

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 675

'Oh no!'

Saunder was startled.

The moment he wanted to move, David was already in front of him.

Bang!

After a loud bang, Saunder felt a sharp pain hit his body as he was knocked into the air. Then, he flew directly into a mountain wall. 'Where is Silver Face?'

The remaining five God Rank guardians quickly dispersed. They were looking for Silver Face's figure, but they found no trace of him.

Bang!

"Ah!"

Immediately afterward, there was another loud noise accompanied by Saunder's screams.

Their hearts tightened and they looked toward the source of the voice.

A huge hole appeared in the mountain wall and dust was flying around it. A figure slowly appeared from the dust. With Saunder's body in his hand, David walked out of the hole step by step. He stepped in the air and then walked to the middle of the area. Then, he threw Saunder's corpse down and said jokingly, "Is this a mid-God Ranker from the Christ family? He was boasting like he's a god coming down to earth! However, in the end, what's the difference between him and trash?"

Thud!

Saunder's corpse fell to the ground and it jolted the people who were staring blankly at it back to their senses.

"Run!"

Connor cried, his body instantly shot into the distance. The other four reacted immediately and fled in different directions.

Their speed was so fast that it even surpassed their peak abilities.

They did not have a choice.

Now was the time to escape.

If they were not fast enough, they would die if Silver Face caught up with them.

They were horrified.

Silver Face was too strong and they could not go against him at all.

They initially thought a mid-God Ranker and five beginner God Rankers could fight Silver Face. In the end, Saunder, who was a mid-God Ranker, was immediately killed. Wouldn't they be asking for death if they stayed here and did not flee.

The five of them ran in different directions.

This way, two of them might possibly be able to flee. As for who Silver Face decided to chase, it was all up to fate.

Dark Cape was such a dangerous place. They swore they would not come here anymore.

"You want to run? If you come to my territory, no one will be able to run away without my permission," David laughed as he said that, Then, his body disappeared.

The people on the ground finally came back to their senses.

The people from the Star Alliance wanted to run as well, but they were stopped by hundreds of people. The two remaining people who were halfway to God Rank were subdued in just a few rounds by the other six who were halfway to the God Rank in a three versus one manner. The other dozens could not escape their fates of being captured alive too. They chose to surrender since they would die if they resisted. After all of the people from the Star Alliance were crippled, they were tied together as the group awaited Silver Face's return so that he could deal with them. After a while, David came back. He used a rope to tie five corpses together and brought them back. "Silver Face is back!"

"Welcome, Silver Face!"

"Welcome, Silver Face!"

Everyone cheered.

Then, David tossed the five corpses onto the ground.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 676

“See if you know any of them. As for the rest, just leave it to Augustus. You don’t have to be grateful to me, just do more good things for the country and the people in the future. Somerland is our common homeland. If everyone’s homeland is destroyed, where will our home be? I still have something to do, so I’ll go first.” After David finished speaking, he shifted his body and disappeared from everyone’s eyes.

“Farewell, Silver Face!” “Farewell, Silver Face!” Countless people cried excitedly.

What David said to them right now was no less than a decree.

In addition to what David said, they got a message.

That was, Silver Face was also a Somerlander.

Augustus looked at David’s disappearing figure and appeared as if he was thinking about something. Several other people who were halfway to God Rank were guessing the identity of Silver Face.

Silver Face was undoubtedly a Somerlander, but his exact identity was still up for debate. Selena saw Silver Face disappear. If she guessed correctly, David would appear soon. In order to confirm her guess, she had been looking for David just now but found nothing.

If David reappeared after Silver Face disappeared, coupled with what she smelled earlier, the likelihood that Silver Face was David would be almost 100 percent.

Lorraine was also looking for David at that moment.

David appeared in the sky above a small boat that was sailing away from the island. The people on it were the people from the Dominic family who had already left the island. They knew there was going to be a big fight on the island, so they left early. After today, Somerland would soon be in chaos and their family could also come out to snatch Somerland’s resources.

At this moment, the happiest person on board was Archer, the second son of the Dominic family.

He was beaming in his heart.

Axel is dead?

‘Even the Gods are helping me.’

Next, he would definitely be the heir of the Dominic family. From the air, David watched as the people from the Dominic family left.

The Dominic family dared to collude with foreign forces to try to divide Somerland, so they deserved to die.

'They're not good people anyway, so they should all die!'

Boom!

David immediately zoomed downward and landed on the boat from the sky like a shooting star.

Boom!

The boat was immediately crushed into pieces.

As for the people on it, they all died from the shock and their bodies all fell into the sea.

After doing all this, David went to the woods of the desert island, took off his mask, changed his clothes, and went to the center of the island.

In the center on a desert island.

Taylor, the third elder of the Krums, was making her final speech.

"I'm sorry. As the organizer of this time, I couldn't hold the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland well. Everyone saw what happened, there were many accidents throughout the entire occasion. If it wasn't for the presence of Silver Face, we might have been killed by these enemies who wanted to divide Somerland.

"But we are not without gains. At least now I know the ambitions of the Dominic family and the Star Alliance. They colluded with foreign forces and wanted to cause internal turmoil within Somerland, and thus cooperated with both internal and external forces to divide Somerland and snatch Somerland's resources. "I hope that after you go back, you will tell your families and sects exactly what you have experienced today. We must unite to squash the ambitions of the Dominic family and the Star Alliance while it's still at its early stages. We should not give them the slightest chance of succeeding."

At this time, another person who was halfway to God Rank stood up and said, "Master Taylor is right! These people from foreign forces that came today must have been gathered by the Dominic family and the Star Alliance. If Silver Face was not here, none of us would have survived. Therefore, we have to make the Dominic Family and the Star Alliance pay."

"We agree!"

"We agree!"

“We agree!”

“Alright, this will be the end of this matter. After everyone goes back, if you tell your families or sects what happened today, I believe that your patriarch or head will know what to do.

“Let’s talk about another thing. There is no need to continue the grand event of the chosen ones now as David is already the winner. According to the pre-match outcome, he not only has the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland, but he will also marry Lorraine, a disciple of the Krums.” After Taylor finished speaking, Lorraine stepped forward.

All the chosen ones present were envious of David. Not only did he have the title of the number one among the younger generation in Somerland and was recognized by everyone.

He would also have a peerless beauty like Lorraine.. He was truly at the pinnacle of his life!

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 677

“Where’s David?”

“Where is he?”

It was only at this time that everyone began to look for David.

“Master Taylor, I have something to say!” David’s voice suddenly emerged from the crowd:

Then, everyone around him gave way and David stepped out.

Thank God I made it in time.’

If he did not show up now and only reappeared after returning to Somerland, it would inevitably arouse suspicion from those with bad intentions.

He had no idea that Selena had discovered his identity as Silver Face.

In addition to that, even Lorraine had some doubts. However, Lorraine did not have Selena’s talent, so she only had a slight suspicion.

The people around David felt strange.

Since when was David standing next to them?

They did not even notice.

If David had been by their side this whole time, they would have noticed.

It felt like he had just popped out of nowhere.

However, it did not matter. They only figured that David was so scared he went to hide just now.

After all, the enemy was six God Rank guardians. Who would not be afraid?

No matter how powerful David was, he was just a Dragon Ranker and he was miles away from a God Ranker.

Sure enough, in a situation where his life was at stake, David, the number one among the younger generation in Somerland, was just like them and there was nothing special about him.

“David, what do you want to say?” Taylor asked.

“Master Taylor, my original intention was not to compete for number one among the younger generation in Somerland, but instead, I promised someone to come and repay a favor. I would like to ask you to continue the event as I will not participate,” David stepped out and said seriously.

What was the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland? Why would he need it? It would only put him under the spotlight of countless people and it would not benefit him at all.

The most important thing now was to keep a low profile and continue to improve his strength secretly. Especially when Saunder said that someone in the Chris family was stronger than Mason.

Now, he had to keep an even lower profile. He should quickly break through his mind power and raise it to the God level limit. Only at the God level double limit could he continue to take half a step to the next realm. Only then would he fear no one. Selena stood on the high platform and saw David come out before saying that he did not want to be the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. Then, she pursed her lips and smiled. David could kill a mid-God Ranker in seconds, so he should have the strength of a late God Ranker. It would be a wonder if he was still interested in being considered the number one among a group of Dragon Rankers with his current strength. Would a truly powerful man be willing to be the boss of a group of mediocre men?

The levels on both sides were too different.

A truly powerful man would have great goals while a mediocre one would only have small goals. Selena stood on the high platform with her father. Since she did not have a veil to cover her face now, she instantly attracted the attention of countless chosen ones when she smiled. They had already noticed this veiled woman from the King family before, but they did not know what she looked like. Now that her veil was off and her face had been revealed, she looked absolutely astonishing.

She was not inferior at all when compared to Lorraine, a peerless woman.

Her smile just now was even more moving than Lorraine's.

It was unknown how many men had fallen for Selena's smile.

Lorraine and Selena stand on the high platform and they could be regarded as the peerless duo of Somerland, making countless people fall for them. Lorraine looked at Selena not far away. She had always believed that she was the most unique woman in the world, and no matter where she went, countless men would be fascinated by her. It was only today when she looked at Selena that she felt that she was in a precarious position.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 678

Whether in terms of life experience, looks, or temperament, Selena was no worse than Lorraine, possibly even being slightly better than her,

This made her feel a strong sense of crisis.

Taylor frowned and said, "David, do you know what this honor means? If you don't, I can explain it to you."

"I know, I just don't want to. I will also ask Master Taylor and everyone to forgive me," David replied.

Taylor shook her head and said, "It seems that you still don't know. Let me tell you, getting the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland means that you can suppress all the chosen ones in Somerland with your own strength alone and become the leader of this era to lead us forward. This is not just a false title, and in the turbulent times in the future, there will be countless benefits associated with it. It will give you a huge sublimation in your state of mind which will give you huge benefits to help you break through to God Rank in the future. You must know that Mason, the stabilizing force of Somerland today, was recognized as the number one of his generation and the leader of that era."

"Master Taylor, I understand what you're saying, but I'm used to being lazy and I have no interests in life, so I don't want to be named as the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. Therefore, please give this title to the one who needs it.” David refused. He was still unmoved.

“You... You are so foolish,” Taylor said, feeling disappointed that David did not live up to her expectations.

She had already told David everything so clearly, but David still refused.

One had to know that so many chosen ones in Somerland gathered here together because they were here for this title.

This was the perfect time to make a name for themselves and create achievements that would earn eternal glory, yet, someone actually refused?

They really wondered if David was out of his mind.

The scene fell into a brief silence.

Suddenly someone said loudly.

“I will only acknowledge David as number one among the younger generation in Somerland and I won't acknowledge anyone else but him.” “Yes, think so too! Who else has this qualification other than David? I won't acknowledge you unless you kill a mid-Dragon Ranker in front of me!”

“Agreed, since we refer to him as number one, then that person must be the most powerful among the younger generation. Only David can carry this title.” Countless chosen ones echoed loudly.

The reality was like that sometimes.

The more you refused, the more others would give it to you. The more you longed for it, the more people would hamper you. David had a bitter look on his face. They thought that he was nuts, but he also thought that they were nuts. ‘Aren't you fighting to your death for this title? I don't even want it yet I can't even give it to you? What a bunch of idiots! Selena kept staring at David. It was funny to see David, a super-powerful late God Ranker, actually deilating under such circumstances.

To her, God Rankers seemed so aloof and so serious in speech and manner. At least, that was how her grandfather behaved. However, David, a late God Ranker, was showing such a lovely side right now. It was so funny. Augustus also noticed his daughter's changes. This was the first he saw her smiling so happily after she had grown up. Her smile was definitely coming from the heart. This was not a sake smile that she put on to deal with a situation. Following her gaze, Augustus saw David. It seemed that Selena was truly into David. ‘That's good.

At least, this made a father like him feel slightly better. As a core senior of the King family, he did not dare to go against the family's decision. Plus, this could be related to the fate of the king family. As a member of the King family, he could sacrifice everything for his family.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 679

"David, you can also see that this title belongs to you. This is what everyone wants. Although I am the organizer of the grand event of the chosen ones, I have no right to choose. Everything is based on the opinion of the chosen ones. Since everyone highly recommends you, then you are the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. Even if you don't want it, everyone will still call you that after you leave this place," Taylor persuaded. "Yeah, David, we don't accept anyone but you!"

"Me too!"

"Me too!"

David stood there feeling depressed and was speechless for a long time.

He was wondering how to get rid of this title. "Furthermore, David, you have become the number one among the younger generation in Somerland so you can marry Lori and befriend the Krums. In troubled times in the future, you will have an extra layer of security. So many people dream about this."

David was taken aback

'Marry Lorraine?

That is even more unacceptable!

Although Lorraine was indeed tempting, he already had Celia.

Moreover, he did not like women like Lorraine who were too smart either.

Celia was much better.

As for having an extra layer of protection after marrying Lorraine because he could rely on the Krums?

What a joke! He was a peak God Ranker so would he need to rely on a woman? He would become a laughing stock if they learned of this.

"Master Taylor, please spare me, okay? I have no ambitions and I truly do not deserve this title. I killed Axel in seconds because he was careless, and I coincidentally learned a very powerful body movement. If I didn't kill him at that moment, I'd be finished if he became serious. So, that was just an accident," David replied with a wry smile.

"You..." Taylor did not know what to say to David anymore.

'What a weirdo! He must have a few screws loose.

"Um... Master Taylor, I still have something to do, so I'll get going first. You should hold another grand even of the chosen ones. Thank you for your support but I am not as great as you think. I'm worried that I won't live up to your expectations, so please choose someone else. Bye!'

After David said that, he left the scene at lightning speed.

However, he knew to act within the norms. Even though he was fast, everyone could still see him.

However, it gave everyone another misconception. Maybe David did kill mid-Dragon Ranker Axel because of an accident just like he said. The scene fell into silence once again. After some time, Taylor said, "I think we should fight again. Perhaps David was right. He is only depending on his speed and if the chosen ones here fight seriously, then you might defeat him as well. He might be afraid that he would be exposed so that's why he did that." After Selena saw that David was gone, she informed her father that she wanted to thank David and left quietly. Augustus simply smiled and said nothing. Taylor was just making an excuse.

Even the people like them did not see clearly what David was doing when he killed Axel. Could it really be explained by simply calling it an accident?

He was also curious about what body movements David had learned.

He could not even see what David did clearly. How incredible! David went back to the cruise ship and detached a yacht. After that, he got on the yacht by himself and got ready to leave. He also wanted to fly directly back to Dark Cape, but he was afraid of being noticed, so he decided to just take a yacht. As for the grand event of the chosen ones, it had nothing to do with him anymore and he did not want to think about it.

Just as David was about to start the yacht and leave, he felt a figure following him. David turned his head to look.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 680

'Selena? 'What is this girl doing here?'

"Mr. David, can I take your yacht and leave with you?" Selena asked with a smile.

Her smile was so pure that David felt as if he was bathing in the spring breeze. "Miss Selena, are you not waiting for your father?" David asked.

"I'm not waiting for him, and I don't know when they will leave. I need to go back and report today's affairs to my family."

"That's fine, get in. But are you sure you didn't sneak out? If your father says I kidnapped you and decides to settle accounts with me, I won't be able to bear the anger of a God Rank guardian," David joked. "You're hilarious, Mr. David. If you really kidnapped me, my dad would definitely feel delighted in secret. He would not bear any grudges," Selena said with a smile.

'Huh?'

David was speechless.

'I was just joking but I didn't expect Selena to say that.'

'Was that a hint?'

He felt that since he obtained the system, he had been very lucky with women, and they would all be extremely stunning.

'Does the system also have an opposite-sex attraction function?'

'This is insane! I should find some time to look into the system closely. If there is, I should turn it off.'

'Otherwise, it is not a good thing to be noticed by so many beautiful women wherever I go.' "Miss Selena, you must be joking. Get it, I'm going to start the engine," David said embarrassedly.

Selena smiled and tiptoed lightly before her body floated onto the yacht.

David turned around and walked into the wheelhouse. Then, he started the yacht and turned it on autopilot to leave the island.

Falconia.

Inside a secluded and ancient castle.

There was an old coffin in the middle of the hidden room.

This was the headquarters of the Chris family, one of the three controllers of Falconia.

This was also a place with the strongest magnetic field in the world.

Centuries ago, the Chris family's ancestors discovered that the magnetic field could slow down aging and extend human life.

Back then, magnetic fields were very rare on earth, unlike right now where it was very widespread. It could only be found around the poles.

At that time, the Chris family began to search for magnetic fields all over the world. They extracted the core of the magnetic field and got a black stone which they called magnetite. After decades of research, the Chris family could finally superimpose the magnetic field emitted by the magnetite. In this way, a place with a strong magnetic field could be artificially created, and the effect of delaying aging would be many times higher than that of the natural magnetic field. Of course, this superposition was also limited, and it could not be superimposed infinitely, otherwise, the effect would be horrifying.

At that time, a legend of the Chris family volunteered to be the first tester because he was unwilling to die naturally. Hence, he had been sleeping in the center of the artificial magnetic field ever since. He was waiting for the day in the future when he got a chance to wake up and then, he would lead the family to extend their glory.

Throughout these hundreds of years, the people of the Chris family had been constantly-researching the use of magnetic fields and constantly superimposing them here. This made it one of the places with the strongest magnetic fields in the world. The people of the Chris family had always believed in their ancestor's teaching, and they believed that their Grandmaster would wake up and lead their family to glory again. By then, the light of the Chris family would illuminate the whole world, making countless people worship and look up to them.
