"Who's that?"

Cillian was startled. So, he quickly stood up and asked.

Elton and Trey also stood up nervously, looking for the source of the sound.

Immediately after that, hundreds of people stood up with panicked expressions on their faces.

They all knew they were on the run.

Right now, they were worried that the people from Somerland had caught up with them.

"I am David Lidell, captain of the Somerland Discipline Team, and I am here to judge you," David showed himself and said while standing on a huge tree branch.

Cillian, Elton, and Trey ignored David.

They were still looking for something.

Of course, they knew who David was.

He was the captain of Somerland's newly formed discipline team.

He was just a beginner God Ranker and there were so many people here who could outperform David.

David was not qualified enough to judge them.

So, there must be other people following behind him.

They wanted to find where those people were so that they could see who they were.

As long as it was not one of the two peak God Rankers, they were not afraid of anyone who came forward.

After looking for a long time, there was still no trace of anyone but David 'Does this mean David came alone?'

They did not believe it.

A beginner God Ranker was coming to judge the Dominic family and the Star Alliance, the two major forces?

Others aside, any of the three late God Rankers among them could kill David in an instant.

"David, don't blame us for not giving you a chance, tell the others to come out now. Let's see if you are qualified to judge us," Cillian stared at David and said.

"There's no one else, just me," David replied with a blank face.

If he had not seen that these people had killed all those ordinary folk in the village, he would have already killed all of them by now.

Why would he bother talking nonsense to them?

"Just you? Hahaha! Do you think you can judge us? David, you overestimate yourself too much. It turns out that the captain of the Somerland Discipline Team is an arrogant and ignorant person," Cillian said with a guffaw.

"How would you know if you don't try?"

"Go on then! I'm standing right here."

"Alright, but before that, I want to ask you a question."

"Hurry up, I'll send you to hell after you're done to show you know the gap between the God Rank guardians."

"Why did you kill the ordinary folks in the village ?" David asked in a calm voice, his eyes narrowed.

Although his tone was calm, at this moment he was thinking about the pile of charred corpses and the small bodies among them.

The anger in his heart was about to explode.

"Why? It was to give Somerland a warning to not cross the line, of course. We are not to be provoked, otherwise, if you cannot kill all of us, then those scorched ordinary folks will just be the start. We will hide in the dark and attack ordinary folk in Somerland at any time, making Somerland restless. I want to see how the two peak God Rankers in Somerland can oversee such a large area of land. I can spare your life today so you can go back and tell Mason Stefani not to make us angry, otherwise, everyone will have a hard time. We are determined to burn our boats, but if Somerland lets us live, we will never step into the land of Somerland ever again,” Cillian replied loudly.

To be honest, he really did not want to be an enemy of Somerland right now.

However, he had no choice, what was done was done.

Who would have thought that Somerland was so good at hiding their plans?

By the time he knew it, it was already impossible to reconcile.

Hence, he could only threaten Somerland in this extreme way.

If you try to kill me, I will kill the ordinary folk in Somerland to make life in Somerland a living hell.

Of course, if you let me live, I would also play by the rules of the game and never step foot into Somerland again. “So, they don’t have any grievances with you, and you only did it because you wanted to give Somerland a show of resistance?” David asked, suppressing the anger in his heart.

“Exactly. Go back and tell Mason what I said, he will know how to choose. You can go now,” Cillian waved his hand and said.

“All of you agreed with that, right? As long as Somerland doesn’t wipe you out, then you will hide in the dark and attack ordinary folk in Somerland and make life in Somerland a living hell, is that right?” David looked at the other hundreds of people and asked.

“Mr. Cillian’s words represent the entire Dominic family. There are no cowards in the family, so if Somerland dares to hunt us down, even if there is only one of us left, we will take revenge on Somerland. If we can't defeat you, we will kill ordinary folk," said a mid-God Ranker from the Dominic family.

"Yes, we support the head of the family."

"We support the family!"

Everyone in the Dominic family shouted loudly. "What about you guys from the Star Alliance ? What do you say?" David asked again.

"Since an alliance has been formed between us, we will naturally advance and retreat together with the Dominic family," Elton said.

"We support Mr. Elton!"

"We support Mr. Elton!"

The people of the Star Alliance also shouted in unison.

"Got it." David nodded.

"Get lost if you understand. Otherwise, you won't be able to if I change my mind," Cillian said.

"Since all of you are so determined, then I will send you all to hell today. You will be the burial offerings to those who died for Somerland. Lastly, let me tell you something, you will have to pay with your life if you kill someone in Somerland."

The place suddenly fell silent.

Immediately afterward, there was a huge burst of laughter.

"Hahaha!"

"Send us to hell? You?" Cillian also laughed.

"Yes, me."

After David finished speaking, he released his energy together with his mind power.

Boom!

It suppressed the crowd instantly.

Everyone's laughter stopped abruptly.

They felt as if they were carrying a mountain weighing hundreds of millions of pounds.

David did not hold back at all.

This was also the first time he fully displayed the prestige of a peak God Ranker.

His mind power had reached God level 8 and with his physique that was at the God level limit, so he was already at the peak of peak God Rank.

Under his full strength, more than 95% of the people present died while bleeding from all of their orifices because they could not bear this powerful pressure.

Even though some of the remaining ones could endure it, they had to exert all of their strength and their faces were flushed red.

If they were a little careless and they failed to catch their breaths, they would die just like the others.

Only a dozen or so God Rank guardians could endure it.

They were terrified at that moment.

The energy that David just unleashed killed more than 90% of the people, and even those who were clenching their teeth and persisting did not seem to be able to last any longer.

How was this possible?

It was beyond their imagination.

"You... W-Who are you?" Cillian asked while shivering.

Even though he could withstand the pressure, this person was invincible.

David was definitely a supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank and he was not an ordinary peak God Ranker.

Cillian even thought that David might have stepped into another realm.

Otherwise, he would not be able to do this.

It was just too powerful.

He could not come up with the slightest thought to resist.

'How can there be such a person?

'Judging from his face, he's not that old either.

'Who is this person?

'Could it be that he's Silver Face who went to the Mosley family alone and severely injured Marlon? 'It must be!

David did not speak.

He turned his head and glanced at the seven or eight young women in the crowd.

He noticed them at first glance.

Therefore, he controlled his strength so that it would not affect them.

He saw that these women had dull eyes and ragged clothes, and it was obvious that they had been greatly hurt and physically assaulted.

They should be from the village.

Their originally peaceful and happy lives were destroyed by these scumbags. A happy family was torn apart and ruined.

While he was seething, David's mind power skyrocketed to the extreme and he shouted, "Kneel!"

Thud thud thud thus thud!

Those people who could only barely support themselves could no longer bear it anymore as they were instantly crushed into the ground. Their internal organs were shattered and they died while bleeding from their orifices.

Only twenty or thirty people were still alive from the team of hundreds of people from the two major forces.

These people were all kneeling on the ground at that moment, looking at David who was in a rage. They were shivering all over and looked terrified.

Cillian and the other three late God Rankers could not wrap their heads around this.

The gap between late God Ranker and peak God Ranker was so big David was obviously a peak God Ranker.

Therefore, even if he was a level higher than them, they would not be David's match.

However, it was unbelievable that they could not resist at all against David's strong energy.

They did not know that David energy was different from other peak God Rankers.

It was because David infused his mind power that was close to the God level limit to it.

Cillian and the other's mind power was miles away from David's.

Under the pressure of David's mind power, their confidence would be shaken from the bottom of their hearts, and they would get the idea that they were not David's opponent.

Hence, they would not even be in the mood to take action.

They would only feel fear of David.

David came down from the tree and looked at the crowd of people kneeling on the ground.

"The Dominic family and the Star Alliance, you have brought disaster to Somerland, and you completely disregard the lives of others, so, you should be punished for your crimes. I, David, will try you on behalf of Somerland today. Do you have any objections?"

David walked slowly as he spoke.

It was as if he was walking in sync with everyone's heartbeats, which made them feel extremely uncomfortable.

"I do! They are just gnats. So what if I kill them? Martial artists are the masters of this world. How can the lives of these gnats be compared to ours? David, you have already killed so many people, yet you can't spare us? You are the one who is truly disregarding the lives of others," Cillian retorted loudly.

"Yes! We object too! Why should we die after killing some ordinary folk while you killed hundreds of people, yet nothing will happen to you? At the end of the day, it's all about who is better at fighting. So, what's the difference between you and us?" Elton exclaimed.

David had already walked up to the three at this time.

"If ordinary folk are gnats in your eyes, then why can't you just be gnats in mine? In my opinion, their lives are a hundred times more valuable than yours. You are just a group of self-righteous and aloof scumbags."

David looked at the three late God Rankers kneeling in front of him and said expressionlessly.

Cillian and the gang knew that they would die if they did not fight back

They looked at each other and decided to give it a go.

Only then would they have a glimmer of hope.

David should never have imagined that they would fight back.

Even a peak God Ranker could be killed when they were caught off guard.

After all, there were two people from the Dominic family here, and they were born to be masters of hidden weapons, not to mention they were late God Rankers.

They would be superb in handling hidden weapons.

In the battle of the same level, they were definitely the most terrifying existence.

When David walked in front of them, the three of them resisted David's pressure and suddenly charged forward.

They blocked David off in three directions and directly used the trick that would do the most damage to him.

“Rainstorm Pear Needles!”

The two late God Rankers of the Dominic family used the most lethal hidden weapon in the Dominic family.

Rainstorm Pear Needles.

A total of twenty-seven special silver nails were shot at extreme speed without hesitation.

One had to know that even if they were facing other opponents of the same level, the members of the Dominic family would not shoot all twenty-seven silver nails at once.

David’s threat was too great, which is why they unreservedly used their biggest cards.

This move would determine their success or failure.

If they succeeded, they would be free, but if they failed, they would die.

This was such a close distance.
