

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 651

"Got it, Axel!" Archer said with a grin. Killing was his favorite thing to do. It was a cool feeling to watch his enemies die in despair and helplessness under his abuse. After David and the gang arrived, they saw Clinton and Stan standing on the sidelines. Both had sustained minor injuries. Hence, it must have been a long fight.

When Clinton saw Goldie come back alive, he looked at David gratefully, and nodded at him. Meanwhile, Stan's face was dark. If he could not win against Clinton in today's fight, he would be greatly losing out. "Stan, since we are the protagonists in today's battle, it's so meaningless to keep probing each other like this. I'm going to be serious now, be careful!" Clinton said. "Zimmerman, as you wish! Come on! Let me see how much you have improved in these ten years."

Boom!

Boom!

The two displayed their strengths at the same time and reached their peak states. It turned out that the two of them were masters at the mid-Dragon Rank. Moreover, they did not just enter the beginner stage of mid-Dragon Rank. It seemed that they had reached the peak of mid-Dragon Rank and they might enter the later stages of Dragon Rank at any time. This kind of strength would only belong to leaders, even in the presence of so many chosen ones in Somerland.

They did not expect this appetizer to be so appetizing. The grand event of the chosen ones after this battle was sure to be even more exciting. After the two people on the stage showed their strengths, they instantly collided. Bang bang bang bang bang! Countless collisions sounded. Furthermore, the sound of gas explosions filled the air. When two masters at the peak of mid-Dragon Rank were in a battle, most people could not see their movements clearly. Bang! After a loud bang, the two each stepped more than ten meters backward.

This time, the two no longer suffered only minor injuries like earlier. Blood flowed from the corners of his mouth.

At this time, Taylor stood up and said, "You two, you are both outstanding talents in Somerland and you have already reached the peak of mid-Dragon Rank in your early thirties. Hence, your future achievements will be limitless. I advise you to stop here! Although you still have reserve strength, if you continue to fight and leave internal injuries, it will have a great impact on your future achievements. What if we treat this round as a tie?"

"I'm sure you don't want to miss the grand event of the chosen ones next, right?" Stan and Clinton did not speak. The two were weighing the pros and cons of the proposal. Both of them were at the peak of mid-Dragon Rank and they must each have final moves that they had not yet gotten to use. However, if they continued to fight, even if they won, they would be seriously injured in the process. It was really not worthwhile to do this. Next up was the grand event between the chosen ones.

Troubled times would come after this event.

If their injury was too serious, it would certainly have a big impact on their future plans. In any case, they had shown their strengths here and everyone now remembered them. They had achieved their goals and there was no need for them to fight to the death. "We agree," the two said at the same time. "Since that's the case, this round will be a tie, and the overall battle will also be a tie.

This is a good ending. I think we should just forget about the last round," Taylor said. "I agree," Clinton said. He had no clue about David's strength. Although David just showed superb medical skills, it did not mean that he was very strong. Since he specialized in medicine, how strong could he be? After all, he was so young. A tie would be the best outcome for now... "Since we agreed that it would be a five-man battle, then naturally, we have to have the final round."

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 652

"Since we agreed that five people will fight, then of course, we should go on and have the last round too," Stan said slowly. 'Hmm?'

Clinton looked at Stan and saw that Stan was smiling at him.

Oh no!

'Does Stan have a backer? 'Why does he think that he'll surely win?'

'Isn't a tie good for everyone? 'Our purpose has been achieved anyway. 'So why does he insist on betting everything on the last round? 'Unless he is 100% sure of victory, if he loses, won't he be shooting himself in the foot?'

Taylor did not expect Stan to insist on the last round.

However, since one party had insisted, she had no reason to stop it. 'Let's continue to fight then!'

They should hurry up and finish this so they could move on to the battle of the chosen ones, which was the highlight of today. It was also the most critical part of the Krums' plan. It would be best if Grant could defeat all of the chosen ones in Somerland and achieve the final victory. If not, then it would be time for them to start their next plan.

No matter what, the final winner had to side with the Krums. "Since someone insists on the last round, let's just start quickly! You should leave and let the last person on either side fight. After the fight, we can start the battle of the chosen ones,” Taylor said. After David heard that, he went straight up. He still wanted to fight in the last round. Not because he wanted to be famous, but because he wanted to return the favor.

If he did not fight in this last round, how could he repay Clinton’s favor? He could not owe him this favor forever. After he repaid Clinton’s favor, he would only owe Luna a favor. After that, he would not owe anyone any favors.

He had a clear distinction between debts and grudges. He would repay any debts and avenge any grudges.

Clinton turned around and walked down.

The two met while they were walking to their respective positions. “Dave, just do your best. Stan should have a backer, so if you really can’t hold on, just admit defeat. Don’t hurt yourself,” Clinton patted David’s shoulder and said. David’s value had skyrocketed because of his extraordinary medical skills after bringing Goldie back to life just now. Countless chosen ones wanted to get to know this amazing doctor.

The troubled times were coming, and it would be very chaotic, so anyone might get hurt. David might save someone’s life at a critical moment. Therefore, naturally, Clinton did not want anything to happen to David. “Don’t worry, Clinton. I’ll do what I promised you well.” After David said that, he walked straight to the center of the stage. ‘This is just a game of children playing in the mud, so should I even do my best?’

Should I just admit defeat?’ If he did his best, even those people halfway to God Rank on the high ground would be petrified, let alone the people down here. As for admitting defeat, this depended on those who knew him. It would depend on whether Mason allowed him to admit defeat.

Clinton still wanted to say something, but David did not give him the chance before walking straight onto the stage. In the end, Clinton’s words just turned into a sigh. He had already decided in his heart that they were going to lose this fight. David’s medical skills were superb, so he should not be too powerful. Meanwhile, Stan definitely had backup since he dared to do this, and the last person he was sending had to be strong. Otherwise, he would not have insisted on the last round.

If he dared to do this, it would mean that he was fully prepared. Despite preparing for the ten-year appointment for so long, it unexpectedly ended in failure. Clinton was very unwilling, but there was nothing he could do. Goldie fought hard to pull back a tie but now it was ruined.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 653

However, this was not David’s fault.

He was already very grateful to David for saving Goldie's life.

It could only be said that Stan was really well prepared.

He would have already won if nothing happened to Goldie.

Thus, they did not lose in vain.

Stan walked back, then spoke to a 37 or 38-year-old man, ready to send him to fight.

He had trump cards, and it had cost him a lot to get this person, a mid-Dragon Rank master, to come.

Since he was under the age of forty, he was still considered one of the younger generations.

Although he had just entered mid-Dragon Rank, it would be effortless for him to win against someone who was at the beginner stage of Dragon Rank.

Since it was a fight, it was only natural to distinguish between winners and losers.

Stan had carefully investigated the people in Clinton's team before, and except for Clinton, the other four were all in the beginner stage of Dragon Rank.

Therefore, his man would definitely win today's fight.

Moreover, he prepared for so long and spent so much in preparation of this. He originally thought that he could defeat Clinton himself, but he did not expect Clinton to not have been idle all these years and to have also reached the peak mid-Dragon rank just like him. Both of them were in the same realm, and they had not used their trump cards, so it would be very hard to tell who would have won.

Fortunately, he had backup.

The man was about to go on stage when he was interrupted by a voice.

"I'll go on to the next round."

Stan looked over at the same time as the man.

The two narrowed their eyes.

The person who spoke turned out to be the eldest son of the Dominic family.

Axel was going to ask Archer to look into David after the grand event of the chosen ones and find a chance to kill him.

However, he did not expect that David would be the one participating in the last round. Moreover, he even walked on the stage first.

No one had come out from Stan's side yet, so this made Axel instantly change his mind..

He might inevitably cause unnecessary trouble if he killed David on a later day.

David's medical skills were so amazing at such a young age, something that was impossible if he did not have a significant family background.

When the time came, Axel might be forced into a passive position.

Now that David was on stage, if Axel accidentally killed him in the fight, David's family behind him could not say anything, right?

Someone from the Dominic family had also died in the fight.

Moreover, he was also afraid that Archer's strength as a mid-Dragon Ranker was not enough, so Axel had to do it himself.

He was going to kill David on the stage to show him the consequences of offending the Dominic family.

As for how he offended the Dominic family?

David dared not to save the Dominic family immediately but instead chose to save others. Hence, in Axel's opinion, David was looking down on the Dominic family.

The result of looking down on the Dominic family was to be regarded as an enemy by the Dominic family.

'Even if Anthony could not be saved, you still had to try to save him first!'

The Dominic family was so domineering.

Of course, there was another reason for his intentions, and it was because David could remove the poison administered by the hidden weapon of the Dominic family so quickly, which was not a good sign for the family.

If he could get rid of David, he had to try.

Not only did Axel want to get rid of David, but he also wanted to get rid of the family behind him.

In this way, no one would have a cure for the Dominic family's poison, and they would be the only ones with the cure.

Only in this way could the deterrent effect of the Dominic family's hidden weapons be brought fully into play.

"M-Mr. Axel, you want to go on the last round?"

Stan had to be careful in the face of the eldest son of the Dominic family.

Stan had paid a great price to get the Dominic family to send someone to help him.

Now that Anthony was dead, be it due to his lack of strength or his carelessness in the fight, Stan needed to show respect to the Dominic family.

Besides, from now on, the Warner family had to rely on the Dominic family.

Otherwise, after Mason's death, the Warner family would also be defeated by the waves of change in this era. These hidden families and sects that had resurfaced were too powerful.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 654

"What? Are you saying I can't fight?"

"No, no! Of course not! He's just a small potato, we can defeat him without you taking action. If you take action, it'll be overkill and you'll be giving him more than what he's worth," Stan explained quickly.

"Defeat him? My goal isn't just to beat him. In the five rounds, only someone from the Dominic family died. Isn't this equivalent to telling everyone that my family is the weakest? How should we show our faces after this? How can my family establish a foothold in the future? Besides, that kid didn't save my family first, so this is a great insult to the Dominic family. Anyone who dares to insult the Dominic family only has one ending awaiting them, and that is death!" Axel said grimly.

"Since Mr. Axel wants to take action, then you should go in for the last round."

Axel stepped onto the stage.

Some people who knew him immediately exclaimed.

"The first heir and eldest son of the Dominic family actually took to the stage?"

'It seems that Anthony's death just now has angered the Dominic family

'Mr. Axel is definitely here for revenge.

'Otherwise, before the real battle between the chosen ones, why would Mr. Axel take action?

'That kid must have offended the Dominic family just now by not saving Anthony.

"Oh no! Oh no!

'I was thinking of getting to know him, but I don't think I will have a chance now.

'It is impossible for David to survive at the hands of the Dominic family.'

"Boy, state your name! I'll leave a whole corpse for your family!" Axel said arrogantly.

"You're going to kill me?" David asked suspiciously.

"Otherwise? Do you think I'm here to play with you?"

"Why? We don't seem to know each other, right? Did I offend you?"

"Why? Do I still need to give a reason for the actions of the Dominic family? If you really want to know, I can tell you too! It's because you have this ability, yet you didn't save Anthony. In my opinion, you're insulting the Dominic family, and anyone who insults the Dominic family will have one ending and that's death!"

"Are you with the one who just died?"

"Exactly! He is my seventh brother! And I am Axel Dominic, the first heir of the Dominic family, do you think I should kill you for this?"

"You're going to kill me just because I didn't save him?"

"Is that not allowed?" "Although I don't understand what your family is thinking, I need to tell you that your brother's heart has been punctured by a bullet and even the gods can't save him after that! That's why I only saved Miss Rogers," David explained.

He wanted to give Axel a chance.

This was because he would not be merciful to whoever wanted to kill him.

After all, there was no enmity between the two parties.

It would be best if the other party could understand this.

If they could not and still insisted on killing David after this, then sorry.

David did not have a habit of leaving his enemy with a way out.

“Even if you can’t save him, you must still try first! If you went on to save others first, then you must die!”

“Are all the people in the Dominic family so domineering?”

“Hahaha... You are right, my family has always been that domineering,” Axel said with a guffaw.

The conversation between the two blew up the audience.

“Zimmerman! What should we do?” Goldie asked nervously.

David had just saved her life and she did not want David to die.

Besides, David even aroused the hostility of the Dominic family because he had saved her first.

Clinton was also clueless at this point.

The other party obviously wanted to kill David.

“Dave, give up! Don’t give the Dominic family a chance to strike!” Clinton yelled at David on the stage.

“I killed Anthony, so you should come at me if you have the balls!” Goldie also shouted at the stage.

“Don’t worry! After this kid dies, it will be your tum next! Not only will you die, but I will also not spare the Rogers family,” Axel said sinisterly.

His words instantly made the countless people present shudder.

The Dominic family could really kill and exterminate an entire family. And they used to do exactly that.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 655

The Rogers family in Springfield was coming to an end.

None of the families targeted by the Dominic family could escape.

“Do you think your family can do anything you want in Somerland? You must be dreaming!” Tony said as well.

“Who are you? How dare you talk to me like that!” Axel asked, looking at Tony.

“I am Tony Rogers from the Rogers family in Springfield!”

“You’re also from the Rogers family? Then you should sit still and wait! Although we can’t do whatever we want in Somerland, we can still destroy the Rogers family!”

“You’re mad!”

“You will soon know if I’m mad or not. Don’t think that you will be safe with that old fart Mason around. He is dying and can’t protect you anymore. How dare he list my family as an extremely dangerous family and ban us from resurfacing? Does he think a dying man like him can dictate whether or not the Dominic family resurfaces?”

“You from the Dominic family should not be too arrogant!” A voice resounded throughout the audience.

Everyone saw a middle-aged man standing on the high platform.

He was the one who spoke just now.

Mr. Augustus had said something.

Even he could not stand what the people from the Dominic family were doing.

“Augustus, let the juniors take care of their business by themselves!” A sinister old man on the high platform stood up and said.

Augustus turned to look at the old man who stood up.

He had noticed this man early on.

He should also be a God Rank guardian.

“Is he the guardian of the Dominic family?” “I am Arthur from the Dominic family,” said the sinister old man.

There was more commotion below.

No wonder Axel dared to be so arrogant.

It turned out that the guardian of the Dominic family was here!

The expression of Clinton, Goldie, and the others became unpleasant for a while.

The Dominic family actually brought a God Rank guardian with them.

David was finished!

No one could save him!

David finally understood when he heard this.

The Dominic family was the tainted family that Old Master Stefani mentioned, and they were not allowed to resurface.

Judging from history, the Dominic family, which was listed as an extremely dangerous family, would definitely cause damage to the stability of Somerland once it joined the WTO.

They were domineering and arrogant, and they would do anything they wanted to. They viewed life as a joke, and they would not be bound by the laws of Somerland.

This could be seen in what Axel, the eldest son of the Dominic family, said just now.

If that was the case, David did not need to leave him a way out.

When he had the chance later, he would also silently kill Arthur, the God Rank guardian of the Dominic family, in case he continued to harm more people. "Does the Dominic family want to be the enemy of the King family?" Augustus asked with a frown

"No!" Arthur answered straightforwardly

"Then, keep a low profile. Let the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland continue smoothly."

"Don't worry, Augustus. Axel will take care of this very quickly and he won't delay the process of the grand event."

Augustus looked deeply at Arthur before turning around to go back to his seat.

The God Rank guardian of the Dominic family was such a nuisance.

Even though Augustus wanted to get to know David because of his miraculous medical skills, he did not want to offend the God Rank guardian of the Dominic family.

Then, Arthur yelled at Axel below him.

"Axel, finish this quickly. Don't delay the grand event." After Arthur said that, he also turned around to go back to his seat.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 656

"Hear that, kid? No one can save you today! I would have killed you slowly, but now I can only settle you quickly. You should thank Mr. Augustus for sparing you so much pain," Axel said darkly

"You talk too much!"

What did you say?" Axel was dumbfounded for a moment.

'Shouldn't David get down on his knees and beg for mercy?'

"I said... You f*cking talking too much! Didn't your grown-ups tell you to hurry up and get this over with? Yet, you're here whining like a woman. Hurry up. I don't have time for you," said David.

Everyone could not believe their ears when David said that.

'People with death wishes exist?'

It was the first time they had heard such a thing.

Besides, he had the guts to scold the Dominic family.

Arthur's expression changed as he stood on the stage.

How dare someone insult the Dominic family in front of so many of Somerland's forces!

"Axel! Cut the crap and do it! Break his limbs first!" Arthur said again.

"F*ck you!"

Axel said and unleashed his power

Boom!

All they could hear was a loud bang

There was a fierce wind blowing all over the place.

Late-stage Dragon Ranker!

The pressure Axel unleashed was as powerful as a late-stage Dragon Ranker

'Is this what the first heir of the Dominic family is capable of?'

'How terrifying!'

His strength was the best amongst the chosen ones of Somerland

After Axel showed what he was capable of, several of the chosen ones of Somerland set aside their contempt and looked at Axel on the battlefield with a solemn expression

One of them was Raymond

One of them was Grant, from the Krums.

One of them was a man wrapped in a black robe

Several others were hidden in the crowd, seemingly unremarkable. However, they had been nonchalant ever since the beginning of the battle. They did not take their opponents seriously.

They only looked solemn when Axel showed his power as a late Dragon Ranker.

These people were strong contenders to become the champion of the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland.

They were all late Dragon Rankers in their late 40s.

Some were not even 35 years old yet.

No matter in what era, such people were the chosen ones among the chosen ones.

They could become leaders of an era.

However, there were now several people with such strength in this grand event between the chosen ones in Somerland.

It was indeed an era full of genius talents!

As he unleashed the pressure, Axel moved.

First, he sent out a poisonous hidden weapon.

Then, he disappeared and appeared on David's left and right sides, behind and above his head.

Hidden weapons from five directions blocked off all of David's options.

The first hidden weapon was not very fast.

The second was slightly quicker.

Then, it got faster.

The last one reached maximum speed.

The purpose of this was to allow all hidden weapons in the five directions to reach David at the same time.

No matter what David did, he could not take care of all directions,

This was unless he could escape into the ground.

However, that was obviously impossible. Everyone intently watched the two men fighting on the battlefield.

Axel was so fast that many people could not see that he had already jumped in five directions and used hidden weapons to put David on full lockdown

He was a lot stronger than Anthony.

Axel had returned to his original position, but all the hidden weapons had not reached David yet.

You could see how fast he was by this.

After this, Axel stood in place to see how David would handle the total lockdown from his hidden weapons.

It was just the start

He had only used 20% of his power, and the hidden weapons involved were the most ordinary in his arsenal.

Even if David could handle it, he had countless other tricks up his sleeve

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 657

The Dominic family had many ways to kill a person,

He wanted to see how hard David could push him.

When he got to 90%, there was also a trump card he was saving for the grand event of the chosen ones.

He wondered about who would be able to make it to the end and receive the gift he had prepared for them.

There were hundreds of eyes on the battlefield,

Some people wanted to see what Axel was capable of and understand him a little bit more, so they could be prepared for what they would be up against if they faced him in the grand event of the chosen ones.

Some just wanted to see how Axel tortured and killed David.

Others expected David to come out strong enough to take on Axel and give everyone a good fight to watch.

Only Goldie and a few others hoped David could survive.

Hundreds of people came with different agendas to see how David would deal with this.

The hidden weapons reached David.

David still did not react.

'Did he give up?'

Everyone thought

'Hmm?'

Hundreds of people suddenly froze.

'Where did he go? 'David's gone.

'Did he just disappear in front of hundreds of pairs of eyes?'

Even the half-step God Rankers on the stage were stunned.

They did not even know or see how David had disappeared.

Nearly ten half-step God Rankers and two God Rank Guardians got up and looked for David.

The battle between two juniors attracted the interest of half-step God Rankers and God Rank Guardians

They should be proud! Hundreds of pairs of eyes were looking for David.

How did a human being just disappear?

Axel also realized that something was wrong.

He had imagined David dealing with it in a million ways.

However, he did not expect David to disappear from in front of hundreds of people.

He was also looking for David.

“The Dominic family has no regard for life and wants to kill me, so I can’t keep you around lest you bring disaster to Somerland. Rest in peace! Remember to be a good person in your next life!”

A voice suddenly rang in Axel’s ear.

‘David’s voice?’

‘When did he get behind me?’

Axel looked terrified.

He was about to turn his head around.

He suddenly felt a pain in the back of his head.

Then he noticed that his nose, eyes, ears, and mouth began to leak fluid for no apparent reason.

Axel reached out and wiped it.

‘Is this... my blood?’

Then, the pain spread...

It spread to his head,

Axel’s entire body slowly drowned in darkness as he felt excruciating pain.

'Is... is this what it feels like to be dead?

'Am... am I dying?

'No way... No way..

I'm not going to die like this.

I'm the heir of the Dominic family. I'm the most talented heir of the Dominic family

I'm going to win the grand event of the chosen ones.

I'm going to be the number one among the younger generation in Somerland.

I will reign supreme in the chaos that lies ahead r'll get to the top and become a hero that millions of people admire

"Save me

Dad, save me... .

"Grandpa, save me...

Mr. Arthur, save me...'

Axel's glorious life ended as he yelled this in his head,

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 658

As a peak God Ranker, the speed David showed was not something these people could fathom.

It was normal that they did not notice it.

Coming up behind Axel, David folded his index and middle fingers together and flicked Axel on the back of the head once he finished speaking.

He did not apply much force, and it did not send Axel flying.

He used resonance.

It caused Axel's head to vibrate at superspeed, but Axel would not feel much.

He only felt a flick in the back of his head.

It was a little painful and a little dizzy.

Blood would flow from the seven holes in the human body first.

Then, the pain would start for a short while. It lasted only two or three seconds before Axel's brain turned into pulp

Axel looked particularly gruesome as his blood mixed with white brain pulp after collapsing.

David stood in the spot where Axel had just been, while Axel was lying on the ground, bleeding to death from the seven holes in the human body.

There was complete silence!

Even the half-step God Rankers on the platform looked at David in shock.

They did not see clearly what David had just done.

'How is that possible?

'How did David fool the half-step God Rankers' eyes?

'The speed is unbelievable!'

However, they did not think they could not see David's movements because David was stronger than them.

David never showed any explosive power and was too young.

A God Rank Guardian in his early twenties?

They had never heard of it!

They did not think of this possibility.

They just thought David's weird speed was a little terrifying.

No matter how David did it, they now had the final result.

It also aroused their great interest.

If they could also possess such eerie speed, could they defeat the guardians? Everyone gaped at David, who was standing on the battlefield.

They could not think straight.

Why did the heir of the Dominic family, who was a late Dragon Ranker, suddenly fall to the ground?

He was bleeding from seven holes in his body, and he looked horrifying..

When the contrast between what one saw and thought was too great, they needed a little time to adjust to the new results.

This was what happened to the people watching.

They wanted to see the heir of the Dominic family torture and kill David, but David instantly killed him instead.

The result was... shocking.

They needed a little time to slow down and process this.

"Punk, you're asking for trouble!" The Dominic family's God Rank guardian-Arthur was the first person on the platform to react.

God Rank Guardians had keen eyesight.

Axel was already bleeding from the seven holes in his body.

It was almost impossible to resurrect him from this condition.

Was the most brilliant man in the Dominic family dead?

He was even killed right in front of him-the Dominic family's God Rank Guardian!

How was he going to explain this when he got back?

Arthur hurried over to David and slapped him on the head.

He wanted the punk who killed Axel to die too.

Not only would he die, but his entire family would also suffer the wrath of the Dominic family and be torn apart by it.

This was... the price for killing a member of the Dominic family.

David stood there, unresponsive.

He had already felt another pressure as strong as Arthur approaching him.

He would try his best not to expose himself!

Killing a late Dragon Ranker was acceptable. Even if it was shocking, it was acceptable.
If he killed the God Rank Guardian Arthur, he would immediately expose himself.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 659

There were too many people here, and it was unnecessary.

Once he got out of here, he would have plenty of opportunities to kill Arthur,

Boom!

Two palms met, creating a loud noise that reverberated across the area,

Everyone's ears hurt

God Rank Guardians' fighting power was no joke.

David pretended to run away in a fluster.

Then everyone came to their senses.

The way they looked at David had changed.

Even the chosen ones, including several late Dragon Rankers and Raymond, looked at David in shock.

David could kill Axel without putting up a fight, but what about themselves?

Could they get away from David?

The answer they got was somewhat discouraging.

Obviously not!

Their realm was not too different from Axel's. Even if they could beat Axel, they would need to pull out all their trump cards in the process.

David killed Axel, a late Dragon Ranker, without much effort.

His strength was already a level above them.

David was a peak Dragon Ranker. David's age also surprised them.

The chosen ones, who were mid-Dragon Rankers and late Dragon Rankers, were all more than thirty years old.

Was David even 25?

What sick talent.

What would he be when he reached 30?

Half-step God Rank?

Or God Rank Guardian?

He did not give them any chance to catch up with him!

The chosen ones with the ambition to snatch the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland in the grand event of the chosen ones today smiled bitterly.

After David instant-killed mid-Dragon Ranker Axel, did he even need to fight for the number one among the younger generation in Somerland?

There was no way any of Somerland's current younger generation could defeat David.

Lorraine's eyes lit up as she looked at David, who was downstairs!

She was right! The moment she had laid eyes on David, she thought that this man was not simple.

Their second meeting at Old Master Stefani's place only further convinced her.

David was definitely the disciple of Old Master Stefani, Somerland's stabilizing force.

He was backed by Old Master Stefani, and was so strong.

He deserved to be number one among the younger generation in Somerland.

Lorraine was not the only one whose eyes lit up when she saw David.

The eyes of many women present, including Selena, lit up when they saw David.

What was the purpose of their visit?

It was to cozy up to the person who defeated all of the chosen ones in Somerland and won. Judging from the way David instant-killed Axel, there was almost no need to put up a fight anymore.

The next few participants would only end up being killed by David.

One of these women was David's acquaintance.

It was Elsa-the heiress of the Winters family.

David had only appeared in Dark Cape this morning and was among the crowd of four or five hundred people. Thus, Elsa only noticed David when he went on stage to save Goldie.

She was the only woman there with a bitter face.

She had known what David was capable of for some time.

She had still been trying to figure out how to cozy up to David up until then.

However, now all of Somerland's major forces had found out. Great.

Her advantage was gone.

After David showed some of his power to kill Axel, countless sects had their eyes on him.

They wanted him to join their family or sect and bind him with them.

Moreover, the best way to bind him was by marriage, of course.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 660

David would have regretted it if he knew what they were thinking!

He had always tried to keep a low profile but had now failed.

From his point of view, he was already very low-key.

It was difficult to pretend to be a Dragon Ranker when he was a peak God Ranker.

However, his low-key output was amazing to others.

After all, they were on different levels.

Could a peak God Ranker share the same ideas as Dragon Rankers and half-step God Rankers?

Augustus reached out and stopped Arthur, thinking David was probably the number one among the younger generation in Somerland.

He was strong, young, and had superb medical skills.

He was perfect!

Compared with David, Raymond, the best chosen one of the King family, was inferior in every aspect.

David was the one spoken of in their family history.

There was no other way to explain his accomplishment at his age.

He was a young man in his early twenties.

Not only did he have miraculous medical skills, but he also had the power to kill a mid-
Dragon Ranker.

The grand event of the chosen ones was no longer needed.

He wanted to return to the King family house with David, so David could marry Selena and become his son-in-law.

If Arthur wanted to kill his son-in-law, he had better ask him if he agreed first.

“Augustus! Why did you stop me from killing that punk?” Arthur asked through clenched teeth.

“Arthur! Let the younger generation solve their own problems! Isn’t that what you just said? What’s the matter? Did you forget again?” Augustus replied matter-of-factly.

“Augustus! The person that punk killed was not only the first heir that the Dominic family had groomed carefully but also a hidden weapon genius that comes once in a century. He basically ruined the Dominic family’s foundation. He and the family behind him must die. You know what will happen when the Dominic family loses our temper!” Arthur threatened.

He believed his words could dissuade Augustus.

When the Dominic family lost their temper, even the King family wanted to avoid them.

There was no way Augustus would be an enemy of the Dominic family for the sake of an outsider.

“Arthur! You don’t have to threaten me! Other people might be afraid of the Dominic family, but not the King family! I’m saving him. You can come right at the King family if anything!” Augustus was undaunted by the Dominic family’s threat.

“You...” Arthur glared at Augustus.

He had no idea that Augustus would make an enemy of the Dominic family for this young man.

Even if David was the number one among the younger generation in Somerland, so what?

The Dominic family never believed in the idea of the chosen one. They only believed in themselves.

The Dominic family was still the top hidden aristocratic family around.

They were a family that terrified everyone.

“Arthur! You won’t succeed when I’m around. Go away! Don’t delay the battle of the chosen ones.”

“Battle of the chosen ones? The first heir to the Dominic family is dead, so why do I have to join the battle of the chosen ones? Augustus, I’m going to test to see if the King family is worthy of their reputation as the top aristocratic family!”

“Okay! Let’s fight in the air! There are too many people down here. Even the Dominic family won’t want to cause public outrage. You won’t want to cause public outrage and become everyone’s enemy, do you?”

With that said, Augustus shot up into the air.

“Haha... So what if we become everyone’s enemy? The Dominic family has nothing to fear!” Arthur shouted.

After saying that, his body followed Augustus into the air.

Hundreds of eyes watched as two God Rank Guardians shot up into the sky like rockets and disappeared into the clouds.

Then...

Boom!

There was a loud noise that seemed to shock everyone like thunder.
