

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2522

Chapter 2522

In the dark room, there was a ray of light, and there were fighting sound effects when playing games.

“Young Master, why didn’t you sleep?” Siena looked at Lucas lying on the bed playing games, very puzzled,

“Your father may come back today...”

“He came back last night.” Lucas lazily said, “You don’t have to worry, the matter is over.”

Siena walked to the bed in disbelief, and confirmed: “Is your father not angry?”

“It’s none of my business whether he is angry or not.”

With an indifferent tone, Lucas immediately said, “I’m hungry, go and cook me a bowl of noodles.”

“Okay, I’ll do it right away.” Siena didn’t notice any difference in Lucas.

Coming out of the bedroom, she immediately went to the kitchen to cook noodles.

Ten minutes later, she entered the bedroom with a bowl of hot noodles and put the noodles on the bedside table.

Siena: “Young Master, why didn’t you close the door today? You usually close the door when you are in the room.”

“If you are too lazy to close it, you don’t close it. Go and do your work! Leave me alone.” Lucas put down the phone, “Close the door for me!”

“Oh good.” Siena exited his room and closed the door for him.

In a blink of an eye, it was seven o’clock in the morning.

Siena walked towards the back kitchen of the main building. Usually at this time, today’s ingredients had already been purchased.

Siena entered the back kitchen through the back door. Seeing Siena, Mrs. Perry said immediately: “Siena, did you go out with Young Master Hogan last night?”

Young Master Hogan beat Second Young Master of Gagnon family because of you, right? Do you know how serious this is?”

Mrs. Perry was the live-in servant of Hogan family, so she knew what happened after Master Hogan came back.

“After Master Hogan came back, he asked Young Master Hogan to apologize to the Young Master of the Gagnon family. Young Master Hogan refused, so the Master whipped Young Master Hogan. The beating was so bad that his skin was torn apart, I couldn't bear to see it! Young Master Hogan is really stubborn..."

Mrs. Perry didn't finish her sentence, Siena turned her head and ran out.

No wonder Lucas was lying on the bed, it turned out that it was because of being beaten.

He was still stubborn and refused to say anything to her.

Siena returned to the auxiliary building, reached out and wiped away the tears on her face.

She went straight to Lucas's room.

She knocked on the door, and without waiting for Lucas to let her in, she directly opened the door.

Lucas had just finished eating the noodles, when he saw Siena come in suddenly, he was taken aback for a moment.

"Young Master, Auntie Perry told me that your father beat you." With red eyes, Siena walked to the bed, lifted the hem of his shirt and took a look.

"Don't move your hands." Lucas moved to the side uncomfortably, "I have rough skin and thick flesh, and I will be fine in a few days."

"Where is the medicine I bought last time? I will rub some medicine for you!" Siena saw red marks on his back.

Mr. Hogan was really ruthless.

Lucas: "No need..."

"Young Master, do you really not know pain?" Siena reached out her hand to touch his back in order to see if he was really not afraid of pain.

Lucas gasped suddenly and glared at Siena.
