

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 825

Chapter 825 If she did not love you, she would take everything you did for granted.

Such was the ending of a simp, as all their efforts reduced to nothing in the end. Up until this moment, David still could not say for sure whether Sarah loved him or not.

Perhaps she did, but that was before university started.

They were still in Shu City then, and Sarah had yet to lose herself in the colorful world outside.

What David regretted the most now was distancing himself from Celia.

He thought that there was too big a difference between them and that he was not good enough for her, so he ignored her and chose to be with Sarah instead.

Now that the heavens were giving him another chance, he decided that he would treasure Celia and give her the best he could afford. He would love her only and protect her from any harm.

After the two ladies got out of bed sleepily and washed up, they sat down and started to eat breakfast.

Selena did not dare to look at David at all because she knew Celia must have already talked to David the previous night.

David was not an idiot, so he naturally knew that she was the one who told Celia in the first place.

All Selena felt now was nervousness and fear. After all, considering David's identity and strength, not even the whole King family would survive making an enemy out of him, let alone Selena herself.

However, Selena had already made her move and there was no turning back. David had also promised to help the King family should they need it.

'Someone as powerful as David will keep his promise, right?

'And what if my plan succeeds?

'David still needs children of his own, and a huge family needs a considerable amount of legitimate children.'

There are many children under each branch of the King family, but only a select few of them were actually outstanding

Such was the case for many huge families. By producing many legitimate children, there would be a few among them who were truly outstanding.

A family with too few legitimate children might suffer if those children all happened to be weak, and the family would then slowly meet its end. Even if her father Augustus was deeply in love with her mother, the family had still sought out a few other women for her father to produce more children.

As such, she had seven half – siblings, all from different mothers.

Her father was very unwilling at that time, but he had no choice but to accept the family's order.

This was also why Selena was willing to bet on this.

She did not believe that David and Celia would spend their whole lives together.

They would not have any children like this, and even if David was willing, she knew that Celia would not be.

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 826

Chapter 826 The three of them had breakfast together.

While David and Celia chatted happily over food, Selena did not dare to utter a word.

She would only speak up when Celia asked her a question from time to time.

She had no idea of the stance David had toward her at that moment, so she acted very careful this morning, terrified that should offend this supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank.

Selena had no idea that David already exceeded peak God Rank and had entered a new level of martial arts realm, or she would be more terrified.

While partial Super-God level was only a half-step from peak God level, there was a huge difference between the physical prowess of the two levels. David naturally felt Selena's change of attitude today, but he ignored it and did not take the initiative to talk to her.

In fact, he planned to find an opportunity to question this stunning beauty. He wanted her to know that being beautiful did not mean she was allowed to do whatever she wanted.

Especially not when it came to David, who did not fall under the spell of her allure. "Your breakfast was delicious, David, thank you. We'll be going to school first, then, see you tonight," Celia said after finishing breakfast and putting her utensils down. After that, she got ready to leave for school with Selena.

Selena had wanted to leave a long time ago as she felt extremely uneasy under David's pressuring aura.

Even if he was not directly targeting her, someone as strong as David only had to glance at her indifferently and she would shudder in fear.

At this moment, David gave it some thought and said, "How about I send you two to school instead? I'm free these two days anyway, and there's nothing for me to do at home alone."

"Oh, sure! That'll be great! Let's go, then!" Celia immediately exclaimed with joy. She wanted to spend as much time with David as possible.

David drove the two ladies to school, but when they arrived at the entrance of Greenwood University, David was stunned.

'What's going on?'

Greenwood University's campus entrance was filled with students.

There were at least a few hundred present, possibly even a thousand, and most of them were males with expectant gazes on their faces.

David could not help but feel curious.

He wondered if something was going on this morning, such as some bigshot visiting the campus today. However, the students did not look like they were welcoming powerful bigshots. David had come to Greenwood University many times before, even studying here for a month, but he had never seen such a scene before.

Cars were not allowed inside Greenwood University, so David stopped the car at the entrance and got out to send Celia and Selena to school.

Once the two ladies got out, the crowd immediately was in an uproar.

"They're here, they're here! It's them! Greenwood University's innocent and sweet Goddess, Celia Young, and the ethereal transfer student Selena King! Selena's only transferred over for a few days, and she's already beat every other beauty in Greenwood University, becoming the prettiest girl on campus! She's the dream of every male student on campus." "Holy sh*t! She's so stunning, she reminds me of Helen of Troy. Cr*p, I think I've fallen for her."

"So what if you fell for her? As if she'd ever look at you.

Look at yourself, I'd be surprised if you even find yourself a girlfriend. Selena is everyone's goddess, that means we can only admire her from afar." "Bullsh*t!

What do you mean 'admire from afar'? Women exist to be conquered by men."

"You b*stard! Do you want to die? How dare you think about tainting our goddess! Get him, guys, let him know what happens to those who insult our goddess!"

A group of people rubbed their hands and prepared to fight.

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 828

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 827

Chapter 827 Chaos erupted and before things could get out of hand, that student who had attracted the fury of everyone around immediately came up with a plan to shift everyone's attention away from him. "Look! Who's that man in the driver's seat? I thought both goddesses drove to school themselves? Why's there a man sending them? Don't tell me they live together! Looks like your goddess is already taken."

His plan worked as everyone's attention shifted to David, who himself had only just gotten out of the car.

"No! That's not possible! Our goddesses would never submit to any man. They must be friends and he just happened to be free to fetch them today."

"He might also be their driver."

"Yeah! Driver or not, he's definitely not their boyfriend! My goddess can't already be taken!"

Noisy discussions erupted one after another, all of them about Celia and Selena, the two goddesses of Greenwood University.

David had extremely sharp senses and he managed to hear every word that was being discussed.

He finally understood that the students gathered at the entrance of Greenwood University campus to see Selena.

Not that he understood why, since Selena was just a beautiful lady in his eyes. If Selena's looks were a hundred marks in David's books, Celia was around ninety-seven marks.

However, Celia had a much better personality and easily surpassed Selena in David's heart.

Still, Greenwood University was the world's most distinguished academy. He had always thought that students of the university would focus on shuttling between their dorm, classrooms, and the library.

'Aren't they supposed to be studying for their bachelor's or master's degree?

How do they have so much time to gossip and look at pretty girls?'

Then again, he thought of his own university, SRU, and realized that the students there were pretty much the same.

The moment a popular celebrity visited River City, everyone would fight to rush over.

David originally planned to send the two ladies to campus, but he decided against it after seeing and hearing the crowd. If he truly did send them off at the door, he would probably be pierced into a sieve by the countless bloodthirsty gazes.

"I'll send you off here, Celia, go inside yourselves. I don't want to be killed by the gazes of these hormonal male creatures in your school," David joked. "Alright.

Drive safe, then." "I will. I'll pick you up here after school." "Okay! Bye-bye!" Celia waved David off and linked arms with Selena before walking into Greenwood University under the bright gazes of countless male students.

They were unfazed by the scene since they had to experience this every day, and most of the male students were here to see Selena.

Celia had been studying at Greenwood University for four years, after all, and most students had seen her before.

Selena , however, was a newly transferred student with perfect features, making her appear slightly more beautiful than Celia as well.

Selena had had a celebrity effect, and the school forum as well as class and year group chats were all talking about the new goddess of Greenwood University. Everyone was curious about her now, so countless male students flocked for a chance to see the new goddess.

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 828

Chapter 828 David watched the two ladies enter campus before he got into his car and drove off.

Only for a few Greenwood University students to stand in his way when he started the engine.

One of them stood on David's left.

Knock knock knock!

He knocked on David's car window.

David sighed in exasperation, Helen of Troy indeed.

These people had only come to look for him because they saw him send Celia and Selena to school.

He had a feeling that something would happen, so he did not send them off in the campus, yet they still spotted him anyway.

If he had known that this would happen, he would never have gotten out of the car.

David's identity and status were different now, and he did not wish to get into conflict with anyone else.

No one present was important enough to warrant his explanation, and he did not want to fight with them. Even so, these students were acting high and mighty in front of him, which annoyed him.

Since they had come to trouble him, David rolled his window down and decided to play along.

"How can I help you?" David asked.

"You! What's your relationship with our two goddesses, huh? Why did they come to school in your car?"

David looked the student up and down.

He was not ugly, with a buzzcut, earrings, and donned in branded clothing

The student was probably some trust fund kid.

David felt slightly confused. He did not understand how people like this got into Greenwood University.

In David's understanding, Greenwood University was the world's most distinguished academy, and only geniuses with exceptionally good results got in.

Considering this student's outfit, he did not look like a genius to David

As such, David deduced that this student got in because of his powerful family, like Selena did thanks to the King family.

"I'm f*cking talking to you here! Are you deaf or what?"

The trust fund kid started to get annoyed at David's lack of response.

David frowned in irritation.

If the student spoke nicely, David would be down to answer his questions, but this student was impolite and David wanted to hit him.

"How does that matter to you? Even a dog knows better than to stand in a person's way. Leave before I get angry," David replied expressionlessly. "Pfft! Do you even know who I am? How dare you act so arrogant on my territory! Do you want to die? You think that because you drive a Benz G-Class you're suddenly all big and mighty? Even the nannies at my house can drive G-Wagons. Answer my question or you won't get to leave!" The trust fund kid shouted.

David wanted to laugh.

The trust fund kid had no fear at all.

Even as a member of the Somerland Parliament and being at partial Super – God level whilst protecting billions of Somer descents, David did not dare to claim Greenwood University as his territory.

In terms of cars and money, no one could beat David.

At this moment, David felt the desire to embarrass this trust fund kid, so he replied, "They're both my girlfriends and we're all living together. Can you even imagine how it feels? Have you even experienced it before? Let me tell you, it feels so good! Haha..."

Then, he stepped hard on the gas.

Vroom vroom vroom!

The car sped off, shocking the trustfund kids around his car and causing them to jump back. They watched David drive off and their handsome faces twisted into something wretched.

"F*cking b*stard! Just you wait! I'll find you and make you regret offending me!"

"What do we do now, Mr. Mont?"