

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2442

Chapter 2442

“Kara, I will listen to you if you want to find a boyfriend in the future.” Tammy shared her experience with her daughter.

Avery: “Tammy, Kara is still young, why are you telling her this.”

“Okay! Our Kara is indeed too young. She has nothing else on her mind except eating, drinking and having fun all day long.”

Tammy touched Kara’s head and saw that her mouth was full of oil, so she wiped her mouth with a tissue.

“Children of this age are like this. You should be glad that your Kara is so good. You have never seen a noisy child otherwise it’s a headache.” Avery comforted her.

“Is Robert very noisy?” Tammy said, seeing her deeply moved look, “But I think Robert is also very good!”

Avery:” I didn’t say Robert. Let’s go to public places, don’t you often see naughty children?”

“Oh, you say that kind of arrogant child! If my child is arrogant, I’ll break her legs.” Tammy said this sentence with a smile, “I-I hate bear children the most. Our Kara is actually about two years old and a little rebellious, so I fixed it.”

“Tammy, you are indeed very intimidating when you are fierce.” Avery laughed, “It’s definitely that kind of look. It looks like a bad girl, but it’s actually very honest.”

“That was also corrected by me. Before she knew me, she was not so honest.” Tammy looked proud, “Why didn’t a publisher ask me to publish a book! I-I think I can write a copy of ‘The Code of Yufu’. If it sells well, I will write another ‘The Code of Yuer’.”

“You have a good idea. If you really want to write it, then write it. I will pay for it. The money will be published for you.” Avery supported.

Tammy: “I’m joking! I’m too lazy to die. My dad was afraid that I might build his company. Not long ago, he hired a professional manager to manage the company. That’s why I’m so relaxed now. Ashamed, after all, I am used to being free and loose.”

“I’m about the same. My company has recruited a new vice president, and it looks good so far. So I can go to work now if I want, and it doesn’t matter if I don’t want to.” Avery said. She was not because of laziness, but because there were many things to do at the end of the year.

Work was so important, but so were children and friends.

At Gwen's wedding, Elliot, as a brother, didn't have much to worry about, while Avery, as a sister-in-law, should be more concerned.

Soon, it was night.

Tate Industries.

After got off work time at 6 o'clock, other employees in the office left work one after another.

Gloria sat at the workstation, pretending that her work was not over yet.

She was actually struggling to decide whether to go to Hayes's appointment.

She wanted to go in her heart, but she was afraid that after she went, things would gradually get out of control. She managed to get close to Avery so smoothly, and she hasn't investigated the truth of the tragedy. If Hayes destroys her plan, all her previous efforts will be lost.

After hesitating for half an hour, she picked up her bag and got up.

If she didn't go to the appointment, Hayes would definitely continue to find ways to force her.

Instead of running away, it's better for her to face him and see what information Hayes has.

At 7 o'clock sharp, Gloria appeared in restaurant and seeing Gloria coming over, Hayes immediately had a smile on his face.

Hayes: "Assistant Wiens, you are still here."

Gloria sat down opposite Hayes.
