Chapter 641

Clinton's heart skipped a beat when he heard that the other party was from the Dominic family

As the top family in Somerland, the Zimmerman family naturally had some records of the Dominic family's deeds.

He did not expect Stan to invite someone from the Dominic family. Did the Warner family cooperate with the Dominic family? The Dominic family was stained, and the family was vindictive.

Those who offended them never ended well.

There was once a family that offended them and, in the end, they were directly exterminated by the Dominic family.

The Warner family is too bold.' Old Master Stefani said that no one could cooperate with a family with a stained record.

However, frankly speaking, if the Dominic family asked to cooperate with the Zimmerman family, Clinton might not reject them.

Mason was dying after all.

Once Mason was dead, Somerland would certainly not be able to deter so many hidden families and sects.

At that time, how would they gain a foothold if they were not strong?

However, even if Clinton wanted to cooperate with the Dominic family, he would cooperate in secret and he would not do it so blatantly as the Warner family.

'Or had the Warner family receive some news in Capital City?

'Could it be that... Mason has...?!

Clinton suppressed the idea for the time being.

At present, they should resolve the matter surrounding the ten-year appointment first.

When he got back, he had to inquire about news in this regard.

If it was true, then he needed to be prepared. He was also ready to rescue Goldie at any time.

This woman could not die.

If not, the Rogers family would go mad.

Two people at the scene were very nervous as well.

They were the second son Tony and Rhonda from the Rogers family.

The person on stage was the eldest daughter of the Rogers family and she was their cousin.

At the same time, she was also their competitor.

They both hoped that Goldie could win so she could improve the reputation of the Rogers family and make the Rogers family more competitive in the future, but at the same time, they also hoped that Goldie would be seriously injured and lose the ability to compete with them.

This contradiction made the two of them stare closely at the two people on the stage.

Upon hearing the exclamations of everyone present, Anthony smiled evilly and said, "How about we make a deal, pretty lady?"

"What deal?" Goldie asked curiously.

She also knew that the people from the Dominic family were not to be messed with.

However, since she had reached this point, as a martial artist, she could not retreat. Countless chosen ones from Somerland were watching them! Today's battle would determine whether Goldie could stand out among the countless chosen ones in Somerland.

If she could defeat someone from the Dominic family, she would rise to fame.

Her victory would be more convincing and more memorable than the one Silva won earlier. "I'll be merciful later and I won't threaten your life, but you have to date me for a month. How about it? A month for a life, don't you think it's worth it?"

Anthony's voice was not loud, but the scene was quiet, so everyone could hear him clearly.

Taylor frowned on the high ground. However, she did not say anything to stop him. Meanwhile, the other masters who were halfway to the God Rank were turning a deaf ear. No one wanted to offend someone from the Dominic family.

Not to mention, if you offended them, they would pester you nonstop. Who would not feel troubled being constantly watched by such a group with so much skill with hidden weapons? Even top sects like the Krums were not willing to offend the Dominic family. The people below also began discussing among themselves. "Miss Rogers, just say yes to Mr. Anthony! Serve Mr. Anthony well and your family might be able to obtain a strong backer in the Dominic family!" "Hahaha... That's right, what this guy said is very true!" The crowd started to cause an uproar.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 642

I'm A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang Chapter 642

The scene was chaotic. Goldie smiled charmingly and Anthony swallowed as he watched. In his opinion, this woman would soon be his. Most of the people in the Dominic family share a common trait, and that was that they were all lecherous.

However, they were not interested in ordinary women.

He would not be as thirsty as Miles of the Pearson family who would even sexually assault an attendant in a hotel.

Instead, they liked to conquer powerful beauties.

Today, in this grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland, Lorraine was undoubtedly the most dazzling woman. However, Lorraine was not someone whom he could lust after.

Instead, she was his big brother's target.

Among the younger generation of the Dominic family, he could only be ranked fifth. Lorraine was destined to belong to only his eldest brother.

"Anthony, right? You look like a woman who's good for nothing, yet you still want to sleep with me? Can you even do it? I like men with strong bodies, not a b*tch like you! Goldie said sarcastically.

The people present were in an uproar once again. How dare she say that to someone from the Dominic family? Did the Rogers family not want to enjoy peace anymore? "Damn, Miss Rogers is so awesome! She dares to roast someone from the Dominic family! She's my idol!"

“Miss Rogers is so domineering!” “Miss Rogers is so awesome!” These bystanders were continuing to stir the pot. After Anthony heard Goldie’s words, his smiling face turned gloomy. How dare she talk to him like that? It seemed that the Dominic family was about to be forgotten since they had been hidden for so many years.

“I’m curious, what gave you the courage to talk to me like that? Do you not want to live anymore? Do you want me to end your life?” Anthony said with a gloomy face.

“End my life? It’ll depend if you can do it, you good-for-nothing,” Goldie replied without fear. “Alright, you’re pretty ballsy. The Rogers family from Springfield, right? I’ll remember you!”

“You talk too much. Come on!”

After Goldie finished speaking, she displayed her strength at the peak of the beginner stage of the Dragon Rank Anthony did not waste any time either. With a wave of his hand, several poisonous hidden weapons fired directly at Goldie.

At the same time, his body disappeared from its place. Goldie stood still and did not move to avoid the hidden weapons.

She raised her right hand and a mini pistol appeared in her hand. Then, she pulled the trigger. Bang bang bang bang bang! Clang clang clang clang clang! After firing several shots, the sound of bullets colliding with the hidden weapon could be heard.

At this time, Anthony had appeared to her right, and with another wave of his hand, the hidden weapons continued to shoot toward her.

Goldie followed a set pattern. She pulled the trigger in a different direction and used the bullet to intercept the hidden weapons.

Anthony kept changing positions while firing hidden weapons. Meanwhile, Goldie stood in the middle and intercepted all the hidden weapons with her pistol, not missing a single one. This combat style was simply amazing. Both of them were using long-range attacks, and when the projectiles met, it was absolutely incredible.

Even the sleepy David became interested. One of them was like a mobile launcher, constantly changing positions and launching hidden weapons.

Meanwhile, one was as motionless as a mountain. With two pistols in her hand, no hidden weapons was able to hit her.

Everyone could only hear the sound of countless gunshots and bullets colliding with hidden weapons and see sparks from the collision in the air. Those present felt that the Dominic family's hidden weapons had finally met their match. At this moment, Anthony was sneering in his heart.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 643

The Dominic family's hidden weapons had been developed for thousands of years. How could two pistols compete with them? At this moment, Anthony was completely playing with Goldie. It was because the hidden weapons he used were relatively large while the really deadly hidden weapons were often extremely small.

After changing positions several times in a row, Anthony took advantage of the moment Goldie reloaded her pistol to shoot a small silver needle mixed with the hidden weapon at Goldie.

Bang bang bang! Clang clang clang! After Goldie blocked the hidden weapons with her bullets, but suddenly felt that danger was imminent.

After taking a closer look, she noticed that a small silver needle had appeared not far in front of her.

At this time, she could not intercept it with bullets. Moreover, the silver needle was too small to see from a distance. By the time she finally saw it clearly, it was already in front of her. Goldie hurriedly turned to the side and the tiny silver needle brushed past her chest.

After she turned sideways to avoid the silver needle and stood up again, she saw countless hidden weapons flying at her again.

She could not stop them with her bullets now!

She could only retreat and avoid the hidden weapons.

However, Anthony's hidden weapons came one after another.

Once she fell into his rhythm, she would be completely under his control.

Anthony could even control how she dodged him and what movement she would make. This was the power of the Dominic family's hidden weapons. All the while, Anthony was still constantly moving around. Goldie, who was standing in the middle, no longer had the motionless grandeur that she had moments ago. Right now, Goldie was actually dancing! Yes, you saw that right.

Right now, Goldie was indeed dancing, and she was dancing under Anthony's control. Since her alternative routes had been blocked by the hidden weapons, Goldie could only follow the gaps left behind by Anthony if she wanted to avoid being hit by the hidden weapons.

The Dominic family's hidden weapons were highly poisonous, so if she was hit, then she would lose.

This stunned the people at the scene.

Goldie was actually dancing under the control of Anthony's hidden weapons.

'Is this the power of the Dominic family's hidden weapons? 'How terrifying! As Anthony moved, he carefully observed Goldie, who was being controlled by his hidden weapons.

Anthony was shaking with excitement. Goldie was truly the best of the best.

Since Goldie was wearing a long red dress, she would expose herself when she raised her leg in order to avoid the hidden weapons.

While she was avoiding the hidden weapons, Goldie glanced at Anthony and saw his expression. This eventually made her realize something was wrong. Goldie's face turned dark before turning pale.

This was the first time she had been humiliated by someone. 'I must kill him! Goldie was furious!

How terrifying would it be if a powerful woman was angry?

Goldie was about to show this perfectly.

As she was faced with another wave of hidden weapons from Anthony, she rushed toward Anthony with all her strength.

She did not avoid the hidden weapons as they sliced across her body.

She only avoided the hidden weapons that threatened to hit her vital parts.

The hidden weapons cut her red dress and sliced through her tender skin, causing several scars to appear on her body. The poison also slowly invaded her body. However, at this time, Goldie did not care anymore. She had been overwhelmed with anger. This disgusting man had completely exposed her and her only thought at this moment was that she had to kill Anthony.

As someone who was at the peak of the beginner stage of the Dragon Rank, she sprinted with all her strength, and in two breaths, she appeared in front of Anthony after leaping forward a distance of dozens of meters.

Anthony did not expect this to happen at all. 'Did Goldie just rush over regardless the risk of injury? 'Doesn't she know that there is poison on the hidden weapons? 'Soon, she will lose her combat effectiveness and be at the mercy of others. 'And if the poison stays in her body for a long time, it will be life-threatening.'

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 644

I'm A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang Chapter 644

'This is good too. 'Soon she will lose her combat effectiveness.

And she will die without my antidote.

'In this way, she will be obedient and under my control.

'Do you want the antidote? Do you want to live?

'Sorry, you have to make me feel good first!

Anthony felt as if he had been injected with adrenaline in an instant.

Goldie appeared before Anthony. Without hesitation, a dagger appeared in her hand and she stabbed it directly at Anthony's heart.

However, Anthony managed to avoid it.

The two started close combat!

Bang bang bang! Clang clang clang! Various punches collided with each other and there were endless sounds of clashing metal.

The two had gone from long-range combat to close combat now. This was a visual feast for all.

Although the strength of the two was not that great, and they were not that powerful compared to the countless chosen ones in Somerland, their battle was indeed spectacular.

Even David was watching with relish! Goldie suddenly felt her body getting weak and she also felt a little dizzy.

She knew that the poison on the hidden weapons was taking effect and soon, she would lose her combat effectiveness.

Moreover, the strength of her attack had also declined badly. Her powerful moves from earlier had turned weak and soft.

Anthony naturally noticed Goldie's condition as well.

'In ten seconds at the most, Goldie will lose all her strength. 'Victory is at hand! Anthony displayed a wicked smile. Goldie knew that she was in a bad situation, so she threw away the dagger in her hand and grabbed the highly poisonous dagger that Anthony was swinging at her. At the same time, her other hand punched Anthony's chest.

However, at this moment, she was already at the end of her rope. Her punches were soft and gentle, so Anthony did not care at all. How could such a punch cause him harm?

Hence, he just let Goldie's fist hit his chest. Anthony took the punch, but the force was too small. It did not do him any harm at all.

Bang! However, a gunshot simultaneously rang out, causing Anthony's eyes to widen in horror. The fist that was on Anthony's chest produced a mini pistol and the shot directly pierced his heart! Anthony's face was filled with disbelief. How was this possible?'

He had met with unexpected failure. His heart had been penetrated by the bullet, and even the Gods could not save him now. At this moment, Goldie lost all her strength, but she had a grin on her face. She had finally killed this man! Then, she fell backward. At this moment, a small silver needle flew over and penetrated Goldie's heart. 'Let's die together! Anthony closed his eyes in anger and fell backward.

Thud!

Thud!

The two fell to the ground one after the other.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 645

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 645 by Xiruo Huang

The people present who were watching the fight all looked in shock as the two people fell almost at the same time.

No one thought that an ordinary battle would turn into a life-and-death situation.

Even Taylor and all the masters who were halfway to the God Rank on the high ground did not expect this.

Obviously, Goldie had been poisoned and was about to lose her combat power, but she had suddenly killed Anthony.

How dare she?

Even if she died now, the Dominic family would not let the Rogers family enjoy a day of peace.

Taylor immediately flew down from the high ground to check on the two of them.

The other masters who were halfway to the God Rank felt unconcerned and decided to let this matter rest.

They did not want to get involved in this mess.

At the same time, Clinton, Stan, Tony, and Rhonda also stepped forward quickly.

In addition to them, there were also some nosey people or others who knew these two who approached to check on the situation.

It would be hard for Stan and Clinton if these two died.

Although they did not directly kill these two, they died because of Clinton and Stan. Hence, they would need to pay a great price to quell the anger from both families.

David did not expect this to happen either.

The others might not know what had happened, but he saw it clearly.

Anthony made Goldie expose herself with the control of his hidden weapons, and Goldie had noticed this.

One of them was a lecherous dog while the other one was a loyal and dependable woman who would do anything to protect her honor.

When these two meet, it would surely be like two worlds colliding.

It was basically an eye for an eye.

Anthony was shot through the heart. Since the damage to his heart was too great, he would definitely not survive.

However, Goldie might still have a chance.

Although she had deadly poison in her body and her heart had also been pierced by a poisonous needle, the size of the poison needle was small, so the damage to her heart was far less than that of a bullet.

As long as they detoxified her poison, she could still be saved.

Of course, if he had not studied Somerland Ancient Traditional Medicine before this, Goldie would be as good as dead right now.

In the entire world, he was probably the only one who could save her right now.

David stood up and walked slowly forward.

Among the spectators, an old man spoke respectfully to the young man beside him, "Mr. Axel, Mr. Anthony is..."

These people were from the Dominic family.

The young man in the lead was naturally the eldest son of the Dominic family, Axel Dominic.

He was also the most talented person in this generation of the Dominic family.

"Don't worry about him! He was seriously killed by a woman from a secular family, what a piece of trash! He has humiliated the Dominic family," Axel said with a gloomy face.

"Yes, Mr. Axel," the old man replied.

"Axel, I'll get someone to destroy the Rogers family in Springfield later, How dare they kill someone from our family? If we don't wipe out the Rogers family, how will the Dominic family gain a foothold in Somerland in the future?!" Archer Dominic, the second son of the Dominic family stood up and said.

“Archie, it’s not time yet, just be patient. Now all the major hidden families and sects are waiting for a chance, and we, the Dominic family, can’t be the first one to act. Don’t worry, I’ll give you this chance,” Axel said.

“Alright, Axel, you said this yourself.

When the time comes, you have to let me take the lead. I want those secular folks to see how powerful our hidden weapons are,” Archer said happily.

The younger generation of the Dominic family all took Axel as their leader.

To be honest, Axel was too gifted and there was a huge gap between them, hence the others could not see a chance to surpass him.

Thus, there was no situation where everyone was fighting for the head position among this generation of the Dominic family. Moreover, Axel’s position as the first heir had also been established since early on.

After Taylor checked on the two of them, she said to the people surrounding her,” Anthony’s heart has been pierced by a bullet and he’s stopped breathing. On the other hand, Goldie is still breathing but she not only has extremely deadly poison in her, but her heart has also been pierced by a poisonous needle. She can’t be saved now. This round, both of them died, so let’s consider this a tie!”

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 646

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 646 by Xiruo Huang

Both of them were dead!

Stan and Clinton were struggling to accept this result.

Tony and Rhonda were worried.

Goldie killed someone from the Dominic family.

‘What if the Dominic family wants to seek revenge?’

'We have to notify the family about this at once.'

Although they were rivals with Goldie and Goldie was their cousin, at the end of the day, they should find a place to bury her later so that she could rest in peace.

At this moment, David walked in.

"Let me through, excuse me. If you wait a little longer, you won't be able to save her anymore." "

David squeezed in and walked to the center.

"Dave, what did you just say? Are they still alive?" Clinton asked.

All eyes turned to David..

Stan also looked over.

He was the one who had Anthony.

It would be best if he could save the person from the Dominic family. Otherwise, the Rogers family would have a hard time and the Warner family would also be implicated.

Taylor also heard what David said.

Where did this punk come from? She just announced the deaths of these two people, and now someone had come forward to say that they could be saved? Would this not be slapping her across the face?

Taylor frowned and said, "Young man, you must speak responsibly. These two are already dead, so how can you save them?"

David did not reply to Taylor.

Instead, he squatted next to Goldie and lifted his head to say to Clinton, "Um... I need to stop her bleeding and detoxify the poison in her body using needle treatment. Clinton, please find a quiet place for me."

After he said that, he lifted Goldie.

The best choice was to treat her right on the spot as the longer they delayed, the more danger Goldie would be in.

However, there were so many people here and he needed access to the part of Goldie's chest where her heart was. Hence, she would definitely be exposed.

If she found out so many people had seen her chest after she awoke, who knew if she would fly into a fit of rage?

Judging from her crazy reaction after Anthony glanced at her, she just might. Thus, it would be better to find her a quiet place.

As for what he would see in the process, this could not be helped. He was saving her life and he did not have any other choice.

Even if Goldie decided to settle debts with him after this, he would have a proper explanation. If he did not remove her clothes to perform the needle treatment on her, she would surely die.

"Dave, please come with me." Clinton quickly led the way.

Clinton had some doubts in his heart about David knowing medicine. Goldie had been declared dead by Master Coda of the Krums, so could she still be saved?

'Well, we'll try anything in a desperate situation.

'Since David says she can be saved, then we'll just give it a try.'

David followed Clinton with Goldie in his arms. Tony and Rhonda also followed behind them.

As for Anthony, he was truly dead.

Stan called someone to bring Anthony's corpse away.

The fight stopped temporarily.

Everyone also started discussing among themselves.

As Taylor watched them leave, her expression turned unpleasant.

She was halfway to God Rank, but she had been ignored by a kid.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 647

“Didn’t Master Coda say Miss Rogers is dead? Who is that kid? How can he say that she can still be saved?” Someone asked.

“No way! You guys know the reputation of the Dominic family’s hidden weapons, right? She had been attacked with so many highly poisonous hidden weapons, and without the Dominic family’s unique antidote, she will surely die. Not to mention that her heart was pierced by Mr. Anthony while he was on the verge of death. So, how could she be rescued? Do they really think the Dominic family’s hidden weapon is a sham?”

“Then why did that kid say that she can still be saved?”

“I think he saw how beautiful and hot Miss Rogers is, so he wants to find somewhere quiet where there’s no one around to do something.”

“It’s... It’s possible!”

“Damn it! Why didn’t I f*cking think about this? I was careless! I was too careless!”

David did not hear what they say, otherwise, he would definitely turn around to slap them to death.

Did they really think that everyone’s mind was as dirty as theirs?

In his mind was filled with these thoughts, that was probably no woman in this world who could resist him.

David followed Clinton into the thick woods, found a quiet spot, and laid Goldie flat on the ground.

“Clinton, Tony, go keep watch for me. Don’t let anyone come in. Miss Rogers, you should stay here and help me,” David said.

“Alright, we’ll leave Goldie to you,” Clinton said and turned to leave.

Tony glanced at David and turned to leave as well.

“David, can you really save Goldie?” Rhonda asked.

“Why? Don’t you want me to save her?”

David asked.

“David, what kind of person do you think I am? At the end of the day, Goldie is my cousin. Although she has a rivalry with my brother, this is a fair competition between family heirs. We will not use such shady tactics in this competition.” Rhonda glared at David.

“Well then, hurry up. Remove her bra and expose the part where her heart is,” David turned and said.

“What?”

“What? You’re a woman so why are you being shy? Hurry up, the longer you delay, the more danger she’ll be in.”

“But... But David, I have to tell you that if Goldie finds out you saw her when she wakes up, she’d definitely kill you. I know her too well. Even though she’s normally so carefree and she’s always saying flirty things to men, she views her innocence as more important than her life.”

David thought, ‘I know she views her innocence as more important than her life. If not, why else would she take Anthony down with herself?’

However, there was no other way now.

Moreover, even if Goldie wanted to kill him, she needed to have the ability to do s o.

Besides, he was her savior, so he was not the same as Anthony who took so many liberties with her.

“Then what should I do? If I don’t look at her, I can’t save her, and she’ll die! Stop talking, I’m not afraid so what are you afraid of? Hurry up!” David urged.

“Okay!” Rhonda stopped talking nonsense and began to take off Goldie’s clothes, revealing the location of her heart.

Rhonda saw a small red dot on the snow white skin where Goldie’s heart was at just a glance. This should be where the poisonous needle pierced through her heart.

“Alright, hurry up!” Rhonda said when she was done.

Only then did David turn around, a set of silver needles in his hand.

He hired someone to specially customize these after he studied Somerland Ancient Traditional Medicine.

According to Somerland Ancient Traditional Medicine, silver needles were the most useful things for Ancient diseases could be treated with them.

Traditional Medicine, and almost all

Even if it could not be cured completely, it could keep the disease under control.

David started his treatment. He was so fast that Rhonda became dazzled from watching.

She could not understand David's hand movements.

In less than ten seconds, the area around

Goldie's heart was filled with silver needles.

At the same time, David lifted Goldie's hands and feet before poking a small hole into her middle fingers and toes.

Soon, black blood started flowing out from the four holes in Goldie's fingers and toes.

That was the deadly poison laced in the hidden weapons of the Dominic family.

After this, Goldie's face also started to turn from pale to red.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 648

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 648 by Xiruo Huang

Her breathing began to be rhythmic again.

Rhonda's eyes went wide, and her jaw dropped as she watched that.

'H-He saved her just like that?

"That was too easy!"

In less than a minute, she could clearly feel Goldie's vitality returning. Goldie was still on the verge of death just now, but now, her breathing had gradually started to stabilize.

'How amazing!'

Rhonda looked at David curiously.

"This kid has so many secrets.

'When Pearly comes back, I have to find a time to ask her.

'David is so mysterious.

'Master Coda from the Krums, who is halfway to God Rank, had announced Goldie's death, but David managed to save her in just a minute.

"This is a miracle!'

David's move just now seemed simple, but it was actually extremely difficult.

In less than ten seconds, hundreds of needles were placed in Goldie's heart.

Moreover, the strength and depth of each needle were different, so there was no room for mistakes. Otherwise, not only would it fail to save Goldie, but it would also hasten her death.

He needed to provide every needle some airflow provide new vitality to Goldie's heart which was about to stop beating.

If someone wanted to do this, it would not be enough to just know about Somerland Ancient Traditional Medicine.

It also required powerful strength and mind control.

Therefore, even if ordinary people learned Somerland Ancient Traditional Medicine, they could not bring someone back to life just like he did.

Moreover, it was much harder to perform needle treatment on a woman's heart compared to a man's.

Especially a woman with a hot body like Goldie.

At this time, David was silently counting the time in his heart.

When he felt that it was time and the poison in Goldie's body was no longer flowing out, David quickly took action again, flicking each silver needle lightly at a fast speed.

All the silver needles were flicked in a matter of seconds.

Buzz buzz buzz buzz buzz...

Every silver needle trembled slightly.

Goldie's body seemed to be injected with new vitality and the poison continued to be discharged.

After repeating this three times, all the poison in Goldie's body was finally flushed out.

The blood that came out also turned bright red.

Only then did David breathe a sigh of relief.

After the poison was discharged, Goldie was completely free from danger.

It was just that she would be weak over the next period, so she needed to recuperate properly. 2

At this time, Goldie's eyelids trembled slightly before opening.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 649

The first thing Goldie saw when she opened her eyes was a handsome young face. David?

"Am I still alive?"

Goldie pondered for a moment. She remembered that she seemed to have ended up dying alongside the disgusting Anthony.

Right.

Moreover, she had also shot Anthony in the heart. However, what was going on now?

Then, she saw Rhonda.

Why was her cousin here?

Goldie wanted to get up.

When David was about to put away the silver needles on Goldie's chest, he tilted his head and met Goldie's eyes.

David turned his head quickly. "Um... Miss Rogers, I did this to save you, please don't mind. There is no distinction between men and women when it comes to medical practitioners," David said aloud. Rhonda also looked over at this time, but she only giggled and did not speak. "Thank you!"

Judging from the current situation, David should be telling the truth.

'I was rescued by him.' Goldie blushed for a while and did not know what to say. So, she only managed to utter a thank you.

"You don't have to thank me. We can be considered friends too, right? Um... Can I turn my head and remove the silver needle from your chest for you?" "Go on," Goldie said, laying her head down and closing her eyes. Only then did David turn his head and start removing the silver needles. After a few seconds, all of the silver needles had been removed. David stood up and said, "Okay, Miss Rogers, you can put on your clothes now. The poison in your body has been expelled and the damaged part of your heart has also stopped bleeding, but if you want to recover, you have to rest for some time." "Thank you, David!" Goldie thanked him again. "You're welcome. I'll go first, you should get dressed and then come out," David said and left.

Rhonda helped Goldie get up and helped her get dressed. "C-Can you walk by yourself?" Rhonda asked unnaturally.

She did not know how to interact with this cousin of hers.

She remembered that they were close when they were young.

However, since the family announced that they would choose the best heir between Tony and Goldie, their relationship changed.

Tony was his brother, so naturally, he was closest to her.

"Rhonda, there's something you should know too," Goldie said softly. "What is it?" Rhonda asked curiously. At the same time, she also felt that Goldie's tone was a bit off. The two of them seemed to have not spoken in this tone for a long time. Whenever they met in the past, the two would always sneer at each other. And every time, Rhonda would suffer a crushing defeat. "In truth, your brother is the designated heir of the family and I'm just a tool to spur his progress."

"Huh?" Rhonda's eyes widened in disbelief.

"Think about what your brother was like in the past and what he is like now. When did he start to change? If the family didn't do this, would he have achieved everything he has now? He might have been that hedonist who only knew how to eat, drink and have fun. "Tony is the heir to the Rogers family, and my goal is not the Rogers family. However, at that time, that kid Tony didn't behave like an heir at all. If we continued to let him do that, how would the Rogers family survive in troubled times in the future?"

"So, after Grandpa, Dad, and Uncle had a discussion, they announced that Tony and I would compete for the position of the heir to the Rogers family and that the loser would be expelled from the Rogers family. This was all to stimulate Tony to change for the better."

'Um... Um... Um...'

Rhonda could not wrap her head around this for a moment. The siblings had treated Goldie as an enemy for ten years. However, Goldie did it to change his brother and make him become a qualified heir to the Rogers family. "G-Goldie, are you telling the truth?" "If you think about it from my perspective, you will know if it is true. Ten years ago, the Rogers family was peaceful and prosperous, so why did Grandpa suddenly do this? It was to cultivate an heir that could lead the family in surviving the upcoming turbulent times.

"You have also seen Somerland today, even if your brother was among the chosen ones, he is still at the upper-middle level. If he was still like how he was back then, he will only be devoured during troubled times in the future. The reason why I helped Clinton like this is so that the Rogers family would have one more friend during the troubled times in the future." Rhonda carefully recalled everything, and the answer she got was that Goldie's words were at least 90% true. "G-Goldie, I'm so sorry!"

Rhonda said with red eyes. She did not expect Goldie to be willing to be the villain in their eyes for ten years in order to make her brother Tony grow up. Every time they met, she would make fun of the siblings. Besides this, she had beaten up her brother Tony many times before. Rhonda once wished that Goldie would be killed by a car when she went out.

Goldie caressed Rhonda's head and said, "Silly girl, we are all one family, so you don't have to apologize to me. The troubled times are coming, and our family can only survive if we unite as one, don't tell your brother about it for now. After the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland, the family should tell him the truth."

"I got it!" Rhonda said, wiping away her tears. "Let's go, we should go back now." Goldie took a step, staggered, and nearly fell to the ground. Fortunately, Rhonda, who was quick-thinking, immediately supported her. "Goldie, you've not recovered yet, let me support you." Thus, the two women with amazing figures walked out of the woods whilst supporting each other.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 650

When David came out of the woods, only Tony was still around. Clinton had gone back to the fight. After all, his fight with Stan today was just an appetizer. Afterward, there would be a grand event where the chosen ones of Somerland compete for the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. With so many chosen ones from Somerland here, it was impossible to ask him to keep waiting for them. "Dave, how's it going?" Tony asked. From the perspective of the Rogers family, he still hoped that David could save Goldie.

After all, she was a powerful Dragon Rank master, and her strength continued to improve as time went by.

Furthermore, ten years ago, Goldie was very nice to the siblings. Whenever he caused trouble outside, it was always his cousin Goldie who would help him handle it.

Looking back now, he was really a scoundrel at that time. He would need Goldie to help him get out of trouble every few days. Although Goldie had not helped him since the family announced that they were rivals and she would even ridicule him and beat him, as far as personal feelings were concerned, he still hoped that Goldie could be saved.

However, when it came to personal interest, he hoped that Goldie could not be saved.

In this way, no one would compete with him for the position of heir to the Rogers family. This kind of mixed feelings caused Tony to be hesitant.

"She's been saved now, but she needs some time to recover," David said.

Tony breathed a sigh of relief. "Dave, thank you!" "You people from the Rogers family are really weird. You should be in a competitive relationship, right? Shouldn't you hate me for saving Goldie? If she dies, no one will compete with you, so why are you thanking me?"

David asked, feeling a little curious. "Dave, things in our family are a bit complicated. Let's have a good chat when we have time." The two were talking when Rhonda helped Goldie out. Rhonda looked at her brother Tony and wanted to say something to him. However, when she thought of what Goldie said just now, she held herself back.

Tony did not notice any changes in Rhonda either. The four of them walked to the place where everyone gathered. The arrival of David and the others immediately attracted the attention of many chosen ones. “Damn, isn’t that Miss Rogers? Was she really saved?”

“Where? Where? Let me see... Damn, it’s really her!

How is that possible? Wasn’t she already declared dead by Master Coda?” “This kid is a genius! We should go make friends with him later and have a good relationship with him. A friend like this may save your life in the future!” “That’s right! That’s what I thought too, let’s go together later.” “I’ll go as well!”

“I’ll go as well!”

David’s magical medical skills made countless people want to befriend him. After all, they might just need his help one day. Taylor also saw Goldie alive and well.

Her eyes widened and she was unable to believe what she was seeing. She examined Goldie herself and determined that the latter had no chance of being saved. However, everything in front of her told her that Goldie had indeed been rescued by the ignorant boy. ‘Who is he?

‘How could he have such brilliant medical skills?

‘No one among the hidden families and sects has the skill to bring the dead back to life.’

Taylor looked at David. The gathering place for the Dominic family. “Archie, check the background of that kid after the grand event of the chosen ones. He can remove the poison from the hidden weapons of the Dominic family so quickly, and we must know the reason why.

Otherwise, the deterrent effect of our hidden weapons will decline drastically,” said Axel, the eldest son of the Dominic family. “Got it, Axel!” Archer replied. “Also, that kid has such strong medical skills, but he didn’t save the person from our family. He let Anthony die like this and went to save others instead. How much does he despise the Dominic family? Or does he think that the Dominic family deserves to die? Find a chance to kill him!” Axel added.
