

Chapter 390 Michelin 3-star Restaurant

Lying on his bed, Trevor heaved a sigh.

The power of his father's followers was really amazing. Not only could they protect him secretly without him knowing, they even found out the culprit behind the attack that happened in the afternoon!

He wouldn't even know about it if his father didn't tell him just now.

It turned out that his father had been protecting him secretly since he returned to Jork.

"I wonder who has been protecting me. Maybe it's Bradley? Well, I'll just ask him about it when I see him next time. I hope he is happy to know that I won the fight because of him."

After tossing and turning around, Trevor decided to take a shower.

After all, he had a long day today.

He got up early in the morning and fought with the others. Then, he had to move. So, he was very tired.

After taking a comfortable hot bath in the villa's hot spring pool, Trevor fell asleep. He really wanted to meet

Luisa in his dream.

The next morning, Trevor woke up in a good mood.

It was really good to sleep alone.

As there was still some time left before their appointment, Trevor took a bath. Then, he drove the Mercedes Benz which was already parked at the door and headed his way to pick up Luisa and the others.

As soon as the two kids stepped into the car, the atmosphere immediately became lively.

Luisa was sitting on the passenger seat while the two kids were in the back seat.

Since Dilan had been staying in the hospital for a long time, he was very happy to discharge.

The presence of Noor made him even more excited.

The whole time, he held Noor's hand and shared the fairy tales that the nurse had told him. Then, he rolled on his seat to show off his legs that had already recovered.

From the rearview mirror, Trevor could see the innocent smiles of the two kids and a smile automatically appeared on his face.

However, when the two kids finished playing, Trevor said, "Dilan, Noor, now buckle up and sit on your seats, okay? I am going to take you to a restaurant to have a big meal to celebrate!"

At the mention of the food, the kids' eyes lit up with excitement.

With a bright smile on his face, Dilan cheered happily, "Wow, you are the best, Trevor!"

After saying that, he sat on his seat and fastened his seatbelt.

However, his feet were still dangling excitedly in the air. He was humming a happy child's song.

On the other hand, Noor was more obedient. She sat quietly and even urged Dilan not to make too many noise.

Seeing that the two kids were sitting in their seats quietly, Trevor and Luisa looked at each other with a knowing smile on their faces.

About twenty minutes later, they arrived at their destination. Trevor parked his Mercedes Benz in an underground parking lot before bringing them to a well decorated restaurant.

At the door of the restaurant, two palm trees were planted on both sides. The branches and leaves reflected the natural coolness in the summer.

This was one of the few restaurants in the commercial street that didn't belong to the Sanderson family.

Even though this Blue Lake Restaurant in front of him wasn't luxurious and magnificent as the Scarlet Restaurant, this was the only one place in Jork that was rated as Michelin 3-star restaurant!

Actually, the Sanderson family wanted to acquire the Blue Lake Restaurant. However, the owner didn't want to sell it since it was doing quite well.

The opportunity of dining there was rare. So, Trevor wanted to take Luisa and the two kids to experience it.

Moreover, he wanted to see what was so special about this Michelin 3-star restaurant?

In the past, since Trevor deliberately hid his identity, he couldn't enjoy the fun with Luisa to the fullest.

However, now that he had already made up his mind, he didn't need to worry about it anymore.

After all, he was just waiting to find the most appropriate opportunity to confess everything to her.

However, since he had decided to take another step, he wanted to take his favorite girl to experience all kinds of new and interesting life during the summer vacation. In fact, this was just the first stop.

However, when he was about to step into the restaurant, an inappropriate sneer sounded from behind.
