“I can’t see through him, I just can’t.” Taylor looked at David and shook her head. She still could not see through David at all up until now.

Even if David was prepared, or even more extreme, David had broken through the God Rank and become a guardian, she also could not understand why David dared to say something that would offend everyone.

Not only were there more than ten people who were halfway to the God Rank here, but more importantly, the people here represented almost all the hidden sects and families in Somerland. How powerful were these forces combined? It would be no exaggeration to say that this force could easily overturn the entire country of Somerland if Somerland did not have Mason, a terrifying peak God Ranker. ‘How dare a lowly captain of Red Flame Mercenaries offend so many forces at the same time? ‘Where did he come from?’ Taylor’s heart was also full of doubts.

“Master, I have a question for you,” Lorraine said suddenly.

“Ask away,” Taylor said. “Is it possible for a young man in his early twenties to reach the height of someone who’s halfway to God Rank?” Lorraine asked what was on her mind.

“Lori, did you discover something?” Taylor asked, looking at David’s masked figure. “I think this Silver Face person looks a lot like a person I know.” “Who?”

Lorraine then told her master Taylor the two encounters she had with David in detail.

After hearing that, Taylor was silent for a while. Then, she said, “I’ve never heard of someone reaching halfway to the God Rank in their early twenties. This person should not be human at all!”

“But Master, you said that according to the records of the sect, the world is about to be in a catastrophe soon. In such a huge era, many geniuses will emerge as the times require! Therefore, it’s very possible for such a monster to suddenly appear, right?” “No matter how much of a monster he is, there must be a limit, right? Someone being halfway to the God Rank in their early twenties has never appeared in Somerland’s thousands of years of history. You must know that somerland has also experienced several great eras. The most recent one was a hundred years ago, and the one who led that era was Old Master Mason Stefani. Now, he is also the top master in the world. He suppressed all the hidden sects and families by himself. However, even he wouldn’t have reached those heights in his early twenties.”

Lorraine did not ask any further questions. Instead, she was fascinated by the masked David downstairs. Although her master Taylor had clearly told her that it was impossible, she still had a tinge of doubt in her heart. As for whether David and Silver Face were the same people, she needed to slowly verify this suspicion.

David waited for a long time, but no one moved. Then, he shouted again, “Why are you not talking? Don’t you want to kill me together? Don’t be such cowards! Can you be men? Don’t make me look down on you beasts! Even a cornered dog will jump over the wall while a rabbit will bite when they’re anxious! Are you even worse than these animals?”

David continued to challenge these people. He hoped that they would take action first so that he would be forced to fight back. If he accidentally killed them, it would not be his fault, right? If he acted first, he would seem like a bully since he was stronger. After all, he was already a peak God Ranker.

If he took action against these people who were halfway to God Rank first, it would make him look arrogant, and he would become a laughing stock. However, it would not be the same if he was forced to fight back. One could not insult the prestige of a peak God Ranker. “Everyone, you heard him! Silver Face is disrespecting all of us! If we continue to stay silent, how will our families and sects show our faces if word about this got out? How are we going to recruit more people in the future?”

“You’re right! Since Silver Face is not going to respect us, then we’ll give him a lesson that he’ll never forget! Even if he has backup, I don’t believe that he can block so many people attacking him at once! Plus, the measly Red Flame Mercenaries cannot compare to the force behind us.”

“I second this motion! I agree to us working together!”

“I second this motion! I agree that we work together!” “I also second this motion! Let’s work together!” Soon, a few masters from different forces who were halfway to the God Rank agreed to work together to fight David. After all, David’s words were too unpleasant to the ears.

On the otherhand, an upright sect like the Krums would not bother to work together to take action against David. David was beaming underneath his mask at this moment.

Come on then!

‘Hurry up!

“The more the merrier!

‘I won’t say that all of you are bullying me because I am alone.’

At this moment, a voice that was full of vigor could be heard.

“Silver Face, enough is enough! Everyone is here to participate in the ten-year appointment to compete for luck, there is no need to fight! This is not good for anyone! You should all restrain yourself! Don’t cross the line!”. “Who do you think you are? Do you think we’ll restrain ourselves just because you told us to? We’re being restricted in Somerland and now that we’re in Dark Cape, we can’t even indulge ourselves? Then what’s the point of us resurfacing? It’d be better to just stay home and wait for death!” Someone immediately retorted.

“Yeah, we’ve had enough in Somerland! Why should we suffer this grievance now that we’re in Dark Cape? Mason is not here, so what are we afraid of?” “I agree! After we kill Silver Face and destroy Red Flame Mercenaries, this place will be our paradise!”

The vigorous voice said again. “I asked you to restrain yourselves for your own good. As for who am I? I am Augustus King from the King family!” ‘Augustus King from the King family?’ Everyone present was shocked. “Master, could this be the most mysterious hidden family, the King family?” Lorraine asked hoarsely. “Exactly,” Taylor replied. Lorraine looked excited at this time. The ten-year appointment this time actually attracted the King family.

This was the most mysterious and powerful hidden family according to the legends. They had never revealed their full strength and had existed for thousands of years. It was said in comparison, that the Krums were inferior to them.

The old man who had just spoken to refute Augustus was in a panic at that moment.

He was rude at that moment, but he did not expect to bump into someone from the King family. He was truly courting death! Even if the other party was in the same realm as him and they were both halfway to the God Rank, the person was not someone he could compare with. Furthermore, the strength of the King family had always been a mystery. The unknown was the most terrifying. According to the recorded history of the family, whenever the King family resurfaced, their strength would shock everyone.

Therefore, he quickly said, “Mr. Augustus, it’s you! I’m so sorry for being impolite. Please don’t take what I said just now to heart,

Mr. Augustus. I will definitely listen to you and I will not violate the rules of Dark Cape.”

Then, no one dared to continue speaking because no one dared to cross the King family. In the records of the other hidden families and sects, this family was definitely not to be messed with.

Whenever the King family came out of hiding, they would only send a few people. Thus, no one knew how powerful their family was. They only knew that this family was not to be messed with.

David was cursing in his heart at this moment.

Originally, his taunts had been successful.

These people were ready to attack him immediately. Based on the last few words they just said, David would not have gone easy on them. Even if he did not kill them, he would cripple them all so that they would not continue to harm people. In the end, he did not expect to be cockblocked by someone who suddenly appeared. ‘Augustus King? ‘Is this family from Somerland? ‘It must be a hidden family! ‘If he can make the people from various who’re halfway to God Rank forces obey him, then his family is definitely not weak.’

“Augustus, right? It’s okay if you want me to stop. Tell the ones who violated the rules of Dark Cape to apologize to the victims in person, as long as they get their victim’s forgiveness and promise that they will never do it again when they’re in Dark Cape, I will stop pursuing this. Or else, I will personally look for them one by one,” David said loudly.

“How presumptuous! Silver Face, do you think you can call Mr. Augustus’ name like that? Hurry up and apologize to Mr. Augustus now! How reckless! Someone immediately defended Augustus.

No matter when or where the King family appeared, they would be the center of attention.

“Silver Face, stop pursuing this for my sake. Everyone has been in hiding for many years and, understandably, they are somewhat uncomfortable with the outside world,” Augustus said slowly.

“Understandable? Is it understandable that they disregard other people’s wishes, forcibly have sex with them, and finally cause the victim to jump off the building and commit suicide? You know what happened in the hotel yesterday, right? This is what you people who are out of touch with reality do. Ordinary people are just slaves in your eyes! Augustus, if you share the same thoughts as them, what is the difference between the King family and these beasts?” David asked with a sneer. In another room of the Black Sand Hotel. A middle-aged man in his fifties was sitting on a chair in a daze.

He was Augustus King of the King family. At this moment, Augustus had not yet come back to his senses. This was the first time someone dared to point to the King family’s nose and call them beasts.

After David finished speaking, the scene fell into silence.

“This will be good. Everyone was waiting for the outburst from the King family. As long as Augustus took the lead, they could follow suit and kill Silver Face. Not only could they seek revenge for being scolded just now, but they could also gain the favor of the King family. They would be killing two birds with one stone. Silver Face might have a screw loose. The room door was opened.

Soon, a young man in his thirties and a woman who looked 25 to 26 years old walked in. The man had a majestic appearance and there was a tinge of rage on his handsome face.

The woman had a veil in front of her face so her appearance could not be seen. However, her long legs would astonish many people.

She looked like she was 175cm tall and her long legs were about 100cm long. At first glance, she looked as if legs reached all the way to her neck. Moreover, her eyes were glazed over and they were dripping with seduction. She was definitely a devilishly beautiful woman, but unfortunately, her face was covered. These two were the most outstanding youngsters in this generation of the King family. They were siblings, Raymond King and Selena King. “Uncle Augustus, Silver Face is so bold. How dare he scold our family! Hurry up and do something to suppress him. Make him kneel and apologize to the King family,” Raymond said angrily. “Raymond, calm down. You can’t only look at things on the surface. Silver Face must have something to lean on since he dares to disrespect us and scolds us while pointing to our noses. The family sent us this time so that you can win the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland. This title will be very useful in the future so we can't make any mistakes. Before we understand what Silver Face has hidden up his sleeves, we shouldn't deliberately complicate the issue," Augustus came back to his senses and said with a faint smile.

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 624

Raymond looked at his Uncle Augustus and was speechless.

Uncle Augustus was great, but he was too cautious.

He had to calculate and understand everything before taking action. He would never fight an uncertain battle.

This time, the family sent Uncle Augustus to follow him, but he already knew it was not going to be good.

'How frustrating!

Calm down after his family was scolded?

How could he calm down?

If it were not for the fact that the other party was halfway to God Rank and he was not strong enough, he would have rushed over and killed him himself. It did not matter if the other party had something hidden up his sleeves.

If he dared to scold the King family like that, it would mean that he was courting death.

No matter how strong his trump card was, could it be stronger than the King family? What a joke!

“Uncle Augustus, he’s pointing at our noses and scolding us. Even if you don’t do anything, you can still reply to him! Everyone will think that the King family is cowardly for not speaking after so long!” Raymond said with a wry smile.

“Don’t pay attention to him, let him put on a show on his own. We should just do our own thing. No one will dare to have any ideas toward the King family regardless of if we are cowardly or not,” Augustus said.

Raymond decided that from now on, he would not tell people who he was next time went out.

He could not let others know that he was a member of the King family.

‘This is too embarrassing!’ Selena had been standing quietly by the side and did not say anything. A minute had passed... Two minutes had passed...

Five minutes had passed...

There was no response for five whole minutes.

The people who were waiting to watch this drama were struck dumb. The people who were waiting for Augustus to take action and then follow suit were struck dumb.

David was also flabbergasted.

‘Is this badass family so cowardly? ‘This is illogical.’ He had pointed at them and called them beasts. Could they endure even this? David thought they were preparing for a killing strike but it turned out to be just a dud of a bomb. “Um, uh... King family, don’t you have anything to say?” David could not stop himself from asking

“We don’t have anything to say. I think you’re right. Everyone should be equal. We’re not superior to ordinary folk. We’re all humans and we all have mothers, so we’re all living beings. There should be no inequality among us,” Augustus said faintly.

Regardless of if Augustus was sincere or not, David felt that he should pay some respect to Augustus. As all of the hidden families and sects felt that they were superior to ordinary folk, finally, a normal family had appeared. “Augustus, I take back what I said just now. You’re indeed different from them. If there’s a chance in the future, let’s have a chat. I’m very interested in the members of the King family,” David said seriously. This was the first time a hidden family’s word struck a chord in his heart. This was also the first time he had a good impression of a hidden family. “Alright, the King family will be waiting for you.”

Although his plan had been sabotaged by Augustus, David bore no hatred for him.

On the contrary, because of what Augustus said, David felt a great affection for Augustus and the King family. When there was a chance in the future, he would get in touch with the King family and see if everyone in that family shared this idea.

After this incident, David was not in the mood to continue talking nonsense with these people, “Killer, bring me Miles,” David yelled.

Killer walked over to David with Miles.

At this time, Miles had fallen into a coma because of his serious injuries and the pressure of imminent death.

David grabbed Miles’ neck and slowly floated into the air.

After he ascended about seven or eight floors high, he stopped.

It was not surprising that someone who was halfway to God Rank could float in the air for a short time.

After stopping in the air, David said, “The person in my hand is Miles Pearson, a descendant of the hidden Pearson family. There should be some people here who know him.”

David finished and held Miles up in front of him, showing his face to the others before turning around.

Many people saw what Miles looked like from the window.

“It really is Miles! I know him! We had a drink together yesterday!”

“How is that possible? How dare Silver Face touch someone from the Pearson family?”

“Since Miles is in Silver Face’s hands, what about Abel? The second head of the Pearson family? Where is he? He is also a master who’s halfway to God Rank!”

“The descendant of the Pearson family is in Silver Face’s hands, and we don’t know if he’s alive or dead. Why aren’t the people from the Pearson family here?”

After confirming Miles’ identity, everyone started discussing among themselves.

At the same time, they were curious.

At this moment, David continued, “This person named Miles who is in my hands couldn’t keep it in his pants when he saw a young and beautiful attendant and raped her last night. In the end, the attendant could not bear the disgrace and jumped down from the hotel, killing herself.

“The rule of Dark Cape is an eye for an eye. No matter who you are, if you’re here and you make a mistake, you will have to accept the consequences. Miles killed the attendant because of his lust, so he’ll pay for it with his life.” After David said that, he exerted some force on his hand and directly broke Miles par

Then, he tossed Miles to the ground from above.

Thud!

When Miles' corpse hit the ground, it caused a loud noise. Everyone shuddered and looked blankly at David, who was suspended in the air. 'He dared to kill a descendant of the Pearson family. 'Is he not scared of the revenge by the Pearson family? 'The Pearson family is a huge family with a God Rank guardian, while Silver Face is just halfway to God Rank! 'Right, where is the person who's also halfway to God Rank in the Pearson family? 'Why is he not here? 'Did something happen to him?'

“Abel Pearson has been imprisoned by me and he's waiting for the God Rank guardian from the Pearson family to save him. As for whether he will survive until then, that will depend on my mood. In case you dare to do something like this again, let Miles from the Pearson family serve as an example for you.”

After David said that, everyone stared at him with their jaws on the floor.

Abel, a master who was halfway to God Rank from the Pearson family, was taken down by Silver Face and had been imprisoned. Wasn't Silver Face a master who was halfway to God Rank as well? How could he take down Abel so silently?

This news was too shocking.

They needed some time to digest this.

“The reason I am here today is to warn everyone, or rather, punish Miles as an example to you all. Anyone who goes against the rules here should take care of the issue and get the forgiveness of the victims. If I have to go to you personally, then the matter won't be resolved so easily.

“Of course, you can also work together to kill me just like what you said just now. That way, you can do whatever you want in Dark Cape and no one will control you. However, if you want to kill me, you should be prepared to die.”

When David said the word ‘die’, the strength in his body immediately poured out like a valve had been opened. Everyone felt a destructive aura overwhelming them and they felt suffocated. This included the people who were halfway to the God Rank. Crash crash crash crash crash crash! The glass on the windows in the three buildings that were facing David were all broken. Everyone felt as if they had been choked. Inside Lorraine’s room, she fell to the ground as the entire room was filled with glass shards.

Taylor stood in front of Lorraine and blocked most of the aura for her.

At this moment, Taylor was gasping for air.

The glass shards ripped her clothes and even sliced open her smooth skin, leaving some small bloody marks. “Master?” Lorraine quickly got up to support Taylor. Lorraine could not believe the scene just now.

He only released a burst of energy and he managed to hurt her master who was halfway to God Rank!

How was this possible? “I’m fine,” Taylor answered. “Master, he...he...he...”

“Judging from that burst of energy, he should be above a mid-level God Ranker. He’s even more powerful than the senior elder!” Taylor said.

‘More powerful than the senior elder?’

Lorraine was dumbfounded.

Inside Augustus’ room, he was standing in front of Raymond and Selena after having blocked the strong energy David released.

“U-U-Uncle Augustus?” Raymond stammered.

“Father,” Selena also called out softly.

It was just one word but her voice was melodic, sweet, and pleasant to the ears. “I’m fine. Even though I can’t defeat him, I can still block his energy,” Augustus laughed.

The situation in this room was different from Lorraine’s room. Augustus completely blocked the sudden burst of energy coming from David. Therefore, Raymond and Selena were not hurt at all. The glass shards from the window were all stopped at the side of the window. Evidently, Augustus was much more powerful than Taylor, the third elder of the Krums. Especially since he had broken through the halfway mark and was now a true God Rank guardian.

Even though he was just at the beginner stage of God Rank, he was still not comparable to someone who was halfway to God Rank. As for the other rooms, they were in slightly better shape if there was someone who was halfway to the God Rank inside.

However, the ones without such a guardian were in a tragic state.

Even so, David knew how to control himself.

His strong mind power covered the entire area, but he limited his strength so he did not hurt too many people.

Right now, they were just very shocked. He wanted this effect.

He wanted to intimidate everyone so that they would follow the rules in Dark Cape and not dare to have any other bad thoughts.

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 626

I' m A Quadrillionaire chapter 626

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 626

David had only unleashed the pressure of a mid-God Ranker, and his goal was to intimidate these people. Otherwise, how many people here would survive the full blast? Peak God Ranker's pressure was not something these little Dragon Rankers could bear if he gave them the full blast.

The moment he unleashed the pressure, David withdrew it and suspended in midair.

The seconds ticked by...

Everyone slowly returned to their senses.

However, they were still in a state of panic.

The destructive pressure just now scared them.

Everyone looked out of the window at the masked figure in midair. They were terrified but also impressed

This was what they were after.

He alone could hold out against all of the enemy forces! One man alone could defeat hundreds of forces and make them unable to lift their heads by standing in midair.

It was... awesome! When would they achieve such power?

“Today is just a warning! My word is the rule in Dark Cape, and anyone who breaks it is turning against me! If you do, your fate... will be the same as the Pearson family! “Like what I just said! Whoever disobeyed the rules and it didn’t lead to serious consequences, solve it yourself! Get the victim’s forgiveness, and I won’t pursue it. Forget about escaping! Even if you flee to your family or sect, I will find you! Don’t blame me for not warning you when you brought trouble to your sect and family!”

Everyone was silent! No one dared to speak. They even breathed carefully for fear that David would notice them. The half-step God Rankers, who had just said they were joining forces to kill David, was terrified.

In the face of such a powerful person in David, forget about three to five half-step God Rankers joining hands. Even thirty to fifty were doomed. If he was only a beginner God Ranker, the alliance of eight to ten half-step God Rankers still had a good chance at winning. However, the power David had just shown had far surpassed that of beginner God Ranker, which they were no match for. All the young people who participated in the ten-year appointment could not lift their heads up when they saw David suppressing so many half-step God Rankers. The men's eyes showed longing and desire.

The women not only had these two emotions but also an inexplicable glow. Though David wore a mask and changed his voice, he could not change his physique. Standing so erect in the air, they could not guess how old he was but could see that he was not very old. The body changed subtly as you get older. For example, with hunching and so on.

These took formation bit by bit.

David stood straight in midair and spoke with great energy, clearly indicating that he was in his prime! He did not show the slightest hint that he was approaching old age. Given David's powers, he was probably not too young. Everyone guessed he was somewhere between 40 and 50 years old.

A mid-god Ranker in his 40s or 50s. This talent was phenomenal!
