

Chapter 5064

After all, there will be records of plane flights and personal entry.

Although it is impossible for the other party to know that they have been exposed,

Once the number of damages is too much, they will definitely notice the abnormality.

If they turn around at that time, they will carefully investigate the relevant clues,

Before and after each mission failure, and then follow the clues to find the culprit.

If there is a person as meticulous as Duncan in the opponent's camp,

It is very likely that the clues will be focused on him.

Therefore, out of prudence, Charlie planned to ask Helena,

Who was already firmly seated as the Queen, to do a favor

Helena, the queen, and the royal family behind her are only the mascots of the Norway people,

But the royal family is the royal family after all.

Even if the monarchy is already constitutional, the royal family still has some privileges.

Therefore, Charlie planned to fly himself and the soldiers of the Cataclysmic Front to Oslo City first,

And let Helena use the royal channel to send him to Bergen quietly,

And if necessary, send Joseph and Others along too.

In this way, all the official records of everyone going from Oslo to Bergen can be hidden,

And the clues can be completely disconnected. This should not be difficult for Helena.

So, Charlie hung up the phone and called Helena again.

At this moment, Helena, just got out of a special school accompanied by the royal housekeeper and got into her own car.

Recently, she has been working hard to increase her exposure in front of people,

So she frequently organizes and participates in various charitable activities.

Today's activity is to go to a special school to visit the disabled children there.

Helena, who had just finished the activity, was sitting a little tired in the royal car.

She was thinking of taking the opportunity to close her eyes and rest for a while,

When the personal mobile phone in her handbag suddenly vibrated.

She took out her mobile phone and found that it was Charlie who called.

Her exhaustion was instantly swept away,

And her expression immediately became a little bit expectant and ashamed.

She pressed the answer button and said with some excitement: "Hello, Mr. Wade!"

"Helena." Charlie asked with a smile, "Did the call bother you at this time?"

Helena quickly said: "How could it be, Mr. Wade!"

"It's not a nuisance you can call at any time!"

"That's good." Charlie went straight to the point:

"Helena, I'm calling because I want to ask you for help."

Helena said without hesitation, "Mr. Wade, please tell me."

Charlie asked her, "If I fly directly to Oslo City tonight,"

"Can you arrange a helicopter to take me to Bergen without leaving any trace?"

Helena asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, are you coming to Oslo City?"

Charlie snorted and said: "The main thing is to go to Bergen,"

"But I need to turn around in Oslo City, but I can't leave any traces that can be verified."

Helena immediately said without thinking: "The royal family there in Bergen has a palace,"

"And I happen to be going to Bergen to attend a charity event."

“If you fly to Bergen with me, there will never be any traces left,”

“Not even the helicopter I take has any flight records.”

Charlie didn't expect Helena to be going to Bergen,

So he asked her, “When are you leaving?”

Helena replied, “I can do it any time, as long as I can reach Bergen tomorrow.”

After that, she asked him, “Mr. Wade, when will you arrive in Oslo?”

Charlie looked at the time and said, “I will take off from Providence in about three hours,”

“And arrive in Oslo in two and a half hours.”

Helena said: “It's almost ten o'clock in the evening of Oslo City time,”

“And I will wait for you here! If you are not in a hurry to come to Bergen immediately,”

“You can spend one night in the palace first, If we are in a hurry, we can fly over by helicopter overnight.”

Charlie immediately said, “Then we are going straight over!”
