

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 81

Chapter 81

David and Charles were led by the manager of Fuller Golden Sands to the luxurious private room on the top floor.

As the largest entertainment center in River City, this place was not only a place for guests to have fun, but also had a rooms for guests to talk about business quietly.

“Come, Dave, let me introduce you, these are the SCC members in River City. This is my sister Sandy, this i s Vivian White, this is...”

Charles introduced the members of the River City SCC to David one by one. With David's mental power maximized, he could remember all of them in one go.

The twelve people here were not all the members of the River City SCC. The other three were unable to come because they were not in River City.

David scanned the people present.

Sandy was dressed like a delinquent, and she was only about 17 or 18 years old.

Vivian should be about the same age as him, but she was also wearing heavy makeup.

‘Don't these kids from rich families need to go to school?’

‘If they did, which school would accept them for wearing outfits like this?’

He did not know that the school belonged to the Luther family, so who would dare to control her?

“I wonder what you are doing in River City now, Dave? I don’t think I’ve seen you here before.” Charles asked.

After hearing that, everyone present pricked up their ears to hear David’s answer.

After all, it was not easy to become a high-tier member!

Moreover, no one would even consider spending 10 billion directly to upgrade to a high-tier member.

There was no such precedent of this rule since the establishment of SCC, and only two to three people had upgraded to middle-tier members with 1 billion dollars before this.

There were not many people present who could come up with 10 billion in cash.

They could do so many things with 10 billion.

Wouldn’t it be better to invest in a project, buy a piece of land, or even buy a building?

What else could they do with a high-tier membership aside from boasting about it?

Unless they had so much money that they did not know what to do with, no one would do such a thing.

If David came to River City suddenly, then with his status of a high-tier member was indicative that the people behind him were very powerful.

In this case, if the various forces in River City refused, then they would be reshuffled. Thus, they had no choice but to listen carefully.

There were so many benefits in River City and suddenly, one person wanted to come and take a share of it. Naturally, this would inevitably reduce the others' cut,

Even Charles thought so.

Before David, he was the only high-tier member of River City SCC and he was the eldest son of the Luther family, who could be said to be the most powerful family in River City

If David really came to River City suddenly and had the idea of staying here, then he had to pay close attention as he did not have any idea about David's background.

The people who could become high-tier members in SCC were not easy to deal with.

The most terrifying things were often the unknown.

“Charles, I'm attending university in River City now! However, I have an investment company. If you guys need funds, you can come to me. I will only invest in the company and I will never participate in management,” David replied.

Only hold shares and not participate in management or decision-making?

Now, everyone present was intrigued.

Wasn't this free money ?

Was there such a good thing in the world ?

“I wonder, what projects are you interested in ? We might be able to collaborate!”

Charles was also interested.

“Any project is fine! I'm not picky.”

“Well, we should find a time to have a good chat!”

David received several following requests at once, and since he was here to offer money, they would naturally not refuse this.

No one would doubt that David did not have this ability. After all, was not easy to get upgraded to a high tier member in SCC.

However, these people also had doubts.

Was it possible that David was deliberately giving out money first to get on their good sides and then achieve his goals ?

In this case, they would still need to consider whether to work with him.

In reality, David just wanted to spend the money as soon as possible. He wanted to save more lavish points and see if there were any new functions in the system.

At this time, David said, “Don't worry, I have absolutely no intention of advancing into River City and I don't want to steal the goodies of River City from you all. I just want to give you some money. If you are worried, you can write it on the contract. I will not participate in management no matter how many shares I hold.”

“Dave, you’re hilarious,” Charles said awkwardly.

He previously had such an idea.

David smiled and did not answer.

Since his mind power had reached the limit, not only had his senses been enhanced, but his IQ had also improved, so he could naturally sense the fear of these people.

I’ m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 82

Chapter 82

Therefore, he made this clear to reassure them. He did not believe that these people would reject him when he wanted to give them money.

“Since you said so, I’ll stop being pretentious. River City has been stable for many years, and I don’t want to cause trouble again. I hope you understand, Dave.”

“Of course! I’m still going to say the same thing, I’ll only invest, and I won’t participate in management. I won’t advance into River City, so you can rest assured. If you need funds, you can come to me at any time.”

“Alright, since you’re so direct about this, I welcome you on behalf of all the members of River City SCC!! hope we have more opportunities for cooperation in the future.”

After this, naturally, everyone was happy.

Many people who had projects in hand but lacked funding began to introduce themselves to David.

Just like what David said, no one would reject free money.

On the other hand, David just wanted to spend money in exchange for lavish points.

When everyone was chatting happily, Paul knocked on the door and came in. Then, he whispered a few words into David's ear.

David frowned

He said to Charles, "Charles, Paul said that there are masters in the private room next door!"

"Masters? What kind of master?" Charles asked.

"A master that even Paul is not sure if he can defeat. At the very least, the man is no weaker than Paul," David replied.

"Oh?"

Charles was taken aback and looked at Paul, who was standing behind David.

The first time he saw this person, he could feel a strong pressure from him.

If he could easily defeat Six Camden, his strength should not be lower than the two uncles in his family.

Hence, he immediately figured that David might be the first person sent by the big family to kick start a new project in River City.

However, now that David had made his intentions clear, it appeared that he did intend to encroach into River City

Now, such a master had shown up.

Since when did River City have an abundance of masters of this level?

Charles still felt that he should take a look.

If a master of this level was hiding in River City, then he should have a very strong deterrent. He had to learn the origin of the other party,

After all, River City was the Luther family's territory.

"Let's go, Dave. Let's go and get to know him."

Charles got up and walked out first. Then, he gave Sandy a look before leaving.

The group came to the door of the private room next door, but were blocked by a middle aged man,

Paul stood directly in front and confronted the middle aged man,

The aura they emitted suffocated all of the SCC members.

Except, of course, Charles and David. Charles shouted directly at the door, "May I know which master has come to River City? Please allow little old me to play host."

Soon, a voice came from inside.

“Mac, let them come in.”

The man named Mac pushed the door open and walked in. Charles and the rest followed suit.

They saw two young people sitting in the private room.

David looked and saw that one of them was Howard Jackson, the president of the student council in South River University and also the most handsome guy in the university,

David did not know the other person, who looked a few years older than Howard.

Mac walked behind this person and stood still.

“I wonder what your name is. What are you doing in River City?” Charles asked.

“Do I need to report to you what my name is or where I am going, Mr. Luther?”

This person did not answer Charles, and instead, returned with a question of his own.

“I will not interfere if you want to go anywhere else, but since you’re here in River City, I still have to know.”

“What an awe-inspiring authority, Mr. Luther. Well then, listen closely.”

The young man stood up and walked in front of Charles, Then, he said each word slowly, “I am Zachary Quinn from the Quinn family in Capital City!”

Zachary Quinn from the Quinn family in Capital City ?

Zachary Quinn from the Quinn family ?

Charles’ pupils contracted and he asked weakly, “Zachary Quinn, one of the eight great fighters from Faction in Capital City ?

I’ m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 83

Chapter 83

When the SCC members behind Charles heard that he was Zachary Quinn, one of the eight great fighters of the T Faction in the Capital City, they all looked at the young man opposite Charles in shock!

Capital City T Faction and Springfield SCC were old rivals,

The Springfield SCC was originally established to stop the expansion of the Capital City T Faction to the south,

The two forces were like fire and water.

The eight great fighters of T Faction in Capital City were legendary figures. The SCC never expected them to appear in front of them right now.

“Oh ? I guess Mr. Luther knows who I am ! I thought the Capital City T Faction didn’t interest you anymore,” Zachary said.

“Zachary, you’re one of the eight great fighters in the T Faction of Capital City, but you came here unannounced, what’s your purpose?” Charles asked after coming back to his senses.

He was indeed surprised.

The eight great fighters of the Capital City T Faction.

That was equivalent to the level of the core members of Springfield SCC.

However, he was not afraid. This was not only the SCC’s territory but also the Luther family’s territory.

No matter how powerful the opponent was in the north, this was the south, and this was River City. Even if a dragon came here, it would still need to bow its head to Charles.

“Mr. Luther, I don’t need to report to you where I want to go. You are not qualified for that, and if I really did have an ulterior motive, would I bring only one person?”

Zachary did not want to cause a conflict with Charles. After all, this was the other party’s territory, and he only brought one person, so he added that explanation at the end.

Otherwise, as one of the eight great fighters of the Capital City T Faction, he would not have said so much to Charles. Charles’s status was simply not high enough.)

He came here because he was doing business in the North River Province, and while he was on the way, he stopped by to ask Howard about Luna, before he unexpectedly ran into the other party.

If not, he could have already left.

Luna was the third daughter of the Shorons, a hidden aristocratic family.

The Shorons and the Quinns both intended for them to date and then form a marriage between the two families

Luna came to the South River Province for university and Howard was sent by Zachary to help him monitor Luna. At the same time, he could help him drive away any potential suitors around Luna.

He was Zachary's woman, and no one was allowed to even look at her.

"Zachary, I don't care what your purpose is, I hope you can leave River City as soon as possible, otherwise, even if you are one of the eight great fighters in the T Faction, I will still intend to try out your strength today," Charles said.

Zachary smiled. He had not been threatened like this in a long time, and he was even threatened by a high tier member of the SCC.

If he left now, how would he continue to stay in T Faction? And how would he have the prestige to continue to serve as one of the eight great fighters in Ts Faction?

He wanted to show some respect to Charles so that they could get out of this awkward situation, but he did not expect the other party to not give him such a chance.

If that was the case, there was nothing else to say.

“Mr. Luther, I’ve already given you enough respect. If you keep challenging me like this, don’t blame me for bullying you. So what if you’re from the Luther family? It’s just a small family living in one city. I, Zachary Quinn, don’t care about it at all.”

“Alright, alright, alright, my family can’t compare to yours, but I still have to give it a try today. I want to see how strong the eight legendary fighters in T Faction of Capital City are!”

Charles said alright thrice to show the anger in his heart,

How dare Zachary not take his family seriously? So what if he was one of the eight great fighters in T Faction? He had to teach a severe lesson to the other party today. Otherwise, Zachary would look down on the Luther family.

At this time, Sandy brought the two bodyguards from the Luther family over.

“Charlie!” Sandy yelled.

“Mr. Luther!” The two bodyguards also called out.

“Guys, please take action to correct the name of the Luther family lest some people look down on us and think that there is no one worth respecting in my family.”

“Yes, Mr. Luther!” The two bodyguards replied at the same time,

“Mac, go play with them,” Zachary said to the middle-aged man behind him.

“Yes, sir!”

Mac finished speaking and walked in front of Zachary. The two bodyguards of the Luther family also stepped forward.

Everyone else stepped aside to give them enough space

Boom!

The three attacked at the same time. Fists collided with feet and even a small explosion was produced in the air, showing the strength of the trio.

Mac single-handedly resisted the attack of the two bodyguards from the Luther family, seemingly doing so with ease. Bang! Thud!

The three of them punched each other, making two loud sounds.

Mac stood still.

However, the two bodyguards of the Luther family staggered a few meters backward.

It was clear who had the upper hand, was also extremely shocked as watched from the side. The two bodyguards were attacking at the same time, yet were no match for Mac.

Charles

“Mac, end this quickly,”

Zachary said at the back.

“Yes, sir,” Mac replied.

The two bodyguards of the Luther family glanced at each other and both saw the shock in the other’s face.

The two then nodded and attacked Mac from both sides at the same time.

One would punch Mac’s upper body while one would do a leg sweep to attack Mac’s lower body.

The two of them had been working together for many years, and their combined attacks would definitely be more powerful than when they attacked individually.

Mac was still standing his ground.

When the two were next to him, he suddenly exerted a force through his feet to block the leg sweeping attack. At the same time, he clenched his right fist with all his strength and slammed it into another person’s fist

Thump!

Everyone watched as the man was directly thrown against the wall of the private room. Then, he vomited a mouthful of blood.

What ?

The onlookers were horrified.

They only staggered backward when they were exchanging punches.

How was he sent flying right now ?

Was the opponent hiding his strength ?

The other bodyguard did not expect that Mac could injure his partner while blocking his leg sweep. However, it was too late by the time he wanted to retreat.

After Mac sent one of them flying, he turned around and kicked the other one with the other foot.

Thud!

There was another loud noise, and the remaining bodyguard was kicked directly into the corner.

If he had not blocked his chest with his hands just now, he would have suffered horrendous injuries. Now, both of his hands were broken.

“Vin!

“Rock!”

Charles and Sandy ran to the two men at the same time and helped them up.

“Are you a master in the Tiger Rank ?”

Rock, who was helped up by Charles, asked.

Mac did not answer.

Instead, he went back straight to Zachary's side.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 84

Chapter 84

A master in the Tiger Rank.

David was taken aback.

It was the first time he had heard this.

Except for David, all the SCC members present were shocked when they heard that.

This was a level that ordinary people could never reach.

Some people might have consumed too many novels or television series, so they felt that all the rankings were made up and that there was no such thing in the real world.

However, there was only one list in the global underground community.

Anyone who could put their name on this list would be a top master in the world.

Tiger Rank was one of those lists.

“So, what do you think, Mr. Luther? The only master in your family, Old Master Luther, is in his 70s this year, right? If he’s gone, do you think your family will be as well-off as it is now?” Zachary teased with a smile.

“Zachary, it’s not up to you to worry about what will happen to the Luther family. I won’t let you think that I, Charles Luther, is an easy target, so I’ll make you leave something of yours behind today.”

Charles pulled out a gun and pointed it at the other party,

However, he pointed the gun at Mac behind Zachary.

He really did not dare to do anything to Zachary.

The Quinns were an established family with a profound background in Capital City; they were simply not comparable to the Luther family.

If Zachary was seriously injured or even died in River City, then the Luther family might be wiped out in an instant.

He only blocked Zachary to teach him a lesson—he would not really do anything to him.

If he did not do anything today and word about this got out about how the senior management of Capital City T Faction swaggered through the door of his house while he, a high-tier member of Springfield SCC, did not even dare to do anything, then he would become the laughing stock of the entire SCC. He would forever lose the chance to be promoted to become a core member of SCC.

Zachary was right.

His grandfather was in his 70s and his health had started to decline.

So far, no one in his family was able to hold up the entire family alone.

Thus, he had to become a core member of SCC so that he could stop the decline of his family.

That was why he rushed forward even though he knew that the other party was one of the eight great fighters of the Capital City T Faction. It was because he was putting on a show for the members of SCC.

If he failed, it would show that he at least had the courage to go head-to-head with the eight great fighters of the T Faction and was not a coward who did not dare to do anything.

If he succeeded, it would greatly help him in his ambition of becoming a core member of SCC.

Because of this, he had to act like this, regardless of if he won or lost,

As long as he kept Mac, who was standing behind Zachary, here, then he would win,

When Zachary saw Charles pointing his gun at Mac behind him, his expression changed.

The grin of his face was now replaced with seriousness,

Both Capital City T Faction and Springfield SCC had a tacit understanding that firearms were not allowed in a conflict

Now, Charles dared to point a gun at them.

“Mr. Luther, do you know the consequences of what you’re about to do?”

Charles did not answer.

“Mr. Luther, don’t!”

Rock, who was standing beside Charles, also stopped him.

He wanted to tell Charles that masters in the Tiger Rank were no longer afraid of low-end firearms like pistols.

However, it was too late.

For the sake of the family, Charles no longer hesitated and pulled the trigger.

Bang!

A gunshot silenced the entire room.

Mac, who was supposed to collapse from the gunshot, was nowhere to be seen.

“Paul!” David exclaimed suddenly

His mind power was upgraded to the maximum, so his sixth sense was very strong.

He could see Mac easily dodging Charles’ bullet before he rushed toward Charles. At the same time, he also saw the murderous intent in Mac’s eyes.

He wanted to kill Charles!

Paul stood behind David, and he was the closest to Charles. That was why David called his name so he could save Charles.

When Paul heard David's voice, he reacted quickly and immediately moved in front of Charles. Then, he ran toward Mac.

After Mac dodged Charles' bullet, he did not hesitate to run toward Charles with eyes that were filled with murderous intent.

'How dare you point your gun at Mr. Quinn? I have to kill you!'

Bang!

Another loud sound resonated in the private room. This one was much louder than the gunshot earlier.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 85

Chapter 85

The sound was generated by vibration. The vibration was created when the two went collided with each other, compounded by the fact they were enclosed in a private room.

Therefore, except for the few people with a certain foundation, the other ordinary people covered their ears and had pained looks on their faces.

The two figures quickly bounced away after contact.

Mac staggered five or six steps backward before he stopped.

Paul also staggered five or six steps backward. He even knocked Charles to the ground behind him.

'Charlie!'

Sandy hurried over to help Charles up. When Charles got up, a mouthful of blood spurted out of his mouth.

He was only hit by Paul's retreating body in the duel between the two Tiger Rank masters, but his internal organs were injured.

The strength of the Tiger Rank masters was truly terrifying.

"Charlie, why are you vomiting blood? Are you alright?" Sandy asked, looking at Charles with tears in her eyes.

"Sandy, I'm fine."

Charles was also pale now.

After regaining his senses, he looked at David with gratitude. If David had not asked Paul to block in time, he would be a corpse now.

When he calmed down, he recalled what happened earlier and realized he was indeed too impulsive.

It was mainly because Zachary was poking at his weak spot, which blinded him with rage and caused him to pull out his gun.

Now that he thought about it, what would happen if he killed Mac with the gun? He would be breaking the rules of both sides.

Plus, he did not dare to kill Zachary, but Zachary dared to kill him. This was the difference between the status of the two.

Zachary was surprised when he saw both Mac and the guy named Paul staggering backward.

Now, he turned to look straight at David. This person that was on the same level as Mac seemed to have been next to this person the whole time.

"Who are you?" Zachary asked David as he looked at him.

"I am David Lidell, a high-tier member of SCC," David answered.

"You're the newest high-tier member of River City SCC?"

"That's right."

"And you want to stop me?"

"If Mr. Quinn leaves now, then I won't."

"What a joke. Charles broke the rule between T Faction and SCC, and he dared to point a gun at me. He's the first person to ever do that to me, so I have to kill him.

Zachary was indeed mad. As the son of the Quinns in Capital City and also one of the eight great fighters of the T Faction, a gun was being pointed at him by a high-tier member of SCC. If Charles did not die, how would he maintain his reputation?

“There’s nothing to say then. I’m definitely protecting Charles.”

“Mac, go all out,” Zachary said to Mac.

Mac did not say anything after he heard that, and he immediately charged toward Paul.

Paul was not scared either.

The two were fighting again.

Thump!

Bang!

Boom!

Their punches would land every single time.

The entire private room was filled with the loud sound of their punches and kicks. Additionally, there were also explosions in the air that were caused by strong forces.

Aside from David, even top-notch masters like Vin and Rock could not see their actions clearly, let alone the others who could only see the two figures entangling together.

The power of experts on the Tiger Rank was not something an ordinary person could observe.

Bang!

The two suffered punches from each other before jumping away. If one looked at them closely, one would notice that they were both hurt. There was blood flowing out from the corners of their mouths.

Zachary was truly shocked.

Mac’s skills were top rank even among the Quinns. Now, he had met an evenly matched opponent in a small place like River City.

The two had been fighting for so long, and yet the result was unclear.

Plus, Mac was also hurt.

David stared closely at the two that were currently engaged in the fight. If Paul showed any subtle signs that he would be defeated, David would immediately take action.

The last time he fought with Paul, he only used 50% of his strength and he was able to make Paul stagger a few steps backward. He did not know what would happen if he used 100% of his strength.

Right now, he was eager to try it out as he watched the intense fight between the two masters from the Tiger Rank.

The two Tiger Rank masters stood quietly at a distance of more than ten meters apart, as if they were preparing for the final blow.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 86

Chapter 86

Paul and Mac stood more than ten meters apart.

Both were shocked by the strength of the other.

However, they could also see their opponent's fighting intent.

It was not easy to find an evenly matched opponent, and it was even harder to find this kind of opponent that would only attack and not defend.

Mac grew up in an underground wrestling ring, and he learned his various skills from the wrestlers. Later, he joined the army, but because of his withdrawn personality, he offended someone important. Finally, he was rescued by Old Master Quinn and joined the Quinn family.

It was clear that the Quinns acknowledged Mac's ability now that he was assigned to protect the son of the Quinns

On the other hand, Paul was always on the brink of life and death. If he could survive for many years in a foreign country that was constantly enveloped in the flames of war and came back alive, it was not just because of luck.

Both of them were known for their toughness. Their punches would land every single time as neither of them made any attempts to block.

Because of this, both sides suffered some minor injuries, but to them, it was nothing at all.

Now they were readjusting themselves while getting ready to showcase their finishing blow.

The private room fell into a temporary silence.

David originally wanted to make a move, but upon seeing Paul's eyes, he suppressed this thought.

With his keen six senses, he could feel that Paul was excited, and that his blood was boiling.

He yearned for this battle, and he also yearned for a breakthrough.

The Luther family's bodyguards Rock and Vin were also paying close attention to the battle between the two Tiger Rank masters. This was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for them.

Both of them were top-notch masters and they were only one step away from entering the Tiger Rank.

However, even this one step was like a moat which they might never be able to cross in their lifetime.

If they could be inspired by watching the battle between the two Tiger Rank masters, then there might be a chance for them to go further.

Charles, Sandy, and a group of the other SCC members looked at Paul in shock.

They did not expect Paul to have such strength at all. If that was the case, David's background was indeed a little scary. This made them all look at David a little differently.

Suddenly, the two people who were standing quietly moved at the same time.

One could only see two shadows rushing towards each other at a very fast speed before converging in the middle in an instant.

When the two of them met, Mac sank his breath to his lower stomach and pushed out his palm alongside the momentum of his whole body. Then, he shouted loudly in his heart, 'King Kong Palm!'

Paul clenched his right fist in front of his chest. At the moment of contact, he gathered all his strength and punched out, thinking silently in his heart, 'Tiger Cannon Fist!'

Boom!

When the fist and the palm connected, a thunderous sound rang in everyone's ears, with the vibrations causing everyone to feel dizzy. Not only was there a loud noise, but this time, a huge airwave was produced while the two of them tried their best to fight against each other. Even the table and chairs that Zachary and Howard were sitting in earlier were overturned, making everyone feel as if they were in a violent storm. Then came two muffled groans.

Paul and Mac flew backward from force at the same time.

David hurried forward and put his hands on Paul's back to soften the blow that sent him flying.

While on the other side, Zachary also caught Mac's flying body. Mac and Paul spit out large mouthfuls of blood at the same time after stabilizing their bodies. Right now, both of them were a little sluggish. This time, the two of them did their best to cause great harm to each other. At this point, it would be difficult for either of them to recover within the next couple of months.

"Paul, how are you feeling?" David asked as he supported Paul.

"I'm fine, but sir, I won't be able to protect you for a while," Paul said.

"That's fine. You should recover first," David said.

On the other side.

"Mr. Quinn!"

Mac wanted to speak, but was stopped by Zachary, "Mac, you should rest first. Leave the rest to me."

Zachary handed the Mac to Howard so he could help support him. Then, he walked into the center of the private room by himself.

"Charles, do you think you can get away with someone helping you today?" As soon as Zachary's voice fell, the aura from his body instantly radiated outward, then, he drew a soft sword from his waist that glinted coldly in the light.

Before Charles could answer, Zachary disappeared from where he stood.

"Mr. Luther, be careful!"

"Mr. Luther, be careful!"

Rock and Vin shouted at the same time.

The two stood in front of Charles and Sandy together.

At this time, Zachary's attack also arrived.

In reality, Zachary's strength was only at the first-class peak level.

However, Rock and Vin were both seriously injured earlier, so their strength was greatly reduced. They were defeated with two flicks of Zachary's sword the moment he showed up. Then, bloody wounds started to appear on their bodies.

After defeating the two, Zachary did not stop. Instead, he rushed directly in front of Charles and Sandy before stabbing Charles with his sword.

Seeing that the sword in Zachary's hand was about to stab him, Charles closed his eyes and gave up resisting, but Sandy, who was beside him, pushed him away and fell under Zachary's sword herself.

"No!" Charles yelled, his eyes widening.

Sandy pushed him away and fell under Zachary's sword! She wanted to die for him, so how could he let this happen?

The tip of the sword stopped just a centimeter in front of Sandy.

This was not Zachary finding his conscience and wanting to let the siblings go.

Instead, two fingers appeared at the tip of the sword.

These two fingers naturally belonged to David.

Those two fingers stopped the blow from Zachary, a first-class peak master?

Zachary widened his eyes and looked at David in shock.

Not only Zachary, everyone, including Mac, looked at David in disbelief.

"Mr. Quinn, that's enough," David said calmly.

Before Zachary could say anything, Mac, who was standing behind him, spoke.

"Mr. Quinn, let's go."

"Mac!" Zachary still wanted to say something.

"Let's go!" Mac repeated, his expression firm.

Just now, he felt an aura from David that even he would fear.

Zachary had never seen Mac talking to him in such a heavy tone, and he was slightly stunned at that moment.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 87

Chapter 87

Zachary was caught between a rock and a hard place.

If he left right now, he would completely humiliate himself as the son of the Quinns and also one of the eight great fighters of the T Faction.

However, if he did not leave, he feared the consequences. He had never seen Mac talking to him in such a tone. Mac had been by his side for many years, and would never do anything to hurt him.

What should he do ?

Should he leave or should he stay ?

Zachary glanced at everyone in the private room.

Except for David's indifferent expression, everyone else was a little stunned.

The extreme duel of the Tiger Rank masters was indeed thrilling, and while he was amazed, he was also longing for this in his heart.

Zachary felt that he could not leave yet, and even if he could not kill Charles today, he had to teach him a lesson he would never forget.

If he retreated today, besides his prestige, it would also affect his state of mind. He had already reached the peak of being a first-class master. If he wanted to get into the Tiger Rank, he had to have indomitable determination.

The most important thing was that he felt that no one dared to kill him or even seriously hurt him. As the eldest son of the Quinns in Capital City, he had such confidence.

No one in River City could bear the anger of the Quinns in Capital City. Definitely not the Luther family, let alone other families.

Even when Charles was using a gun, he only dared to point it at Mac, not at him.

This was the benefit of having a strong background. He could kill others, but others dared not kill him.

After thinking about that key point, Zachary pushed the sword forward hard with his right hand, trying to pierce Sandy's body.

However, if when he used all of his might, the sword in his hand did not move at all.

How?

How was this possible?

He had exerted all of his strength and yet he could not beat two fingers?

Mac could also tell that Zachary was not planning to leave.

If Zachary did not want to leave, he had no choice either. He was only here to protect Zachary, and now, he only hoped that the Quinns' reputation could scare the other party such that he would not do anything too serious.

"Sir, please spare him. If you do, the Quinns will be eternally grateful!"

Mac quickly said.

David ignored Mac and said to Zachary faintly, "Mr. Quinn, it seems that you're not giving up yet."

Then, he released his hold on the tip of the sword, and, with speed as fast as lightning, pressed his fingers together and flicked the tip of the sword.

Ding!

A crisp voice resonated through the private room.

This was the sound produced by the extremely fast vibration. It travelled into everyone's ears extremely sharply, making them feel as if they were being pierced by countless needles.

Zachary's right hand was also shaken by the extremely fast vibration from the tip of the sword. His whole arm was numb now, and it was as if that arm did not belong to him.

He quickly released the hilt of the sword.

The moment he released the hilt of the sword, the body of the sword could no longer withstand such a rapid vibration and it shattered into countless pieces, scattering on the ground.

Everyone watched this scene in shock, including the two Tiger Rank masters.

David stood indifferently beside Sandy. She had her eyes closed and her face was scrunched. Zachary stood two meters away, clutching holding his right hand with his left hand, his face twisted with pain. Moreover, the fragments of his soft sword laid between them.

Zachary looked at the fragments on the ground in front of him and there was an indescribable shock in his heart. This was a superalloy weapon made with the most advanced technology. It was not an exaggeration to say that it could cut through iron like mud, but now, it had broken into pieces after a single flick.

The strength of this person was simply unimaginable, and he was really scared now. If this person had such strength at such a young age, how strong was the family behind him?

Mac quickly disregarded his seriously injured body, pushed away Howard's support, and quickly stepped forward to stand in front of Zachary.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 88

Chapter 88

Howard stood there watching David, a little distracted.

When he saw David for the first time, he felt that this man was familiar, but he could not remember where he had met him.

It was not until the other party introduced himself as David Lidell that Howard remembered. Wasn't this the guy who was rumored to have vomited blood and fallen into a coma after he was dumped by his girlfriend in the woods beside the field of South River University a few days ago?

He could still find some of David's photos and deeds on his phone.

Although they looked the same, had the same name, and were about the same age, their temperaments were completely different.

He suspected that they were two different people, but how could there be such a coincidence? It was impossible that their age, appearance, and name were the same.

Thus, this meant that this person was David Lidell, a student from his university who vomited blood after he was dumped by his girlfriend. However, he was standing here now with this indifferent temperament. He was not even taking Mr. Quinn seriously.

He felt that this was a little unbelievable.

“Mr. Quinn, do you want to continue?” David asked.

David did not continue.

His purpose was just to save Charles. After all, Charles had helped him and the two were in the same club. Thus, he could not stand by while watching the other being killed. 1

He also did not want to offend Zachary. Although at this moment, he felt that his strength should be quite strong, his background was still far from impressive.

Moreover, there was no rivalry between the two. Zachary wanted to kill Charles, not him.

If someone really wanted to kill him, David felt that he would not hold back. No matter what the background of the opponent was, he would kill them without hesitating. This was the change brought about by strength. Zachary did not say anything. He just stared straight at David with Mac between them.

He could not understand. David was obviously younger than him, but why was he so strong?

Perhaps...

Zachary thought of a possibility.

Only this could explain it all.

Upon thinking of this, Zachary was relieved. Only they could cultivate such talents.

However, he had to report this matter to the T Faction as soon as possible.

Those people had shown up and some of them had already joined SCC.

This was not good news for the T Faction.

“Mac, Howard, let’s go.”

Howard quickly stepped forward to support Mac. Then, the three of them left the private room together.

When Zachary walked to the door of the private room, he turned around, looked at Charles, and said, “Charles, I hope you will have the same good luck the next time we meet.”

Then he said to David, “David, we will meet again.”

After that, the trio left.

Aside from David and Paul, everyone in the private room let out sighs of relief.

They were very stressed by the appearance of the legendary eight great fighters of the Capital City T Faction.

Then, everyone began looking at David in a different light. When they first met him, they stared at him with disdain in their eyes, but now, it was replaced with respect.

He went head-to-head with Zachary, one of the eight great fighters of the T Faction and won. Besides this, he even saved Mr. Luther from his attack. If word about this got out, the entire Sheffield SCC would shake. A powerful man would be respected no matter where he went.

“Dave, my sister and I will never forget you saving us today. From now on, no matter what you need, just tell me and I will never say no.”

“Me too! I won’t say no to anything you ask for either. If anything happens to you in River City, just tell them my name.”

Sandy immediately went back to her delinquent self. “You’re too kind, Charles.”

I’ m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 89

Chapter 89

Zachary and the gang sat in the car. Howard was driving in front while Zachary and Mac sat behind. Normally, Mac would be the one driving, but since he was severely injured, only Howard could drive.

Howard would need to send them back to North River Province.

In the car.

“Mac, what level is David at?” Zachary asked.

He wanted to know the strength of David, who was younger than him.

“Sir, I can’t tell. He only showed an ounce of his aura, but it already horrified me. Plus, I can’t smash the sword with a flick of a finger like him. I think he’s at least at the peak of the Tiger Rank or even higher!”

Mac replied after thinking about it.

“Above the Tiger Rank? H-How is that possible?” Zachary asked in shock.

“Sir, you should know that there are always people who can do better. Some of them are extremely talented. Back when I was in the underground wrestling ring, I met a guy that was not any inferior to David,” Mac explained patiently.

“Mac, do you think I have a chance to reach that level?”

“Sir, you’re pretty talented, so if you are willing to work hard, you’ll be able to do it.”

“However, how much further will they progress once I reach a level like them?”

This time, Mac did not answer.

It was because he did not know how to answer.

There were differences in human beings, just like how someone’s starting line was the goal that others would never be able to achieve in their lifetime.

Some people were born to be very talented. They could reach a super high level with just a bit of hard work

However, others would not have such talent, so no matter how hard they worked, they would always be stuck in the same spot.

That was why he did not know how to answer this question. Zachary was talented, but there was still some disparity between him and those real geniuses.

“Mr. Quinn, I know that guy,” Howard said as he drove.

“Oh? You know him?” Zachary asked.

“Yeah, he’s a student from SRU!”

“A student from SRU?”

“Yeah!”

After that, Howard told Zachary some rumors about David. Then, he also sent the photos he saved on his phone to Zachary.

“So he’s deliberately keeping a low profile on campus!” Zachary asked.

“That should be the case!” Howard answered.

How interesting. He was such a powerful person, but he was pretending to be low profile. He did not even do anything after his girlfriend was stolen from him. What kind of person was he?

David sent Paul to Champion Hospital. Even though it was at night, most of the leaders of the hospital were waiting for them. Because of this, David figured Charles had notified them in advance.

After a full body checkup, they found that there was nothing seriously wrong with Paul’s body. However, there was some damage to his internal organs, so he needed to recuperate for some time.

David asked the hospital to proceed with the hospitalization process. He would not be staying far from his mother’s room, so that way, he could go and accompany his mother whenever he wanted.

He could actually stay right next-door to his mother, but Paul was worried that his mother would be worried if she knew that he was hurt, so he realized it would be better if he stayed a little further from her.

“Paul, you have to recover properly. You can go accompany your mother when you’re free. Don’t think about anything else. After you and your mother are discharged, you can stay in River City. I’ll arrange everything for you,” David said to Paul in the hospital room where he stayed.

“Thank you, sir. I’ll ask two of my friends to replace me while I’m in the hospital. They’ve been traveling abroad with me for many years and they’re not any worse than me,” Paul said.

I' m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang chapter 90

Chapter 90

Those two were his friends who had experienced life and death situations with him, so Paul wanted to help them too.

Back then, the three of them gave all of their money to the family of their friend's who stayed abroad after they came back. So now, their lives were not that great either.

Hence, it would be best if they could work together and fight together for a guy from an aristocratic family like David.

"Oh? You have friends like that? Get in contact with them. Get as many of them as you can. I'll give them the best treatment," David said quickly. Of course, it would be better to have more experts like Paul. He had all the money in the world anyway.

"All of us went abroad together and only three of us came back. The rest of them stayed abroad forever," Paul said in a deep voice.

"My condolences," David patted Paul's shoulder and said.

"Sir, I'm fine. All of us came back from the gates of hell so we won't fret over trifling matters."

"That's good. Call them over tomorrow."

"Yes, sir!"

By the time David went back to South River International Residence, it was already 11 at night.

After he took a light shower, he lay down and played with his phone.

A lot of people had sent him messages.

Tara: (David, when are you free? My parents want to buy you dinner to thank you.)

David: [It's fine. It's nothing.]

Soon after David replied, Tara texted back.

Tara: [It might be nothing to you, but for us it's a huge deal!] David:

[Alright, but I don't have time these two days. Let's wait till next week.]

Tara: (Alright, I'll wait for your call!)

After David finished chatting with Tara, he opened Patrick's message.

Patrick: (Are you alright, Dave? Thanks for what happened today! If you didn't show up, I don't know what would have happened to me and Maddie. Right, how did you know I'm in Room 47 of Fuller Golden Sands Entertainment Center?)

David: [I'm fine. I'm already home and I'm getting ready to rest. Didn't you text me that you're in Room 47 i In the Fuller Golden Sands Entertainment Center and that you were in trouble?]

Patrick: [I didn't! Plus, I have no idea that you kept such a huge secret. With your previous performance, won't I be asking you to come to die with us if I ever call you? Tell me, when are you going to explain everything to me and the boys?]

David was taken aback. If Patrick did not text him asking for help, then who used his phone to send that message?

David: (Take a look at this then.)

David screenshotted the message Patrick sent him and showed it to Patrick.

When Patrick saw the time, he replied.

Patrick: [Judging from the time, I think Maddie's friend was the one who sent this. At that moment, I was kicked and my phone flew out. If that's the case, I should have to thank her. If not, I can't even imagine what would've happened.]

David: Pat, you should comfort Madison. I think she's scared witless now. Let's have dinner once we have time and then I'll tell you guys the situation.]

Patrick: [Of course! We're under the same blanket haha. We're going to wash up now!]

David: [F*ck... You animal!]

Patrick: (Don't be jealous of me! When are you taking Amelia down? You can do it! Alright, I have to go now. Maddie's done showering and I'm going for a second round. I'll thank you properly next time.)

David tossed his phone on the bed as he was too tired to reply to the others. He was too exhausted today, so he would look through them slowly tomorrow.