I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 687

David was shocked by Selena's idea. 'We just met for the first time today, didn't we? 'Selena wants to stay adrift and have a baby with me? 'I can't understand this! 'Is this girl boy-crazy? 'Or has she lost her mind from being hidden for so long? 'It would be a shame for such a beautiful woman to have something wrong with her head. "Well... Selena, why do you have such ideas?" David asked. "David, let me be honest with you! I came out with a mission from the King family," Selena said to David.

"What mission?" "Marry the winner of the grand event of the chosen ones, who's also the number one among the younger generation in Somerland."

"Why? Lorraine from the Krums wants to marry the number one among the younger generation in Somerland, and now the King family also wants you to marry the number one among the younger generation in Somerland too. Why is that?" David asked curiously.

Selena thought about it and said, "To put it simply, the world is about to fall into crisis. If we want to survive it, we need someone who might be the number one among the younger generation in Somerland."

"A crisis? What kind of crisis?"

"I don't know!"

"You don't know? And who is the source of this information?" "Family history! Many ancient sects and families have sycg records!" "Family history? Is it a prophecy?"

"That's one way to put it!" "Is this prophecy reliable?" "It's better to believe it's real than to believe it's nonexistent. Besides, the family elders wouldn't have randomly recorded it to make the younger generation worry. They must have had something to back it up." David was silent.

'Both the ancient families and sects predicted the world will be suffering a crisis.

'Could the system have something to do with the prophesied crisis? 'How else would a magical system suddenly descend upon me?

Am I the chosen one? Did I get the system to mive the world and become a savior?

This is crazy! "No matter how I look at myself, there is nothing sperial about me 'I don't understand! "Maybe I should stop thinking about it."

“Shouldn’t you wait for the grand event of the chosen ones to end then? Why did you follow me? I’ve already said I won’t become the number one among the younger generation in Somerland.”

“It’s your problem if you don’t want it, but the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland is yours. You’re a 22 year-old late God Ranker. Do you think anyone can beat you?”

“Did you follow me to marry me and get me on the King family’s side so I can help you during this crisis?” David asked.

“Yes! But I also think it would be nice to stay adrift at sea with you without bothering about any crisis,” replied Selena.

Hearing Selena’s answer, David was reassured.

David automatically ignored the latter part on what she said about wanting to be adrift at sea with him.

David thought about it and said, “Selena! We’re friends, and your father Augustus’ ideas are in line with mine. The King family is decent too. If there is any crisis in the future, I promise to help the King family, okay? You don’t have to marry me.” “David! Are you that unwilling to marry me? Or am I not pretty enough and not attractive enough? As a woman of the King family, my fate is sealed. Even if I don’t marry you, I’ll marry someone else in the future. If I had to choose someone to marry, I’d prefer it to be you,” muttered Selena.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 688

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 688

“Selena, you’re attractive, but I already have a girlfriend. Her name is Celia Young. Your name sounds kinda similar too. We love each other very well. I can’t hurt her, so I can only apologize. Please don’t waste your time on me,” David said with a wry smile. “I don’t care if you have a girlfriend! In large families like ours, the patriarch and many immediate members have more than one woman to keep the family bloodline going.” Selena blurted out.

“But she does!” David replied. “So, does that mean you don’t really care? We only have to get past your girlfriend, right?” Selena asked as she blinked her big, beautiful eyes.

“I…” David was stunned.

He had not expected Selena’s answer. As expected, these hidden aristocratic families still followed the ancient social system.

“Selena, since you’ve come out of hiding, you need to understand and follow the modern social system. One man can only have one woman. You need to abandon the ancient customs,” advised David. “I know that. Hidden aristocratic families often go out to learn about the outside world. Although only one wife is allowed in modern society, many powerful people have more than one woman. I can be your lover.” “What the f*ck?”,

David almost had a nervous breakdown.

A beautiful woman offered to be my lover?

‘She even said it so matter-of-factly. ‘Who the f*ck can handle that? ‘Calm down! Calm down!

‘David, you have to stop. You already have Celia. You can’t let her down.’

David recited the Calming Mantra to himself to settle down his restless mind.

“Selena, what’s the point of doing this?”

“I can’t help it! You’re too good. I have eyes for no other man after meeting you,” Selena spoke earnestly. “It’s impossible for something to happen between us. I love Celia and would never hurt her.” “I know! Don’t worry. I won’t make things difficult for you.” David was silent for a while and decided not to pursue the subject. “Selena, stay on the boat for a while as I try to locate Dark Cape. Otherwise, we won’t be able to find our way back,” David got up and said.

“No! David, either you take me with you or stay with me on the boat. I don’t want to be here alone.” Selena quickly stood up, grabbed David’s hand, and said nervously. David looked at Selena and saw a flicker of panic in her eyes. ‘Is she afraid I’d leave her at sea?’ Dragon Rankers could not fly yet and would have little chance of survival if caught in a big storm at sea.

“Alright! I’ll take you with me.” David had no choice but to say so. “Okay!” Selena took two steps forward and leaned in to hug David tightly. David caught a whiff of fragrance and was tightly hugged by Selena. He could only shake his head with a wry smile. He did not want such an amorous encounter.

It was f*cking torture.

He was a normal guy.

He was a guy who had recently tasted the forbidden fruit with Celia.

The beautiful woman in front of him was a great challenge to his will.

David recited the Calming Mantra a hundred times in his head, took Selena up into the air, and sped off in a random direction.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 689

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 689

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 689

David took Selena back to Dark Cape by air and then separated. Selena was reluctant to part, but she knew she and David were still only friends and could not stay together forever. She was content to hold David for this long today. Besides, she also needed to go back to her family to report what happened at the grand event of the chosen ones. They had to remove the Dominic family and the Star Alliance, or they would bring trouble in the future. If they let the King family take the lead on this matter, other sects and families would also be involved.

However, she would try her best to hide David's affairs. Since she promised David to keep his secret, she would keep her word.

David convened a meeting with Red Flame Mercenaries' top management. Then he left Dark Cape, returned to Somerland, and took a flight to Capital City from the nearest city. With the deterrence of him killing six God Rank guardians in the grand event of the chosen ones, no one dared to cause trouble in the Dark Cape for the time being. Besides, these hostile foreign forces lost six God Rank guardians in one shot, so they might also lay low for a while!

He still needed a little time to grow.

He had more than 3,000 lavish points now, and he believed he could get 10,000 lavish points soon.

By then, his mind power would break through to God level, and he would get stronger.

He was a peak God Ranker, but it was unlikely that he would be a match for an experienced veteran peak God Ranker like Mason.

He still needed to elevate his mind power.

When David arrived in Capital City, he contacted Celia and told her that he was in Capital City and was coming over to pick her up. Celia was delighted to hear from David. He drove to Celia's house and found that Celia was home alone. David picked Celia up and planned to go somewhere else. That evening, Celia's mother, Mindy, called David to ask if Celia was with him.

Mindy had received a call from Celia saying she was spending the night with David and was not coming home, but she was still worried. She felt relieved after calling David to confirm it.

David hung up on Mindy and said to Celia with a smile. "Celia, what do you think Aunt Mindy meant by calling?"

"I... I don't know!" Celia said as she buried her head under the covers.

David experienced the seduction of stunning beauties Goldie and Selena on a desert island.

The first thing he did after arriving in Capital City was to find Celia. "I think Aunt Mindy is keeping an eye on you for me!"

"Why is she keeping an eye on me?" Celia popped her head out and asked.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

"This mother-in-law is so good. She'll call me to confirm if you don't come home at night, and she'll look for you if I say you're not here." "How dare you? David, you conspired with my mother to spy on me." "I didn't plan this with Aunt Mindy. She volunteered to keep an eye on you for me. I suppose she thinks a son-in-law like me is rare."

"How shameless!"

David drove Celia home the next day.

David wanted Celia to stay the night, but he was going to meet Mason to discuss something later. He had no idea how long it would take, and it was not safe to leave Celia alone if something came up and he could not return. Thus, he might as well send her home first!

Pulling up to Celia's villa, David got out and opened the back door. "Celia, you're home! I'll see you later when I'm done."

"Okay... Let me sleep a little longer," Celia replied in a daze. David had no choice but to scoop Celia up in his arms. Then he opened the door with Celia's fingerprint and walked in. David found Mindy at home as soon as he walked in.

Mindy was watching TV in the living room. After arranging the company's affairs in the morning, she waited at home for Celia to come back so that she could ask about David, whom she had not heard from for several days. She was more concerned about David than Celia was now. She turned her head to the door when she heard it open. 'What happened?' Mindy was stunned to see David come home with Celia in his arms.

'She was fine when she went out yesterday. Why did she come back like that this morning?

'What happened?' "David, what... what happened? What... what's wrong with Celia?" Mindy got up and asked nervously. Celia was the couple's only daughter. What if something happened to her? "Well... Aunt Mindy, Celia is alright. She's just exhausted. I'll carry her upstairs to get some rest," David replied sheepishly.

"Exhausted?" Mindy asked in confusion.

"Yes, yes, yes! She's just exhausted."

David carried Celia upstairs after he finished speaking.

Worried, Mindy followed them. 'She can't be that exhausted, can she?' David put Celia to bed and tucked her in. Celia said in a daze, "David, you bully! All you know is..."

David wanted to find a hole in the ground and hide. He knew Mindy had followed him upstairs and had heard her.

"Aunt Mindy, I got to go. I'll see Celia when I'm done." David turned around, steeled himself, and said.

"David, I'm not trying to lecture you, but you youngsters have to control yourself. Look what you've done to Celia. It doesn't worry you, but it worries me as a mother!" Mindy criticized calmly. "Yes, yes, yes! Aunt Mindy, you're right. I'll pay attention next time," David quickly said humbly. Come to think of it, he was a peak God Ranker, but he still had to apologize obediently in front of his mother-in-law.

Oh!

He brought shame to God Rank masters!

"Okay, don't worry. I will help you take care of Celia. Go and handle your affairs without worry! Remember to see her when you're done." "Okay. Thank you, Aunt Mindy. Goodbye." David quickly fled the scene.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 690

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 690

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 690

"By the way, what have you been up to? Why have you been away from Capital City for so long?" Mindy asked, changing the subject. This was her real goal. She only criticized David to find a topic. She wished they could be together every day. Mindy wanted to ask David where he had been all this time.

'Did he go abroad with East League Capitals' general manager Pearl again?' She had looked through Pearl's files and decided that this woman was a huge threat. Besides coming from a poor background, she had an outstanding ability, looks, and means. "Aunt Mindy! I had to leave the country to take care of work these days," David answered honestly.

Dark Cape was indeed not a part of Somerland anymore, so he was right to say he was not in the country.

Mindy frowned.

'Sure enough!

'He went abroad to fool around with that woman again.

'Men are no good!

'He went out to fool around with other women when he has a beautiful woman at home.

'But that's not true.

'If David had gone abroad to fool around with Pearl, he couldn't have made Celia so exhausted as soon as he came back.

'He must have been busy with work.

'After all, East League Capitals has grown so much these days. 'They are about to hit the ten trillion dollar mark. 'It's a historic moment. 'East League Capitals will soon become East League Consortium.

'Ten trillion dollars! 'How much money is that? 'It's an astronomical number! 'Most importantly, David owns 100% of East League Capitals. 'No major conglomerate in the world could do that. 'Besides, David doesn't have a father or siblings, but only a few aunts and uncles.

'It won't do! 'Celia has to give David a baby.

Otherwise, there would be no one to inherit a company this big.' Mindy was indeed thinking ahead of herself. "David, you and Celia didn't take any safety precautions, did you?" Mindy asked again.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

"Huh? What safety precautions?" David asked in confusion.

"Safety precautions to avoid pregnancy." Mindy could not help blushing after she finished.

However, she had to think about what was best for her daughter. She had to ignore all this for Celia's future happiness. David looked startled!

He had no idea how to answer so suddenly.

'What is Mindy thinking? 'It's so random to ask a question like that, isn't it?

'How bold and imaginative. It was so unusual!'

"We...we basically didn't... didn't take any," David answered in a stammer. "It's great that you didn't. Don't abort the baby if she gets pregnant. A woman's first baby is important. According to scientific research, a woman's first child is much smarter than the later ones, so you mustn't abort the baby. If Celia gets pregnant, ask her to suspend school to give birth to the baby. Don't worry. I will help you take care of the baby," Mindy said as she made up some random excuse.

She had done so much for Celia to nab David and not let her super son-in-law get away.

"Is there really such a thing?" David asked in confusion.

"Yes, absolutely. It's research from foreign experts and professors. You're too busy with that work that you have no time for these."

"Well... does Celia agree with it?" "Yes, of course, she agrees. Besides, you've been together for so long. It doesn't matter if you have kids early. You'll get married after graduate soon anyway." "If Celia does get pregnant, we'll have the baby if Celia agrees!" David said casually. He had decided to be with Celia forever. No matter what happened, he would not let Celia leave him. It was the same whether they had kids earlier. "Sure! You gotta work hard. I'll take good care of Celia's health these days," Mindy said happily

David was confused.

Mindy just told him to control himself.

Now, she wanted him to work hard.

David could not figure out what his mother – In-law was thinking! (17 will. Aunt Mindy. Well... I got to go. I'll leave Celia to you for the time being, I'll come and see her when I'm done."

David wanted to get out of here as soon as possible,

Otherwise, he had no idea what strange questions Mindy was going to ask next,

"I'll get out of your hair then! Are you coming to dinner tonight?" "I'm not sure! I'll call Celia first if I'm coming." "Okay! I'll leave you to it then!"

"Aunt Mindy, I gotta go!"

David left Celia's house.

He drove straight to Mason's house.

David did not have to go through as much careful examination to get in and out of Mason's place anymore.

Soon they came to the courtyard door where Mason lived. He got out of the car, pushed the door open, and got in. Mason was still in the yard, slowly practicing his seemingly weak boxing fighting technique.

However, David did not see Julia.

Julia used to watch Mason at these times. Upon seeing David come in, Mason stopped practicing.

"David, you're here! Come and sit down. I happened to want to see you about something," said Mason.

Then he turned and sat down at a stone table. "Old Master Stefani, don't mention it!" David went and sat down opposite Mason after he finished speaking.

Mason picked up the teapot from the stone table, poured David a cup, and said, "How about giving it a try? Not everyone can drink my tea."

David picked up the cup, took a sip, and said, "It's nice."

He knew nothing about tea.

In his opinion, tea was something to quench thirst. It was no different from plain water.

Mason smiled and said nothing. He could tell that David knew nothing about it.
