He could become a terrifying presence of the era like Mason. In this era where magnetic fields ruled, the average human age had reached nearly 100 years.

Forty or fifty years old was the age to make achievements.

He had achieved his purpose.

David did not want to stay around and have these people look at him like a monkey.

“Since nobody’s talking, I’ll assume you agree with me! If this happens again, don’t blame me for being rude, no matter what family you’re from! Okay... I hope you enjoy your stay in Dark Cape! And good luck with the ten-year appointment!”

David returned to the ground once he finished and left the Black Sand Hotel alongside Killer.

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief several minutes after David left.

“Uncle Augustus! Did you already know what Silver Face is capable of? Is that why you decided not to do anything?” Raymond asked.

He was in awe of Augustus.

He was also glad that his family had sent Augustus out with him.

If Silver Face had yelled at the King family like this, someone else might have acted.

By then, the King family would have been defeated and humiliated. Although he did not think Silver Face dared to kill the King family, it would be troublesome if his performance in the ten-year appointment tomorrow was affected because he was injured. His grandfather ordered him to win the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland.

There was a penalty for failing this mission.

He was confident, but it would be a different story if he was injured.

“Raymond! There’s always someone better. Never look down upon anyone without a thorough understanding of them! If it hadn’t been me but someone else in the King family, you might never have been able to go back,” Augustus said earnestly. “No way! Uncle Augustus! Even if Silver Face showed the strength of a mid-God Ranker, I don’t believe he’d kill anyone from the King family, or else there would be no place for him anywhere in the world,” Raymond retorted at once.

He admitted David was strong!

However, the King family was Somerland’s most mysterious and powerful hidden aristocratic family.

They were undeniably strong.

A single mid-God Ranker was not enough to pose a threat to the King family.

“Raymond, how can you be sure that Silver Face has shown everything he’s capable of? What if it’s just a part of his power, and he has hidden the rest of it? The King family is strong, but we’re not invincible! We also have enemies. It’s stupid to provoke a powerful and mysterious opponent for no reason,” Augustus said indifferently.

“Impossible, Uncle Augustus! That’s impossible! Silver Face doesn’t seem too old. It’s already fate-defying for him to be a mid-God Ranker now. How could he still hide his power? Who could be an enemy of the King family? Who dares to be an enemy of the King family?” Raymond asked a series of questions.

He just realized that there were things he did not know about the King family.

“There are things that you will know when the time comes. I’d just be adding to your troubles by telling you everything now! What you need to do now is win the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland tomorrow and make the King family famous to pave the way for our surfacing in Somerland.”

“Uncle Augustus! ...”

“Alright! Get ready! Be prepared. It’s show time for you tomorrow!”

“Got it, Uncle Augustus! I will try my best not to harm the King family’s reputation.”

“Good!”

Raymond turned and left Augustus' room.

He had many doubts, but now was not the time to ask these questions.

Besides, even if he asked, Uncle Augustus would not tell him.

He was going home to prepare himself. Tomorrow he was going to defeat all of Somerland's younger generation and win the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland, completing the mission his grandfather gave him. That way, he could access the King family's core secrets.

Only Augustus and Selena were left in the room. "Dad! Are you telling the truth that Silver Face didn't show everything he's capable of doing? Did he really hide his power?" Selena asked curiously.

Her voice was clear, magnetic, and melodious. It sounded very comforting.

"Who knows? I'm just speculating, but I think it's possible," said Augustus.

"Who on earth is Silver Face? There aren't many mid-God Rankers in the world, are there? Since he wears a mask and is afraid to show his true self, he must be afraid of being recognized. After all, Dark Cape is a unique location."

"I'm also curious about Silver Face's identity. I think he's young, but let's put that aside for now. I'm sure we'll find out who he is soon."

Selena, do you know why you came out with me this time?” “Why?” Selena asked.” She was curious too! She had no idea why his grandfather asked him to come out with her cousin this time!

Her grandfather said she should go out and see the world, but as a direct descendant of the King family, she knew it was not that straightforward.

She was always thinking of this.

Perhaps she had come out to make a sacrifice for the family this time. “What do you think? Selena, you have always been clever! You should have your own ideas!” Augustus replied. “Is it because the family needs to marry off someone?” Selena asked calmly. “Not exactly, but it’s true! Selena, as a descendant of the King family, I believe you’re ready to bring honor to the King family,” Augustus said in resignation. As Selena’s father, he wanted Selena to grow up carefree and marry someone she liked in the end!

However, he was not only Selena’s father but also the King family’s core member. The King family’s honor was result of the efforts of countless generations, and they should not be the one to destroy it.

In the King family’s thousand-year history, many people sacrificed their lives for the family’s honor.

Their generation had happened to be facing the crisis prophesied by their family history. To survive the disaster, the King family had to find the one that was spoken of in legend. The King family had no interest in the ten-year appointment. However, the family had to obtain the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland.

The idea of the one was illusory.

However, they still could not miss it.

Once they won the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland, they had the chance of becoming the one of legend, which was vital to surviving the crisis.

Therefore, the King family had made several preparations this time.

Not only did they send Raymond, the best among their young generation, but they sent Selena as well.

It would be best if Raymond won the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland tomorrow. That way, Selena would not have to sacrifice herself.

If something went wrong and caused the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland to fall into someone else's hand, the King family would have to step in and make the marriage happen no matter what. What if the other party refused?

They had not thought of the possibility!

Firstly, the King family was reputable and had been around for thousands of years. They were strong and had suppressed countless hidden aristocratic families. Who would not want to be involved with the King family?

The second was Selena. Selena's family had nurtured her from an early age. She was skillful in piano, chess, calligraphy, poetry, and singing. Besides, she had stunning looks, a perfect figure, a gentle character, and a melodious voice. No man could resist a woman like that.

"Who is it?" Selena asked again.

Her voice was gentle and calm, not at all angry at having to be married off.

She was not one to get angry. She was brought up to believe that a perfect woman should not have the discreditable emotion – fury. "I don't know yet! You're only the backup plan! If Raymond succeeds, you won't need to get married. You'll only have to do it if he fails!"

"Oh, I see!"

"Selena! For the King family's honor, I have no choice! Maybe one day, I won't hesitate to die for the family's honor too. It's our responsibility as a member of the King family."

"Dad, don't blame yourself! As a woman, it's only a matter of time before I get married. As a woman of the King family, I'm already prepared for it! Besides, I'm happy to marry the peerless hero who beats the rest of the younger generation in Somerland." "Selena, it's best that you think so! We live in an age where we can't always do what we like. Any mishap, and a family that had been around for thousands of years like the King family will also disappear."

"Is it that serious?" Selena asked with a frown. "According to the prophecy written in our family history, the situation may be much worse than we think! So, we have to be prepared for anything." Augustus had no choice but to reveal some core family secrets to comfort his daughter.

“How could we be sure that one can become the one by gaining the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland and help the King family survive the crisis?”

“We can’t! But according to family history, the person who wins the title will be recognized by everyone and have a much higher chance of becoming the one!” “I see! Don’t worry, Dad! I’m part of the King family too. I’ll do my best for our family’s honor.

Lorraine also had no idea that her accidental ten-year appointment would become not only a stage to compete for the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland but also the key for the sects and families to get the one to surviving the crisis.

Being the top hidden sect, the Krums must have known as well. They just did not tell Lorraine. Otherwise, they would not have gone all out to help Lorraine with her ten-year appointment.

They even sent over third elder Taylor.

The Krums had all the initiatives when it came to the ten-year appointment. This had all happened due to Lorraine’s ten-year appointment after all.

The winner of the tournament would win the ten-year appointment.

According to the rules, this person was supposed to marry Lorraine. In doing so, the Krums would also accomplish their goal. The Krums’ plan was similar to that of the King family. However, the Krums had more advantages than the King family.

David was already a peak God Ranker, but he had no idea about the one prophesized by the sects or the crisis. No one told him about these things.

David would be shocked if he knew.

“The one who could handle the crisis? ‘Aren’t I the one?

‘I have the only system in the world and have greatly surpassed those who have worked hard all their lives in less than a year. ‘Who else is luckier than me?

“Am I not the one when I’m so lucky? ‘What are they arguing about then?

‘Just go home and do whatever you have to do.’

Back in Red Flame Mercenaries’ castle, David got a call from Clinton in the afternoon.

He asked him if he had arrived!

The ten-year appointment was the next day.

If he had not reached Dark Cape today, it would be too late. After all, there were still more than 10 kilometers away from Dark Cape, and you needed to take a cruise ship to reach it. As the crowd at Dark Cape grew, Clinton also felt a great pressure. These heirs of the hidden aristocratic families and sects were powerful.

He had to gather all the forces together. Clinton's mindset had changed. He could lose to these powerful hidden heirs, but he could not lose to Stan.

SSUTH

As long as he beat Stan, he would be considered to have won the ten-year appointment.

The title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland was not included in the ten-year appointment.

When the time came, he would bring it up and separate the ten-year appointment from competing for the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. These two could not be mixed up. He needed to win the ten-year appointment before going on to the number one among the younger generation in Somerland.

David assured Clinton that he was on his way to Dark Cape. Then, David told Killer he needed to be gone for two days and left.

After finding a deserted place, David released his mind power. He made sure no one was around, took off his silver mask, changed his coat, and went to the Black Sand Hotel alone. The Black Sand Hotel had reserved a room for him.

Instead of going to the room, David called Clinton after reaching the Black Sand Hotel. Clinton asked him to meet after reaching Dark Cape to discuss how to handle the next day's ten-year appointment.

David arrived at Clinton's room door.

Knock knock knock!

He knocked on Clinton's room door. Soon the room door was opened. Clinton opened the door. "David's here! Come in!" Clinton said happily. "Clinton, I'm sorry! I was a little late because I was held up." "You're not late! It's ok as long as you're here, David! Come in and talk!" David followed Clinton into the room.

Three people were already sitting in the room.

David had seen two of them before.

Silva and Goldie!

There was also a young man whom David did not recognize. "David, long time no see!" Goldie said first.
