

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 671

She opened her eyes to look at David.

However, she had saw that she had only appeared here.

After looking left and right, she could not spot David's figure, and it made her wonder if she was hallucinating.

However, it was an undeniable fact that she had escaped the clutches of the villain.

Suddenly a voice resounded throughout the sky.

"One, two, three, four, five, six! How come there are only six people? Do you have any accomplices? Call them out! I want to fight ten of you by myself!"

Everyone looked at the voice.

Then, they saw a person wearing a silver mask sitting on the top of a raised pillar on the high platform at this moment.

With his legs crossed, he looked lazily at the several God Rank guardians in the sky.

"Who are you?" Asked the masked man in the lead. "You're in my territory, and yet you're asking such ignorant questions. How ridiculous," David said with a sneer. At this point, Arthur muttered something in the masked man's ear. "Are you Silver Face, captain of Dark Cape's Red Flame Mercenaries?"

"That's me."

"You want to save them?"

"No, no, no! You misunderstood; I don't want to save them!" "Then what's the meaning of this?" "Nothing, I just want to kill you all." "How presumptuous... Silver Face, do you think that with your mid-God Ranker's strength, you can defeat so many of us? Leave quickly and I will pretend that I never saw you, otherwise don't blame me for being rude."

"I won't leave, I want to see how rude you will be," David said sarcastically.

"You..." The masked man did not know what to say after hearing this retort.

Judging from the fact that David had just rescued Augustus and Selena without him noticing, David was definitely not as simple as the mid-God Ranker that Arthur had mentioned.

It was because he was also a mid-God Ranker.

He figured it was absolutely impossible for him to save someone without another mid-God Ranker noticing.

If David could do this, there were only two possibilities.

One was that David's realm was much higher than his.

The other was that David had a hidden talent and his body movement was outrageously strong.

No matter which one it was, if the other party could avoid his perception, it would mean that the person was not someone he could deal with.

The moment David appeared, everyone present felt that they were finally saved. Originally, after David showed his strength in Dark Cape yesterday, almost all the hidden families and sects were dissatisfied with him.

However, these people felt that they were closer to him than their own relatives after seeing him at this moment.

Many even shed emotional tears.

From despair to hope. It was like they had just returned from experiencing the sensation of death. It was David who brought them back from the brink of death.

"It's Silver Face! We're finally saved, we don't have to die! Hahaha... God is not going to kill us," someone said while laughing loudly.

As he laughed, tears escaped his eyes. "Thank you Silver Face, for your life-saving grace. In the future, I will definitely listen to you and abide by the rules that everyone is equal." "Me too! What Silver Face said is the truth! Only after experiencing death did I realize that our lives are not superior to ordinary people's, and the lives of guardians are not superior to ours." "Right, Silver Face saved us and is not afraid of offending so many guardians. We must not let him down!"

Countless people yelled excitedly. Selena looked at David, who was sitting cynically at the top. 'Silver Face is actually David?' The news really shocked her.

"How old is he?"

'He should be two years younger than me, right? *But even Father felt that he's unmatched in his strength.

'How did he train? 'Is he really the chosen one? 'Has all the luck in the world concentrated in him?' Selena looked dazedly at her future man,

Apart from wearing a mask and changing clothes, everything else matched David perfectly. Plus, her sense of smell would never lie to her. This was her talent and she had never made any mistakes with it.

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 672

The six God Rank guardians no longer blocked off every exit from the venue, but instead, they were all gathered together. This was because they all knew that right now, Silver Face was their biggest enemy. If they did not kill Silver Face, he would easily catch up to them with the speed that he had shown just now. They could not give Silver Face a chance to break through. They had to gather together to subdue Silver Face with numbers so that they would have a chance to defeat him.

"Silver Face, you can continue to occupy your Dark Cape as we don't want to be your enemy. Our only goal is Somerland. If we control Somerland, everyone will benefit and Red Flame Mercenaries can also take the opportunity to occupy some resources. There is no need to continue to stay in this resource-poor place since there are too many resource-rich locations in Somerland," the masked man continued to persuade. He really did not want to become David's enemy. He felt terrified when he saw the scene of David saving the two.

Augustus was only ten meters away from him and yet, he was rescued by David. However, the masked man did not even feel anything when this happened. With such speed, Silver Face held the initiative, and he could leave or stay whenever he wanted to. Once the two sides started fighting, could he even stop David if the latter showed such speed again? "What resources? I don't care about those at all. I just don't like you and I want to kill you. That's all!" David said indifferently. He did not rush to do it as he wanted to see if these people had any accomplices. To be honest, these six people were nothing to him. He now figured that it would not be so difficult for Mason to fight nine God Rankers at the same time.

Even if more of them came, it would still be child's play to him.

To be honest, what he did not know was that among the nine God Rank guardians Mason fought, two of them were late God Rankers, three of them were mid-God Rankers, and four of them were peak beginner God Rankers,

Meanwhile, the six in front of him right now had a mid-God Ranker and five beginner God Rankers

The layout of the two was extremely different.

So, naturally, he would feel that killing these people was very easy.

Furthermore, Mason was dying at the time and he was not at his peak. That was the reason why the foreign hostile forces headed by Falconia dared to send people to test him.

Yet, they did not expect to suffer such a crushing defeat.

It could be said that Mason had shocked countless people with such a display when he was about to die.

“Silver Face, I respect your strength and I don’t want to be your enemy. Plus, I have already given you enough respect! Don’t be dissatisfied with small gains or else you won’t be able to defeat the power behind us. If you dare to ruin our plan today, the forces behind us will instantly crush Dark Cape tomorrow and destroy your hard work in one fell swoop!”

“Oh? Tell me, who are the forces behind you? If you can deter me, I won’t kill you today. Otherwise, don’t even try to run away,” David asked with interest.

He would kill those who dared to spy on, divide, and bring trouble to Somerland today.

Although his strength was already at its peak, he was growing too fast and he had not yet been exposed to the deepest secrets of the world. His understanding of the ways of the world was also at the most superficial level. According to Mason, Falconia had only five God Rank guardians, while Somerland had only three.

Now, it seemed that this was not the case at all. Mason was hiding a lot of things from him.

There were quite a few God Rank guardians in the major hidden families and sects in Somerland.

Meanwhile, Falconia would definitely be hiding a lot of things as well.

After the matter here was settled, he would go back to Capital City and show some of his strength to Mason!

He needed to at least know more about these deeper kept secrets.

The masked man in the lead stared at the cynical Silver Face in the distance.

There was a fierce struggle in his heart.

'Should I reveal the power behind us?'

If he did not, Silver Face obviously would not let them go easily and today's plan would definitely fail. This would affect the family's plans, and they were not even sure that they could escape from Silver Face. However, if they did, it could lead to chaos as the Grandmaster had not yet woken up!

The family was not quite ready, either. "Are you going to tell me? If you don't tell me, I'm going to take action. When the forces behind you find me, I will say that I don't know anything! You didn't tell me anyway, so you will just die in vain," David urged.

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 673

"Silver Face, do you really think you are Mason Stefani? Do you think you can kill six guardians by yourself? We won't give you any chance to defeat us. As long as we get together, I don't believe you'll be able to do anything to us," Arthur stepped forward and said. "Really? Since you guys are so confident, let's give it a try," David stood up and said.

His actions immediately made several God Rank guardians nervous and move closer to each other.

This also excited the audience.

'Is it going to start? 'Silver Face is so amazing. 'He was just getting up and he can make the six guardians feel like they are on pins and needles.

'He's so powerful!

'I long to be like him!

'I wonder what Silver Face looks like and how old he is!'

Selena looked at David, her alluring eyes full of psychedelic colors.

It was as if she saw David on top of the world with her in the future.

This was her future man.

'Not bad.

"Just like what I imagined. 'He is a great hero and even his random movement can terrify the six God Rank guardians.' Lorraine stared at Silver Face for a long time, and she kept feeling that this person was very similar to David. Just now she searched the crowd below but she did not see David. 'Where did he go?

'Did he change his clothes and turn into Silver Face?'

However, even if David just performed amazingly, the gap between the two was too great. It was so big that no one would connect the two at all.

It was so big that she even wondered if she was overthinking.

"Come on, Silver Face! Let us see if you can really kill all of us here," Arthur said.

Right now, he was the most worried among them.

The Dominic family was not the same as the force behind these people. Aside from the Haran family, the rest were all foreign forces.

Even if it was the Haran family, the latter had been kicked out of Somerland decades ago. If the Dominic family cooperated with these people, it could be said that they were completely opposing Somerland. In the past, although the Dominic family was not very well-received because of their ruthless behavior, they had not yet reached the point where they were the target of public scorn. However, if someone escaped this place and revealed what had happened today, the Dominic family would be finished. They would no longer have a place in Somerland.

Countless families and sects would join forces to hunt them down. Even if the Dominic family was strong, it was impossible to resist all of them. Otherwise, they would have dominated Somerland long ago.

Therefore, now, he had to speak up to start a fight on both sides. Silver Face showed a peak mid-God Ranker's strength at Dark Cape yesterday. They also had a mid-God Ranker among them, in addition to five beginner God Rankers. Even if Silver Face had terrifying speed, as long as they cooperated well, there would still be a chance to defeat him. Only by taking down Silver Face and killing everyone here would the Dominic family still have an opportunity to seize resources in Somerland. Otherwise, they could only escape in advance or completely go into hiding. Under the obstruction of so many forces, it was hard to say whether they could escape from Somerland

Even if they escaped, their strength would be greatly reduced. In the same situation as the Dominic family were the people from the Star Alliance. They originally wanted to cooperate with these foreign forces to speed up the collapse of Somerland, but they did not expect this to happen.

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 674

David saw that the masked man in the lead of the other party did not speak.

He sighed in my heart.

'It seems that I can't get any information from him.

'I'll just take action then.'

He took a step forward and prepared himself.

"Wait!"

A voice stopped him.

David looked over and saw that it was the masked man in the lead who had spoken.

"What? Are you going to tell me your background to scare me? If you want to say it, say it quickly, or else, don't blame me for not giving you a chance! If you can scare me, I will spare your life today."

"Silver Face, since you so desperately want to know, I will tell you today! I am part of one of the greatest, most mysterious, oldest, and most powerful families in the world, the Chris family. My name is Saunder Chris, and the Chris family is also one of the controllers of Falconia operating in the dark. The strength of our Grandmaster is even greater than Mason. Once you offend us, our family will madly seek revenge against you. Do you know the consequences of being targeted by my family? Everyone related to you will disappear. "The light of the great Chris family will shine on the world and drive out all the darkness in the world, and the glory of the great Chris family will..." Saunder Chris, the masked man in the lead, was full of pride as he introduced his family.

He was very proud that he came from such a family. Now that he had said it, he wanted to let everyone know the greatness of the Chris family. "The Chris family?" Many people present were dumbfounded when they heard the name. They had never heard of the family's name.

Only a few top families and sects were shocked when they heard the name of this family.

They had seen the name of this family in the historical records of their families and sects.

It was a family that was once powerful enough to secretly control half the world,

They were even older than an ancient sect like the Krums. Originally, they thought that this family had disappeared in the long river of history, but they did not expect them to still exist,

Plus, they also became one of the actual controllers of Falconia. Who did not know that Falconia was the most powerful country in the world?

Although Somerland and Falconia were regarded as the world's two largest empires, Somerland was all supported by Mason alone.

Once Mason died, Somerland would fall apart and the Somerland empire would cease to exist. It was difficult to say whether it could be preserved as a small country after all this.

This news was really shocking.

David had never heard of the family. As he watched Saunder passionately preach about the greatness and glory of his family, David figured this guy must have been brainwashed since he was a child. However, what the other party said also surprised him. The Grandmaster of the Chris family was even stronger than Mason.

He had no idea if this was true or not.

Mason's realm should be similar to his and they were both peak God Rankers. If he was more powerful than Mason, wouldn't he have surpassed God Rank?

What realm was that?

If it was true, then David had to seize the time to improve his strength.

He originally thought that when he reached the peak of God Rank, he would reach the top of the world and he would no longer be afraid of anyone.

However, Saunder's words today made him anxious. 'I'm still not strong enough.

'I still have to continue to work hard!

'Damn it! "The stronger I become, the more secrets I find out. Now, my life is even more exhausting than before. 'I miss being a delivery boy. 'I didn't need to think about so many things. 'Indeed, the more ability one has, the more responsibility they will have.' However, David had another question in his heart. Since the Grandmaster of the Chris family was so strong, why did he not directly destroy Somerland?

If Mason was even not his opponent, could anyone stop him? Mason almost single-handedly deterred all hostile forces. Everyone had to wait until Mason died before they dared to take action.

There must be some parts here that were not clear.

David wanted to capture Saunder alive and dig out the Chris family's secret. However, as he was watching Saunder preach the glory of the Chris family so passionately, he decided to forget it.

For such a person who had been brainwashed by his family since childhood, it would be difficult to extract the secrets of the Chris family from him.

He probably would not tell David even if he killed him.

Saunder was still preaching the greatness of the Chris family and most of the people below were stunned.

However, that did not affect Saunder's passion in the slightest.

David was also ready to act.

The information Saunder said was still very useful to him, but it was obviously impossible to get any further information about the Chris family from him. "Hey! Um... please stop for a while," David said.

However, Saunder was clearly in his zone, and he was completely ignoring David.

"Stop!"

David's voice was mixed with his powerful energy, which echoed in the air and could not be dissipated for a long time. Not only was Saunder scared into stopping his passionate preaching, but everyone else was taken aback by David's roar.

"Don't you think you're bullsh*tting too much? How can I have time to listen to you spew so much bullsh*t here? What light from the Chris family will shine on the world? Why do I feel like you're just a pyramid scheme who're trying to get us to join you?" "W-What did you say?" Saunder could not wrap his head around this for some time. "I said that you are talking too much nonsense!" "You... How dare you insult the great Chris family?"

Saunder could not believe his ears. In his mind, if he just mentioned the name of the family behind him, Silver Face should definitely have tried to respectfully flatter him.

After all, Silver Face was only the captain of a small mercenary group. No matter how strong he was, could he compete with an ancient family? However, the other party unexpectedly dared to look down on the greatness and glory of the Chris family.

This was absolutely intolerable to him.

“What do you mean the great the Chris family? Damn, aren’t you just some pyramid scheme? How are you great? Only you brainwashed people think it’s great,” David continued to talk back

“You... You are courting death!” Saunder said through gritted teeth and blood-red eyes.

“Really? Let me see who is the one courting death!” After David said that, his body disappeared. When he reappeared, he was already in front of Saunder. 1
