I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 709

This was in case some people stopped studying hard and decided to idle their time away after they knew they had secured a job.

This was not the result he wanted.

"Damn, are you really a kid from a wealthy family? Why couldn't I tell from before?"

"What a savage. You were so good at hiding it." William gave David a thumbs up.

"Your future is bright. You are obviously a rich kid, but you pretend to be a pauper. If you were not dumped by Sarah, you probably wouldn't have told us, right?"

In addition to that, David's remarks caused a stir among the surrounding students.

Although the rumor about David being a rich kid kept circulating on campus and people claimed they had seen him drive a sports car worth tens of millions to campus. At the end of the day, only a few people had seen it.

Now that he had personally admitted his identity, it meant that it was definitely not fake.

"David, I think you should treat everyone in our class to a meal because you played with our feelings. When you delivered food, I made myself a few kilograms heavier so that I could help you earn money," said a chubby girl in the class.

"Yeah, Mona is right! You toyed with our feelings, so you should do something to compensate for that," another girl also chimed in.

"I agree!"

"I also agree!"

More than half of the class agreed with Mona's suggestion and they all wanted David to buy them a meal.

"Mona, you are so fat and yet you're still eating? No wonder you can't find a boyfriend," Patrick said.

"It's none of your business. Patrick, you can't represent all men. Some people like a plump and voluptuous girl like me, right, David?" Mona looked at David and said with stars in her eyes.

David could not help but shudder.

Mona was not ugly, and she would have potential if she lost some weight.

However, which one of the women around David during this period was not a goddess?

Aside from Lorraine and Selena who looked like they were sources of calamity, among Celia, Julie, Pearl, Sandy, and Goldie, which one of them was not above 95 points?

Now, why would he be interested in a girl like Mona who was only about 70 or 80 points after she lost weight?

When David thought of goddesses, he glanced at Ava's seat.

He noticed she was still sitting in her seat and she was reading a book seriously. She did not show any interest in his arrival at all.

In this class, only Ava could compare with those women. 1

"Since everyone had said so, I'll buy everyone dinner tonight. Let us have a gathering and the venue will be in the Golden Leaf Hotel. Everyone can eat and play all they want. At the same time, I want to thank everyone for taking such good care of me," David stood up and said loudly.

"David, Hove you!"

"All hail David!"

"David, I want to have your babies! "

Some of the female classmates who were more outgoing and cheeky were cheering loudly.

The male classmates were also praising David.

David was treating all of them to dinner in Golden Leaf Hotel?

That was the only eight-star hotel in South River Province.

A lot of them dreamed of having a meal there.

According to sources, a meal there would cost over ten thousand dollars, yet David was setting the dinner venue there?

There were 60 students in this class so how much would the dinner cost?

This basically confirmed he was a kid from a super affluent family.

Only Dean sat on his seat alone with a dark look on his face.

David stole a glance at Ava and noticed that there was no expression on Ava's face. When he saw that she was still reading seriously, he felt very relieved.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 710

The morning passed quickly.

Most of the class were looking forward to the gathering in the evening.

Golden Leaf Hotel!

The only eight-star hotel in South River Province.

If it weren't for David, it was estimated that many of them would not even be eligible to have a meal there throughout their entire lives.

Ring ring ring!

The bell rang.

It was time for lunch.

After the lecturer left, the students rushed out of the classroom and ran to the cafeteria. They wanted to get their food early, otherwise if they needed to line up at the back, they would not know how long they would need to wait.

Although someone was treating them to a big dinner in the evening, they still had to eat at noon, right?

David slowly got up after his classmates in the class were almost gone.

The three musketeers in the same dorm with him were not in a hurry either and they were all waiting for David.

There were still some students in the classroom who were unwilling to squeeze with the others, and Ava was one of them.

The four of them had not left the classroom yet.

At this moment, two people appeared at the door of the classroom. They were women who were at the level of a goddess.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

The two people were Amelia and Luna.

Luna was excited to learn that David was back at school.

The Shoron family was only average among the hidden families, and they had no one who was halfway to God Rank in their family.

The strongest person was her grandfather, and he was just a peak Dragon Ranker.

In addition, there was no particularly talented person in her generation and she was quite young.

That was why she did not go to the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland.

However, this did not stop them from getting information about the grand event as a hidden family.

A young man in his twenties named David suppressed countless chosen ones in Somerland and became the number one among the younger generation in Somerland that everyone recognized.

Even though he declined the title, in everyone's hearts, David was still the number one among the younger generation in Somerland.

That guy's name was David, and he was also in his twenties.

Aside from her classmate David from South River University, she could not think of anyone else who would fit this description.

The energy David exposed the last time in Capital City made her think that he was very powerful, but she never thought that he would be so powerful.

He could kill the eldest son of the Dominic family who was also a late-stage Dragon Ranker in seconds.

Therefore, he should at least be a peak Dragon Ranker.

A peak Dragon Ranker!

As the number one in the Shoron family, Luna's grandfather himself was only a peak Dragon Ranker.

Furthermore, David was still in university. He was a peak Dragon Ranker in his twenties so the word 'genius' was not even enough to describe him. He was a monster.

In addition, Luna received a message from her family last night.

Not only was David an MP in the Somerland Parliament, but he was also the secret disciple of Old Master Stefani, the stabilizing force of Somerland. Now, he was also the captain of the discipline team that had jurisdiction over all the martial artists in Somerland.

With so many titles combined, David was miles ahead of so many people in the same generation as him.

Even the ones in the older generation could not compare to him in terms of status.

In Somerland, David was definitely at the level of a big shot.

Now, this big shot still owed her a favor.

It was no exaggeration to say that if David said something with his current identity, the Shoron family might overturn the initial plan and make a new arrangement.

Of course, she would not need to marry the new heir of the Quinn family.

She wondered how her family members would react if they found out that she was in the same university as David and he even owed her a favor.

When she thought about this, Luna could not suppress the excitement in her heart. Hence, she ran over to show her face, and while she was at it, she would remind David not to forget about her.

Meanwhile, Amelia only decided to come to look for David after an intense internal struggle.

Initially, she was the first one to find out David's secret.

However, she was the one who was the most marginalized.

It had been two to three months since she saw David, yet David had not contacted her. Moreover, he did not even ask about her.
