

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 611

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 611

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 611

David was worried that he would not be able to find someone whom he could establish his reputation with.

Now that the hidden sects and families were gradually coming out of hiding, the combat power he had displayed thus far was only halfway to God Rank. This strength had been enough of a deterrent in the past.

However, a master who was halfway to the God Rank was no longer enough.

Any family could send someone who was halfway to the God Rank to protect their descendants.

Hence, he had to show a little more strength so he could protect Dark Cape. After all, he could not stay here forever.

He would be returning to Somerland after the ten-year appointment.

Since the Pearson family happened to be asking for trouble, then sorry. These hidden families and sects had avoided the world for a long time, and they were still adhering to the old law of the jungle.

This was absolutely not acceptable.

Somerland finally achieved the stability it enjoyed today. It was created through the blood and sweat of many Somerland martyrs headed by Mr. Mason Stefani and it could not be destroyed by these people.

They had to change the mindset that they were superior to others. Although David's strength was already number one in the world, he had never felt that he was superior to ordinary people. He was a young man who had received a good education in Somerland, and he had always been a student of both character and academic excellence. Moreover, he got to where he was now step by step from his origin as an ordinary person.

The belief that everyone was equal had penetrated deep into his heart.

No one should be allowed to break this balance.

Even if it was impossible to achieve absolute equality, they could not be allowed to ignore the human rights and lives of ordinary people like this. His physique had broken through to God level 10, which was equivalent to the strength of a peak God Ranker.

David felt very confident. Even if the Pearson family had God Rank guardians, he still wanted to turn the Pearson family into sacrificial offerings. Somerland used the Nichols family as an example, and Dark Cape would use the Pearson family as an example.

All the hidden families who came out of hiding had to understand that things were not the same as before. They could not use the old system in today's society. David opened the door first and walked out of the room.

“Captain!”

The two peak Dragon Ranker elders standing at the door bowed and called out.

“Come, come with me to meet the master who's halfway to the God Rank in the Pearson family. I'll show you how powerful the combat strength of those above peak Dragon Rankers at the same time, it can also encourage you to continue to move forward. Greater times are coming, and you can't rely on just your current strength, especially Killer. Your strength of a mid-Dragon Ranker can't even compare to some of the younger generation of the hidden sect,” David walked ahead and said.

“Yes, Captain! I will definitely continue to work hard,” Killer answered humbly behind.

He was still satisfied with his own strength.

He became a mid-Dragon Ranker before the age of forty. However, over the past few days, a large number of powerful people had poured into Dark Cape and it made him feel a huge sense of crisis.

Among these people, some young people in their twenties were even masters of the Dragon Rank

Since when were there Dragon Rank masters to be found everywhere?

Killer was puzzled. He had been busy completing the tasks that David had issued recently. He armed Dark Cape and recruited talents for Red Flame, so he did not have time to learn about this information.

It was not until now that he felt that the pattern of the world was about to change.

The great age was coming, and he had to also work hard to improve himself and keep up with Captain's pace. He was only a mid-Dragon Ranker, so he was indeed lowering the reputation of Red Flame by being the first deputy captain. The captain was a God Rank guardian, but the first deputy captain was just a mid-Dragon Ranker ?

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 612

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 612

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 612

This gap was too big. If he did not work hard, he would be too embarrassed to continue being the first deputy captain. David brought the trio to the Black Sand Hotel. He was still wearing his silver mask.

Now was not the time to reveal the identity. "Captain!" The manager of Black Sand Hotel saw David walking in with a silver mask and immediately ran over to greet him respectfully. Silver Face, the captain of the Red Flame Mercenaries , was a god-like existence in Dark Cape.

He not only overthrew the brutal rule of Tyrant, the captain of Bloodthirsty Mercenaries, but he also exempted Dark Cape of all taxes.

Almost all crimes had been eradicated from Dark Cape now.

Everyone here felt that their life here was like heaven, so they respected David a lot. “Are you in charge here?” David asked. “Yes, Captain,” the manager replied humbly. “They’re still here, right?”

“Yes, they’ve been in the room this entire time. I’ve been watching the door on the monitor, and they definitely didn’t come out.” “Lead the way.”

“Captain, please come with me.”

The manager led David all the way to Room 16.

The manager skillfully opened the room door with the key and stepped aside. David walked in.

Then, they saw an old man and a young man sitting on the chair in the room. There were also four Dragon Rank masters behind them.

“Are you Silver Face, the captain of Red Flame Mercenaries?” The old man Abel asked.

David did not answer Abel. Instead, he looked at the other young man and asked, “Did you force yourself onto the attendant and cause her to commit suicide by jumping off the building?”

Miles turned his head to look at Abel nervously. He felt pressured as he faced David, who was halfway to God Rank “Captain Silver Face, I am Abel Pearson from the Pearson family. This is Miles, the grandson of my eldest brother, and the most outstanding descendant of the younger generation in the Pearson family. My eldest brother has high hopes for him, so please forgive him for the sake of the Pearson family,” Abel said. “I’m asking you a question. Did you force yourself onto the attendant and caused her to commit suicide by jumping off the building?” David asked Miles blankly. He was completely ignoring Abel, seemingly not bothered by him at all. “Grandpa Abel,” Miles looked at Abel and asked for help. “Captain Silver Face, I am giving you respect because you’re the master here, but I have given you enough face. Please don’t flatter yourself. The strength of Red Flame Mercenaries is not a deterrent in front of my family. Do you want to anger my family right here?” Abel said angrily. He had shown enough respect to David because he knew that this was the territory of Red Flame Mercenaries and both of them were halfway to God Rank.

However, David was completely disrespecting him.

How would he get himself out of this embarrassing situation as someone who was halfway to the God Rank?

“I’m asking you one last time. Did you do it?”

Slam!

“Silver Face, you’re insufferable!” Abel slammed his hand down on the table and shouted after standing up. “So what? You don’t dare to mess about in Somerland, but you dare to ignore Red Flame’s rules in Dark Cape. Are you not bullying Red Flame by doing this?” David tilted his head and looked at Abel for the first time. He asked this in a calm tone.

“Silver Face, the one who died was just a normal person. You should know that we’re not within the same category as an ordinary person now that we’re in this realm. Are you seriously going to have a fallout with my family because of an ordinary person? Think about the consequences. Think about whether Red Flame can handle it!” Abel cried angrily.

He did not think that David would turn a blind eye to a threat from the Pearson family.

‘Is he not afraid that the Pearson family might destroy Red Flame Mercenaries?’

‘Or perhaps, he has a stronger backing behind him so that’s why he’s not scared of the Pearson family.’

Abel wondered about all kinds of possibilities in his heart.

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 613

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 613

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 613

“The person who died is just an ordinary person and an inferior person in your eyes, but to me, her life is nobler than you beasts!” David said sarcastically. “Silver Face, you are so presumptuous! How dare you insult the Pearson family like this! I think you really don’t want to live anymore. Do you really think the Pearson family won’t dare to touch you?” Abel’s face was red as he pointed at David and said angrily.

Abel would have killed David on the spot if David was not halfway to God Rank and he was not confident because he could not see through David’s strength.

He even compared them to beasts. Abel had lived seventy or eighty years and had never been insulted like this. “Aren’t you? After being insulted by the son of the Pearson family, the attendant jumped off the building and committed suicide without the slightest hesitation. Do you think beasts like you can compare to this kind of woman who values chastity more than life? In my opinion, her life is a hundred times more precious than yours!” “Silver Face...” Abel growled through gritted teeth. “What? You can’t bear it anymore? Do you want to act against me now? I haven’t finished yet! I am flattering you by calling you beasts. Your family is nothing but rubbish that is even lower than low!” David sarcastically said. “You’re asking for death!” After Abel said that, he rushed toward David. At such a close distance, he appeared in front of David in the blink of an eye. He stretched out his right hand which was surrounded by some black gas and struck the part of David’s chest where his heart was with his palm. This was the ancestral martial art of the Pearson family—the heart-crushing slap! It was so powerful that it could directly shatter the victim’s heart.

He was going to make David pay for what he said.

This was the first time the Pearson family had been so insulted in so many years.

Even if he could not kill David today, he would go back and tell his brother so that he could personally kill this person who dared to insult the Pearson family.

Not only did he want David to die, but he also wanted everyone in Red Flame to die too!

At this moment Abel had been blinded with rage.

Abel displayed joy in his eyes when he saw that his palm was about to hit David's chest. If he managed to strike David with the slap, even if David was someone who was halfway to God Rank like him, he would be seriously injured. The Pearson family's heart-crushing slap was a top martial art that has been passed down for generations, and it was very lethal.

Moreover, the human heart was the most vulnerable organ.

The ancestors of the Pearson family created this powerful technique to target the most vulnerable parts of the human body.

Abel was not the only one with joy in his eyes. Behind him, Miles and the four Dragon Rank masters from the Pearson family also showed their joy.

They naturally knew the power of the heart-crushing slap. It was no exaggeration to say that as long as a master of the same level was hit in the chest by the heart-crushing slap, they would be seriously injured even if they did not die.

As long as David was seriously injured, Abel would have an advantage over him. They might even be able to kill David.

If David was dead, the rest of the Red Flame Mercenaries would be completely useless when facing Abel, someone who was halfway to God Rank. They would not be able to withstand a single blow from him. The heart-crushing slap surrounded by black gas was getting closer and closer to David's chest.

Abel was already smiling. He did not expect the sneak attack on David to go so smoothly. David seemed to be frightened. He was motionless and was allowing Abel to attack him.

In reality, the heart-crushing slap was not without its shortcomings. It had to hit the middle of the chest or at the center of the back, the two positions closest to the heart, to exert the greatest power.

If the person being attacked blocked it with other parts of their body, the power of the heart crushing slap would be greatly weakened, and it would only cause minor injuries.

Therefore, this sneak attack carried the greatest advantage. In frontal combat, the effectiveness of the heart-crushing slap was limited.

No one would expose their chest or back so that you could hit them.

It was human instinct to protect their most vulnerable areas.

Furthermore, minor injuries did not really have much impact on people of their level. However, Abel did not expect David to not move at all. Now, even if David reacted, it would be too late to do anything because the heart-crushing slap was about to get reach David's heart. If David was seriously injured, Abel would have the confidence to kill David right there and then.

After that, Abel would be famous for killing someone who was halfway to God Rank while he himself was also halfway to God Rank.

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 614

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 614

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 614

He would definitely become famous with this incident. "Get lost!" David uttered two words when he saw Abel's heart-crushing slap approaching his chest.

The words 'get lost' resounded in everyone's ears like a thunderbolt.

Immediately afterward, Abel felt an imposing force that was countless times stronger than his.

The body was hit by this powerful force, and he was instantly knocked nearly ten meters back before slamming into the wall.

Bang bang bang bang bang! A violent crash sounded.

Not only was Abel knocked against the wall by David's momentum. The other four members of the Pearson family were also affected and were thrown against the wall.

Meanwhile, the table and the chair they had just sat on were shattered!

The wall was also covered with cracks after they crashed onto it. Even the paint on the wall fell to the ground.

Killer and the gang who stood behind David stared at everything in front of them with wide eyes and dropped jaws.

It felt like a dream. The fight just now was over in a very short period. It only took two or three seconds for Abel to take action and then get knocked backward by David's two words.

Was this the strength of a God Rank guardian?

They were unable to move due to the aura from Abel, someone who was halfway to the God Rank

However, Abel's full blow was rendered useless by two words from the captain such that he could not even fight back.

He was too strong!

Unbelievably strong!

In their current state, they could not even fathom how the captain had done this.

He did not even bother to move.

One simple 'get lost' could achieve this effect.

In truth, David did not exert much energy.

If he exerted all of his energy, this building might not be able to withstand it and it would immediately collapse. The strength of a peak God Ranker was so terrifying.

David did not expect this either. No wonder Mason could fight nine people at the same time. David wanted to say ‘I want to fight ten people at the same time’ pretentiously.

If the people looking to fight him were just at the beginner stage of God Rank, he would even be able to handle 20 of them.

“You... You... You’re not halfway to the God Rank. You... You... You are a God Rank guardian!” Abel said in horror as he struggled to get up from the floor.

The rest of the members of the Pearson family also struggled to get up after gradually coming to their senses.

Fortunately, they had been behind Abel earlier.

Most of the power from David’s words was absorbed by Abel, someone who was halfway to God Rank. If not, with their current strength, they would have been killed by David. The five of them looked at David in horror.

They finally came back to their senses.

Everything they experienced just now felt like a dream.

They only heard ‘get lost’ and then their bodies were immediately sent flying by an unsurpassed force. Right now, a lot of their bones had been fractured. Whenever they struggled to move, they would have to endure intense pain.

Q

However, the pain in their bodies was nothing compared to the fear in their hearts.

Their opponent was too strong! He only said ‘get lost’ and they had no way of fighting back.

Their opponent did not even need to move to kill them.

If he said ‘get lost’ one more time, none of them here would be able to withstand it anymore.

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 615

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 615

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 615

Abel looked at David, who was wearing a silver mask, and felt extremely shocked inside his heart.

Captain Silver Face was definitely a God Rank guardian, and he was not a normal God Rank guardian at that. He was at least mid-God Ranker, or he might even be at the later stage.

The Pearson family had a God Rank guardian. It was his big brother, Reid Pearson. He was Miles’ biological grandfather and also a God Rank guardian. He was at the top of the beginner stage of the God Rank and he might break through to be a mid-God Ranker at any time. However, his big brother could not exude so much power when he said ‘get lost’ just like David did.

‘Who is Silver Face?’

‘Didn’t they say he’s just halfway to the God Rank? ‘The strength he exposed now is at least mid-God Rank.

‘This is horrifying.

‘What should I do? ‘The Pearson family can’t stop him at all!’
Aside from the Pearson family, his strength as a mid-God Ranker had surpassed that of most hidden sects and families.

It was estimated that only a few top hidden sects and families such as the Krums would be able to deter him.

With Silver Face’s strength, the Pearson family would not even dare to make a squeak even if they were all killed here.

This was the difference in power.

Abel’s big brother would not jeopardize the entire Pearson family for their sake.

Moreover, he might even come here to apologize personally. He would need to pay some price to keep the Pearson family safe.

‘How can I save my life now?’ “So what if I am? What if I’m not? Isn’t your family so powerful that you want to make Red Flame pay? Didn’t you say you want to dominate Dark Cape? What’s the matter now? Are you scared?” David asked sarcastically again. “Please don’t be mad, Mr. Guardian. I fail to recognize true strength, so that’s why I offended you. Please spare us! The Pearson family will definitely be grateful to you!” Abel endured the debilitating pain in his body and knelt on the floor before saying humbly.

At this moment, he had a completely different attitude compared to earlier. The Pearson family could not compare to David, who had just showed the strength of a mid God Ranker.

He just wanted to save his own life now.

He could only pray that David would give them a way out and spare them for the sake that their family who also had a God Rank guardian. Otherwise, they would surely die even though he was halfway to the God Rank and he had such a strong hidden family backing him. Miles and the others saw Abel kneeling.

Therefore, they all endured the severe pain in their bodies and struggled to kneel on the ground.

They finally chose to let go of their dignity when faced with the threat of death.

Furthermore, his Grandpa Abel, who had the strength of someone who was halfway to the God Rank, had knelt, let alone them with their measly strength. “P-Please don’t be mad, Mr. Guardian. I was wrong. I shouldn’t have broken the rules of Dark Cape. Please... Please spare us! The Pearson family will surely compensate for the loss,” Abel said tremblingly while kowtowing. Thud thud thud thud thud thud! The four Dragon Rank masters behind him also started kowtowing.

“Weren’t you pretty arrogant just now? You made a mistake, and you even wanted me, the captain, to come to negotiate with you. Now that I am here, the result of this negotiation is that whoever made the mistake will be the one to bear the responsibility. Who was the one who forced himself onto the attendant? Kill yourself and I will spare the rest of you. If not, none of you will be spared even if I have to do it personally,” David said insipidly.

Since he wanted to build his reputation, how could he do so if no one lost their life? Additionally, the person who died should be of pretty high status. If not, the effect would be greatly diminished.

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 616

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 616

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 616

Since the Pearson family had a God Rank guardian, it would be enough for him to use their heir as a vessel to show his prestige.

If the Pearson family was not convinced, then David would not mind destroying the entire family. “No... No... I don’t want to die! I don’t want to die! I’m still young! I’m the most talented person in the Pearson family. My Grandpa Reid is a God Rank guardian, so you can’t kill me. You can’t! Grandpa Abel, save me!” Miles yelled when he heard that David wanted him to kill himself.

He was the most gifted person in this generation of the Pearson family, and he was loved by the elders of the family.

Furthermore, his Grandpa Reid was also a God Rank guardian, so he had a noble status.

He was still young!

He did not want to die yet! He was also going to be the next head of the Pearson family and become a God Rank guardian to lead the Pearson family to a higher level.

“You’re still young? You don’t want to die? Was the woman whom you raped not young? Did she want to die? Did she deserve to die? What you are experiencing now is the despair she felt when she jumped off the building after you forced yourself onto her! You must have felt so happy at that time! Scum like you won’t be enough to make up for even one life as pure as hers even if you die ten times!”

“Mr. Guardian, Miles’ Grandpa Reid, who is also my big brother, is also a God Rank guardian. Please spare Miles for the sake of my brother. The Pearson family will definitely compensate the deceased a hundredfold!”

“Can compensation be exchanged for life? Then, I shall kill all of you now and ask the Pearson family to come to me for compensation!” David said with a sneer, Abel dared not answer him.

He was genuinely scared that David would kill all of them out of anger.

If he had to choose, he would choose to sacrifice Miles to save their lives.

Even though Miles was the most talented one in his generation, would there only ever be one heir in a powerful family? There were several backup heirs in the Pearson family, but there were only two people who were halfway to the God Rank in the Pearson family.

If Miles died, they could just cultivate another person.

The only thing was that it would be difficult for him to explain to his big brother. “However, he believed that his big brother would focus on the bigger picture. Besides, his big brother had more than one grandson.

If he, a person who was halfway to the God Rank was dead, the Pearson family’s strength would be greatly diminished, and in the coming troubled times, their competitiveness would also decrease sharply. As the highest decision-maker of the Pearson family, his brother Reid would make the choice that was most beneficial to the Pearson family.

“Killer!” David called out when he saw that the Pearson family was not talking.

“Captain, I’m here,” Killer stood up and replied.

“Take them all back and keep a close eye on them. Tell them to contact the head of the Pearson family and tell him to talk to me.”

“Yes, Captain!”

After David finished speaking, he said to Abel and the others, “You’d better obey the arrangement and wait for the people from your family to come. If you dare to resist, don’t blame me for killing you.”

“We understand, Mr. Guardian!” Abel breathed a sigh of relief.

It would be fine as long as he did not kill them right away.

They would be ok when his brother Reid got here.

A guardian would have more confidence when they were talking with another guardian. At most, they would be forced to pay some kind of price. The Pearson family had a huge business, and they could afford it. This was unlike himself, who was currently completely suppressed and had no right to speak. The people from the Pearson family were brought back to Red Flame Mercenaries’ castle by Killer and were imprisoned in the cells while they waited for the God Rank guardian of the Pearson family to come. Miles was relieved too.

In his opinion, as long as Grandpa Reid was here, everything would be fine. That night, Abel called the Pearson family in Somerland. However, it would take several days to contact Reid and have him come to Dark Cape. This was because the Pearson family’s hidden location had a very strong magnetic field and there was no radio signal there. Thus, they could only inform the other members of the Pearson family in Somerland and get them to rush back to the hidden location and inform Reid. This trip would definitely take a few days.

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 617

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 617

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 617

David was thinking that since he wanted to show his prestige this time, he should go all out. Someone who was halfway to the God Rank like Abel was not enough, but a God Rank guardian would be enough.

If these two died in Dark Cape, no force in the world would dare to spy on this place.

Furthermore, since the Pearson family cultivated someone like Miles, they were probably not good people either.

They would just be a scourge for Somerland if he kept them around.

It would be good to get rid of them as soon as possible.

David did not have the slightest bit of sympathy for such a family that did not value ordinary people's lives.

If he was not so powerful, would the Pearson family agree with this principle?

It would be strange if they were not thinking of ways to kill him.

There was only one way to deal with this kind of hidden family that only obeyed the law of the jungle, and it was to have a bigger fist and be stronger than them. That way, they would not dare to do anything to you. David originally planned to wait for Reid, the guardian of the Pearson family, to arrive before he did anything as this would have a greater influence on deterring any other troublemakers. However, the next day he received a report from Killer. There had been more than a dozen conflicts at Dark Cape the previous night. Basically, they were all caused by hidden families like the Pearson family. The victims were local businesses in Dark Cape and some beautiful young women.

David felt that he could not wait any longer. If the people from the Pearson family did not arrive in the next few days, Dark Cape would fall into chaos, right? He also did not have the energy to look for these people one by one to settle their debts. Tomorrow would be the ten-year appointment and he would definitely go to participate when the time came.

Moreover, most of the people brought by these hidden sects and families were not eligible to participate, so they would stay in Dark Cape. If these people caused chaos, with Red Flame's feeble background, they would be not able to fight back at all.

After all, the people who could tag along were the elites of various hidden sects and families.

David still needed to deter these guys.

David immediately brought Killer to the place where Red Flame Mercenaries had imprisoned AUTY the Pearson family. He was going to flex his prestige with Miles. When the Pearson family saw David coming in, their hearts skipped a beat.

They were scared that David would change his mind and kill them before Reid came to pick them up. "Killer, bring Miles out and follow me," David said. "Yes, Captain!" Killer replied respectfully before opening the iron gate that held Miles. "No! No! I don't want to go! I don't want to go! Grandpa Abel, save me! Help me! They will definitely kill me!" Miles struggled and shouted. Abel was about to speak when David glanced over. He immediately held back what he wanted to say. It was because he saw a strong murderous intent in David's eyes. If he dared to speak, David would definitely kill him, and he could not save Miles even if he died. In order to save his own life, he could only choose silence. Just let Miles die!

The Pearson family would just promote another of its members to be the heir. Who asked him to not control his desires?

Coincidentally, he ran into Captain Silver Face, who was extremely powerful and despised evil. "No! No! Save me! Save me! Grandpa Abel, save me! I recognize my mistakes! Please let me go!" Miles cried while struggling. Miles was terrified as he faced his impending death. At this moment, he only had regret in his heart. He regretted coming to participate in this ten-year appointment.

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 618

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 618

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 618

He regretted being so unrestrained when he saw a pretty young attendant. He did not expect that it would cause such serious consequences and possibly even costing his life.

Who would have thought that Silver Face, the captain of the Red Flame Mercenaries who looked like he was halfway to the God Rank on the surface, would turn out to be a God Rank guardian?

Everyone else did not expect it, let alone him.

Otherwise, Dark Cape would not be as chaotic as it was now.

Now he was seriously injured and as he was being carried by Killer, who was a mid-Dragon Ranker, he offered no resistance at all.

David took Miles away.

Abel never dared to say a word throughout this.

He could only silently hope that his big brother Reid would arrive soon.

David took Miles to the Black Sand Hotel and stood in the center of several buildings.

The Black Sand Hotel was composed of three twelve-story buildings. Right now, David was at the center of the three buildings. “Friends from Somerland! I, Silver Face, the captain of Red Flame Mercenaries in Dark Cape, have something to tell you!” David was not speaking loudly but his voice traveled very far. Everyone in the three buildings could hear him clearly.

The guests staying in the hotel opened their windows one after another and looked at David, who was wearing a mask downstairs.

They knew of Silver Face, the captain of Red Flame Mercenaries in Dark Cape. They knew he was halfway to God Rank

He destroyed Bloodthirsty Mercenaries that once occupied this place and now, he replaced them as the master of this place.

However, some of them here were not scared of David at all.

He was just halfway to God Rank They had their own people who were at the same rank in their families or sects. When he saw a lot of people opening their windows, David continued, “You are our guests, and Dark Cape welcomes you. However, I hope you can follow the rules of Dark Cape. If anyone dares to violate the rules here, then don’t blame me for being rude.” “I wonder, how are you going to be rude to us?” A voice asked. “You want to know?” David asked.

“Yeah!” The voice answered.

“Who else wants to know?” David asked again.

“Me!”

“Me!”

“Me!”

In that instant, a few voices answered.

Inside a room in the Black Sand Hotel.

Lorraine and a charming middle-aged woman were leaning against the window as they watched David downstairs.

At this moment, Lorraine had a veil in front of her face to hide her unmatched beauty and also avoid trouble.

Lorraine felt that this figure looked familiar but since he was wearing a mask, she could not tell who it was.

“Master, isn’t Silver Face just halfway to God Rank ? Why does he dare to go against so many people on the same level as him ? Or did he hide his true strength ? Can you tell ?” Lorraine asked the middle-aged woman.

The middle-aged woman was Lorraine’s master and also the third elder of the Krums, Taylor Coda. At the same time, she was also a master who was halfway to God Rank. Ever since David gave his first statement , Taylor had already opened the window to observe David.

However, she could not see anything until now.

This shocked her.

It was either David specialized in a hidden martial art or his realm was much higher than hers.

“I can’t tell. Silver Face is a little mysterious. Is he afraid that others will recognize him and that’s why he’s wearing a mask ?” Taylor answered.

“What ? You can’t tell as well ? No way !” Lorraine asked in surprise.

She knew her master’s ability.

She could basically see the general strength of someone of the same level or one level higher than her.

However, right now, her master was saying that she could not see through Silver Face. “It’s not surprising at all. There will always be people better than us. Right now, not only Somerland, but hidden forces from all over the world will soon resurface. Some of them have practiced hidden martial arts, so that's why I can't read them.' "Isn't Silver Face from Somerland?" "I can't be sure right now. Let's continue keeping an eye on him. If he wants to deter these people, he can't do it without showing some strength." With that, both master and apprentice stared at David on the ground floor.

'Let's see how he will deal with so many masters who are halfway to God Rank.'

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 619

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 619

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 619

At this moment, it was not only Lorraine and Taylor who were paying attention to David. There were also many people familiar with David who were also paying attention to him. However, they did not know his true identity.

Like Stan and Clinton.

As the protagonists of this ten-year appointment, they naturally came to Dark Cape early.

Everyone else could be late, but not the two of them.

Of course, they had long known that the ten-year appointment had changed in nature.

However, they had expected this.

A woman, even if she was of peerless grace and beauty, would not have the power to cause such a big impact

They even prepared for this for a whole decade!

Most of the people who were participating in this ten-year appointment were here for the title of the number one among the younger generation in Somerland, while Lorraine was just a side-trophy. Being able to be called the number one among the younger generation in Somerland and getting Lorraine was naturally the best result.

Even if they could not become the number one among the younger generation in Somerland, as long as they were outstanding enough at this appointment, they could make people remember them, their families, or sects. That would be their goal.

After all, the age span between the younger generation was still relatively large.

Those under forty were also called the younger generation.

In this case, comparing someone in their twenties like Miles to someone in their thirties and forties would mean the former would undoubtedly be at a disadvantage.

Miles did not come here to compete for the number one among the younger generation.

He just wanted to show his talent and make everyone remember him. It was rare for someone to break through to Dragon Rank in their twenties.

Although he was not comparable to the heirs of the several top forces, he was still very talented compared to other forces.

Moreover, Miles also had another important purpose, and it was to meet Lorraine, a woman of peerless elegance. He preferred to conquer a world-famous woman like Lorraine rather than fighting for the number one spot.

Of course, it would be best to conquer the world while he was also conquering women if he could.

However, he did not expect to be facing such harsh consequences after he raped an ordinary attendant at a whim.

Now, all of his plans were gone.

He just wanted to live!

It was his greatest wish at this moment to be able to return to his family alive and safe.

As for someone like David who had gotten the cheat code of life, he was not comparable to the younger generation, nor was he comparable to the older generation. After a while, Mason, a peak God Ranker, would be miles behind him.

Troubled times were coming, and chaos would soon arise. Hence, many forces would surely disappear into the annals of history.

Members of these forces could not die off completely as it would inevitably cause many strong people to lose their support. At this time, famous families and sects would become the targets of these people.

This was the ultimate goal of this ten-year appointment. It was to build up one's reputation and prepare to recruit more talents in the future.

All the forces knew this, so they took it seriously and participated very eagerly.

Many people who participated in the ten-year appointment had been ordered by their families and sects to go all out to make their families and sects famous.

After all, these people had stayed hidden for decades and most of them had been forgotten.

The ones who could be remembered were just a few of the top forces.

“Since everyone wants to know, then I will satisfy your curiosity! I hope you will dare to talk to me like this after you see it,” David said with a sneer.

“Silver Face, what's the point of this? Just close one eye. Do you think you can compete with so many of us?”

“That's right! Silver Face, you should know the purpose of our visit to Dark Cape. We will leave in a few days at most, so just bear with us. We also don't want to be Red Flame's enemy. Chaos is coming and it is best to save our strength right now.”

“Bear with it? All of you dare not mess around in Somerland, but when you come to Dark Cape, you think you can let yourself go and do whatever you want? You’re just a bunch of scumbags who are even lower than low!” David scolded directly.

“How presumptuous!”

“How dare you!”

“Silver Face, you are so ignorant. Don’t blame me for joining forces to kill you right here right now! I’ll destroy your Red Flame Mercenaries!” An angry voice said. “Hahaha! You want to join forces to kill me? Come on! I’ll just stand here and wait! I want to see how you scumbags will join forces to kill me. You’re just a group of scumbags who always think you are superior to others! Little do you know that you are the most despicable beings in my eyes,” David stood there and said while laughing. He did not take this man’s threat seriously at all.

If these people dared to take action, he would not mind killing them directly.

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 620

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 620

I’ m A Quadrillionaire chapter 620

They were just a bunch of feel-good punks who were not in touch with reality. They would become a scourge sooner or later if David kept them around.

It would be better to get rid of them now. David's arrogant and domineering actions dissatisfied many people, but no one dared to do anything. The people who just said they would join forces to kill David were silent. If someone dared to scold so many people so arrogantly, it was either they were a fool or they were simply courting death.

Or, they had the confidence because they had back up supporting him, causing them to be unafraid of these people joining forces.

As the captain of the Red Flame Mercenaries, David was halfway to God Rank, so could he be a fool?

4W

Clearly not! In that case, there was only one possibility. David had backup.

After all, he was the owner of Dark Cape.

He had controlled Dark Cape for so long, so it was normal for him to be prepared.

At this time, no one wanted to be the first one to test him.

Although many people were halfway to God Rank here, each major force only had one person who was leading the team. Everyone had their own plans, and they could not join forces. To kill David who was halfway to God Rank, at least three people who were halfway to God Rank needed to join forces.

Moreover, they also needed to avoid possible accidents, so after some calculations they needed at least five or more God Rankers.

“Master, how dare he?” Lorraine looked at David standing below in surprise. The words David just said offended almost everyone here.

He was just halfway to God Rank, so how could he dare do this?

There were quite a few powerful masters who were halfway to God Rank here.

Once he provoked these people to join forces, it would be no joke. Even the guardians at the early stage of the God Rank would have to weigh out the pros and cons of doing something like this. The more Lorraine looked, the more familiar Silver Face became. She had definitely seen this guy somewhere.

Wait!

Lorraine suddenly thought of a person.

David!

The young man whom she had met twice.

Once at the Gooding residence and once at Old Master Stefani’s residence.

They had the same body, same mysteriousness, and she could not see through the both of them...

Lorraine combined the two figures in her mind.

The only difference between the two was the mask.

‘No way!’ Lorraine shook off her unrealistic thought. David was in his early twenties, so how was it possible for him to have reached such heights?

Silver Face was at least halfway to God Rank or maybe even higher.

Despite this, these two figures lingered in Lorraine’s mind. She might have been expecting something in her heart.