

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 24II

□ □ □

Chapter 24II

“Okay, are you going to get off work?” Jesse glanced at the time and asked.

Avery responded.

Just now Elliot sent Avery a message to remind her to get off work.

“Mr. Caldwell, do you have anything else to do?”

Avery asked.

“I have nothing to do, I just want to talk to you... But if you are in a hurry to get off work, then you should get off work! I have nothing to do with it...” Jesse said with a bright smile.

Avery looked at him and became curious: “What’s the matter? Tell me! Elliot won’t come to pick me up today, I’m not in a hurry to get off work!”

Jesse: “Oh, why didn’t Mr. Foster come to pick you up? Is he busy? “

“I didn’t let him come.” Avery looked at Jesse and guessed, “Are you asking me for something? Is it money or...”

Jesse made a ‘puff’ , burst out laughing: “I really don’t have any major issues... I just wonder why you chose Gloria as your assistant. I looked at her resume, but I really didn't see anything outstanding. This morning I've seen her too, and I think she's quite shy. With this kind of personality, are you sure she can be a good assistant?"

Avery breathed a sigh of relief: "It's for this! She's not as shy as you think. I Chatting with her, I feel that she is very organized and has no problem doing things."

"Why did you decide to hire her? I want to know what you think. Because you only interviewed her one, you decided to have her.

I took a look. If you choose any of the many resumes sent to Human Resources, they are better than her."

Jesse wanted to know what her working style and principles were.

After all, Avery came to work, and the two of them had to live together next, and it would be better to get to know each other more.

"First of all, I have read her resume carefully. I think she is actually very good in addition to having no work experience." Avery told him her thoughts, "Secondly, I was quite in sync with her chatting..."

“Ms. Tate, as far as I know, you have an easy-going personality, so you should be in harmony with everyone, right? I haven’t heard that you have a bad relationship with anyone. I haven’t heard anyone say anything bad about you.”

Jesse shrugged,

“There must be other reasons for you to hire her, right?”

Avery blushed when he asked the question: “Okay, because she is from the Yonroeville. Don’t ask me why I have to recruit people from Yonroeville, I just want to do it.”

Jesse got the answer and was satisfied: “Okay, I know. But if her work ability is too poor, do you want to keep her too?”

“I don’t think she should be that bad.” Avery smiled with confidence.

Jesse: “Okay! Then let’s watch her performance together next!”

...

It’s dinner time.

Elliot saw that Avery was absent-minded, so he took a piece of meat for her and asked, “What are you thinking about! You are so inattentive. Eat well when you are eating, otherwise it will be bad for digestion.”

“When I got off work, the vice president asked me why I had to Hire Gloria. I couldn’t resist what he asked, so I told the truth.”

Avery put the meat in the bowl into her mouth and continued, “Am I being very emotional? I feel like the vice president wants to question it that if she’s capable.”

Elliot thought it was a big deal, but he didn’t expect it was for this trance.

“It’s just an assistant. Even if she doesn’t know anything, it won’t affect the overall development of the company.” Elliot comforted, “If you go back on your words, you don’t have to turn her into a regular. You can hire another experienced assistant.”

□ □ □