

Chapter 338 An Accident

Amanda cursed, "You bastard, you were taking pictures on the sly huh? I'll make you pay for it!"

As she spoke, Amanda angrily stepped forward and ruthlessly pushed Trevor without giving him time to explain himself.

Celine was also very anxious.

She had dressed so sexily on the sole purpose of seducing Mr. Sanderson.

If paparazzi took photos of her like this and posted them online, it could ruin her career.

Celine was even more worried about what could happen if Mr. Sanderson came and found her discussing with such a loser.

What would he think of her?

Celine began to think that Amanda was right. Trevor must be a crazy fan who had sneaked in to take photos of her secretly.

Seeing the mobile phone in Trevor's hand, Celine immediately wanted to leave the pool and snatch the phone from him so she could delete the photos he took.

The problem was that she was agitated right now.

Besides, she had just come out of the pool and was still all wet.

She walked quickly towards Trevor, not noticing the water on the tiled floor.

The inevitable happened. She slipped on the water and fell right in front of Trevor.

When she fell, the straps of her swimsuit broke...

Her gorgeous, voluptuous breasts crashed onto the tiled floor right in front of Trevor. Trevor's eyes widened at the sight of this, and his face turned as red as a tomato.

This was his very first time of seeing a woman naked.

Moreover, this woman was a superstar!

However, Trevor was not a pervert. He instinctively turned his head and looked away.

Although his reaction was commendable, neither Amanda nor Celine appreciated it.

Amanda pushed him away and hurriedly took a bath towel from the lounge chair to cover Celine.

Celine got up full of anger and embarrassment. After wrapping herself in the towel, she glared angrily at Trevor.

"This was an accident okay. You'd better not talk about it to anyone," she said threateningly.

Trevor was so embarrassed that he didn't even know what to say at this point.

As for Amanda, she was fuming right now. She glared at him and cursed.

"You bastard, just wait and see. I will make you pay dearly!"

Without another word, Amanda took out her mobile and called Jeanne.

When Jeanne picked up the call, Amanda's tone drastically changed from anger to an aggrieved and flattering tone.

"Hello, Miss Brown. There's a serious problem. Celine and I were waiting for Mr. Sanderson in the Villa when a loser sneaked in and took pictures!"

Jeanne was very surprised to hear that. Indeed, the situation seemed quite serious. Jeanne said she was coming right away.

Mr. Sanderson wanted to interview Celine, so Jeanne could not take such a situation lightly.

Amanda was delighted with Jeanne's decision to come to the scene immediately.

After hanging up, she looked at Trevor and sneered. "You pervert! To think you saw Celine's naked body. Just wait and see what happens to you!"

Trevor frowned. At this point, his patience was really starting to wear thin. Whatever he did, this woman always tried to provoke him.

It was Celine who had chosen this place for their meeting! However, they wouldn't listen to his explanations. He didn't do anything wrong. It was Celine's fault if she dropped her swimsuit. Why did they blame him?

Trevor didn't want to argue with them anymore.

In fact he no longer had any desire to do this interview. Especially since the terrible attitude of Celine's agent was really starting to piss him off.

Without another word, Trevor turned around and was about to leave.

Seeing Trevor walk away, Amanda thought he wanted to escape.

She rushed forward and stood in Trevor's way.

"So now you want to leave, right? Well, that's not going to happen. The only way for you to get out of here is to give me your cell phone. Otherwise, I would make the miserable pervert that you are suffer."

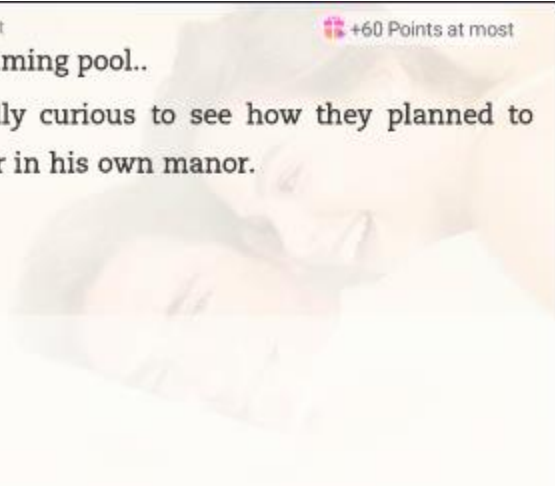

Hearing that, Trevor sneered.

He looked Amanda in the eye and said coldly, "Okay, I'm eager to see what you can do to me."

He had changed his mind now. He didn't want to leave anymore. Instead, he casually sat on the deck chair beside the swimming pool..

Trevor was really curious to see how they planned to make him suffer in his own manor.
