

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 761

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 761

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 761

Mt. Fragrant Province.

Fragrant City

This was a middle-tier city in Somerland.

Among the 66 provinces of Somerland, it was not too brilliant, nor too weak. At this time, David was walking on a street in Fragrant City, and with him were six people halfway to God Rank from the discipline team.

However, they were working separately. Each person was responsible for investigating a different area. Julia received news last night. Powerful martial artists had appeared in Fragrant City in the Mt. Fragrant Province. These people not only exposed their strength as martial artists in front of ordinary people, but they even recruited ordinary people as their disciples. Furthermore, their organization was growing rapidly.

In less than half a month, tens of thousands of people had been attracted.

It was actually very easy for martial artists to win over ordinary people. By just showing off some martial art skills casually, they would make these ordinary people revere them like they were gods. Then, they would promise the ordinary people that they would become martial artists soon after joining. Naturally, these ordinary people would believe them with all their hearts. Moreover, the intention of these martial artists was also obvious, that was, they wanted to control the city secretly.

After secretly investigating this, the members of the discipline team found that the other party was organized and had premeditated this. In addition, they also had great ambitions, resulting in them winning over many forces in Fragrant City. Thus, they did not dare to act rashly and decided to report it to Deputy Captain Julia. When David received the news from Julia, he immediately brought people to Fragrant City. Now, the news that the Haran family united with the world's major forces and was ready to come to Somerland for revenge had spread all over the world.

All kinds of bad characters started to emerge.

The interior of Somerland also experienced some uncertainties. David had to take care of this in one strike so that he would teach a strong lesson to these forces that were planning to resurface.

Now that Mason's plan was about to succeed, nothing bad could happen to Somerland at this time.

Otherwise, it would be his fault.

David wandered around Fragrant City for a while.

He looked at ordinary people who lived and worked in peace and contentment here.

He secretly decided in his heart that the lives of these people could not be affected.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Martial artists were never allowed to interfere with the lives of ordinary people, otherwise, society itself would undergo earth-shaking changes.

It was not easy for Somerland to have a stable life today. It had cost the sacrifice of countless Somerland elites who gave up their blood and lives to achieve this, so it could not be destroyed by these ill-intentioned people. David was walking when he suddenly noticed some people on the street. After they took out their phone and glanced at them, they started rushing in one direction.

In one fell swoop, there were one-fifth fewer people on the street. Although the street was still bustling with activity, David followed curiously. After following the crowd through several isolated alleys, he finally reached his destination. The entrance to a building was packed with people.

Two men were guarding the entrance.

Everyone who went in had to show the other party their phones before they could enter.

This should be something like a pass.

David did not have a pass, so he dispersed his mind power. Then, David frowned.

The two men guarding the building entrance were two first-class peak-level masters.

Not only them, but there were also actually many martial artists inside the building.

Could these be the martial artists that were recruiting new people that the discipline team had discovered? No, because the strongest in this building was only a beginner Dragon Ranker.

If this was them, the discipline team would have taken care of them easily with their strength. They would not need to report any news about.

Where was the problem? David decided to sneak in and take a look.

Turning to the other side of the building, David spread his mind power to make sure that there was no one around, and in a blink of an eye, he reached the top floor of the building.

Then, David walked down the building.

With the help of his mind power, no one could detect David.

Soon, he arrived at the middle level of the building, where all the ordinary people who came in had gathered.

The entire floor was just one hall. It was very large and it could accommodate thousands of people.

David blended in with the crowd and sat down. He wanted to see what the hell these people were up to.

It did not take long for the entire hall to be filled with people. David was afraid of exposing his identity, so he did not speak to the people around him. After the seats were filled, more than a dozen martial artists walked in. The leader was the beginner Dragon Ranker that David's mind power had detected earlier. After more than a dozen martial artists walked in, they began to showcase the strength of some of their martial artists. They were punching boulders with their bare hands and breaking steel bars that were as thick as one's thumb.

In an instant, thousands of ordinary people below cheered in surprise. David was furious!

These martial artists dared to violate the rules of Somerland. They dared to show their strength to so many ordinary people and affect their lives. They must be tired of living. However, he did not do anything right away. A beginner Dragon Ranker who was usually aloof and private was willing to be a guest performer here. There must be something fishy going on behind this. Immediately afterward, a middle-aged man on the stage began to speak. The more David listened to him, the more he felt that something was not right. He was clearly brainwashing everyone. Anyone who joined them could have a powerful body. Not only would they never get sick and be invulnerable, but their lives would also be extended so they could live longer.

David looked at the people around him with longing looks on their faces, and he felt that things were getting serious. If a person wanted to become a martial artist, talent was the most important thing. In addition to that, they needed to begin systematic practice from a young age.

Once they were eighteen years old, they would never be able to achieve anything even if they practiced martial arts.

Of course, he was an exception as he found the hack to this.

These martial artists were simply deceiving ordinary people. Looking at the longing looks on the faces of ordinary people in their twenties, thirties, forties, and even fifties, it was very likely that they would give up their existing happy life and invest in this until they went bankrupt. They were shaking the very foundations of Somerland. He should punish this idea!

David wanted to rush over and slap these people to death at this moment. Still, he held back because they were just small fry. It was easy to destroy them here, but he would definitely alarm others if he did so. Also, this was only a place where they would recruit new people, while those who joined would be sent to the headquarters for concentrated cultivation. After thinking about it, David decided to meet the cabinet minister of Mt. Fragrant Province first.

In Fragrant City, martial artists had begun to blatantly recruit ordinary people. 'Is the cabinet minister of Mt. Fragrant Province a coward?

"Does he still want his f*cking job?"

David was very angry now. If these people were allowed to continue developing, it would soon spread to the whole country. The foundations of the whole of Somerland would be shaken.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 762

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 762

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 762

David came out of the building, feeling a little upset. If the Haran family did not act for another month, there might really be some disturbance with Somerland's social fabric.

Somerland was too big.

There were 66 major provinces and numerous large, medium, and small cities.

It was impossible to have so many people stationed everywhere.

Even if he was powerful, he still could not be in two places at once.

Moreover, it was too easy for martial artists to recruit ordinary people. The temptation to be immune to all diseases and to live a long life was too great. Although those were all scams, ordinary people did not know it. They only believed what they could see. David now only hoped that the Haran family would act as soon as possible.

As soon as the news about Mason returning to his prime came out, no one would dare to have any thoughts about Somerland anymore.

Somerland's internal worries would also be easily resolved. While David was going to find the cabinet minister of Mt. Fragrant Province, the phone in his pocket rang. Thus, he grabbed his phone and checked it.

It was Benedict.

Was there a situation?

David quickly answered the phone. "Captain, there's a situation in the southern district," Benedict's voice came through the phone. "Notify others and send me the location," David said directly. "Alright!"

David looked at the location on the phone, determined the direction, and quickly went to the destination.

Southern District of Fragrant City.

Thousands of people were gathered at a large plaza. Benedict was also hiding among the thousands of people here. He found that there were even families of four or five here.

There were also children down to the age of ten and old people in their 60s and 70s,

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

They were all participating in this. An old man was on the platform in the middle, teaching thousands of people to do various moves.

Well... It looked similar to radio calisthenics.

The old man claimed that if they were consistent with doing these moves, they could become martial artists.

Furthermore, the advantage of being a martial artist was that they would be immune to all diseases and untouchable, and it could even prolong their life. Benedict knew right away that these people were liars. If being a martial artist was this simple, then things would be so easy. All of them had been systematically trained by the family elders since childhood, and they could only achieve what they had today thanks to their extraordinary talent. These ordinary people with almost no talent, ranging in age from ten to sixty or seventy years old, could not achieve anything even with training.

Let alone doing such useless moves.

He could feel the seriousness of this matter, so he quietly notified David and several other people halfway to God Rank.

After a set of moves was done, the old man asked everyone to sit down.

Then, he started teaching them mind training. When everyone concentrated on following the teacher to practice mind training, there was a sudden commotion behind Benedict. He looked back.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 763

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 763

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 763

A group of middle-aged women wanted to barge into the plaza along with some old people and children.

There were at least hundreds of them.

At this time, dozens of martial artists rushed forward.

There was a fierce conflict between the two sides.

Naturally, these women, children, and elderlies were not opponents of the martial artists. Soon, they were savagely beaten down by the martial artists. "I'm looking for my daddy!" A seven or eight-year-old girl quietly passed through the crowd, entered the plaza, and stood beside Benedict. "Daddy! Daddy! Where are you? Don't you want me and Mommy anymore?" In the originally quiet plaza, the little girl's voice was particularly prominent, and it also attracted the attention of the thousands of people in the plaza.

The old man on the platform also stopped teaching and asked, "Who is this little girl's father?"

"I am, Sir!" A man in his thirties stood up and replied. "Why did you come here before you dealt with your family? What did I tell you all?" The teacher asked angrily. "I'm sorry, Sir! I explained it to my family, but they all said that I was crazy. They didn't believe that you were so powerful, Sir. Not only did they refuse to come with me, but they even tried to stop me from coming, so I came in secret," said the man. "Daddy! Daddy!" When the little girl saw the man standing up, she hurried over and hugged the man. "Daddy, come home with us! Mommy and I can't live without you," the little girl sobbed. "Joy, trust Daddy. Practice with Daddy and you too can become a martial artist. You will be super strong 1 and invulnerable," the man said enthusiastically.

"Daddy, I don't want to be super strong, and I don't want to be invulnerable. I want you to come home with Mommy and me. I want to go to school."

"What's so good about studying? Don't go to school. Only by practicing with the teacher can you change your destiny." "I don't want to, I don't want to! Mommy said he's a liar and he tricked Daddy here, and now, Daddy doesn't want us anymore," the little girl shook her head repeatedly before pointing at the old man on the platform and said.

"You... You fool, how dare you insult the teacher!"

After the man finished speaking angrily, he slapped the little girl in the face. Slap!

The little girl fell to the ground after she was slapped. Five fingerprints immediately appeared on her face. One could see how strong he was. "Boohoo!"

The little girl wailed loudly.

At this time, the old man on the platform spoke.

"Let the little girl's mother in here."

A woman in her thirties was let in. When she heard the cries of the little girl, she hurried over. Only then did she see her daughter lying on the ground with five prominent fingerprints on her face.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

"Joy, what happened? Who slapped you?"

"Mommy, it's okay. Daddy didn't slap me, I fell." The little girl was still defending her father at this time. The woman raised her head and glared at the man with blood-red eyes. "You scumbag, you don't deserve to be Joy's father." After she said that, she stood up and waved her hands madly to beat the man. "Go away, you crazy woman!"

The man pushed his wife away The woman stopped entangling with the man and instead, she looked at the old man on the platform.

Then, she knelt and said while crying, "Sir, please give me back my husband. He never hit Joy before. He would play with Joy every day after getting off work, and he's very family orientated. However, ever since he joined you, he seems to be a different person. He has become irritable, and he no longer cares about us. Please, I will give you all the money in the family to let him go, okay?" "You misunderstood. I did not force your husband to do anything, and we will not restrict your husband's freedom. As long as he wants to leave, he can leave at any time," the old man said slowly. "Honey, let's go home, okay? Our family was so happy in the past. Let's go back to our previous life, okay?" The woman looked at her husband and pleaded.

"I won't go back. I want to train with the teacher and become a martial artist. I want to be untouchable, invulnerable to all diseases, and prolong my life. You and Joy should train with me too. This way, our family can stay together forever," the man said fanatically. "Honey, wake up! This is only a show and there's no such thing in reality! He's lying to you!" "You fool! You crazy woman, don't insult the teacher, or else, don't blame me for not going easy on you!"

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 764

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 764

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 764

"You can take your husband away, but you can't question my greatness. Since you don't believe in my ability, I'll show you," the old man looked at the woman and said,

If it weren't for so many people at the scene, he would have asked someone to exterminate the mother and daughter long ago.

She even dared to bring people to the scene to cause trouble.

She was so reckless.

"I don't want to see it! You used this method to confuse all these people."

After the woman finished speaking, she stood up and looked at the thousands of people present and said, "Everyone, wake up! Think about how happy your family was. It was these people that destroyed your families and caused you to be separated from your wife and children. Stop trusting him. Go back to your family! Your family and children are waiting for you.”

The woman’s words echoed in the plaza. It also started to move the hearts of some people. What was the purpose of them coming here again? Could they really be invulnerable to all diseases and live longer? They had trained for a few days, yet they did not feel anything. Was this real or just a lie? “How presumptuous! Get them away from here!” The old man on the platform roared angrily. Immediately, several martial artists came forward, ready to take the mother and daughter away.

“Honey!

“Daddy!”

The mother and daughter looked at the man.

The man also knew that they would be tortured if they were taken away by these people, so he hesitated in his heart.

He recalled his happy family. In the end, he said, “Sir, please spare my wife and daughter.” “She dares to question me in front of so many people. If I don’t teach her a lesson, how can I continue to be your teacher in the future?” The old man said with a gloomy face.

“Then... I’ll take them away from here,” the man hesitated before saying. He still could not stand idly by and watch his beloved wife and daughter being taken away by the other party.

Once they were taken away, it was unknown what kind of torture they would suffer. “Honey, let’s go home together,” the woman said happily. “Daddy, we can finally go home together,” the little girl said happily.

“You want to leave now? It’s too late! Take all of them away and teach them a harsh lesson. Make sure they understand the consequences of insulting me,” the old man said. “Yes, Elder!” Several martial artists said respectfully.

This chapter is provided by . Visit for daily update.

Benedict could not watch this any longer. He could not allow these people to continue committing outrages.

David had not arrived yet, so he had to take action. He had no choice even if he would alarm the other party. What if this family of three was taken away and something bad happened to them? Those were three lives. He was very clear about the temperament of some martial artists. They always thought that ordinary people were ants, while they were gods who were aloof and remote from the world, controlling the lives and deaths of ordinary people. There was a reason why Somerland refused to let them resurface. Once they got in contact with ordinary people, the balance of the entire society would be disrupted.

A few martial artists were about to take the family of three away.

Suddenly, a figure blocked them. Boom boom boom!

The martial artists who were about to take action were sent flying after Benedict punched them.

The sudden accident also shocked everyone present.

“Who are you?” The old man on the platform asked deeply. While Benedict was about to speak, a voice could be heard.

Avoid other websites because I am the only one who worked hard. I'm providing the translated version of the novel: When His Eyes Open. If You guys interested to read this novel then follow this website ". Also Please bookmark this page to get next update or join Telegram to touch with me. Thank you