

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 666

The sudden sound was like rolling thunder, and the people present were slightly stunned.

Who had the guts to say that they were going to kill everyone present?

Almost all the powerful families and sects in Somerland were gathered here.

If the forces behind these people were united, it would be powerful and terrifying. It was definitely not something a single force could resist.

As soon as the loud noise disappeared, six people wearing masks appeared in the sky.

They were hovering in the air in six directions, emitting the energy of God Rank guardians. They were blocking all exits for the hundreds of people present.

'Are there... six God Rank guardians?'

The hundreds of people present were all stunned, including the group of people who were halfway to God Rank on the high platform.

Which force was so generous to dispatch six God Rank guardians at once?"

Augustus looked at one of the masked guardians and he felt that he looked familiar.

Then, when he saw a small wound on his hand, his eyes narrowed.

"May I know what you are doing here? This is where the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland is being held," Taylor, the third elder of the Krums, stood up and asked.

She did not have a choice. The Krums were the organizer of the grand event of the chosen ones and also the host.

In such a situation, she was the only one who had to bite the bullet and step forward.

"What are we doing here? We're here to kill you, of course!" The masked man in the lead said with a smirk.

"Sir, you're hilarious. We have no grievances and no enmity, so why do you want to kill us? In addition, the ones present are all from powerful families and sects in Somerland. If these families and sects were to unite, no force would be able to handle them. So, Sir, you should consider this carefully."

Taylor was also a little scared at this time.

These people came with masks, and at a glance, she knew that the people did not come here with good intentions.

It was very possible that no one present could escape if the six God Rank guardians acted with their full power.

Meanwhile, one of the six people emitted significantly greater energy than the other five.

Five of them were beginner God Rankers while one of them was a mid-God Ranker.

How generous!

“Since I dared to come here, I have already made all preparations! As long as I kill all of you here, I will be breaking the roots of Somerland and it will send out violent shockwaves throughout Somerland. Besides, we will not leave any traces!”

Taylor looked at the six God Rank guardians who were exuding powerful energies in the air while plotting silently in her heart.

Nine people were halfway to God Rank here.

So it would be fine if they were to fight one God Rank guardian. Augustus should be able to fight one of them.

However, what about the remaining four?

Plus, there was also a mid-God Ranker among them.

Once they started fighting, they would be tigers among a flock of sheep when they killed the Dragon Rankers. Even if there were a lot of Dragon Rankers, they still would not be able to fight the God Rankers.

The hundreds of people here would be massacred and wiped out soon.

‘What should I do?’

Taylor wondered anxiously.

At this moment, Taylor was not the only one anxious.

The other people who were halfway to God Rank were also anxious.

The people they brought here were the elites of their respective families and sects. If they all died here, it would leave a void in their respective families.

Hundreds of people below began to cause a commotion. A lot of them were fearful when facing the six God Rank guardians.

The title as number one among the younger generation? The most important thing right now was surviving

Compared to life, everything else irrelevant.  “Do it!” The masked man who just spoke stopped wasting his breath and roared in a deep voice. The six God Rank guardians expelled their maximum energy at the same time. “Wait!” Augustus cried loudly at this time. “Father, no!” Selena exclaimed, trying to stop Augustus. There were six God Rank guardians on the opposite side, so he could not win against all of them. If he went up, he would only die. “Uncle Augustus,”

Raymond also shouted nervously. However, Augustus ignored the two of them. He flew over directly, stopped in the middle of the six God Rank guardians, and stared at one of the guardians with a mask. “Any last words? You can tell me, but I won’t help you realize it,” the guardian who was being stared at by Augustus said. :

“Arthur, you colluded with foreign forces to kill all of us so that you can cause chaos in Somerland. Do you know what the consequences for the Dominic family will be if just one of us escapes?

There are hundreds of people here. Can you really not miss a single one?” Augustus said. “Hahaha... Augustus, you recognized me,” the guardian who Augustus stared at laughed. At the same time, he removed his mask to reveal that he was indeed the same Arthur who had just fought Augustus not long ago. “Your family is digging your own grave,” Augustus said with a frown. Although he said this, Augustus knew that this matter today was going to be troublesome.

The other party dared to remove his mask, so it proved that either he was not afraid of someone escaping, or that he had the confidence to kill everyone present.

“Digging our own grave? Haha... Augustus, you should worry about yourself. We’ve blocked off all exits from this island, so who can escape from here? As long as you all die here, Somerland will definitely fall into chaos. Even if Mason is not dead yet, he won’t be able to stop us. By then, the chaotic Somerland will belong to the Dominic family.”

“Your family belongs to Somerland as well, so why are you doing this?”

“Why? It’s because Somerland’s days are coming to an end. Once Mason dies, what else will Somerland have? It will just be seceded by all the big forces around the world. If you don’t look for a way out now, you won’t end up in any better situations when the time comes.”

When everyone’s mind was distracted by the several God Rank guardians in the sky, David quietly retreated without attracting anyone’s attention. At this moment, no one would pay attention to David. They could not even protect themselves, so why would they pay attention to him? “Augustus, do you know me?”

Another masked guardian lifted his mask. Augustus followed the voice and looked over. A middle-aged man appeared in front of him. “Connor Haran!” Augustus cried. The Haran family was an old enemy of the King family. However, the Haran family caused trouble in Somerland back then and Mason drove their whole family out of Somerland. At that time, Mason was at his peak. He suppressed all the forces in the world by himself and forcibly led Somerland to become an empire step by step.

Augustus had not seen Connor before.

Yet, they were a family that the King family had viewed as their enemies for hundreds of years, so the King family held a lot of information about the Haran family.

At the very least, they knew all the representatives of the family.

Being a hidden family did not mean that they were completely isolated from the world. They would also send people out to gather information. Augustus had seen Connor’s face many times before. Likewise, he believed the Haran family would also have information of the King family. “Not bad! Not bad! Your family still knows so much about my family,” Connor said with a smile.

“There’s a good saying that goes, the one who knows yourself best may not be yourself, but your enemy!!”

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 668

Although the appearance of Augustus temporarily delayed the six God Rank guardians who were about to take action, he could not stop the crisis at all.

He was just a beginner God Ranker, and he had just been wounded while fighting Arthur.

How could he possibly resist the six God Rank guardians in the air?

The people who could come here were the elites of various families and sects in Somerland.

Everyone understood that if there was no miracle today, they would be doomed. Not a lot of people could resist six God Rank guardians. They were really no different from ants to these God Rank guardians. “Mr. Augustus, please leave! Leave us alone, tell everyone the truth when you go back and let them avenge those who died here,” someone shouted.

“Yes, please leave, Mr. Augustus! Spread the word and avenge us!” “Please leave, Mr. Augustus!” “Please leave, Mr. Augustus!”

At this moment, all the forces were working together. Although they understood that it would not do much, as long as someone escaped, they would not die in vain.

“Haha... You want to leave? If one person can escape today, won't it mean that we are incompetent? People from the Star Alliance, what are you waiting for?” The masked man in the lead laughed and said.

The Star Alliance?

While everyone was feeling confused...

“Ah! W-What are you doing?” There was a scream on the high platform. Two people who were halfway to God Rank rebelled instantly. In that moment, they attacked and injured one person who was halfway to God Rank before quickly leaving. In the crowd below, dozens of people also rebelled. They wounded or even killed those around them before fleeing.

“You bastard!”

“How presumptuous!”

“You're courting death!”

The scene was in chaos.

Everyone was in danger.

Some of the rebels were killed on the spot too.

However, most of them successfully fled before meeting up with the two people who were halfway to God Rank nearby.

The victim on the platform was severely injured and it seemed that they were going to die. The victim was attacked by two people who were halfway to the God Rank at the same time, so it was not their fault they had fallen into this state. It would be difficult for the victim to survive in this condition.

Taylor examined the injured victim, and her expression became unpleasant.

There were initially nine of them but now, there were only six.

There was no chance for them to escape now and they could only fight to their deaths here.

“Are you guys from Star Sect?” Taylor asked gloomily as she looked at the two perpetrators who had just rebelled. “Master Taylor, we are from the Star Alliance. The Star Sect is just one of the members,” one of them replied. “Why did you do this?”

“The Star Alliance is listed as a dangerous sect and family by Somerland, and we are not allowed to resurface. If we don’t find a new way out, should we just watch you occupy resources and become stronger while we can only disappear in future catastrophes? Mason was the one who forced this upon us!”

“Alright, stop talking nonsense! Fight quickly to avoid accidents. I will be responsible for the King family. Do not spare any of the others. After Somerland is divided, everyone will get their chance,” The mid-God Ranker wearing a mask said. Boom boom boom boom boom boom boom!

Six powerful energies surged into the sky, making everyone present feel suffocated and hopeless. Augustus also looked off-colored.

It seemed that they could not escape today.

He moved quickly to Selena’s side.

“Selena, I will do everything in my power to send you and David away later. If you manage to escape, go back and tell your grandpa everything that happened here and have him avenge me.”

“No... Father, don’t... I don’t want to leave!” Selena shook her head, tears filling her charming eyes.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 669

Augustus did not give her a chance to react. He grabbed her immediately and turned around to look for David.

David might be the key to his family’s calamity, so Augustus could not make any mistakes. However, he found that David was gone!

He should be mixed in the crowd and he was trying to escape while taking advantage of the chaos.

Time was of the essence right now. If Augustus could not find David now, then he did not have a choice and could only forget about him. Otherwise, he would not be able to save any of them.

After grabbing Selena, Augustus kicked as hard as he could with both feet.

The ground directly caved in under this huge force. Using the power of the impact, Augustus quickly shot his body into the distance. He was so fast that he was like a high-speed rocket.

However, not long after Augustus flew away, a masked man appeared in front of him. Augustus ignored him and decided to crash into him at high speed.

However, he was going to do so that with his own body.

He was going to create an opening for Selena with his body. The masked man frowned when he saw Augustus charging at him recklessly.

The moment they were about to collide, the man stepped sideways and palmed Augustus' face. "Pfft!" Augustus spurted out a mouthful of blood. Immediately, a hand pushed Selena into the distance. "Selena, go!" "Father!" Selena shouted in pain as she flew in the air. "You think you can escape like this? You're so ridiculous," the masked man in the lead sneered. Augustus stood in front of him, blocking his pursuit of Selena. Even if he died, he had to fight for Selena's life.

However, as he stared at the masked man who was a mid-God Ranker in front of him, a figure next to him quickly chased after Selena.

Augustus was about to stop the person when the masked man in the lead suddenly appeared in front of him to block him.

"Watch how your daughter dies." "You bastard!"

Augustus charged forward to fight him.

However, the other party was clearly treating him like a fool. He wanted Augustus to watch as his daughter got killed. He only blocked Augustus' way but did not do anything to attack him. Selena was in the air. She was just a beginner Dragon Ranker, so she could only fly passively while she was in the air where there was no platform for her to leverage upon. She could only move freely after the force of Augustus on her was exhausted and she landed on the ground.

When she saw a masked figure approaching her at an extreme speed, she could not do anything no matter how hard she struggled. A God Rank guardian was fast. He caught up to Selena in mere seconds. Selena's face was pale from fright.

She had just been flying at high speed in the air and the strong wind had already ripped off her veil.

The masked man came to Selena's side and was about to kill Selena directly.

However, what caught his eyes was a peerless and alluring face. Her face dazed even a God Rank guardian like him.

In just an instant, he changed his mind. He wanted to spare Selena's life, so he could take her back and make her his personal slave who would only serve him in this lifetime.

A God Rank guardian had such staunch morality, but after just one look at Selena, he changed his original plan.

It could be seen that Selena was definitely a devilish woman who would only bring disaster.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 670

The masked man reached out toward Selena's chest.

At this time, he did not forget to take advantage of her.

It was as easy as ABC for a God Rank guardian to subdue a beginner Dragon Ranker.

Meanwhile, Selena had closed her eyes.

She knew she could not escape.

She was just extinguishing the hope that her father Augustus had so desperately created for her.

'Father, I'm sorry,

'Mother, I'll see you in the next life.'

Selena thought silently in her heart. At the same time, Augustus was watching this in devastation in the distance. He wanted to rush over to save his daughter. However, it was a pity as there was no way a beginner God Ranker could win against a mid God Ranker.

Besides, he was seriously injured now.

He could only watch helplessly as his daughter was brutally murdered.

The masked man in the lead turned around with a sneer. He also wanted to see the moment Selena was killed.

He did not pay attention to Augustus at all.

He was just a severely injured beginner peak God Ranker.

Even in peak condition, a fight between the two would only result in Augustus being tortured to death by him, much less when he was seriously injured now.

The masked man looked like he was about to catch Selena.

In the end, he only managed to catch air.

Hmm?

'Where is she?

'Is she gone?'

The masked man stopped at the place Selena had been a split second ago and started looking for Selena everywhere.

The head masked man not far away was also stunned.

He saw that Selena was about to be killed, so why she disappear suddenly?

Even he did not see what had happened.

After he turned around, he saw that Augustus was gone too. 'What? 'How is this possible?' Two people disappeared from right under his nose and he did not notice anything! Suddenly, he felt something. When he looked over to the high platform, he saw Augustus and Selena standing there. 'What is going on? 'Who the f*ck can tell me?'

The masked man who chased after Selena came next to him as well. "Sir, what happened?" The man in the lead did not say anything. He directly moved to the space above the venue and stared at Augustus and Selena on the high platform.

'What is going on?

'I also want to f*cking know what is going on!'

At this moment, Augustus looked confused as well. When Selena was about to be killed, he could not bear to watch the scene, so he closed his eyes.

Then, he felt a strong gust of wind next to him. When he opened his eyes, he was already here.

He was directly involved in the matter, and yet he did not know what was going on.

Only Selena vaguely knew. She was born with a keen sense of smell, so no matter what passed by her nose, she would be able to remember the smell. When she smelled it next time, she would be able to remember.

When she was about to be killed just now, she had smelled a familiar scent.

She only purposely remembered this scene not long ago.

That was the scent of her future man.

She would not forget it for as long as she lived. When she smelled this scent, her tense nerves immediately felt relaxed.

It was as if she knew she was safe.

The sense of security this scent gave her was unfathomable. David was just a Dragon Ranker, so why would she feel so at ease when she smelled him?
