

In

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2430

□ □ □

Chapter 2430

Elliot sent the resume of his new assistant to Avery. Avery just signed the contract with Eric and was about to go to dinner.

After getting in the car, she clicked on the resume sent by Elliot and took a cursory glance.

Soon, she sent a message to Elliot: Why does the person you recruited look a bit like Chad?

Elliot: [Yes. His temperament is very similar to Chad, and his tone of speech is also a bit similar. But he hadn't been in contact with Chad before, so it should be a coincidence.]

Avery: [Are you looking for a substitute for Chad?]

Elliot: [...]

Avery: [If Chad knew about this, he would definitely be moved to death.]

Elliot: [.....]

Avery: [Since you are sure you want him, let's make an appointment and we will bring the assistant out to have a meal together.]

Elliot: [He will start his job tomorrow, wait for him to go to work and see how his work is going.]

Avery: [I thought you were very confident in your own vision!]

Elliot: [He used to work abroad, so let's have a look at it first.]

Avery: [Yes! Let me know when you have set a time. I signed a contract with Eric this morning and am going out to dinner now!]

Elliot: [Don't call me when you eat?]

Avery: [? ? ?]

Elliot: [Don't I deserve to have dinner with big stars?]

Avery: [Location]

Elliot: [OK, I'll be there in half an hour.]

...

In a certain community, Norah Jones received a message: [Sister Jones, the personnel of Sterling Group just sent me an offer.

thank you!]

After Norah received the news, she immediately dialed the phone and congratulated Hayes Klein.

“Hayes, I knew you would definitely succeed. As long as you listen to me, you will definitely be fine.” Norah said excitedly.

“I met Elliot this morning. I think he is very friendly and not as scary as I thought. As long as I work hard, he will definitely not make things difficult for me on purpose.” Hayes Klein said to his heart, “Sister Jones, you talked to me before. What I said, I will keep it in my heart. If I see someone with scars on their wrists, I will definitely tell you as soon as possible. If there is nothing else, we should not contact us any more.”

The expression on Norah’s face suddenly got colder. “Sister Jones, I’m not crossing the river to demolish the bridge. I really cherish this job. Being able to work by Elliot’s side will help me a lot in the future. I don’t want to make any mistakes, I hope you can understand me.” Hayes was a little embarrassed.

“I didn’t ask you to meet again, what are you afraid of? You mean we don’t have to make phone calls in the future, right?” Norah was a little unhappy, “Aren’t you crossing the river and demolishing the bridge?”

“Sister Jones, I said, If I see Elliot with the kind of person you mentioned, I will tell you. Isn’t that enough?” Hayes was a little angry.

“Enough! I’m just dissatisfied with your attitude. You are so ruthless! With your emotional intelligence, no one will call you in the future, and you will suffer sooner or later. If you don't believe me, we'll see." Norah finished talking, After a while, Hayes took the initiative to hang up the phone.

Norah gritted her teeth and clenched her phone tightly, wanting to vent her anger, but she didn't dare to drop the phone.

Either way, Hayes Klein promised to let her know if there was any news.

Now Norah couldn't tear up her face with Hayes.

Norah hadn't been out since she was followed last time out to wash her hair.

She didn't know if the annoying spirit who followed her was still squatting in the community.

She came out of the bedroom, took a glass of water and drank it. After calming down, she called Sasha.

□ □ □