system is not safe enough to turn out these photos of his hanging in such a prominent position.

He scoffed.

Besides adding a little psychological security, what else could there be? He's not afraid!

He just didn't care, and he didn't think Cindy White would ask about the same thing twice.

He's always been cold, he'd laugh off questions like this, but now it's Amber White's daughter!

His eyes deepened involuntarily. He remembered the little fellow's admiration of his certificate last night, and he involuntarily replied, "isn't it great that you can still win awards?"

Then his head ached. Nothing else, because there was something ostentatious about it, and it didn't sound like him.

He tightened up. Is he neurotic? How could he answer a three-year-old's question like that?

But Cindy White didn't stop there. When he answered her question, she went on excitedly, "did dad learn boxing to fight bad people?"

Probably every child has a fairy tale about their father is omnipotent, and is an invincible hero.

There was impatience in Sean Smith's long, dark eyes. His voice dropped, and there was a chill in his muffled tone, "Hit people I don't like."

A few words stopped Cindy White.

Chapter 63: Dad, don't hit Cindy

0 4 minutes read

There was a flicker of guilty conscience in her round eyes, and her rosy lips were tightly pressed together. Suddenly, she remembered that she had screwed up the picture of her father and Lin man into a ball and lost it.

Cindy White is a little scared when she thought of that.

Dad... He's not hit her for a picture, is he?

The kid looked at Sean Smith and thought with a shudder.

She subconsciously grabbed an omelet for him, and carefully asked, "dad, breakfast is good?"

Sean Smith gave Cindy White a glimpse.

He looked down at the pie she had picked up, and he frowned.

He was a severe case of neatophobia, and she used the used chopsticks to pick something for him. His face did not show it, but there was a gleam of disgust in his dark eyes.

Admittedly, she made a good breakfast, but why should he praise Amber White's daughter?

Isn't it enough to clean up their mess?

Hum! He didn't see them praising him!

And Amber White is a ungrateful woman. She humiliated him in the hospital last night.

He took a bite of the cake unconsciously. Finely chopped green peppers perfectly mask the egg smell and the soft broccoli inside, and he didn't expect the humble pie to taste so good especially with porridge.

When Cindy White saw Sean Smith take a bite, she leaned over with her furry head and asked, "how's it going, dad? Is it good?"

He was unprepared. When Cindy White's face was suddenly close to him, his handsome face suddenly drew and he let out a cold snort.

Cindy White was upset by Sean Smith's reaction. She grabbed a rice ball and took a bite. She blinked her eyelashes and looked at Sean Smith in confusion.

It's delicious!

Doesn't dad like shrimp and eggs?

Why do mom and dad react differently? After mom ate her breakfast, she would not only give her a kiss, but also praise her, but dad...

"Daddy, don't you like my breakfast?"

Cindy White asked again. Sean Smith: Amber White's daughter is so annoying. She can ask you a hundred different questions. It was obvious that he would not answer, and she would keep on asking.

Cindy White asked again. Sean Smith felt that Amber White's daughter was so annoying. She can ask you a question with a hundred different ways. It was obvious that she would keep on asking if he would not answer.

He disdained to lie, and could not reconcile himself to their complacency. He had to nod and give an ambiguous answer: "almost."

Cindy White was hiding something, so she just saw that Sean Smith nodded and ignored the last part of the sentence.

She bit her lower lip and asked seriously, "if it's delicious, dad, can you promise me something?"

He sneered, and when she asked for his answer, she wanted him to promise something else!

What does a three-year-old know?

She's going to ask him for a commitment. She must have been taught by Amber White.

He was helpless, "what is it?"

Cindy White put her finger to the right, then lowered her head and whispered, "I am young and ignorant. If I do something wrong, you must not hit me."

Every now and then, as she spoke, she looked up at him as if she feared he would not consent.

Sean Smith pinched his eyebrows. That's it?

He touched his chin. She wasn't scared by his trophy photographs, was she?

Does he look like he can punch a kid?

He smiled. Not only can he not punch a child, but he can't punch a woman! Otherwise, he would have beaten Amber White to death when she drove away Man man.

Ridiculous!

But since Cindy White has so many questions, Sean Smith thinks it's better to make her afraid of him than to keep asking questions!

He didn't have the time to talk about it.

He glanced at her and said, "it depends."

He sat at the head of the table, his back to the sun, his eyes pressed down by their long lashes, and he could not see the mood in them. From Cindy White's point of view, it seems that he is not very happy.

he little fellow's lips moved, and at last she said nothing.

When Sean Smith was looking at Cindy White, he caught a glimpse of the porridge in Cindy White's bowl.

He pressed his forehead and said, "eat quickly. Nanny Chen will take you to school later!"

He pretended to pull out his cell phone. "Daddy, it's Saturday and I don't have to go to school!" Cindy White looked into Sean Smith's face and stammered, "and... "

He put down his cell phone and tapped the desktop twice.

He remembered last night that it was Saturday, and he slept it off. It was because of them that he forgot.

He drank all the porridge in the bowl and then looked at Cindy White and asked, "and what?"

"Dad, yesterday wasn't resolved. The teacher told me that if my parents don't go to school on Monday, I won't go to school at all."

Cindy White was worried that Sean Smith had not promised not to hit her. She was afraid that he thought she was not a good child. She wrung her little White hands unconsciously and slowly said what the teacher said.

The wound on her head is still looking particularly aggrieved and pitiful.

He muttered a curse.

Fuck!

What does she mean?

She's going to let him meet her teacher at school?

Is Amber White mentally retarded? She sent her to a school like this?

She's only three. She did something wrong and they accepted responsibility. That she wouldn't be allowed to go to school?

The anger in his heart was fierce.

For a moment it occurred to him that she was not his child, and why should he think of himself as her father for her words?

Why should he worry about the kid now that he's found Amber White?

Amber White just passed out, not dead. Why don't she send Cindy White to school on Monday?

Even if she can't go to school, it's Amber White's headache. What does that have to do with him?

Before Sean Smith could open his mouth, the phone on the table rang. He was distracted and glanced at the screen.

Chapter 64: You're gonna stay home and take care of your daughter?

0 4 minutes read

It's Gu jin yan.

It was still early. He couldn't have called him for breakfast, could he?

Sean Smith picked up his cell phone and answered, "what's wrong?"

There was a faint sleepiness in his voice, "Sean, I've called, 'Ye Se' is open tonight, you have to go out drinking with me today!"

Sean Smith had a little bump on his forehead. That's all he did!

When he came to his house, he would open a bottle of wine.

"Isn't it only open at night? Gu jin yan, you mentioned drinking as soon as you opened your eyes, why don't you drink it to death! I have something to do today. Don't bother me!"

He said unhappily, "it opens early on weekends. You get married and still live alone. What can you do? Oh, I forgot you were a father! You're going to stay home and take care of your daughter?"

At the end of the speech, Gu jin yan began to ridicule.

In the end, her tone turned to ridicule.

When he finished, Sean couldn't help looking at Cindy White sitting next to him.

His daughter? He didn't remember when he had sex with Amber White. Cindy White is a bastard!

"A filthy mouth can't utter decent language."

Sean Smith scolded him without mercy.

Friendship between men always mixed with curse words, so Gu jin yan will not be angry. He added, "Sean Smith, if you really want to take your daughter with you, I'll go to your house for a drink. I'll be a free laborer for you and a diversion for your daughter."

Shit!!!

Sean Smith yelled, "Stop yapping! Wait for me at your place!"

He just wants to drink.

He said and hung up the phone. If he really doesn't keep the appointment, Gu jin yan will come to his house and he will see Cindy White. How humiliating must he be?

Sean Smith looked at Cindy White, who is a little upset. A three-year-old child can't hide things in her eyes. He only looked at Cindy White and knew that she was worried about to call her parents.

When Cindy White saw Sean Smith's face, he wasn't very happy. "dad, I didn't mean to hit him. He scolded me first and then pushed me..."

Sean Smith said, "come on, your mom won't let you miss school. She's definitely going to drop you off on Monday!"

Sean Smith didn't want to talk to Cindy White because he had promised to drink. He went upstairs and got the car keys.

By the time he came down, Cindy White had already cleaned up the mess on the table.

When she saw him coming down, she ran over to Sean Smith and grabbed his pants.

"Dad, did you find mom when you said mom would take me to school on Monday?"

Sean Smith pinched his eyebrows. He leaned half down, grabbed his pants, and pulled the fabric out of Cindy White's hand.

The girl's grip on his clothes was so strong that it left a shallow crease in his well-made trousers.

His eyes were dark. Cindy White was about to grab it again, but when she saw Sean Smith, she was scared and pulled her hand away.

When Sean Smith saw that she wasn't grabbing, he sneered and said, "Yes."

Cindy White's eyes were bright and she whispered, "where is mom now? I haven't seen my mother for a long time. I want to see her."

Where is she?

Sean Smith licked his lips. The bitch was in the bedroom on the second floor.

“In the bedroom... “

Sean Smith stuck on the last word and stunned.

He vaguely remembers the name that the doctors and nurses at the hospital had pinned on him after he rescued Amber Whiter from the taxi driver and took her to the hospital last night.

Abuse of his wife!

Their conversation was in his ear, and the doctor, in particular, analyzed it as if he had really punched Amber White.

“Dad?”

Cindy White called again. Sean Smith hung his head. His eyes seemed to be frost, then Cindy White felt chilly.

Sean Smith said impatiently, “what for?”

Cindy White was aggrieved. Even though she is young, she can realize that Sean Smith doesn't like her very much.

Her lips moved and she did not speak, but her eyes, like black grapes, looked straight at him.

That's why he didn't like children. They had to have answers.

The scar on Amber White's body flashed through his mind, his brow furrowed.

Although Amber White's injuries have nothing to do with him, he can't help what's on other people's minds.

What if Cindy White sees Amber's injury and thinks it's him?

He glanced at Cindy White again. She loved her mother so much that she might want to fight with him if she saw her mother's appearance.

Why should he bore himself by telling her?

He might as well wait until Amber White wakes up and let her explain to Cindy White herself.

Amber White is a good liar. She has a way of reassuring Cindy White.

He's just too lazy to waste his mind!

He pinched his eyebrows, then pointed irritably to the living room sofa and said: “you stay here, and your mother will come to pick you up in two hours!”

Then he fastened the top button of his shirt and went to the door of the villa.

When Cindy White heard what he said, a pure smile flashed across her face, radiating a glowing light in the dark room.

He stood in the porch and changed his shoes. When he caught Cindy White's smile out of the corner of his eye, he paused for a moment.

Is she so happy that Amber White is picking her up?

Cindy White did not know what Sean Smith was thinking. She followed Sean Smith to the porch with short legs and a dazzling smile. "where's dad going now?" she said. "Is daddy going to pick up mommy now?"

When Cindy White asked, Sean Smith just changed his shoes and laughed.

He's picking up Amber White?

Cindy White is not crazy, is she?

Does he look like loving Amber White very much?

Instead of answering Cindy White, he opened the door, wanted to the garage to pick up his car and have a drink with Gu jinyan.

He was about to leave when Cindy White came after him.

"Dad, xiao pang, my deskmate, said that his father takes his mother to work every day. Dad, is my mother still working overtime in the company? Dad, are you doting on mom now? "

Sean Smith froze.

Chapter 65 He loves Amber White?

He loves Amber White? Did he get kicked in the head by a donkey?

The bitch ruined his love when she eluded Man man to become Mrs. Smith. She's so calculating that such a bitch deserves to be pampered?

He turned his back to Cindy White. He looked like a dark cloud in the sky.

Who is xiao pang?

Why is her classmate so weird? He doesn't study hard and talk about his parents' affairs at school every day?

He is as annoying as Cindy White!

Sean Smith remembers telling Cindy White at the dinner table last night that Amber White doesn't need to work overtime.

He did not know whether she had really forgotten or was acting stupid!

Either way, Cindy White managed to make Sean Smith feel depressed!

He suddenly turned around, strode to the table, reached out to the garbage bin out of the garbage, and said, "I go out to throw garbage."

Sean Smith never did that.

He has a cleanliness, hired nanny Chen to clean every day, and he rarely eat in the villa, so the garbage is not much!

Cindy White not only cooked dinner last night, but also Sean Smith got angry and threw nanny Chen out. Nanny Chen was in a hurry and didn't take any garbage with her.

Sean Smith felt sick when he picked up trash!

Damn it.

If it weren't for Amber and Cindy White, would he be taking out the trash?

When Sean Smith came back from taking out the trash, Cindy White was sitting on the couch in the living room and reading a children's story book.

Hearing the noise, Cindy White looked at Sean Smith. Her delicate features make her look like a little angel, but Cindy White's injury is too serious, which destroys her beauty.

Sean Smith pinched his eyebrows. The medicine on her head was the same one he had given her the night. It's time for a change.

Sensing that he's worried about Amber White's daughter, Sean Smith sniffs that he's being nosy.

Why should he care about Cindy White when he found Amber White? Amber White won't leave her when she wakes up anyway!

Sean Smith dimly withdrew his eyes as if he had never seen Cindy White's, and went straight up the stairs.

With the papers still unfinished, he went upstairs to his study.

As soon as he opened the computer, his eyes fell on the dustbin in the study.

Sean Smith's eyebrows skipped. Everything in the trash can looked like a picture.

His study was so clean that there was only one picture in the trash can.

Sean Smith strode forward and bent down to pick up the picture from the trash can.

The whole picture was crumpled and ripped apart where the two men were next to each other.

The woman's face was painted with markers, and even his face had been rubbed out of shape.

Sean Smith was stunned, and a palpable anger rose in his eyes.

Shouldn't this picture be on the head of the bed in his bedroom? Why is it in the study?

He recalled that he had been distracted by Amber White when he dropped her into his bedroom last night, so he hadn't noticed something was missing.

The veins in his hand were bulging.

When he left the Hai Wan Xiang Xie last night, Cindy White was the only one left in the house. He knew who did it.

He held the photograph tightly, and his anger could not be contained in any way. He stood still for a few minutes, the curtains of his study open, and the sun came through the window, but it did not warm him in the summer.

He strode out of the study door, strode down the stairs, walked to the sofa, and stood beside Cindy White.

Cindy White just saw something interesting in the book. She noticed that her body was covered with shadows. She looked up her little face and looked up.

The smile on her lips was like melting sugar, sweet and soft.

“Dad..... “

Sean Smith crouched down and snapped the photo on the coffee table with all his strength.

The voice was dull and loud. The smile faded from Cindy White’s face.

Sean Smith’s throat seemed to have a piece of ice in it, which was so cold that Cindy White felt afraid.

She looked at Sean Smith sheepishly. She wondered how he had seen the picture.

Last night, she apparently threw the photo into the trash can in her father’s bedroom and then picked it up and took it to the study.

The dustbin in the study was so clean that she could tell that her father did not often go to that room.

Cindy White was smart enough to think that nanny Chen would come and take away the trash...

She didn’t want to see pictures of dad with other aunts. Xiao pang said his father would not be ambiguous with other aunts.

Although she didn’t know what ambiguous meant.

Cindy White’s silence completely ignited Sean Smith’s anger.

It just occurred to him that at breakfast Cindy White said she was too young to hit her if she made a mistake. It’s not like he’s got a hole in his head. How could he not know what’s going on?

He really felt like a fool. At that time, he still felt pity for Cindy White and thought that she was frightened by his award and certificate.

It turned out that she was worried that he would hit her if the picture came out.

He bit into the back socket, grinding the words in his throat for a few minutes before slowly spitting out two words, “speak!”

She had stood before his bed the night before, admiring Man man’s beauty and asking him to introduce her to her.

The child did such a thing at such a young age.

He wouldn't have believed it if Amber White didn't give her advice!

He just hated himself for trusting Cindy White so easily that he forgot she was Amber White's daughter.

Amber White hates man man, and Cindy White certainly doesn't like her.

Amber White is the daughter of Amber White. She has a vicious mind at a young age. She tore up the photo of him with man man and knew to destroy it.

If it were not for someone in his bedroom, he might not have gone to the study. If he had not gone to the study, he might not have known about it today!

Cindy's little body shook, and fear grew in her eyes. It was only when she saw her father's eyes, which almost burst with fire, that she realized that she was really making him angry.

Chapter 66: Dad, please don't hit me!

0 4 minutes read

He's just because of a picture that he didn't take with her mom.

Amber White is not here, so Cindy White's eyes are red immediately. A thin mist hung over her large watery eyes.

"Dad, I tore up the picture of you and aunt Lin man... "

Sean Smith sneered and took Cindy White's small arm. It hurts.

"You learned to lie at a young age? That's all you learn in childcare?"

Sean Smith was angry and his face was cold and calm. Cindy White's body was shaking and her tears fell down.

Her eyes were full of fear.

Sean Smith was angry by Cindy White. At this time, he is the most aggrieved.

Now, she's crying?

Like Amber White, she's cunning and pathetic!

In the bedroom,

Amber White's consciousness was blurrily blurred, but she still thought of Cindy White. She slept uneasily and woke up in a daze. She opened her eyes and paused when she saw the gray ceiling.

Before she knew where she was, Amber White heard Cindy White crying.

Amber White got dressed and went to the bedroom door.

As soon as she went out, she heard Cindy White crying out for mercy, "Dad, please don't hit me!"

Her voice was so pathetic, she forced herself not to cry, and every word she said trembled. Amber White knew she was frightened.

“Cindy!” Amber White blurted out.

As she stumbled down the stairs, she saw Sean Smith holding up his hand. From Amber White’s point of view, he was ready to hit Cindy White.

Cindy White was facing Amber White. There were some scars on her forehead, and some dried up blood, which occupies her whole forehead.

Amber White was shocked. Over the past three years, she has taken care of Cindy White and seldom made her hurt. However, when she suddenly saw that her injuries were so serious, Amber White’s heart seemed to be broken in two.

How much does it hurt Cindy?

She loves her because Cindy White is premature. Her physical quality is not as strong as that of other children. She loves her for fear that she will be injured.

Now someone had left such a serious scar on her face!

Amber White’s pupils contracted when she saw Sean Smith’s uplifted hand and shouted, “Sean Smith! What are you going to do? “

Amber White felt weak, but she lunged at Sean Smith and wrapped her arms around his raised hand. She stared at him as if she could fight him if he made a move.

Sean Smith didn’t expect Amber White to wake up at this time, and he didn’t expect Amber White to jump into his arms.

She was still wearing the ragged clothes that the driver had torn up yesterday, which showed her body. A strong fragrance came from her, and Sean Smith’s consciousness was shocked.

He felt Amber White was familiar. It gave him a sense of familiarity.

But such awareness is fleeting.

Sean Smith, on the other hand, was outraged by the emotion in Amber White’s eyes.

The woman looked at him as if she were going to kill him!

Did he go out of his way to save her twice yesterday just to wake her up and face him with that horrible look?

Sean Smith throws Amber White out with an angry wave of his hand as a thick chill coats his long eyelashes.

The woman was so defenseless and exhausted that she fell down and hit her wrist heavily on the cold ground. The sharp pain spread from her wrist to Amber White’s limbs.

Her face went suddenly pale.

Sean Smith was surprised to find Amber White so vulnerable. He knew Amber White hasn't eaten in a while, and his face froze for a moment.

He turned his head and caught a glimpse of the picture on the coffee table.

That woman has always liked to cheat him!

Who knows if she was too weak, or if she did it on purpose?

Before Sean Smith could figure it out, Amber White pulled herself up off the floor. Amber White's dignity has been shattered since Sean Smith started hanging out with Linman.

But a person to protect their self-esteem and personality is instinct.

In the presence of some people this kind of subconscious behavior is always done by accident. Even Amber White is no exception.

Sean Smith frowned. He was just wondering if she was faking it when she got up.

Amber White really likes Cindy White. So that she's started doing this.

Amber White took a small step in Cindy White's direction. When Cindy White saw her approaching, she held Amber White's hand and said, "mom!"

Amber White is heartbroken.

Cindy White is a brave child. She is so frightened now and the man is the father she has always wanted to see. Amber White can't imagine what Sean Smith did!

Amber White looked down at Cindy White and looked at the cut on the baby's forehead. She ground her teeth and looked back at Sean Smith, "Mr. Smith, shouldn't you explain to me why my daughter is with you?"

Sean Smith sneered angrily.

The bitch ordered her daughter to tear up the photo of him and Man man, and kept silent about his help. The first thing she did when she woke up was to ask him about his sin!

Did she really think that with blood cancer, he would be really afraid of her?

"Director White, you filled out her father's contact information. I forgot all about it and went to pick her up. Was I wrong?"

Amber White, who was at the scene last night when she was almost killed by the driver because she was worried Cindy. And Sean Smith, who was also there.

He was so upset about Lin man's leaving three years ago that he thought Cindy White was Amber White's bastard with others.

She can still remember what happened eleven years ago. But it wasn't until today that she realized that Sean Smith had changed. His mind might be as small as a pin someday. He would even get angry with Cindy for those things that are not true!

Her lips quivered, she braced herself, her eyes locked in her face, and she asked, “so you were at the hospital last night watching me worry about not finding Cindy? And watching me get into that driver’s car!”

Chapter 67: Mommy, Are You Quarreling With Daddy?

0 5 minutes read

“Sean Smith, tell me, what are you planning?!”

Sean was silent for a moment.

The air was thin and separated into two halves by the dim light in the room, making it difficult for Amber to breathe.

Sean’s silence made the heart of Amber cold.

In the hot summer days, she would be able to keep shaking because of Sean’s silence.

“Why, want to see my misery? Hate me? Want me to die? Then why were you going to save me?!”

Sean was angry because of Amber’s words. He was equivalent to staying up all night, and his head was like a computer that crashed at this moment. He couldn’t say a word when he was angry.

He can only look at Amber with an indifferent look, and let the woman’s heart cold.

“Mommy, are you quarreling with Daddy?”

Behind Amber’s body, a soft voice sounded, and the woman’s body suddenly stiffed and turned back.

For so many years, she had been making a lie to Cindy, telling her that she and Sean were in love. Now Cindy’s question made her dare not to answer it.

Cindy was only three years old. Although her family was so broken, how could she let her know?

Amber compressed the lips and looked at the big eyes of Cindy, who still shed tears. She subconsciously denied: “Of course not, my spirit is not so good, so the attitude is not good...”

Cindy seemed to understand and nodded. She looked at Sean with a little fear.

Despite the lack of spirit, but when she faced the matter about Cindy, Amber did not want to be careless, she held Cindy and whispered: “You go upstairs, mommy and daddy have something to discuss, it’s weekend, you should have homework. Go ahead and do it, ok?”

Cindy nodded. She held the story book and walked around the coffee table, then she lowered her furry head and went upstairs.

Amber looked at Cindy’s action, actually, Cindy did not need to detour. She went straight and turned a corner, then the stairs were in front of her, but, Sean was standing in front of her.

Amber even didn’t dare to think about it, what did Sean do in the end, and even Cindy was so fearful to him!

She closed her eyes, and her mind flashed through the wounds of Cindy, and her heart hurt.

If she had some precautions against Tang Tian on the day of the celebration, and she was not trapped in Ye Se, wouldn't her baby be so badly hurt?

Amber did not speak, she had been paying attention to Cindy, so she did not find it at all that Sean walked towards front of the coffee table, and extended a big hand to pinch the photo which was on the table.

The haze of the eyes were layered, and the smoke of the emotions was covered through his eyes, which was reflected into a broken light.

Amber White was really good!

She knew that she should strike first to gain the initiative, and made troubles for him!

No matter how long it took, he felt that she was a woman who was so annoying!

A sound of closing door came from upstairs and Amber finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Sean's lips moved, and the eyes were slightly raised, and the tone was mocking.

"Director White, is it right for you to explain to me, when did I become this bastard's father? Your daughter call me Daddy so familiar, did I teach her that when I midnight sleepwalking?"

Amber did not eat anything for a long time. When she just woke up, she did not feel hungry, until Cindy went upstairs, then she reacted that the stomach was empty, a burst of pain made brain lack of oxygen.

Sean's ironic words made Amber sneer, but this sneer was too weak, and it sounded that didn't have much power!

She pressed the butterfly-like long eyelashes slightly, and the lips were pale to the extreme.

Sean went on to say, "What, couldn't you think that I would admit the bastard that you born with another man after get married?"

"You have a good plan, but Director White, I remind you, the condition to let you marry me is to let you give me the bone marrow in case of any danger! Instead of letting you casually give birth a bastard to divide my property!"

Amber's eyebrows were tightly twisted and saying: "Sean Smith, don't be excessive! If I had this idea, I had came up with this condition as early as three years ago! Do you think anyone cares about your money?"

Don't care about his money? Bearing the burden of humiliation and marrying him, was it because she loves him?

Sean sneered with deep disdain, because the man laughed out the sound, Amber could not help but had a heart contraction again!

"Tell me, why was Cindy so badly hurt, and does the injury on her have anything to do with you?"

When Amber's words were finished, Sean subconsciously twisted his eyebrows.

This was the first time that Sean insulted Cindy was a bastard in front of Amber, and she had no rebuttal.

It seemed that Amber would deal with matters and kept a sense of proportion about all this.

Sean wanted to deny, but the palm of his hand was full of photos' silky touches. It was such a bastard, and only bitch liked Amber could teach her and loved her dearly.

Oh, yes, he didn't know how long Amber White's love for Cindy lasted, and how much interests was included.

"A bastard, eating and drinking my food in my place, but was not obedient, tampering with my things, can't I give her a lesson?"

Sean rolled up the sleeves on the white lining, and the eyes became more and more distant and deep.

His sentence was to default his behavior for Amber! He defaulted that he hurt Cindy! The wounds on Cindy were all left by him!

Cindy's brain roared and blurted out: "Sean Smith, Cindy is only three years old! What does she know? How can you do this? And, every day, you describe her as bastard, you are a person! Can't you do a correct thing that human do?"

This was the first time that Amber wasn't calm.

Sean suddenly stood up from the sofa, and the eyes seemed to carry the ice, turning into a sharp-edge knife, and cutting the heart of the Amber.

He strode to the side of Amber, a pair of iron palms tightly locked Amber's arm, the sound was cold and suppressed to the extreme low: "Tell me clearly, what do you mean by these few words?"

Amber White dared to imply and insult that he wasn't a human?

He went to the police station and was ridiculed. He came back to deal with the wounds of the bastard, and saved Amber White back. Then he sent the bastard to the room!

He thought that he had enough patience with Cindy!

What did Cindy give him?

She made him confused, so that he can't tell what she really thought for a moment. She praised Manman, but what she gave him was to tear the only photo left by Man Man.

He wasn't angry, but why the bitch Amber White dare to accuse him here?

Chapter 68: You Don't Have To Say That And I Will Leave Here

0 5 minutes read

Why? !

Amber tried to withdraw her arm, but the strength between men and women was naturally disparate. Her movements were nothing for Sean.

She loved Cindy dearly and said angrily: "Am I wrong? Sean Smith, because I trapped you before, so you will do this kind of things to Cindy?! She doesn't know anything, when you beat her, don't you feel guilty at all?"

Amber stared at Sean angrily, she was very angry, and she thought about what happened after Sean took Cindy back.

She always felt that Sean always cared about things three years ago because he liked Lin Man.

He had no bad thoughts.

However, at this moment, she only knew how innocent she was!

Sean Smith was not Sean Smith 11 years ago, no longer the one whose kindness and hatred are clearly distinguished, even if he was facing a child, he can absolutely without consideration for others and treat Cindy like that.

For so many years, he was immersed in the rich family and Smith family, walking in the high-class society, and lived a wickedly sensual life, he had become the one who she could not recognize.

Amber was sad and desperate.

The distance between the two was very close, and Sean can clearly see her struggle and disappointment from the eyes of Amber.

Her eyes were very beautiful, but these beautiful eyes made his heart tight, so he said subconsciously:

"For so many years, Director White admitted finally, and you indeed deliberately trapped me before!"

Amber snorted.

As a mother, she must be strong. Just because of Cindy, when she looked at Sean, there's no fear, she was depressed in her heart.

In the past three years, she can bear all the suffer and sneer, but she can't bear that Sean Smith will treat Cindy like this. No matter what the reason, she can't forgive him!

Amber calmed herself down, pressed down her voice, and the thin breath spread on the face of Sean: "Is it important that it's me or not? Anyway, you have already determined that I have done this in your heart! Don't you?"

What Amber said, it seemed that he misunderstood her.

The sneer of Sean came out from his eyes, and he said, "Everyday you pretend that you are very innocent. Director White, are you not tired? I have known it three years ago what kind of person you are! Amber White, I won't be trapped by you again!"

"Take back your fake look, I am sick!"

The words of Sean were excessive, but in the past three years, the bad words heard by Amber had been the same thing.

She felt nothing after hearing it always except feeling boring.

Amber gradually did not care how others think about herself. At first, she thought that at least Sean was different, but now, she didn't know if she was too disappointed, or because of anything else.

In her mind, Sean had been the same as others!

She blinked, and the two were close, Sean could even see her eyelashes with distinct roots and tremors.

This level of bad words, in Amber's heart, were nothing.

She can bear everything, and all kind of grievances, but only Cindy, she couldn't involve in it.

Amber calmed down for a while, and her mind was a little clear. She pressed her anger and looked at Sean, then she asked: "You think that Cindy is not your child, so you treated her like this?! Even she was only three years old!"

In the black eyes of Amber, a layer of warm light was reflected, and Sean was deeply irritated.

He slammed the hand of Amber, and the strength of Sean was not small. Amber's body shook and her calf slammed into the sofa. This collision happened to hit the place where the calf was scratched last night.

The pain on her calf was like being hurt by the pins, made Amber involuntarily take a deep breath.

She blinked and her face was so pale.

After hearing her sighing voice, Sean looked back and looked at the woman's pale face and grinned.

This was Amber White!

When he rushed to the mountains to save the Amber last night, she was beat like that, and she did not make any noise at all. In front of him, she was like a porcelain doll, and she could not be touched!

Three years ago, she tried her best to become his wife, not he begged her to be Mrs. Smith!

Now she thought that he should be guilty, did not Amber White feel ridiculous?

"Of course, a bastard! I can do what I want to do!" Sean's fingers tightened, and he did not feel relax. He sneered and said: "Three years ago, I was kind to let her be born! Director White, I advise you, if you don't want me to treat that bastard like this, don't let her appear in front of me!"

Sean swang the arm which just touched Amber, as if there was something dirty on his arm.

It seemed that Amber did not see his action, all her thoughts, all stayed in the first half of the words of Sean.

"A bastard! I can do what I want to do!"

She pressed her eyebrows, and the explanation that almost blurted out was taken back by his words. There were tears in Amber's eyes: "Sean Smith, one day, you will regret!"

"I will regret it?!" Sean sneered. His eyes slammed over and landed on Amber's body, replying her with every word was cold: "Then tell me, how can I do that I won't regret it? Should I love that bastard dearly? Holding her on the palm of my hand? Trying my best to do a father's obligation to her?"

“A bastard that you can’t figure out about her father, then you wanted to let me accept her! If I admit, is it that I have to admit everyone in the street that claimed to be my child?”

Sean single-handedly picked up the story book of Cindy on the coffee table, and threw it into the arms of Amber, pointing to the door, and said coldly: “Pack your things, and get out!”

He was a damn idiot, so he would be kind enough to manage the life and death of Cindy and Amber.

One entered his house, tore his photo, and the other one nearly wanted to fight with him after waking up!

Three years ago, he was trapped by Amber. Maybe it was not pain enough so that he gave Amber a second chance!

Amber’s face was very pale, but she just sneered, picking up the story book on the ground, straightening up the waist, and saying coldly, “You don’t need to say that, I will leave here!”

She said, and walked away to the position of the stairs.

No matter what she said, what she did, Sean did not believe that Cindy was his daughter. Every time he said that Cindy was a bastard, it was like using a knife carving on her heart!

Amber’s heart seemed to have been crushed with a pound of stone, so that she can not say a word at all!

She didn’t know why would Sean be like this, and he would involve a three-year-old child in because of personal grievances.

Chapter 69:There’s some spicy news about you on Weibo

0 4 minutes read

Amber suddenly glanced sideways at Sean the minute when she climbed a step, then she said to him in a very cold tone:“Sean Smith, I’m so disappointed in you!” after that, she went upstairs to find Cindy and took her hands:“let’s go home!”

Cindy was just a kid, she was dragged forward by Amber to go downstairs.

“Mommy, where are we going? My daddy’s here, isn’t this our home?” Cindy’s voice was so soft and sweet, but as for Amber, it was like a pair of big hands wringing tightly her heart. Cindy had been longing for daddy kind of love since the moment when she knew the meaning of the word ‘father’. it’s something Amber couldn’t offer! But Amber never thought Cindy would still aspire for Sean’s love even if he hurted her again and again. At the thought of this, Amber’s dangling arms trembled a bit there, her eyes instantly filled with tears.

From the second Sean hit Cindy, he had already lost the qualification to be Cindy’s dad.

Amber took a deep breath, her heart as if to be split by the pain, at this moment, she even was unwilling to say a word about Sean Smith in front of Cindy! She felt desperately disappointed!

Amber didn't answer Cindy's question, when they came downstairs, Cindy suddenly struggled off Amber's hands and ran towards Sean.

"Daddy, did you have a quarrel with mommy?"

Sean then cold humed a voice. He specially brought back this little bastard from XingYue Wan yesterday in case Amber would think he failed to take good care of her daughter, but now he finally understood that this bad woman would always blame everything on him. The c-section happened three years ago and the wounds Cindy got now were all good examples. The woman only wanted to get even with him for the thing he drove away Manman three years ago! But as long as he still got the life, he would never let it happen!

Cindy didn't know what was Sean thinking, she then reached her hands to pull Sean's big hand. "Daddy, mommy let me go back home with her, here's not our home, let's back to our home together, okay?"

Sean directly fell his sight on Cindy's cute face. Maybe it's because she still remembered she tore the picture, there's sense of terror in her eyes. The bruises on her head made people feel more heartrending.

Sean blinked his eyes. This little bastard was really bold, how could she come closer to me when I'm still in furious! Even Xu Lin dared not to do that!

But at the next second, Sean pulled off his hands. Director White always took this little bastard as precious, but he hadn't even touched her, how could Amber say he abused her? If they stayed closer, she probably might think he would do some bad things to this little bastard, well, that would be not good! At the thought of this, Sean smiled coldly without saying a word.

Hearing no answers from Sean, Cindy came closer to him while said with some sobs: "Daddy, are you still angry? Please don't be angry, okay...."

Amber thought at first that Cindy only wanted to say goodbye, but the little one said so many words all of a sudden, the worst thing was that she got no reactions from Sean. Cindy had always been a good behaved little girl. That's why Amber took her as precious. When did she let the little one feel so wronged like this? She then walked over with strides before Cindy finished her sentences and pulled her hands: "let's go!"

Amber didn't even take a look at Sean, instead she pulled her daughter to walk on the outside directly.

Cindy was forced to follow Amber's steps, actually the little one didn't want to leave her daddy so soon, after all, it's the first time she saw her daddy in person, although her daddy's a bit aggressive and didn't like her, but he's still her daddy, no kids would want to leave their parents.

After walking forward few steps, Cindy suddenly looked at Sean with a sweet smile while said: "daddy, when you're free, can you pick me up from school?"

Sean didn't answer the little one.

Amber had already pushed open the door, the smile on Cindy's face suddenly went stop, she just stood at the doorgate and said: "daddy, goodbye!"

The door was closed now.

Sean dazed there all of a sudden with a gloomy look.

The air even turned to be so quiet after the two people left, for a time, there's some lights flashing out from Sean's eyes.

After a while, Sean rubbed his fingers in a daze.

After a long quarreling with Amber, Sean felt a bit thirsty, he poured a cup of water and took a sip, at the next second, he suddenly remembered Amber's words. "Sean Smith, I'm so disappointed in you!" these words kept resounding in his mind for so long.

What did she mean after all!

Did she mean she had been blind the whole time for loving a wrong person?

En?

Hum! That woman only loved herself and the little bastard, how could she love others?

Everyday she put on this affectionate look, but whenever bad things happened, she would blame everything on others!

At the thought of this, Sean cold humed a voice. How could he be so bitchy to come between the thing of those two people! He knew clearly what kind of person she was, but he still came closer to that evil woman!

Suddenly, he felt a bit stuffy in the heart!

If he were not be so pity yesterday, there would not be so many problems coming!

Sean took a long breath and sat on the sofa with a very gloomy look.

All of a sudden, his phone was ringing, he took a glance at the screen. It's again from Gu Jinyan.

He then gnashed his teeth, for the first time, he felt Gu Jinyan's really bored, how could he do nothing a day except looking troubles for him!

He then picked up the phone and said in a cold tone: "You go to Night yourself, I felt a bit headache today, I need to rest at Hai Wan Xiang Xie!"

Gu Jinyan paused there for a while and added: "I'm not calling you for drinks, I just want to warn you that there's some spicy news about you on Weibo!"

Sean narrowed his eyes, wasn't that the normal thing happened everyday? after all, Bo had entertainment companies below, there's so many actors coming in and out everyday, those paparazzi would even take pictures when he picked up the car at underground garage so that they could make publicity stunts!

Chapter 70: See You On Monday

0 5 minutes read

The people in Tong city were so idle, and they liked to see a marital status that seemingly in harmony but actually at variance. It is possible that some people are waiting for him to become good to Amber. In order to make Amber White disgusting, he always chose to ignore this kind of thing.

After the media tasted the sweetness, they would be natural to take pictures of him secretly and started a rumour, and enjoyed it!

That was not strange at all.

Upon hearing this news, Sean was not interested in that and he held cup and whispered, "Oh, what kind of young model did I date with this time? How did the photo, if it is fascinating, I will let Smith group to make a few newspapers and earn some money for shopping!"

Gu Jinyan was unable to speak for a long time because of Sean's words.

In fact, he really admired Sean's thought, it seemed that if he didn't rumor with some stars, he would be ill seriously!

He was even mad, he wanted to own money from him own!

He was simply crazy!

Gu Jinyan had some unspoken criticism, but in the end he did not forget why he would come here.

"I didn't make a joke with you, it was TINA disclosed it." When he came to this, Gu Jinyan paused, his lips slightly rising, with a bit of gentle meaning: "Sean, you should not forget TINA, right!"

Sean's fingers were holding of the cup tightly, Gu Jinyan was correct.

This TINA really made him impressive.

Sean picked up his eyebrows and directly hung up the phone, strode upstairs and entered the study room again.

The man sat in front of the computer and did not open his computer. His body seemed to be fixed there, and the frequency of breathing gradually faded away. He was like an inanimate sculpture.

Sean stared blankly for a while, then he reached out and opened the computer. After starting up, he hesitated for several times, and finally entered the software that had not been opened for so many years.

The top three of Weibo hot search was hanging up TINA's name, Sean thought for a while and directly click in.

TINA did update half an hour ago.

As a news queen in the entertainment circle, this person did not update very often, and when she updated, she will cause a great stir in the entertainment circle.

And every time, before TINA updating, there will be prompts.

For example this one.

A Weibo moment with only four words: See you on Monday.

Below it was Sean's photo.

Sean did not know where the picture was taken. The background should be in the Smith group. He stood in front of the gate of the Smith group gate. There was a neon fall behind him. The streetlights were connected to a straight line, which drove the night to shine the whole city as bright as daylight.

He was wearing a simple white shirt with a cigarette between his forefinger and leaning against his lip line. White mist rose up on his handsome face, blurring his expression but making others clear that the person in the picture was him.

Looking at this picture, Sean suddenly raised a slight desire to smoke.

He tapped at the table with his fingertips, pulled one out of the cigarette box and lit it for himself.

TINA was a strange person. She never concealed her desire to want to rumor others. Every time before updating the news, she would update the Weibo like this to explain the person who she wanted to reveal and the time.

Many popular stars in the circle, no matter the best actor or best actress, no matter they was trophy or not, there were so many people were trapped by TINA, basically there was only one end for them, that was, lose all the standing and reputation.

Because this TINA was fierce and accurate!

Speaking of it, there was still a relationship between Sean and her.

It was already two years ago. At that time, he and Amber had been married for a year, and Sean had never given up looking for Lin Man.

He stopped all of his work, spent a lot of manpower and resources to find her, and the hard work pays off. The private detective he hired finally found Lin Man that left Tong city for more than a year in a small town in the UK.

After Sean got the news, he put down all the work, took the plane, persuaded her for three days, and finally let Lin Man agree to return back with him.

Sean was still immersed in the surprises he had regained her. There was only one thing planned every day, divorcing with Amber White, and starting to be with Lin Man again!

But all dreams were broken by a Weibo moment of TINA.

The time had passed for three years, and Sean still had a deep memory of that moment.

If he thought, three years ago, Amber White was the fuse that ruined his love between him and Lin Man, then TINA ignited the fire of this fuse, and it burst in his love with Lin Man, then except dust, no other else.

TINA's Weibo moment was rhetoric fiercely crusades his derailment in marriage, empathized with Amber, and the words between the lines were satirizing their marriage.

TINA had real evidences, and photos were available, they can not deny it at all!

Such a realistic thing, in Tong city at that time, set off a huge storm.

TINA also predicted that Sean and Amber would undergo a marriage change within one month, and they would divorce!

She was damn correct, and Sean's divorce agreement had been drawn up!

At that time, the comments on the Internet fell to the ground and attacked Manman. Various comments, even a great man like Sean felt a little mad.

Not to mention Lin Man.

Lin Man was a very coward girl. After Sean was with her, he was worried that he could not protect her.

Not long after TINA's Weibo was updated, Sean was forced to return to the Smith house by his father.

He proposed to divorce Amber, and he was slapped by his father. At that time, Sean was seriously injured. He even got a fever because of the wound infection for three days. After he woke up, he rushed to Manman's residence.

The house was already empty.

Sean looked at his mobile phone, there was no phone call, and no text messages.

Lin Man once again did not say goodbye to him, but that time she probably had the decision of leaving, no matter how Sean searched, he could not find any trace of her, a woman seemed to be evaporating in this world, he can't find her.

After this incident, Sean deeply hated TINA.

In his heart, the dislike to TINA was more than to Amber.

Forced to recall the past, the thin and narrow eyes of Sean smashed, and the dark tides and turbulences made him feel the emotions in the twilight, which was incomparably clear, especially the contours of his handsome face.

His index finger moved, shaking off the ash on the fingertips of the smoke, the man licked the lip.

Just for this one thing, he once suspected that TINA would be Amber White. After all, if Manman was driven away. the best benefits people was Amber White.

But this was always a guess, even today, he always had this speculation.

What a coincidence, Amber White just left the house, TINA updated Weibo.

Moreover, he and Amber White had just quarreled, she was angry that he abused her daughter, Amber White may want to retaliate...
