

Chapter 387 Visit The Villa

"Actually, the situation is different now. You can't bribe us with this. Um..."

As usual, Lois was talking with a sense of justice when her friend covered her mouth.

In fact, the other girls were overjoyed when they heard Trevor's "compromise".

Technically speaking, there was no way for them to get in touch with such kind of top-level villa.

This was their chance to broaden their horizons and satisfy their vanity. In this way, they could brag to their friends in the future.

Thinking about it, the girls tried to persuade Lois.

"Lois, why don't we go inside and have a look first?"

"She's right. We will supervise the staff of the moving company to leave the villa together with us later."

"Yeah, it's rare for us to get this kind of opportunity! My cousin works at the Lightuxury Villa and I heard from him that this is the most expensive villa. It has many amazing technology systems and it will make you feel as if you are living in the future."

After hearing everything from her friends, Lois' lips were slightly open.

In fact, she was already persuaded. Especially the remarks of the last girl were very encouraging which aroused Lois' strong curiosity.

Feeling a little guilty, Lois looked at Trevor with a blush and said, "Then...

Let's go inside and have a look first."

However, as if she was warning Trevor and herself, she said in a low voice, "But...we will leave as soon as we finish visiting the villa, okay?"

Hearing her warning, Trevor just smiled indifferently.

His attention was on the girl in black who just revealed the information of the villa.

Since she was here with them, he wouldn't have to introduce the villa.

Just as he expected, the moment they entered the door and began their tour, the girl in black excitedly talked about all the information.

They looked as if they were tourists visiting a new place. They even forgot about Trevor.

When they passed the corridor where the piles of the luggage were placed, Lois kindly asked if Trevor needed help.

However, Trevor just smiled and said, "It's okay. I'll put them away myself later."

After saying that, he told her to catch up with the girls who were walking in front.

In fact, the only thing Trevor wanted the most was to prove his identity as soon as possible so that these people would leave and he would be able to live peacefully.

At that time, the girls got to the living room. Their attention was on the mysterious space.

In the huge place, the voice of the girl in black could be heard clearly.

"I heard that this villa was designed by the best team in the whole city. The living room is the most exquisite place in the whole villa because it can present the theme of the home according to the voice of the owner of the villa. It is much cooler than the 3D cinema!"

The rest girls were speechless and frozen on their spots for two seconds after hearing the girl's remarks.

Then, they started to make remarks excitedly. "Wow... how did the designers even make it like this?"

"Ahh...I want to live in this kind of villa too. It can bring me different experience every day!"

"What kind of theme? Can you demonstrate it?"

Seeing the excited looks on the girls' faces, Trevor thought that it would be a good opportunity to prove his identity. Therefore, he said, "Actually, it's simple. I just have to say the theme I want. Let me show you."

However, before Trevor could say anything, the girl in black said with a sneer, "You are just an employee. You should know your place. My cousin told me that only the owner of the villa can switch the theme because it has the voice recognition capability. You don't have to pretend to have that ability."

Hearing her words, Trevor just smiled faintly. At that time, he even had the urge to give the girl a thumbs up because she made it even easier for him to prove his identity.

Now, he didn't have to explain anymore.

Looking at the girl in black calmly, Trevor cleared his throat and said, "Well, change to a fairy tale theme."

With a crisp snap of his finger, the entire wall of the room instantly changed to light pink luster!
